Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manuinctured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Bee.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and very purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

A VALENTINE.

FROM A LADY TO —— — ———.

I never have loved thee; yet strange though it be,
So soft are the feelings I cherish for thee—
That the wildest of passions could never impart
More joy to my soul, or more bliss to my heart:
They come o'er my breast in my happiest hours—
They come like the south wind that ruffles the flowers;—
A thrilling of softness, a thrilling of bliss,
Say, is there no name for a passion like this?

It cannot be friendship, it cannot be love,
Yet I know the sweet feeling descends from above;
For it takes from my bosom no portion of case,
Yet a ds all the rapture, the pleasure of these.
For so soft the emotion my spirit hath nursed,
It is warm as the last, and more pure than the first—
For my heart when near thine grows soft as a dove,
Yet it cannot be friendship, it cannot be love.

I know we must part—yet united in soul,
Our thoughts, like our current, together shall roll.
And Oh! should my soul be the first to ascend,
When an angel in Heaven, I'll plead for my friend;
Yet sometimes I think when my young life is o'er,
And my voice that hath thrilled thee, can thrill thee no more—
That my spirit will steal from its mansion of bliss,
To lie on thy bosom, and guard thee in this.

St. Valentine's Day. HATTIE.

THE BANK OF ENGLAND.—It is probable that both the Bank of England and the Bank of France will at no distant day if the Russian war continues, be obliged to suspend specie payments. The expenses of the war begin now to be seriously felt, in many ways, and the struggle for gold among the banks and bankers as well as the large sums which have been withdrawn within a year from the great national institutions of France and England, give abundant evidence that this condition of things is expected by those who have good opportunities for studying the signs of the times.

The bullion in the Bank of England was again diminished in the last weekly return by $1,600,000, and the amount now held by it is about 65,000,000. During the week, the notes in circulation had increased nearly $4,000,000, the aggregate circulation being $100,000,000.

The London Daily News says, the changes exhibited in the weekly return are of a very unfavorable character—especially the increase of no less than 1,406,485*l.* in the private securities, and the diminution of 1,093,929*l.* in the reserve—and attest the severity of the pressure for money last week.

The Bank of France has recently purchased gold to the amount of twenty-three millions of dollars, for which it has paid a premium of 1 per cent, and most of this gold has been drawn from England. This matter it is which seems to have prompted the Bank of England to advance with such rapidity the rate of interest.

By a suspension of specie payment on the part of the Banks of England and France, a great financial crisis may be postponed for several years.

DR. H. BARTH, THE AFRICAN EXPLORER.—By the London Athenæum of Sept. 15th, we learn that this distinguished traveller had returned to Europe, after the long absence of five years in the interior of Africa, and when his friends had ceased to hope for his return. He was expected in London on that day.—He left Europe Dec. 8th, 1849, visited Lake Tsad, Sudan, Kuku, and Timbuctoo, which city he entered on September 7th, 1853, and in which he resided nearly a year. During his absence he has made discoveries which have greatly increased our knowledge of Central Africa and of the countries east and southeast of Lake Tsad as far as the basin of the Nile. In his unparalleled journey to Timbuctoo he discovered two large empires, Gaudo and Hamd-Allaki, of which not even the names were known previously, and gained a complete insight into the history and present state of Timbuctoo, its people, and all the surrounding countries, made for the first time a minute survey of the middle course of the river Konara, and altogether created a new era in the history of African discovery and regeneration. Dr. Barth's only companion died on the borders of Lake Tsad, September 27th, 1852, since when he has pursued his journeys alone.—Boston Traveller.

THE PURCHASE OF MOUNT VERNON.—An interesting meeting of ladies was held at Independence Hall, in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, for the purpose of assisting in the purchase of the home of Washington—a project which has been started by patriotic ladies at the South. An eloquent address was made by Benjamin Brewster, Esq., and State and city associations were formed for the furtherance of the cause. An appeal to the public was also issued. It was stated that $200,000 is the sum demanded for the Mt. Vernon estate. Towards this amount $12,000 have been collected in North Carolina, and $60,000 or $70,000 in Virginia.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be THE Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1855.

THE BOSTON CATTLE SHOW & FAIR.

The rain of Wednesday was a damper.—The Chronicle says, but little or nothing was done or to be seen at the Exhibition grounds. A severe easterly rain storm, the most pelting we have thus far been visited with during the season, prevented all out of door movement, except at the expense of a most thorough and complete drenching. There were but very few visitors on the grounds, and the dreary desolation of the scene was heightened rather than diminished by the appearance of a few devoted committee men, or a luckless reporter or two, who, through the wet and the mud, might be seen pursuing their avocations with a devotedness to duty worthy a better fate. The cattle on the ground are generally in a comfortable condition, their owners and the officers of the society taking every means to shield them from the storm.

The Society's dinner came off, as usual, at one o'clock, and was served to about two hundred persons. President Wilder stated at the table that the programme for Thursday would be exactly like that arranged for Wednesday, if the weather should be fair: if not, they would wait till the first fair day, and then go on as if no interruption had taken place. He said the Society and their friends were there for a good time, and would stay until the weather allowed them to have it. Their powder, he said, would be kept dry and fit for use when wanted. His remarks were received with the greatest applause.

The Courier says the Industrial Exhibition, at Bowdoin square, has been very successful hitherto, and the storm did not injure it much in its receipts, which amounted to about $500 before nightfall. Mr Wright, the indomitable champion of the exhibition, has much reason to congratulate himself upon the victory which has marked his endeavors, and upon the great show of New England ingenuity which he has concentrated in the rooms of the exhibition.

On Thursday there was a great turnout; it was supposed 50,000 persons were on the ground. The seats, for 6,000 were filled.—617 horses were in the truckmen's cavalcade.

TRUE TESTIMONY.

The Manchester Mirror contains the following Testimony of a West India Planter to the advantages of Free over Slave Labor.

During my tour to the White Mountains, I met with a gentleman from Barbadoes, a West India planter by the name of Charles Pettyjohn, who gave me his experience as a planter on that Island in the cultivation of the sugar cane, and the manufacture of sugar, both by slaves and free men.

"In 1834," said he, "I came in possession of 247 slaves under the laws of England, which required the owner to feed, clothe, and furnish them with medical attendance. With this number I cultivated my sugar plantation until the emancipation act of August 1st, 1838, when they all became free. I now hire a portion of those slaves, the best and cheapest, of course, as you hire men in the United States. The average number which I employ is 100, with which I cultivate more land, at a cheaper rate, and make more produce than I did with the 247 slaves. With my slaves I made from 100 to 180 tons of Sugar yearly. With 100 free negroes, I think I do badly if I do not annually produce 250 tons."

Such is the testimony of honest intelligence, upon this most important subject, and adding another to the many facts already adduced, that chattel slavery not only subverts the moral and social relations of master and slave, but equally strikes a blow at the pecuniary interests of both.

Yours, R. C. STONE.

A letter from Fillmore City, Utah, to the Chicago Tribune, says that the institution of negro slavery exists in the territory, as well as Indian slavery. The Indians sell each other into perpetual bondage, and make active, ready and obedient servants. The population is estimated at from sixty to one hundred thousand persons, which, if true, would entitle the territory to admission into the Union as a State.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser writes that very sad developements are likely soon to be made in that city, growing out of the non-settlement of Daniel Webster's estate.

GLENWOOD, a readable and reasonable tale, much above the ordinary level of modern novels, comes to us from the publishers, Shepard, Clark & Co, Boston, and is for sale in this city by Mr. J. H. Foster. The scene of the story is laid in New England, and the characters are just such New England men and women as we can find in other towns beside Glenwood. The book will find readers in abundance.

A most disgraceful altercation occurred on Tuesday in a bar-room in New York, as we learn from the News, between Mr. Russ, the pavement contractor, and ex-Alderman Sturtevant. "No deadly weapons" were used.

WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE!—It is well known that a certain old lady "differed" in opinion with St. Paul, on a mooted question. So musical critics sometimes are at variance in their appreciation of stars. For instance, a down east correspondent of the Portland State of Maine, in speaking of the Annual Convention of the Piscataquis Musical Association, holden last week at Dover, Me., of which Prof. B. F. Baker, of Boston, was the presiding spirit, rendering it highly entertaining and instructive. He quotes from the Lewiston Advocate, respecting the musical merits of Miss Hattie Harrington of Boston, who was the prima donna of the Convention:

"She very far exceeds any thing we ever heard. She is a young lady of unassuming personal appearance, modest bearing, with a voice that partakes more of the divine than of mortal. She is the modern Jenny Lind—and we doubt whether even Jenny herself, disrobed of her great reputation, ever saw the day that she could outvie the unimported Hattie."

And the correspondent himself is scarcely less lost in his praise of her singing. He says, "Her vocal power is unsurpassed. Her execution is inimitable."

Those Canadians, and others, who are in the habit of reproaching American newspapers for their criticisms on the war, will do well to read the following from the Montreal Transcript, a standard English paper:—

GENERAL SIMPSON AN INCAPABLE.—It is very humiliating to read an article like the subjoined, which we copy from the London Daily News. We have gone over carefully the reports of the correspondents of the leading London journals, and find they all agree as to the main feature of misconduct, which has excited these reflections. The pictures of the three generals as they sat in the trenches and witnessed the assault, the Commander-in-Chief with his nose and eyes first facing the cold and dust, and his cloak drawn up over his head to protect him from both—General Jones in his red nightcap reclining upon his litter—and Sir Richard Airey with a white pocket handkerchief tied over his cap and ears, seems comical in the extreme, and will form admirable caricatures for the facetious Punch. The French Generals, it will be remembered, led on their soldiers, and many of them were shot down at the head of their divisions. The French may praise the British as they generously have done; but the laurels of England have drooped, and our naval Commanders are wanting. Mr Smith O'Brien, among the cabbages, was the jest of Great Britain for many a year after. Must not the spectacle of the British Commander-in-Chief cowering in the trenches, and protecting himself with much care, while the army under his command were marching to their doom, have been far more pitiable?

Bartlett pears have been selling in New York market at wholesale for $9 per barrel. One cultivator of this delicious fruit realized at the rate of $2200 per acre from his orchard; he plants 104 standard and 336 dwarf pear trees on each acre. From one nursery near Rochester, N. Y., fruit trees to the value of $15,000 have already been sent west this fall.

☞The Boston True Flag begins its fifth volume this week in an entire new and beautiful dress. The True Flag is one of the best of the weekly literary papers; and the senior publisher is a native of Portsmouth. The publishers are all good fellows. We are glad their enterprise is meeting so full a reward.

COURT AT DOVER.—The Enquirer gives the following items of news from the S. J. Court for Strafford County.

The Grand Jury rose on Thursday morning, having found seventeen indictments.

In the case of State vs Joseph H. Clements, charged with committing an assault upon William Plumer of Rollinsford, and beating and bruising him upon the head with a stone weighing three pounds, when found in the complainant's cornfield, under suspicious circumstances, the respondent being arraigned plead nolo contendere. The Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $35 and costs, and to be imprisoned thirty days in the common jail.

In the case State vs Timothy Davis, (liquor selling,) plea nolo con. and the Court sentenced the respondent to pay a fine of $20 and costs.

The State vs Daniel McKone, charged with selling one half pint of gin in March last.—The respondent plead not guilty; but the jury returned a verdict of guilty and the Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $20 and costs.

In the case State vs Artemas Pratt, plea "guilty" to the charge of selling one pint of the "forbidden," and the respondent was fined $50 and costs.

In the case of State vs Warren, charged with entering the barn of Benjamin R. Wentworth, in the night time, and feloniously stealing, taking and carrying away one buffalo robe of the value of $10, the respondent plead nol. con. and the Court sentenced him to hard labor in the State Prison for one year and to pay costs.

In the case of State vs Hurd, charged with committing an assault upon William B. Lyman, and beating, bruising and wounding him, plea nol. con. and the Court sentenced him to pay a fine of $25 and costs.

The case State vs Two Barrels of Intoxicating Liquor, the respondents not appearing, was continued.

PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.—The father of Passmore Williamson has already paid $4000 for legal proceedings in the case of his son, now imprisoned by the dictum of Judge Kane. A gentleman in New York has generously given $1000 towards defraying his expenses. A general movement will be made by petition to the next House of Representatives to have Judge Kane impeached.

LOCAL.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN,—Thursday evening, Oct. 25.—Alderman Rundlett's resolutions against Police Officer Willey, were indefinitely postponed, by a vote of 5 to 2.

Voted to introduce gas into the Court House.

Permission was granted to Mrs. Freeman to open a drain in Sheafe street.

The subject of planking Sagamore Bridge was referred to the Committee on Roads, &c.

DEATH AT SEA.—We are pained to announce the death of another young man of our city, viz.: Capt. John S. D. Dennett, master of the ship J. Montgomery, who died at sea on the 8th inst., aged about 27. Capt. D. was an enterprising ship-master, and a young man of great promise, whose loss will be severely felt by the family and his numerous friends. He was a son oi Nathaniel Dennett, Esq., of this city.

☞Ship St. Paul, owned by Charles H. Coffin and others, of Newburyport, will be launched from the Yard of the Mechanics' Ship Building Company to-morrow, (Saturday,) about 1 o'clock. She is 1200 tons burthen, and is designed for the general freighting business.

THE WEATHER.—Louisville, Oct. 24.—It has been snowing here this afternoon. A snow storm at Nashville was also experienced to-day.

Northfield, Vt. Oct. 24.—Snowing very hard here since six o'clock this morning.—The snow is now three inches deep in the fields, but in the streets it melts on touching the ground.

New Orleans, Oct..—The weather is cold, and we shall probably have a frost to-night.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The cotton gin building of Wade Hamilton, Jr., in Washington county, Miss., together with the machinery and 180 bales of cotton, was burned a few days ago.

The General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church has been mainly occupied to-day with an animated debate upon a resolution to admit the classis of North Carolina. The slavery question was the main issue. It is thought the classis will be admitted, with a preamble affixed to the resolution of admission asserting the serious injustice of slavery.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 24.—Post Office Thief—Stillman Webb, a Post-office clerk at Jefferson, Ohio, was arrested yesterday, for purloining letters from the mails.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24.—Naval.—The steam frigate Wabash was launched to-day at half-past twelve o'clock. She was christened by a Miss Grice, daughter of the naval constructor.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 24th.—Barnum's Baby Show here proved a failure. He says it was caused by the strictures upon it in the Commercial, and has brought a suit against that paper, claiming $10,000 damages.

The ship Southport, which was cleared from Savannah for Liverpool last week, took as part of her cargo 2097 bushels of wheat.—This is the first export of this article from Savannah to Europe.

DISCHARGE OF THE "FREE LOVERS."—Judge Osborn discharged all the parties recently arrested at the "free love" club on Broadway, declaring that their arrest was utterly unwarranted.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

FURTHER FOREIGN NEWS.

BY THE AFRICA.

General Simpson, in his last despatch, dated Sebastopol, Sept. 29th, says that 9500 men were employed daily in making a road from Balaklava to the camp. Fatigue parties in the town were engaged in cutting timber and other materials from the ruins of buildings in order to get shelter for the troops before bad weather sets in.

The Russian fire from the batteries on the North side, causes Gen. Simpson some little annoyance, but has not prevented the work being carried on.

By an explosion of a kind of infernal machine, numbers of which have been dug up in various parts of the town and batteries, an officer and nineteen men were wounded.

A letter from Sebastopol, in the Frankfort Gazette, states that the sunken Russian ships can be raised without difficulty, as the Russians closed them in every part but one, and having attached hose to the hulls, so that water could be pumped out when required. The letter recommends that divers should be employed to seek for the hose to draw off the water, and enable the ships to rise.

The Advance of the Allies upon Perekop.—A despatch from Prince Gortschakoff, dated 9th, was received at St. Petersburg, stating that the enemy had advanced from Eupatoria, threatening Perekop, but had retired on meeting the advanced post of the Russian left flank. Sixteen battalions of the Russians were put into disorder.

Retirement of the Russians.—According to the Frankfort Post Zeitung, the body of the Russian army has been withdrawn from the plateau on the north side of Sebastopol towards the heights of the Balbec. Only a few thousand men now garrison the northern forts. In the neighborhood of Nicholaieff some 45,000 men are concentrated, 28,000 of whom belong to the newly raised military.

Filling up the Trenches.—A letter from Sebastopol, in the Marseilles Journal, says one of the orders which has been executed by the troops with the greatest pleasure is that of filling up of the trenches. It is stated the troops regard their prospects so favorably that a great number of the soldiers of the class of 1847, who may now quit the service, do not wish to do so.

Bombardment of Odessa.—The Allied fleet, which, according to last news had sailed from Sebastopol, anchored off Odessa on the 8th of October. Prince Gortschakoff reports 8 ships of the line, 27 steamers, and other vessels. No news of the bombardment had been received up to the latest dates, but it was expected immediately. Odessa, since the destruction of the corn ports in the Sea of Azoff, has formed the chief, if not the sole means of support of the Russian army in the Crimea.

Russian Losses.—The Invalide Russe gives a detailed account of the Russian garrison up to the 8th of Sept.: killed, 2684; wounded, 6058; contusions, 1205; missing, 1754. Total, 11,701.

The same journal states that the Russians lost 1500 men on August 10, and 1000 men per day up to Sept. 5. Thus it would appear that the losses of the garrison for the last three weeks of the siege amounted to 32,200 men, irrespective of disease.

THE DANUBE.—According to the Journal d'Constantinople, the Commander of the Turkish army in the Danube has received instructions to provide rations for 40 or 50,000 French troops who are to arrive at Silistria about the end of October.

MEDIATION.—In a circular addressed by the Austrian Government to its Representatives, it is intimated that though Prussia is at liberty to act as mediator between the belligerent powers, the present is not a favorable time for such mediation; that, in fact, the Western Powers must follow up the advantage, and treat with Russia when the Russians have been expelled from the Crimea. The manifesto asserts that the most perfect understanding existed between Austria and France.

WAR IN ASIA.—General Mouraruefen has forwarded to St. Petersburg a report of a successful cavalry engagement, in which the Cossacks, militia and dragoons commanded by Lieut. General Koralerski defeated a detachment of 1800 regular Turkish cavalry and 1000 Beshi Bazouks. The Turks had about 400 killed. Ali Pasha, the Commander who took part in most of the last wars of Turkey, was made prisoner. The Turks lost all their guns.

The Garrison of Kars still holds out, though reduced to great extremities; part of Omar Pasha's force was advancing from Batoun to attempt to raise the blockade; the army of Kars now numbers 10,000 men.

THE BALTIC.—The Russians are repairing Sweaborg with the greatest activity, enlarging the barracks and building batteries upon the islands, &c., availed of during the recent bombardment of the Allies.

Further accounts, though meagre, of the bombardment of Riga, state that the batteries at the north mouth of the Duna suffered little, but the battery at Ballen suffered considerably; on the 25th of Sept., 3 frigates anchored at the mouth of the River Sullis, and a boat's crew set fire to 10 vessels. Rear Admiral Penaud, describing the expedition to the Gulf of Bothnea, by 1 French Corvette and two English steamers, states that 11 Russian vessels anchored off Buran, a small town on the Finnish coast, were captured, and 8 other vessels, making a total tonnage captured of 2500 tons.

FRANCE.—The Moniteur announces officially that the Empress has entered the fifth month of her pregnancy, and that her health is excellent.

An alliance between Prince Napoleon and the British Princess Royal, it is stated by the Times correspondent, is rumored in political circles.

DENMARK.—It is announced in one of the London papers that the Danish Government has invited all maritime powers, including the United States, to meet in Congress at Copenhagen to settle the question of the Sound Dues. Denmark, it is said, proposes the capitalization and redemption of the Dues.

je18 ALBERT A. PAYNE.

"Rachel will cause much excitement here Mrs. P.," said the young doctor, addressing Mrs. Partington, giving the name the foreign pronunciation, "I dare say," replied she, "they are always getting up new nostrums to cause a fomentation among the people; but do you really think, doctor, that this Rochelle is any better than the old fashioned globular salts?" The doctor bit his lips and told her that he preferred Rochelle with a little soda, but the one that he had named was the great tragedienne, Rachel. She looked at him a moment. "Well," says she, smiling, "I believe I am losing all my conscientiousness, and by and by shan't know nothing." The doctor got up to go, taking his seat a little ways with him, as some adhering wax, that Ike had laid down in the chair, pinned him thereto.—Post.

"What's that?" asked Mrs. Partington, looking up at the column on the Place Vendome, during her late visit to Paris. "The pillar of Napoleon," was the answer. "Well, I never did!" she exclaimed, "and that's his pillow! he was a great man to use that! but it's more like a bolster. And it's made of iron, I do believe. Ah, Isaac! see what it is to be great! how hard his head must have rested on that ironical pillow!"

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head-Ache, Pain in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. S. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints easily be removed without medicine, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself PERFECTLY, at an EXTRAVAGANT PROFIT, effecting thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with U S Patent Office, Washington,

No 9 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent. less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 5 years' practice in the Office of Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—Having for years have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office, and regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliance or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to more power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays upon them, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

Morning Chronicle.

I WOULD NOT LIVE ALWAY.

I would not live alway—I ask not to stay,
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
The few lurid moments that dawn on me here,
Are enough for Life's woes, full enough for its cheer.—
Should I shrink from the path—the prophets of God,
Apostles, and martyrs, so joyfully trod?
While brethren and friends are all hastening home,
Like a spirit unblest, o'er the earth would I roam?

I would not live alway—I ask not to stay,
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way,
Where, seeking for peace, we but hover around,
Like the patriarch's bird, and no resting is found.
Where hope, when she paints her gay bower in the air,
Leaves its brilliance to fade, in this night of despair;
And joy's fleeting angel ne'er sheds a glad ray,
Save the gleam of the plumage that bears him away.

I would not live alway—thus fettered by sin;
Temptation without and corruption within;
In a moment of strength, if I sever the chain,
Scarce the victory's mine, ere I'm captive again.
E'en the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And my cup of thanksgiving, with penitent tears,
The festival trump calls for jubilant songs,
But my spirit her own miseres prolongs.

I would not live alway—no, welcome the tomb,
Immortality's lamp burns there bright 'mid the gloom;
There too is the pillow, where Christ bowed his head;
Oh, soft are the slumbers on that holy bed;
And then the glad dawn soon to follow that night,
When the sun-rise of glory shall beam on my sight;
When the full matin song, as the sleepers arise
To shout in the morning, shall peal through the skies.

Who, who would live alway? away from his God.
Away from yon heaven, that blessed abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the mountide of glory eternally reigns,
Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet
Their Savior and brethren transported to greet;
While the songs of salvation unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

That heavenly music! what is it I hear?
The notes of the harpers ring sweet in my ear!
And see, soft unfolding those portals of gold!
The King all arrayed in his beauty, behold!
O give me, O give me the wings of a dove!
Let me hasten my flight to those mansions above:
Ay, 'tis now that my soul on swift pinions would soar,
And in ecstacy bid earth adieu evermore.

AN AMERICAN NATIONAL SONG. — An intelligent writer in the Worcester Transcript, is arguing the offering of a premium for a national song. Hear him.

We have had premiums for cattle, horses, poultry, fruit and flowers, babies and handsome women, and now the proposition is, a premium for a national song. Wm. Keyzer sets the stone rolling in Dwight's Journal, giving some account of the national song of Holland. A handsome premium was offered by an enterprising man for the best poem and music for a national song. The prize was awarded, and the song was sung in all the schools and universities of Germany. Mr. Keyzer asks why something of the kind may not be done here? England has her God save the King; France, the Marseillaise; and there is scarcely a country that has not its own song, be it ever so rude. What has America? Yankee Doodle; and can it be that this is all we deserve? It must be, or we should have had a substitute before now. "Yankee Doodle, keep it up, Yankee Doodle dandy."

That is it! the true song of Young America! That is the essence of his patriotism.—When he gets sentimental, he seeks consolation in rehearsing the charms of ladies of color, and the virtues of old dogs, and there ends his musical nationality. He whistles whatever takes his fancy; and, on patriotic occasions, has nothing more suitable to present, than "Hail Columbia" and the "Star Spangled Banner"—songs with no lasting excellence, nothing that can store them in a nations heart for its children to learn and love. Were a premium offered, it is doubtful whether it would bring about the desired end, as American prize poetry has been, so far, with scarcely two or three exceptions, poetry of a day; bought, paid for, awhile in the fashion, and then cast aside to be forgotten. When the hour has come, there will be found the man for the task, the glorious task of binding north and south, east and west, of a great republic, with the silken tie of song.

A LUNATIC DOCTOR SETTING A BROKEN ARM.—Recently, while one of the patients of the State Lunatic Asylum, who was formerly a doctor, was taking his accustomed stroll for air and exercise, he was attracted to a house not far from the Asylum by the cries of a young girl, who, in climbing over a fence, had fallen and broken her arm. On entering the door he ascertained that the poor, decrepid, bed-ridden mother and the unfortunate girl, whose labor was the only support of the two, were the only occupants. A boy had been sent for a physician or surgeon. The doctor could not witness the young girl's distress, so he instantly went to work and set and splinted the broken limb. The old lady, with tears of joy and gratitude, exclaimed, "Doctor, what's to pay?" "O, nothing," he replied; "I am amply repaid in the satisfaction this opportunity has afforded me to relieve your daughter's distress." "Thank you, dear doctor, and God bless you! But when the doctor we have sent for arrives, who shall we say set the arm—what name and residence, doctor?" "Tell him," said our doctor, "that a patient from the New York State Lunatic Asylum did it."—Utica Telegraph.

A London letter to the Petersburg Intelligencer says—"Miss Coutts, the homely lady who fell in love with the handsome Mario, lives in the Strand, is worth $1,000,000, and notwithstanding her wealth, is hated by everybody. Another distinguished character, Lady Byron, resides near our present quarters."

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be THE Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1855.

BOSTON CATTLE SHOW.

On Thursday they made a great day of it. In the evening the treasurers took account of the day's receipts, and having ascertained that there were twenty-one thousand dollars in bills in the treasury, they did not count the silver.

Among the drolleries of the day, in the forenoon, the bull "Ajax," ridden by his groom, trotted once around the course on time; time, 40 minutes. The two year old poodle dog "Witch of the Wave" was then put upon the track, and went once and a half round the course; time, about noon.

The neat stock merited and received from the farmers equal attention with the horses. The ladies, the Courier is sorry to say, appeared to cut the dairy department, and give their exclusive attention to the "fast horses." The mud will testify their neglect. The Ayrshire, Alderney and Jersey cows and bulls were remarkably fine and numerous. At no other show have we ever seen so many or as fine specimens of these breeds on exhibition. The grade cows were numerous, and many bore evidence of being fine milkers. The Durhams and Shorthorns were of fair quality and numbers. The cows of the "native," or unimproved breed, were, to our unsophisticated eyes, equally handsome, and, we have no doubt, good as the best on exhibition.

Boston ladies, generally, we suppose have clearer ideas of a fast horse than of a good cow!

On Friday came off the grand Agricultural Banquet on the grounds, at which his Excellency the Governor of Massachusetts, Governors of other states, Hon. Edward Everett, Hon. R. C. Winthrop and other distinguished speakers addressed the assemblage. Ladies participated in the festivities.

To-day, Saturday, is devoted to trotting matches, alias horse races. The exhibition closes this day.

At Bienca, California, in 1853, James W. Coffroth said, "If I ever desert the democratic party, may my right arm be withered." At the late election he was chosen state senator by 100 a. majority, and on the day of his election, fell from his horse and broke his arm. Mr C. is a fine looking man, and a Philadelphia printer by trade. The stump of his arm must be a pleasant memento.—Eastern Argus.

REFLECTIONS.—1. No man must desert the democratic party.

2. No one must join the K. Ns.

3. No one must invoke a withered arm.

4. No one who does so must ride on a horse, especially on election day.

5. This sounds on the whole, something like a wonderful dispensation: But

6. It reads more like a fish-story.

Our Uncle Toby is terribly severe on Judge Kane for his decision, but it is thought by some that the judge will survive the attacks of the Chronicle.—N. H. Gazette.

But can liberty survive such usurpations in a judge? Is it democratic for a judge to imprison a man without trial, during his pleasure? Is it Republican? Is it legal? Is it constitutional? If so, is despotism in America, any better than despotism in Austria?

☞ Godey's Lady's Book, for November, contains 100 pages of matter, and for embellishments a gemograph engraving of Health and Happiness, colored plate of Fashions, and 30 other fashion engravings, of patterns, garments, &c. Also, illustrated cuts of The Holy Land and its holy places. For sale in Boston by Federhen & Co.—in this city by J. P. Morse.

☞ The Dover Enquirer appears in a handsome new dress, the past week; and informs its readers that new type costs money, as also do paper and labor, and urges delinquents to pay up. Bro. Wadleigh wields an able and pungent pen, and we are glad to see the improved appearance of his weekly sheet.

ARRIVAL OF ANOTHER DETACHMENT OF SCOTCH FACTORY GIRLS.—Among the passengers by the ship Star of Empire, which arrived at Boston on Wednesday, from Liverpool, were about sixty Scotch girls, engaged to work in the factories.

FIRE IN CANDIA.—The dwelling house of Herbert Moore, with a shoe shop adjoining, situate near Candia Village, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday the 23d inst., supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Loss about $500—no insurance.

The ship "Joseph Walker" which was burned and scuttled in December, 1853, has been raised, and is now afloat, at New York.

RIGHTS OF HUSBANDS IN PERIL—A Man Forbidden to Burn the Dead Body of his Wife.—The Milwaukee American says that city was thrown into the greatest excitement on the 19th instant, by an attempt of a man there to burn the dead body of his wife. The story was as follows:

"A Russian by the name of Pfiel married a woman who was a Brahmin in belief. He was possessed of wealth, and both were persons of culture. She sickened and died, and requested, according to the faith of her fathers, that her body should be burned. Pfiel had collected sixteen cords of wood, arranged it properly, and was about to perform the deed, when the news of the fact was circulated, creating intense excitement.

Sheriff Conover proceeded at once to Pfiel's house, and forbade the act. The Russian asserted his right and duty to be, to burn the body of his wife. 'No law forbids,' said he, 'my religion commands; I will do it.' The body was in its shroud, the torches prepared, and all was ready to place it on the funeral pyre. 'Let it be borne to its place,' continued the Russian, 'there is no law against it in Wisconsin.'

But the sheriff took possession of the body, ordered a coffin, and made preparations for its Christian burial. The crowd grew, and thronged round the house. Alarmed or afraid to persist, Pfiel gave his consent to a Christian burial. 'You may order or have what ceremonies you please over the body,' said Sheriff Conover. 'Gentlemen,' said Pfiel, 'it makes no difference with us, if we cannot go on in our own way.'

Thereupon the body was buried—though the American intimates that the woman had been foully dealt with, and demands the fullest investigation into the matter.

What authority the sheriff had to interfere, and to decide that the man should bury and not burn his wife, we leave to the lawyers to settle."—N. Y. Evening Post.

CENSUS OF MASSACHUSETTS.—The Springfield Republican publishes nearly full returns of the population of the five western counties of the State of Massachusetts, as taken this year compared with the census five years ago. The tables embrace the returns of this year's census from 143 cities and towns, being a little less than half of the whole number, and from about three fifths of the whole population. The net gain in these cities and towns from 1850 is 95,152. The total population of the whole State in 1850 was 994,514. The gain thus far is at the rate of about seventeen per cent., the places given having in 1850 about 600,000 inhabitants.—These returns include the western part of the State, where the gain has perhaps been the smallest. It is supposed eleven hundred and twenty-five thousand will be as high as the population of the State will now reach.

New York State shows a gain from three millions in 1820 to about three millions and a quarter in 1855, which is but eight per cent., much less than the ratio of increase in Massachusetts.

We give below the population of some of the larger towns in Massachusetts, as shown by the census of 1855:

Boston	162,229	Newburyport	13,530
Lowell	37,556	Dorchester	8,263
Worcester	22,285	Nantucket	8,064
Charlestown	21,742	Haverhill	7,932
Salem	20,993	Milford	7,488
Cambridge	20,473	Marblehead	6,922
New Bedford	20,321	Newton	6,768
Chelsea	19,15	Quincy	6,500
Roxbury	18,699	Fitchburg	6,442
Lawrence	16,114	Randolph	5,629
Lynn	15,113	N. Bridgewater	5,625
Springfield	13,530	Woburn	5,450
Taunton	13,756	Hingham	4,526

GRANITE DUST, A RICH LAND MANURE.—While at Northbridge, Mass., on Wednesday of last week, examining the granite quarries at that place, I had a conversation with the workmen engaged in dressing out that stone, and enquired of them in reference to the effect of the fine dust upon vegetation when thrown on the ground. They informed me that its effect upon grass was astonishing, and that it has been used in gardens with great success.

This is a very important fact in agricultural science. Granite is composed of feldspar, mica and quartz, and the feldspar contains about 14 per cent. of potash. In my researches in New Hampshire I found a very great abundance of feldspar. It is easily reduced to an impalpable powder by means of a portable iron mill, such as is made by Mr. Bogardas of New York. The cost will be trifling. The discovery, if carried into operation to the extent that it may be, may make New Hampshire one of the richest agricultural States in the Union, and I take great pleasure in making it public. E. MERRIAM.

Brooklyn Heights, N. Y., Oct. 15, 1855.—Journal.

A FLURRY AT AN ORDINATION.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, writing from Amherst, Mass., gives an account of the ordination of a Mr. Daniel Bliss, in the College Chapel, as Missionary to Syria. Dr. Woodbridge, of Hadley, presided at the examination of the candidate, and as his views were of the "old school," and the candidates those of the "new school," the examination was continued through nearly the whole day. Dr. W. finding the views of the council did not accord with his own, resigned the chair and went home, although he had been chosen to preach the ordination sermon. This duty was very acceptably performed by Rev. Dr. Stearns of Amherst College.

"I BELONG TO THE OLD CHURCH."—An old lady up in Vermont was asked by a young clergyman, to what religious denomination she belonged.

"I don't know," said she, "and I don't care anything about your nominations—for my part I hold on to the old meeting house."

Don't laugh too hard at the old lady. Many a political partisan sticks to his party as closely, and just for the same reason.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Capt. Hartstein, of the Arctic expedition, has been ordered to Washington.

LOCAL.

THE CONCERT by Parodi's troupe on Thursday evening, was of a high order of excellence. Md'lle Parodi sung splendidly.—Her voice is rich, mellow and powerful, and her execution at once brilliant, easy and pleasing. Madame Strakosch also sang finely, especially her Scotch songs,—rendering the English remarkably well, and receiving frequent encore. Their duetts were really delightful. M. Leonardi has a rich voice, finely cultivated, and did all that was promised of him. Strakosch was at home on the piano, as usual, and did some astonishingly delicate fingering. His accompaniments to singing cannot be excelled. The audience was good, and the musical feast better. May we enjoy the like often.

☞ The Flour or Bread Company in this city, having procured one lot of flour, will probably not act together for any future operations. Mr. F. W. Rogers, in this day's paper, advertises a brokerage of flour on very moderate terms, which may answer as good a purpose, or perhaps better.

CASE OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.—Philadelphia, Oct. 26th.—In the District Court today, Messrs. Meredith and Gilpin again asked leave to read a petition of Mr Williamson, but Judge Kane refused to hear it, unless Williamson would first purge himself from contempt.

After considerable discussion, the Judge finally granted the respondents leave to argue the question, whether the court could hear a petitionarguing in favor of his release from a person in contempt.

Mr Gilpin opened the argument, and was followed by Mr Meredith. The argument will be continued to-morrow morning.

REV. JOHN ANGELL JAMES.—The London Watchman says that Mr James has been the Angel of the principal Congregational Church in Birmingham for half a century, and a Presbyter of the Church Catholic for as long a time as the present generation can remember. In no other sphere could the pastor have said to his flock, "I have spent with you two thousand six hundred Sabbaths; I have preached to you about ten thousand sermons;" and let it be confessed that there are very few pastors who, if they could have said as much, could have proved that the fact was an unmixed, or even a preponderating, advantage to their charge. Mr James, once himself a Sunday school teacher, has, in the course of his pastorate, watched over an army of children twenty thousand strong.

Those who are honored in being the friends of Mr James, have built near his residence a new place of worship, which is to be called the "Jubilee Chapel," and have presented him with a private memorial, which, costly as were its articles, was so far from exhausting the subscriptions raised, that a sum of £500 had to be handed to him in money, which he at once made over to a noble destination.

A SINGULAR RELIC.—We were shown on Saturday, by Col. Ogle, of this county, a small copper tobacco box, about two by six inches. The history of this box is interesting. When William Penn first began the settlement of Philadelphia, he gave it to an Indian Chief as a present. The box was then perfectly plain. Long afterwards it was procured from the Indian by a white man, and then it was discovered to be rudely carved all over. One part of it represents Penn treating with the Indians, and the figures of Indians are scattered in many places. The carving has evidently been done with a sharp stone—the cuts seem to be scratched out. It is a living illustration of the artistic skill of the aborigines.

The box has been in the possession of the family of Col. Ogle for over one hundred years.—Terre Haute, Ind., Express.

FOWL SPECULATION.—Hastings, of the Albany Knickerbocker, tried the Shanghae speculation in 1853. His success does not seem to have been very brilliant. After keeping the "varmints" some three months, he posted his books, with the following result:

First cost	$15 00
Corn, 1 bushel a day, for 90 days, 90 bush. at one dollar per bushel	90 00
Attendance of boy, to keep Shanghaes from undermining the fence, 3 mos., $5 per month	15 00
Three shirts torn up by the male Shanghae, because he could not get at a cock next door	5 00
Oyster shells, lime, gravel, &c., &c.	2 30
One chain, to tie male Shanghae up with on wash days	1 25
Whole cost	$128 55
Credited by eight eggs	$0 80
By twenty-three bush. guano at 80cts	18 40
	$19 20

We sold the eggs to a milkman, back of Bath, at ten cents each, but as he ran away without paying the bill, we suppose the amount of that sale should be deducted from the gross receipts. If we do this our Shanghae operation will foot up as follows:

Whole expense	$128 55
Whole receipts, less the eggs	18 40
Dead loss	$110 15

If anybody has done better than this, he will please drop us a note and we will lay the same before an enquiring world.

LOST—On Thursday, a GOLDEN DOG, of small size and choice breed, highly valued by his master. If the finder will please leave him at the Chronicle Office, the grateful thanks of the owner, and any reward said finder may deem adequate, shall be cheerfully tendered. o27

LOST.—A Lady's EMBROIDERED HDK'F. The finder will confer a great favor, and be liberally rewarded, on leaving it at the Chronicle Office. o27

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been rescored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested, and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people,—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

New York, Oct. 24.—The General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church devoted this morning to the discussion of the question of slavery as involved in the admission of the classis of North Carolina, and finally the whole subject was laid upon the table, by a vote of 50 to 47.

The Soft Shell Administration Democrats held a ratification meeting at Tammany Hall last night. It was not very large. No state ticket was presented for ratification. When the local ticket was presented, a row ensued respecting the candidate for Street Commissioner, which was occasionally resumed during the evening. Martin Grover was the first speaker, and proceeded with great difficulty, owing to the noise and confusion. He denounced the Kansas outrages, and thought there was no likelihood of her applying for admission as a slave state. He was followed by John Kelly, M. C., who denounced the Know Nothings and eulogized President Pierce. The resolutions adopted the principles of the Nebraska bill, but denounced the outrages in Kansas; they also denounced Know Nothingism and the Maine law, and complimented President Pierce. At the close, the fight between the rival candidates for Street Commissioner again broke out, and one man was seriously beaten, so that his life is thought to be in danger.

Official Trials.—In the Court of Oyer and Terminer, this afternoon, the case of Alderman Herrick, one of the indicted officials, was given to the jury, but they were unable to agree on a verdict, and were discharged.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—Dates from Fort Laramie of the 19th of September are received here. Capt. A. P. Howe, of the 4th artillery, was on trial before a court martial for disobedience of orders at the battle of Blue Water. Gen. Harney arrived at Fort Laramie on the 17th. The Sioux Indians are still warring upon the whites. Several parties have been attacked by them. Government and other cattle were stolen, and depredations of all kinds of stock committed. Large numbers of Indians are congregated at White River, and have sent to Gen. Harney to come on, as they were ready for him and wanted his horses. Captain Cady accompanied Gen. Harney as commander of the sixth battalion, Col. Hoffman being sick. Ex-Governor Reeder left Kansas City yesterday, for Virginia.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—The brig I. S. Getting, from New Orleans, was quarantined for seven days on her arrival at Campeachy, under the pretence that cholera prevailed here. On the night of the 3d inst., during the existence of the quarantine, Col. Zelina, a passenger on the brig, was removed by force of arms from the vessel, by the orders of General Villoa, during the absence of the Captain, and conveyed on board the Mexican steamer Oajaca and taken to Sical, thence he made his way to Merida, where he was received with great joy by the populace. This extraordinary conduct of the Mexicans demands an explanation.

Albany, Oct. 25.—The State Central Committee of the Opponents of the Prohibitory Liquor Law have issued an address calling upon all their friends and the liquor dealer's association throughout the state to vote for the whole Democratic soft-shell ticket. They review the course of all the conventions, and pronounce this the only practicable alternative. They say the Liquor Convention at Syracuse has failed to be responded to, and repudiate it.

Fatal Accident.—At the Worcester Railroad depot, in Boston, on Wednesday afternoon, Mr James Abbott, a teamster in the employ of Mr R. Kelren, who had just finished loading, and was in the act of putting on the cover, to protect the goods from the rain, had his heels caught in such a manner as to throw him backwards to the ground, breaking his neck and skull. He leaves a wife, but no children.

Death of a Veteran Editor.—Middletown, Oct. 25.—Wm. D. Starr, Esq., for thirty-three years editor and publisher of the Sentinel and Witness, died this morning of disease of the heart. He retired to bed in his usual health, with the exception of a slight cold, and was found dead by his wife about six o'clock. Mr Starr held the office of Collector of this port, and was a director of the Central Bank. He leaves a wife and seven children. His age was 57.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 25.—Great excitement was caused here on Saturday by the attempt of a man from Virginia, to kidnap a negro, whom he claimed to be his slave, and take him to Virginia. Several of our citizens interfered, rescued the negro, and had the kidnapper arrested and bound over. The man professed to be acting under the laws of Congress.

On Thursday evening, during the play of Hamlet, at Phœnix Hall, the news of the fall and destruction of Sebastopol arrived, just as Taylor, as Hamlet was in his death scene, exclaiming—

"O. I die, Horatio;
The potent poison quite o'ercome my spirit;
I cannot live to hear the news from England!"

A friend of the allies immediately cried out, "Die away, old fellow; Sebastopol is taken!"—Petersburg, (Va.,) Express.

TRAGICAL AFFRAY. — The Milwaukie American of the 17th inst., gives the particulars of a murderous affray which occurred the previous day at the bank in that place. It appears that a German named John Feiner went into the bank to get the money on a certificate of deposit which he held against the "Germania Bank." Mr. George Papendick, a banker, told him he would see Mr. Rogers, the assignee, and ascertain how much he would let him have on the demand. He did so, and Mr. Papendick was directed to let the man have $25. He offered Feiner the money, which he refused, saying he came for his money and must have the whole of it. Mr. F. refused to let him have more at that time, whereupon the German grew violent and threatened his life if he did not give him his money. Thereupon Mr. Herman C. Adams, another banker, interfered, and asked a gentleman, who happened to be in the bank, to go to the police office and get an officer to remove the German. The gentleman was about to leave the bank for the purpose, when the German drew a pistol and threatened to shoot him if he did so. Mr. Adams then started to go for an officer himself, and as he attempted to pass the German, the latter shot him down. The ball passed into his left side, just below the heart and vital organs. He then turned to Mr. Papendick, who stood behind the counter and behind the glass screen, and shot at him. The ball passed through the glass plate and into the ceiling; Mr. P. having dodged under the counter as the pistol was aimed at him, and escaped unharmed.—The German then went to the police office and gave himself up. But slight hopes were entertained of Mr. Adams' recovery.

Later intelligence states that Mr. Adams, died on the night of the 17th. The Coroner's jury brought in a verdict against Feiner of willful murder.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Loss of Sexual Feeling, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in Young Men.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The importance that that these alarming complaints may easily be removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

HAYES'S MEDICINES.

READER, are you suffering from Humors, Internal or external? HAYES'S

Alliez Ointment and Humor Syrup

will cure you just as sure as you read it. This not our assertion for it, but the testimony of a thousand living witnesses. All it wants is a trial—it advertises itself. One bottle has sold a hundred in a single town. Reader, do you ask how you shall know these statements are facts, when there is so much humbuggery in advertisements? We will inform you: call on any of our agents, get a circular, select any name you please, address a line to that individual—they will speak—they are living witnesses. It will cost but a trifle, and must convince the most skeptical. We subjoin one from among the many:

Read the following, it speaks for itself:

LAWRENCE, June 12, 1854.

We the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Alfred Ointment prepared by E. D. HAYES, of this city, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy results, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparilla, Salves, &c. Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as the article, and the ONLY one known to us, as performing all it claims.

A. S. BUNKER, A. W. STEARNS,
S. I. THOMPSON, ABIJ. T. SAUNDERS.

It cures Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scrofula, Erysipelas, White Leprosy, Cancerous Humors, Ring Worm, Scald Head, Burns and Scalds, Chilblains, Piles, (a preparation expressly.) Barber's Itch, Old ever Sores, and all old Mercurial Sores, however long standing. It removes Vexatious Pimples, Eruptions and Moth or Mildew from the face leaving the skin perfectly soft and smooth, adding greatly to the beauty of the complexion. In no case will it leave a mark or scar. It improves the sight wonderfully, when the eyes are troubled with humors, by removing the difficulty and restoring the sight.

Price of the Ointment, 81; Syrup 50 cents.

CHARLES H. KENT, General Agent for the United States and Canada, Lawrence, Mass., to whom all orders should be addressed.

Sold in Portsmouth, by Jos. H. Thacher, at the Good Samaritan Store, and W. R. Preston; and by Agents everywhere.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manuactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

CALEB CUSHING AND THE WEBSTER ESTATE.

About the time Caleb Cushing, the present Attorney General, received the appointment of Commissioner to China from Daniel Webster, then Secretary of State under President Tyler, he lent the distinguished Secretary the sum of $10,000, for which he received a note promising to pay the same within a certain reasonable period therein named. Whether the Secretary deemed the note a mere formality, or that the obligations in it were discharged by giving Cushing the Commissionership, is a point about which the friends of the parties differ. It was ascertained, however, very soon after Mr. Webster's death, that Mr. Cushing did not consider the debt cancelled, for the note was presented to the executors for payment. They have not yet paid up, however, nor do they mean to if they can help it. One of the fruits of their refusal has been an Arctic coldness between the Attorney General and the Surveyor of the Port of Boston, who is no other than the son of the deceased debtor.

The following article, in the Washington Star, which is one of Mr. Cushing's chosen vessels of wrath, becomes interesting when read by the light of these facts. Mr. Fletcher Webster is known to have had some sort of an interest in the Kinney Expedition, and to have sent out his son, young Daniel Webster, with the Colonel when the latter took French leave of the U. S. District Attorney, and the Army and Navy of the United States, last summer, in the schooner Emma, for Greytown. The opposition of the law officers of the government to the Colonel's enterprise, both before and since he sailed, is not, therefore, so difficult to understand as it might have been, perhaps, if that ten thousand dollar note had been paid.—New York Post.

THE ESTATE OF DANIEL WEBSTER.—We some time ago had occasion to comment upon the frivolous conduct of the New York Evening Post, in parading the name of a boy named Daniel Webster as connected with the Kinney Expedition. Since that time we have obtained a few facts respecting the estate of the late Daniel Webster, (grandfather of the boy just named,) which we confess have surprised us exceedingly. For publishing them, as we now do, we have two reasons: the fame of Daniel Webster is dear to his countrymen, and ought not to be trifled with; and secondly, the citizens of Washington are interested in his estate to the amount of $25,000. The facts alluded to are as follows:

Mr. Webster has now been in his grave very near three years, and his executors have not yet thought proper to settle the estate. More than a year ago, and before they had the power to plead the act of limitation which they now have, they informed those persons who had claims against the estate that the debts of Mr Webster amounted to $140,000, but that his property was valued at only $40,000. More than a year ago they solemnly promised that in a very few days they would make a dividend of the property in their keeping, which they have not yet done.

When they proclaimed that they had sold Marshfield for the benefit of Mr Webster's creditors, they had done no such thing, but had only sold a variety of lots of land lying on the outskirts of Marshfield, leaving the "homestead" and some three hundred acres of land entirely untouched, and in the possession of a member of his family.

It is alleged that Marshfield cannot be sold for the benefit of Mr. Webster's creditors, because his widow had a lien upon it for money loaned to her husband; it is believed, however, that this allegation is wholly set aside even by the will of the departed statesman. But, allowing this to be true, the debt alluded to never amounted to more than $25,000, while the unsold property would probably bring $50,000

The library at Marshfield contains some six thousand volumes, and Mr. Choate once gave the opinion that it was worth $40,000; and yet this property, instead of being applied to the payment of his debts, remains in the possession of his son.

A few weeks after Mr. Webster's death it was currently reported in Boston and elsewhere that his friends had raised the sum of $60,000, which was to go towards paying his debts, and carrying out the leading item of his will; and yet this fund has not been recognized by his executors.

Several of the persons who have claims against the Webster estate, as we happen to know, have already suffered great inconvenience from the strange conduct of the executors, but are likely to be sorely distressed in consequence of their friendship for Mr. Webster.

One of those now waiting for justice in a matter of $1,000, once made Mr Webster a present of $5,000. Another, strange to say, was for a long time the clerk or secretary of the departed statesman. The promises which have been made can be counted by the hundred, and yet not one of them has ever been kept. They first promised the creditors forty, then thirty, and now twenty per cent. on the amount of their claims, which latter amount is as far off as the first.

In a political point of view it does not become us to discuss any of the private affairs of the greatest statesman of Massachusetts, especially at this time when the whigs of the North are using his name as a marshalling watchword; but, as Americans, who would preserve unspotted the fair fame of a distinguished countryman, we cannot but hope that the settlement of the Webster estate will figure in history on a bright rather than on a darkened page.—Washington Star.

HELP ONE ANOTHER.—Sir Walter Scott wrote: "The race of mankind would perish did we cease to help each other. From the time that the mother binds the child's head, till the moment that some kind assistance wipes the death damp from the brow of the dying, we can not exist without mutual help. All, therefore, that need aid, have a right to ask it of their fellow mortals; and no one, who has it in his power to grant, can refuse without incurring guilt."

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum.—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be the Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1855.

Rev. Wm. C. Clark, of Eliot, Me., the Kansas Martyr.—The Chronicle of this city lately started a story to the effect that Rev. Wm. C. Clark of Eliot, Me., who has recently returned from Kansas territory, was very severely, if not dangerously beaten by a gang of drunken Missourians in a baggage room on board a steamboat, if we recollect aright, on his return to New England.—N. H. Gazette.

We did not start the story at all. It was told for substance, weeks before we mentioned it, by a gentleman who happened to be a fellow passenger on the boat, who saw the brutal attack, and who aided in saving the man's life. As the name of the sufferer was then only reported as a Rev. Mr Clark, we had no reason to suppose our neighbor was the victim;—and we did not copy the item.

Subsequently, when the later items gave his name, "William," and then said "of Massachusetts," and "of Maine," we published them.

And when, later still, Br. Clark had been at home two or three weeks, we gave a brief account of the matter as we received it in conversation from a clergyman who had been preaching for him, and who had just left his room.

It was doubtless correct in all important particulars;—and up to that date Mr. C. had not preached—simply because from his wounds and bruises he was unable.

[He was to preach yesterday, (Sunday,) Oct. 26th, for the first time.]

As to the extent of the injuries inflicted upon the reverend gentleman by the Missouri rowdies and rummies, we are not prepared to speak.—Gaz.

Why do you speak, then? unless you wish to apologize for the rowdies. Mr. C. knows too well the extent of the injuries, and his statement, which we gave for substance, is much better evidence than the guesses of somebody who don't know any thing about the matter.

Though his own walking presence in our streets is a sufficient refutation of the silly attempt to make of him a martyr for the abolition cause.—Gaz.

Not quite sufficient. We have seen a wounded man walk and look pretty well just before death.

The account of the Chronicle, which is probably as favorable for Mr Clark as possible, shows his course upon the steamboat not only to have been injudicious, but foolish. He placed himself voluntarily in a position where and among men from whom he could expect nothing but fighting. He courted opposition, and he got it, according to the fashion of his chosen associates in a steamboat baggage room. If he was severely beaten it was in a large measure his own fault; he touched pitch and was defiled.—Gaz.

No; he was not defiled. He dared to exercise liberty of speech before the drunken chivalry of Missouri, and came near losing his life for such imprudence. And now the Gazette—but we will not anticipate.

If we do not say that we decidedly condemn such outrages, in Missouri as well as in New Hampshire, the fusion papers will be likely to charge us with defending Mr. Clark's assailants.—Gaz.

Very likely. And some people will believe it. What else can they believe? The Gazette says it is not prepared to speak of the extent of injury, but if Mr C. was severely beaten, it was in a large measure his own fault! and it does not say it condemns the outrage.

Mr Justice Dogberry himself could hardly go beyond this; when he decides that it is always the duty of a sober man to get out of the way of a drunken one, lest he might strike him.

Let us have the facts in the case, and give the devil and all concerned their due meed of blame or glorification.—Gaz.

We have done it.

The Kansas Herald of Freedom gives a full account of the outrage upon Rev. Mr. Clark on board the steamer Polar Star, and cautions all Eastern people to avoid patronizing the steamer if they value life or safety.

☞ The N. Y. Tribune tells of a new kind of horse-shoe about to be introduced into use in Connecticut,—having been successfully experimented upon, with the best results. It is made in two plates, and no nails are used to keep it in place; it can be easily exchanged by the hostler, when worn out, or removed temporarily when desirable. When this is generally introduced, that machine to make horse-shoe nails will be out of employment, and the man whose horse goes barefoot because his owner don't like to nail his hoofs, will no doubt get his set.

☞ Rev. Stephen C. Pixley of Plainfield, Mass., and Mrs. Louise Pixley of Northampton, Mass., sailed from Boston on Thursday, in the barque "Springbok," Capt. Mayo, for Cape Town, to join the mission of the American Board among the Zulus. The religious services were conducted by Rev. Anson Gleason, a missionary among the New York Indians.

Dr. Clark, the owner of Congress Spring, at Saratoga, is said to derive a handsome revenue, yearly, of $75,000.

FALSE PRETENCES.

Under the head of "Trading on a Small Capital," the Concord Reporter tells the following story.

Jacob L. Dennett, a young man about twenty-two years of age, having worked out a short term in the N. H. State Prison, was recently set at liberty, and concluded to remain a while in this city. He took a room, and engaged his board in a house where several of the students of the Methodist Biblical Institute boarded. Neither the keeper of the house, nor any of the students knew anything of his past history. He was introduced by a gentleman in whom they had confidence, and who, they were assured, was well acquainted with him. He appeared well, and represented that he had recently fallen heir to a large fortune. On more than one occasion he revealed a large roll of what appeared to be bank bills. Things went on swimmingly with Dennett for several days.

He went to the store of one of our leading merchants, who supposing him to be a student of the Institute, sold him cloths and clothing to the value of $70, for which he was trusted. One article purchased, was a large piece of Delaine, from which, he expressed his intention to several ladies of his acquaintance, the determination to make them presents. The merchant having to make a large payment, addressed a note to Dennett, requesting him to pay fifty dollars on account. A polite answer was immediately returned, to the effect that his money had just been deposited, and it would not be convenient. The merchant, meeting with a student who boarded with Dennett, made enquiry about him.—The student spoke well of him—said he was very highly esteemed, and must be rich—he had seen him have a large roll of bank bills, and that he (the student) had sold him his furniture, he being about to graduate.

The merchant began to grow suspicious, and shortly after learned his past history.—He told the student what he had found out. In company, they visited Dennett in his quarters. They plied him with questions for some half an hour, which Dennett answered by the boldest kind of lying. They finally told him they knew all about him, and he must give up the goods. They were all restored except a pair of $5 pants, which he had sold for half price. The student insisted upon seeing the roll of bank bills which Dennett had exhibited on sundry occasions. It was reluctantly produced, and turned out to be strips of brown paper cut so as to resemble bills, rolled up in a one dollar bank bill! This comprised the wealth of the swindler.

It seems that he had employed the student, who suspected n thing wrong, all the while, to write his answer to the merchant, declining payment, having stated to him that he had been solicited to lend $1,000. He obtained a costly picture-frame of a dealer in this city, and made several other trades and purchases. Almost all of the articles, however, were recovered.

The police took care of him for two or three days, till he was finally sent to the seaboard, in order to find a place upon some man-of-war, where, it is hoped, he will not have an opportunity to try his hand very soon again at trading on so large a scale, upon so small a capital as a few strips of brown paper rolled up in a $1 bank bill.

☞ In this day's paper will be found our regular Fall list of Cards from Boston Merchants in the various departments of trade, which will well repay perusal by all who visit Boston to make purchases. They are furnished by V. B. Palmer, who established the first advertising agency in the country; and this is a guarantee that the statements there set forth are worthy of credence.

Bogus Insurance.—The Tontine fire insurance company of New York city has been stopped by the comptroller. This concern was organized in May last; its officers swore to a bona fide capital of $200,000, which they obtained by giving John Thompson $2500 for allowing $200,000 to lie in the bank a few days nominally to their credit. Some twenty agents were appointed, with large fees, and succeeded in getting nearly $7000 for 416 policies on risks, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars. James Pierson was the President, and J. W. Freeborn secretary.—This makes the seventh or eighth spurious company recently shown up in New York.—Newburyport Herald.

In Louisiana, Charles Derbigny, the American candidate for Governor, is the son of a Frenchman, and, the democratic papers say, French born himself, and a firm Catholic. The contest is between him and the democratic party, the Whigs having disappeared. T. G. Hunt, an Anti-Nebraska member of the last Congress is up for re-election, and is actively canvassing his district, and boldly defending the ground he then took.

Disappearance.—Daniel Perkins, of Biddeford, Me., has been missing from Waltham since the 5th inst. He is supposed to be partially insane. He is a machinist by trade, about 22 years old, 5 feet 7 inches high, blue eyes, light sandy hair, and wore clothes soiled with the oil and dust of the machine shop.

Candia and Manchester Stages.—Messrs. J. H. Fulton & D. B. Kilby have bought this line of stages and will run daily to and from Manchester & Cass's Crossing, Candia. The Manchester American learns "from persons who are conversant with the facts, that more passengers are regularly unloaded by this line of stages at Cass's Crossing to take the cars for Portsmouth, than are brought to that place in the cars from above. This establishes a fact, to wit: that Manchester furnishes more passengers for the Portsmouth road than Concord and the connections above put together. This is done under the disadvantage of staging. It may from this easily be judged what would have been the result had the road run to this city instead of its present terminus. These facts tend to show that after all, the building of the Hooksett Branch or the Candia Branch is only a question of time."

LOCAL.

Police Court.—Oct. 25.—Before Justice Odell—J. Henry Barron was charged with breaking and entering the barber's shop of Henry Hartshorn Oct. 22, about midnight, with intent to steal. Bound over to February term, in $250—and for lack thereof committed.

The new ship of 1200 tons, called the St. Paul, was launched from the Mechanics Yard on Saturday. She is owned by Charles H. Coffin and others, of Newburyport, and intended for a freighting ship.

Accident.—On Saturday, after the launch of ship St. Paul, a boy of about 12 years, named Charles Canney, son of Mr. Benjamin Canney, at play on board her, fell through a mast-hole, fractured his skull, and broke one of his legs. He was reported to have died in a short time, after being carried home; but on Sunday we were informed that he was alive, and that hopes were entertained of his recovery. We learn the ship's hatches were all closed, and every precaution had been taken to prevent accidents; and the mournful event occurred in the dim light between decks, where the lad was at play with other boys.

☞ The Reading Room of the Portsmouth Athenæum, lately repaired and refitted, looks as spruce and comfortable as a fine old gentleman, all of the olden time, with clothes well brushed, a new pair of gold bowed spectacles, and a bran new wig. It is truly refreshing to see the coal fire and gas-lights shine out through the glass in the evening, and to see the ruddy countenances of the grave and reverend seignors who there do congregate, shining upon us at all hours.—Long life and prosperity to the institution and its supporters.

☞ We have seen the first proof-sheets of Br. Fuller's new book, now in press,—the Portsmouth Almanac and Rockingham county hand-book, for 1856. It will be a valuable publication, and cannot be gotten up without much labor and expense; and in patronizing it as an advertising medium, traders and others in the county, will help themselves, at the same time as his enterprise.

Vandalism. — Repeated outrages have been and are daily committed on all sorts of buildings, fences, and other exposed property in our midst; and, more provoking than all, on stones and monuments in our cemeteries. A notice of reward for conviction of the perpetrator of a flagrant outrage of this sort, will be found in another column; and it behooves all decent citizens to endeavor to discover some of these worse than hyena depredators. The offence is a grave one, legally; and cannot be stoned for, in a moral sense.—Show the rascals up!

☞ Pearson's Vegetable Elixir, advertised in another column is said, by many who have tried it, to be a sovereign remedy for the aches and pains for which it is recommended, external and internal, fresh wounds or chronic sores, in man or beast. Read the advertisement, at any rate—then do as you like about using the medicine.

Fatal Accident.—On Monday last, Rev. Mr. Worrall, (Baptist,) of Melrose, was thrown from a chaise on Charlestown bridge by coming in contact with a heavy wagon. He was taken up, carried to a house in Mount Vernon street, and from thence removed to his home in Melrose, where he died of the injury received—leaving a wife and several children. He was about 30 years of age. He was an inventor, and was returning from the Industrial Exhibition in Bowdoin square, where he had been depositing a patent moulding plane of his own invention.—Boston Telegraph.

TO T——.

I shall miss thee, ah, how sadly!
Now thy presence here is gone,
And my heart can no more echo
To thy gentle, earnest tone.

I shall miss thee oft at evening,
As I gaze on yon bright star
That is thrilling to my glances,
In its bright, blue home, afar.

Thy cheerful voice will never more
Lend music to my ear,
As often it was wont to do,
In days to mem'ry dear.

And though other voices greet me,
Noble, kind, and friendly tones,
Yet their music ne'er can cheer me
Like the radiance of thine own. N.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate By its timely use many, may almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

BOY WANTED—to learn the PRINTING business A good opportunity is offered to a Boy residing in or out of the city. Apply at the Chronicle office.

For the benefit of the afflicted, we copy the following from the Boston Herald.—It is worthy the attention of all.

"ARE CANCERS CURABLE?—To that portion of the human family afflicted with this terrible disease, this question is fraught with serious import. Medical writers speak of cancer as an incurable disease, except by the use of the knife; and even then, the experience of the medical profession is, that in nine cases out of every ten, where cancer has been cut out, it returns again in a very short time. The cause of this result is obvious, as cancer is a tumor that sends out its fangs in every direction, and although the bulk of the disease may be cut away, some of its roots remain in the flesh, to sprout out again with renewed violence.

We have been led to make these remarks from recently conversing with several persons who have been cured of cancers by Dr. R. Green, of this city, after they were supposed to have been incurable. Dr. Green's treatment cleanses the blood and draws the cancer completely out of the system, without caustic or cutting; and although patients come to him with their cases thus aggravated by wrong treatment, it is acknowledged that he does not lose more than two out of one hundred cases.

This astonishing success attending twelve years of extensive practice upon this system has proved these statements true, and the present good health of thousands cured years ago is sufficient evidence that the cures are permanent.

"By their fruits ye shall know them," is a criterion which ought to be as good in medicine as in morals, and Dr. Green, feeling willing to be tried by rule, will send the names and places of residence of cases cured to any one requesting it.

His office is at No. 36 Bromfield st. Boston.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS.—To treat Spinal Curvature successfully, and to do it without inflicting pain and suffering upon the patient, (which is always done at the expense of the general health,) has long been a desideratum with the medical profession. That this is now effected with the use of the SERPENTINE SPRING is certain, and any one sceptical upon the subject will be furnished with the names and residences of those thus treated, who have been afflicted, from a brief period only, to that of over fifty years, with whom they can consult, and satisfy themselves in regard to the beneficial results of this mode of treatment, and the correctness of the above statement. This system of treatment is not only adapted to the adult person, but to the young and tender infant, and will prevent or correct in them, without pain or inconvenience, what, if neglected, would ultimately become formidable and hideous. Consultation at Office, 215 Washington street, Boston, free of charge. See advertisement of Dr. J. A. Wood, in another column.

We wish to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs Ayers & Phelps in to-day's paper. We can recommend them with confidence to the public as being worthy of patronage, and any business entrusted to them will be promptly attended to in a satisfactory manner.

NEWELL'S PATENT SAFETY LAMPS AND FEEDERS, advertised in our columns to-day, should receive the special attention of all burners of Fluid and Camphene. Prof. Silliman, Drs. Hayes and Jackson, pronounce the invention to be a perfect remedy for the dangers of explosion in the use of these articles. The testimony of such distinguished and scientific men deserves the confidence of the community, and may lessen the many sad results from the use of these fluids.—See Advertisement.

BIRTH IN PRISON.—On the night of the 21st inst., the murderess Sarah Ann Abigail Brown, confined in the jail in this city under sentence of death, for participating in the murder of Washer, gave birth to a healthy, bouncing boy.—Concord Reporter.

It is stated that the New York Association of Liquor Dealers has paid the New York Tribune $5000 for the use of a couple of columns until the election in that State.

The New York State loan of $1,250,000 was taken on Wednesday last at a premium ranging from fifteen and a half to nineteen per cent.

An article in the Dublin University Magazine states that the present war with Russia costs England and her allies a quarter of a million sterling per day!

There are now 669 students in the different departments of Harvard University.

A Book Worth Reading.

MEMOIR OF AMOS LAWRENCE.

THIS DAY PUBLISHED,

EXTRACTS

FROM THE DAIRY & CORRESPONDENCE OF THE LATE

AMOS LAWRENCE,

With a brief account of some incidents in his Life.

Edited by his son, WM. R. LAWRENCE, M. D.

With elegant Portraits of Amos and Abbott Lawrence, an Engraving of their birth-place, and a copious index. 8 vo. $1,50.

This is a memoir of a citizen of Massachusetts who became distinguished for his great wealth, but more distinguished for the manner in which he used it.

It is the memoir of a man whose public benefactions have rarely been surpassed, and whose private charities far surpassed his public benefactions.

It is the memoir of a man who, commencing business with only $20, gave away in public and private charities, during his life time, more than any other person in America.

It is a memoir that commends itself alike to the rich and the poor; to the rich, as presenting the example of a man who had discovered the true secret of enjoying his wealth,—to the poor, as exhibiting a portraiture of one of their greatest benefactors. It is substantially an AUTOBIOGRAPHY, containing a full account of Mr. Lawrence's career as a merchant, of his public and private charities, and of his domestic life.

Unusual care has been bestowed upon the mechanical execution of the volume. The embellishments, four in number, are in the best style of art; the paper is of extra quality; the letter-press is large, open and clear. The binding is in various styles, from plain muslin to full gilt, suitable for gifts.

☞ This work is offered to the public at a lower price than any similar work executed in the same superior style has been ever offered before.

☞ Copies sent by mail, postage free, to persons remitting one dollar and fifty cents to the publishers.

Dr. Spear's Female Medicines have become very celebrated, and it is now admitted that his treatment of Female Weaknesses, Prolapsus Uteri, Irregularities and Suppressions, is far superior to any other treatment for these complaints.

Dr. Spear is also celebrated in the treatment of children. His medicines, being vegetable, do not poison the system.

Dr. Spear is now being visited by one thousand patients every month, some of whom travel hundreds of miles to consult him, and to obtain his medicines.

Dr. Spear will warrant a cure in every curable case. After giving his remedies a fair trial, if a cure is not effected, he will pay any other Physician who will effect a cure, his bill, not exceeding $100.

Persons at a distance can consult him by letter, enclosing a stamp to pay your postage.

FIGHT BETWEEN A RATTLESNAKE AND HOGS.—The State Rights Democrat, published at Elba, Ala., narrates the following: Two gentlemen were lately in the woods when their attention was attracted by an uproarious noise of hogs. Thinking that something uncommon was to pay, they repaired to the spot, and found that the hogs had been in a fight with a very large rattlesnake. The fight from appearances, had been a long and desperate one. The snake was torn to pieces, three hogs dead and a fourth dying. They say that as the last hog would groan, the snake would raise his head, being unable to do anything else. The snake and fourth hog soon died. They report that for thirty yards around, the grass and ground was torn up. The snake was six and a half or seven feet long. The hogs, in the fight, had demolished all the rattles except two.

In the Fleming Court, in Kentucky, a wealthy man who courted a girl "just for fun," had been mulcted in $6000 damages for breach of promise.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in youth.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. S. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without Medicine, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. S. DE LANEY, No 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. p12 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are suffering what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, for they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington.

76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in supplying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the United States and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent. less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct account of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and in there was none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transmission of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Courier.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

A NEW WRINKLE.

The Newburyport Herald speculates thus on Reeder and Kansas:

Gov. Reeder, who has just been elected to Congress by the Free State party of Kansas, has received as many votes from the actual settlers, as Whitfield, who will receive the governor's certificate, though it is a well established fact that two thirds of the supporters of the latter were former invaders, who had residence and claimed citizenship in another State. On the day of his election Reeder made a bold speech in Lawrence, in which he declared his intention of claiming his seat, and carrying to Washington the evidence of the frauds that had been perpetrated by the Missourians. Should there be an anti-Nebraska majority he will probably be admitted, though it will not be without more excitement on the slavery question than has ever before agitated the nation. Reeder is a Nebraska man, and has kept himself free from all anti-slavery action; and it was only in sustaining popular sovereignty, and adhering strictly to the bill organizing the territory, that he rendered himself obnoxious to the Missouri slaveholders. He is a man of decided ability, firmness and patriotism, and it would not be remarkable if he made his mark in the history of the country. Of all men now before the public, he would be by far the most available candidate for the Republicans, if they keep their organization, to support for the Presidency.

Apparently the Missourians have overdone the Kansas affairs, and in the reaction that follows, the Free State men are by far the strongest party—probably two thirds of all the persons actually in the territory; and with such men as Reeder and Gen. Pomroy, who for energy, tact and ability, may be placed against half the slaveholders of Missouri, they will be sure to succeed; indeed the battle, in our opinion, has been already fought and the victory won. The Missourians will not be able to support another campaign, though they may keep up a border war for some time. If Reeder's election to Congress should be looked upon as illegal and improper, as it certainly is if the legislature of the territory is to be recognized, still there can be nothing wrong in the Convention to frame a Constitution, for that the people, in their sovereign capacity have a right to do at any time; and that being in session now, will secure them a free State, and in order to end this controversy, should secure their immediate admission to the Union. Admitted as a State, the actual settlers can take care of themselves; and more than that, take care of all intruders; and whether they go from the north or the south, if their object is to interfere with elections, it would be but justice, if they should take care to hang every soul of them.

WHAT PRIDE COSTS.—An Illinois farmer, writing to a Chicago paper about the expenses of a settler, says, his living will vary according to the size of his family, and their propensity to gratify pride, which is always an expensive article in a new country." The good farmer might have added that pride was an expensive article anywhere. Certainly if it is so costly an affair on a private farm, it is none the less costly in our great Atlantic cities, which are full of the ruin caused by pride.—Thousands are annually beggared, and tens of thousands straightened in circumstances by this same pride.

It is pride that makes the father dress his daughters beyond his means. It is pride that induces the mother to do the kitchen work, that Mary Anne may sit in the parlor and practice music. It is pride that leads families to live in houses finer than they can afford, to give showy parties, to waste the surplus of their income in a summer excursion. It is pride that has French mirrors, French lace, French china, French knicknackeries of every sort. It is pride in short, that is at the root of half the extravagance of the age. Truly did the wise man say,—"Pride goeth before destruction." Embarrassment and ruin are what pride costs.—Philadelphia Ledger.

AN ALDERMAN STONED.—We learn that a celebrated bone boiler of this city had an angry interview with one of our most substantial Aldermen, Saturday afternoon, which ended in a slight row. It appears, from information we have received, that the transmuter of skeletons called upon the Alderman at his house, and engaged in a discussion respecting his business, which has been complained of as a nuisance, and not receiving the satisfaction he demanded, dared him to step out into the street and fight. The friends of the municipal parent prevented him from accepting this insane proposition, and the decomposer of animal framework went in front of the house, and, in the intensity of his wrath, hurled stones at the dwelling, damaging its windows to a considerable extent. What the result of this onslaught upon the peace and dignity of our city government will be, remains to be seen.—Boston Herald.

Mrs Lewis, of Millport, Chenango county, N. Y., was awakened in the night by burglars, one of whom fired at her and struck her with a pistol. But she bravely seized her husband's gun, and following the rascals, fired at them as they were getting into their wagon. Her son also awoke to give them a parting charge. Afterwards a man named Miller, supposed to be one of them, was found to be mortally wounded in an adjoining town.

Lily Dale.

THIS is a new Cook Stove, invented last year by the makers of the world renowned Bay State Stove, and is intended to meet the wants of all desiring a cheap Stove which will unite beauty with economy. It may be used either with Coal or Wood. The arrangements for using either are very complete. The size of the oven is large for this Stove. It bakes as quick as any Stove in the market, and with an equal heat in every part. No Stove has ever been invented that has come so rapidly into use as the LILY DALE. Thousands of them have been sold within the last year in the New England States and have given perfect satisfaction.

Any person who likes an early breakfast, and wishes to purchase a first rate Stove for a small amount of money, we cordially invite to call at No. 46 Market street, where they will find the greatest variety of Cook, Parlor and Office stoves that can be found in this section of the country—all to be sold at reduced prices for Cash.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a true good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required.—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum.—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be the Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1855.

SWINDLING BEGGARS—or Begging Swindlers—are too plentiful in many places. We have formerly had some of them here, and they may re-appear. We have been kept comparatively clear of them for two or three years past, mainly as we think, by the vigilance of Mr Abbott of the City Mission, cooperating with the Howard Benevolent Society, and the city officers in charge of the poor department.

We can never know how much evil a vigilant officer or agent prevents; and it is not common for such an officer to receive any thanks for such services: yet they are among the best and most valuable that he can render. They are a saving to the community at large; and they preserve the charitable gifts which the swindler would take—to be bestowed on those who really and truly are in need.

We are led to make these remarks, by seeing in the Charlestown (Mass.) Advertiser, the following item, on Impostors.

Female impostors go about our city swindling people. A gentleman residing in School street informs us that a girl came to his house a short time ago and deceived his wife by stating that her family was in a suffering condition and that she had been recommended by a friend of the lady, living in another part of the city, to call upon her and see if she could not give her some old clothing. The girl was Irish, told a straight forward, pitiful story, and coming recommended, as the lady thought from her friend, she gave the girl two second hand dresses, and promised to call upon the distressed parties at some future time. The girl expressed great thanks and went away, but the lady subsequently learned that she had been imposed upon, for no such person could be found in the neighborhood to where directed, and the friend of the lady, whom the girl had represented as recommending her, had never seen or known anything of such a family.

It would be well for all persons to turn away from a beggar who asks money or clothing, unless it is known that the party is needy as represented, for it only encourages begging. Ask the beggar if hungry, and if so, feed him or her, first testing them by their appetites, and never let a known deserving party turn away empty handed from you. It is a pleasure to give to the deserving; and it makes the heart of the donor and recipient glad alike.

OPPOSITION AND UPROAR.—The Liquor Dealers' Association in New York, are paying the New York Herald and the Tribune, large sums for inserting articles against the new liquor laws.

The Boston Chronicle says:

The course adopted by a faction of liquor dealers in New York, in paying the Tribune, the Maine Law organ, $5000 for publishing, in the form of advertisements, arguments in opposition to the law, has created a division in the party. The opponents of prohibition in Buffalo have gone in a body for the Democratic State ticket.

The Albany Atlas says:—

"The Constitutional Society of this city, numbering many hundreds, and headed by such Whigs as John Taylor, President, and Jacob Hendrickson, Secretary, have followed the example. The dealers and the organizations which have been made in the several cities to resist the Maine Law, are pursuing the same course; and have called upon the State Central Committee of the opponents of Prohibition to adopt the whole Democratic ticket, and to call their friends to its support."

A member of the Liquor Dealers' Association writes:—

"I have contributed my mite to the fund of the Association, but had I known the money was going into the pocket of the Tribune, which has so grossly abused us, I would sooner have thrown it into the fire. Instead of gaining to our cause one voter among the readers of that unprincipled sheet, I can name scores, who, like myself, will now repudiate the Liquor Dealers' ticket."

The Day Book, in an article upon the subject, says:—

"Of all the papers in New York, there is not one that has given the liquor dealers so much trouble and put them to so much expense as the Tribune, and now, as if to reward it for its enmity, $5000 dollars are given it for for the privilege of advertising their answers to, and denials of, its vindictive slanders and libels!"

The Boston Chronicle only adds the following comment:

Those who sow to the wind may reap the whirlwind.

JOHN B. GOUGH, the great temperance lecturer, delivered an address in Boston, on Sunday evening, to an audience that crowded Tremont Temple. It was his 214th lecture in that city, and yet was as interesting and attractive as the first. Mr Gough is one of the most remarkable of living orators; his earnest, vigorous, honest utterances never tire; and hence on his late visit to England, after speaking 150 times at Exeter Hall, the people were as anxious to hear him again as though he had never spoken. There is not another man in the world who could have continued such interest. His tour in Great Britain was most successful, and the societies for which he labored made $40,000 by his engagements. It is reported that he has acquired quite a handsome property; and two presents of plate recently made him were worth $1800. When, fifteen years ago, he was tumbling around the streets of Newburyport, friendless, forsaken, poverty stricken, nobody would have predicted such a future for him.—Newburyport Herald.

"Mr Conductor, are we running on time to-day?" "No sir, we are running for cash."

THE NORFOLK PESTILENCE.

There are some curious facts connected with the progress of the late terrible visitation at Norfolk and Portsmouth, which seem to confirm the theory of Dr. Nott, that this fever is of a travelling character and moves from South to North. It commenced in Rio Janeiro; reached New Orleans in 1853, where its ravages were terrible; in 1854 it scourged Savannah. It reached Portsmouth in 1855. In all previous visitations of yellow fever, Norfolk was first attacked, and from thence the disease was transmitted to Portsmouth.—But this year the disease started in Portsmouth, which lies South of Norfolk, and its whole march from the beginning was Northward. Its progress through the whole period was always greater in a north and north easterly direction, than west and north west.—Thus it crossed the water to Norfolk, a mile distant from Portsmouth, in a few days after its appearance in Portsmouth, whilst it did not reach the Naval Hospital which lies nearly west from Norfolk and north west from Portsmouth, for two months. When it did appear there, there were very few cases and those generally managable. Old Point is in the due north line of its track, and it will be remembered that at a late period of the season there were one or two cases there. It is some consolation to know, if this theory be true, that Richmond lies nearly due west from Norfolk, and that we are consequently not in the track of the pestilence.

A very intelligent gentleman, who adopts the idea that the plague is caused by animalculæ, mentions a statement which he has heard that soon after the interment of a corpse in a vault adjoining a church, in England, the communion was administered in the church, and nearly all who partook of the elements were taken sick, and some died. The wine merchant from whom the wine had been procured was arrested on a charge of poisoning. While the subject was in agitation, some persons on entering the church, saw the rays of the sun streaming through a partly opened window shutter, millions of animalculæ floating about in the light. These animalculæ seemed to have an affinity for fluids, especially for wine, some of which was placed in the church, and it was soon filled with animalculæ and upon a test being applied, the wine was found to be poisoned. The animalculæ were afterwards proved to have emanated from the above ground vault where the dead body had been recently buried.

Our informant also refers to the curious appearance of the plague-fly. It is a fact, established beyond contradiction, that after the plague had culminated in Portsmouth, this curious fly appeared. It was between the size of a musquito and ordinary fly, and changed its color from red to yellow. Where did the plague-flies come from? They seem to have escaped the observation of natural historians. Our friend suggests that they may be the animalculæ, generated by the dead bodies, in a certain stage of their being.

In connection, a singular fact is stated by an eminent Judge of this State, who seems to sustain the theory of Dr. Nott and of our Portsmouth friend. It is said that the great pest to the agriculturalist, the Joint Worm, travels from South to North, always in a certain line, and never exceeding a certain breadth. So uniform are its movements that if he only knows when it has reached the North Carolina line, or any given point whatever South of his residence, he can estimate with considerable exactness the time when it shall reach his own plantation.

We are not prepared to advocate any particular theory on the subject, but the facts stated seem to us worthy of the consideration of men of science.—Richmond Despatch.

PORTSMOUTH, VA.—The Transcript of Oct. 22, says:—

The weather is still unfavorable for the return of our citizens. It has been quite warm for several days past, during which time there have been some cases of sickness among those persons who have already returned, not of yellow fever, though in some cases nearly resembling it. Let our friends have patience for a short time longer, a few days only, and they may then return, we trust, with safety, as we have now indications of cooler weather.

SUSPICION OF MURDER.—An inquest was held on Monday afternoon, by R. Dickson, Esq., a Magistrate of Norfolk county, Va., on the body of a young man, named Wm. Bain, who died very suddenly the night previous, at the house of his father, Mr Samuel Bain.—The circumstances of his death and hasty burial excited suspicions that all was not right, upon which the body was caused to be exhumed and a jury summoned. Upon examination a severe contusion was found on the forehead of the young man, just above the eye, supposed to be caused by a blow or fall. Dr Rich, who was called in by the jury of inquest, made a thorough examination of the wound, and gave it as his opinion that the injury received might have caused death by a concussion of the brain. Dr A. Bilisoly assisted Dr Rich in the examination. After a thorough investigation of all the circumstances attending the death of Bain, the jury returned the following verdict, "that the deceased came to his death by a blow on the forehead with a club, given by some person unknown, but believed to be by the hands of his father, Samuel Bain."—Portsmouth, Va., Transcript.

ARREST OF A FREIGHT AGENT FOR ARSON AND PERJURY.—Simon W Scott, a freight agent in the employ of the New York Central Railroad Company, was arrested, on Saturday morning, charged with being a fugitive from Alleghany county, where he stands indicted of the crimes of arson and perjury. It is alleged that he burnt his own store, which was insured in the New York Insurance Company, and afterwards committed perjury in swearing to the value of his stock of goods consumed with the store.

The late storm on Lake Michigan destroyed a great deal of property. A large number of vessels went ashore at Milwaukie, among them propeller Alleghany, belonging to the American Transportation Company, and uninsured. The goods were probably fully insured in Milwaukie and in Eastern companies. The extent of her loss is necessarily heavy—say $75,000, or upwards. Two liners were lost, and it was expected that other disasters would be heard from.

LOCAL.

☞ The North Parish in this city will dedicate their new Church on Thursday afternoon; and Rev. Lyman Whiting will be installed in the evening of that day, as their pastor.

☞ Rev. Mr Colby is to be ordained in Hampton on Wednesday, as pastor of the Congregational Church in that place.

A PROCLAMATION

FOR A DAY OF

Public Thanksgiving and Praise.

With the advice of the Executive Council, I hereby appoint THURSDAY, the twenty-second day of November next, to be observed in this State as a day of PUBLIC THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE.

Another year has rolled by, and we are again, through Infinite Goodness, enjoying the rich fruits of an abundant autumnal harvest. The labors of the husbandman have been bountifully rewarded, and the industry of our citizens generally favored and blest. Health has been uninterrupted by pestilence; and the destroying angel, that has so fearfully afflicted our communities in sister States, has, under Providence, mercifully spared the people of this Commonwealth.

For these, and the innumerable blessings we are enjoying, let our hearts be devoutly thankful. From every altar let Thanksgiving and Songs of Praise ascend to that God from whom these blessings flow. Let this Festival be improved by the people of this State for the advancement of the cause of Humanity, Virtue and Christianity. Let the poor and the oppressed be remembered and alleviated, and the day be wholly spent as wisdom shall direct and God approve and bless.

Given at the Council Chamber, at Augusta, this fourth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and of the Independence of the United States the eightieth.

By the Governor:

ANSON P. MORRILL.

ALDEN JACKSON, Secretary of State.

It is reported that Foote formerly governor of, and senator for Mississippi, will be elected by the Know Nothing legislature of California, United States senator in the place of Gwin. Foote was the father of the compromise measures in 1850 and is an ultra dem. but having been crushed out by Jefferson Davis, he will be a most bitter opponent of the administration.

FROM HONDURAS.—A correspondent of the New York Tribune, at Truxillo, Honduras, states that several severe shocks of earthquake were felt at that place, commencing on the 25th of September. There were 27 distinct shocks within forty hours. Every brick and adobe building in the town was more or less injured.

APPLES.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says Apples have been more plenty this week, and prices are not so firm. Western Fall fruit sells at $1 62 a 1 75 per bbl; pelicans and greenings at 1 25 a 1 50; fall pippins 2 25 a 2 50; ox and 20 ounce apples 2 37 a 2 75; Newtown pippins at $2 as they run from the orchard, and $5 a $7 as selected and papered for shipment. Western winter apples have not yet begun to arrive.

BREAD ITEM.—"A Commercial Traveller of 25 years standing" writes to the London Times that during the harvest, he has gone through ten of the principal agricultural counties in England, and expresses the opinion that in all of them, except in the fens of Lincolnshire and Cambridgeshire, and some part of Norfolk, the crop of this year is considerably above the average of the last five years.—He also says that there is an abundance of old corn in the ricks, (some two years old) in addition to all the granaries. Potatoes are a splendid crop in quality, the yield larger, and the prices falling rapidly. He thinks there is no cause for the present famine prices, and that corn must and will come down at least 25 per cent. or to from 50s to 60s per quarter.

NOT DEAD.—The Rev. Mr. Worrell, of Chelsea, who was reported seriously injured, and afterwards dead, in consequence of being thrown from his carriage a few days since, made his appearance in the pulpit of the Rev Dr. Neal's Church Sunday forenoon, and preached an eloquent sermon, taking his text from Luke xvi: 31. "And he said unto him, if they hear not Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead."

We are glad to have this evidence that the Rev. gentleman was not badly injured.—Boston Bee.

The discovery of the late extensive robberies by the hands on the N.Y. Central railroad, is not without its moral. Some three years ago most of the old and tried hands on the road below conductors and engineers, and some of those, too, for aught we know, were dismissed and cheaper help employed at prices that were quite generally pronounced niggardly at the time. If these robberies are the result, the experiment has proved a losing one, as many predicted it would.—Springfield Republican.

The Directors of the Newburyport Railroad have made choice of A. Kimball, jr. of Dover, for Superintendent, in place of C. S. Tenney, resigned, and he has accepted the appointment. The new incumbent has been for several years superintendent of the Cochecho Railroad, and has earned a well deserved reputation as a railroad manager. He will reside in Newburyport.

PHILADELPHIA, 29th.—Judge Kane made an order today in the Passmore Williamson case, denying the applicant's petition; but in order that the petitioner may purge himself the Judge orders that whenever Williamson is ready to answer such questions as may be addressed to him, the Marshal shall bring him into court to abide the further action of said Court.

During the past week the arrival of immigrants at New York has been very large, and of an excellent class. The whole number is 6555, and the amount of their cash means $245, 075; averaging about $38 to each man, woman and child.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

ONE DAY LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—The steamship Ariel, which left Cowes on the morning of the 14th inst. arrived at this port last evening with one day's later news from Europe, and the latest financial reports from London, Paris and Vienna.

Consols had improved a shade in London, the quotations on Saturday at 11 o'clock, being 87 5-8 for money, and 87 7-8 for account.

The condition of the Austrian Government Exchequer, as well as the City Bank of Vienna, was most precarious.

Ten thousand troops were off Odessa in the Allied squadron, and the news of the bombardment was early expected.

A report of a popular outbreak in Sicily was prevalent.

Rome was dreadfully afflicted with cholera, and the inundations of the marshes had caused much loss of life and property.

Russian agents were busily at work in Italy and Switzerland. Cholera was still rife in Madrid.

Prince Gortschakoff reports from the Crimea to the 4th inst, that no new movements had taken place.

The English gunboats had left the Baltic and were under convoy home.

It is said that the Danish Sound Dues question will certainly be settled in an amicable manner.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—In the Court of Claims yesterday it was decided that the performance of extra mail service by goverment contractors, rendered by an increase of official matter, constituted an implied contract with the government, which was valid.

In the case of M. G. Emery, who claimed an agreement with a former supt. of the Capitol extension, it was decided that the petition must state the name of the superintendent, as well as his authority to act in the matter.

The argument in the Florida cases under the Spanish treaty was commenced, and will probably continue for several days. These cases are numerous, and involve millions of dollars.

The docket of the Court is rapidly increasing. The General Armstrong case has been postponed till next Wednesday.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—A Counterfeiter Arrested.—A man named James S. Reese was arrested at his rooms in Christie street, and about $10,000 in counterfeit bills were discovered and seized, as well as a quantity of plates. Amongst the bills were tens and fives on the Bank of Jacksonville, Florida; two's on the Northern Ind. RR. Co.; one's on the Western Bank, Lockport, N. Y.; three's on Exchange Bank, Alexandria, D. C.; three's on City Bank, Bangor, Me. The plates were for two's and three's on the Exchange Bank, Salem, Mass., and one's and three's on the Exchange Bank, Lockport, N. Y. Every appliance for counterfeiting was also discovered.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—From Havana.—The steamship Philadelphia from New Orleans and Havana, arrived here to-day at noon. She brings dates from the latter port to Oct. 23. The news is of trifling importance. Senor Morales, the New York citizen, who was recently condemned to the garrote for having seditious documents in his possession, has had his sentence commuted to eight years in the chain-gang, through the clemency of Gen. Concha.

Business at Havana was good; stock of sugar on hand 50,000 boxes. Freights scarce and declining. Health of the city good.

GORHAM, N. H., Oct. 27.—Another Life Lost on Mount Washington.—Dr. B. L. Ball left the Ledge on Thursday morning, to ascend Mount Washington, and probably has perished. Parties went in search of him yesterday, and are now continuing the search. He was tracked to near the summit. When he left he expected to return Thursday noon.

"What is that dog barking at? asked a fop, whose shoes were more polished than his mind. "Why, because he sees another puppy in your boots," said a bystander.

SILVER DOOR PLATES.

F. W. Ham, 1 Congress street,

IS AGENT for Whipple & Livermore's SILVER DOOR PLATES and NUMBERS, for Dwellings, Offices, Church Pews, State Rooms, &c.

Messrs. Whipple & Livermore, of Providence, having discovered a method by which the use of machinery is applied to every department of labor in the manufacture of silver Door Plates, are enabled to offer a new and beautiful article of Pure Silver, at greatly reduced prices.

Plates of all sizes and of beautiful designs, exhibiting superior finish, and lettered or numbered in a style unsurpassed in point of elegance, are produced with unfailing accuracy and unprecedented despatch. They are warranted, also, to contain a larger quantity of pure silver, and to be thus more durable, as well as more beautiful and lower priced than the silver plated article. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects usually ascribed to a cathartic, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be delivered from habitual costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

WAREROOMS,

NEW FREESON'S BLOCK,

No. 400 WASHINGTON STREET,

NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes; and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are very splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Thalberg.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of the other makers; and for the delicacy and easy touch; I can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

Morning Chronicle.

ANECDOTE OF THE CZAR NICHOLAS.—On one occasion I was walking on the quay of the court in St. Petersburg, nearly opposite the Marble Palace, where there is a ferrying place over the Neva. A dispute had arisen between a boatman and a soldier: the boatman claimed a half penny from the latter for his passage. This was contrary to the laws, which direct that the soldiers—one at a time at least—shall pass the river free; but the boatman, in spite of the laws, would be paid, and seized the cloak of the soldier, refusing to give it up. This was the cause of the contest. Just as they were wrangling, up walks the Emperor, and calling the soldier to him, inquires what was the matter. It was explained to him.—"Go to the barracks," said Nicholas, addressing the soldier, "and tell them to give you a new cloak. And as you," said he to the boatman, "have taken such a fancy to the coat of a soldier, you shall wear it," and he sent him to the ranks in the Caucasus.—Turnerilla.

POLEMICAL.—Rev. J. L. Bennett, A. F. Spaulding and C. McCurdy, of the Baptist, Methodist and Orthodox churches of East Cambridge, have addressed a letter to Rev. F. W. Holland, of the Unitarian Church, declining to make a union with him on Thanksgiving and Fast days, as they "are now convinced that such an interchange of pulpits is not warranted by the New Testament so long as those with whom we thus outwardly fellowship take away the chief corner-stone of the church, and ROB JESUS CHRIST OF HIS GLORY, as over all, God blessed forever." The letter was accompanied by a token of respect for Mr Holland's character as a man, and their willingness to co-operate with him in all schemes of social and intellectual improvement.

Mr. Pfeil, whose recent attempt to burn the body of his deceased wife has obtained such painful notoriety, has addressed a letter to the public, in which he asserts it to be not only fit and proper, but a reasonable compliance with the dying request of his wife. He also appends a certificate from his wife's physician, who says that shortly before her death Madame Pfeil reminded her husband of a vow mutually taken in former days, by which the survivor became pledged to have the dead body of the deceased burned instead of interred.

Why is Raphael Felix or Felix Raphael like a well known musical instrument? Because he's a Jew sharp.

Why did Rachel have a small audience on Monday? Because there was no PRESS in the house.—Post.

A DIFFERENCE.—It is not proper for you to play school, my dear to day, for it's Sunday. "I know it mother," replied the little girl, "but it's Sunday school that I am playing."

James A. Graham, the young man who shot Mr Spiller, a wealthy Virginian who refused his daughter to Graham in marriage, has been convicted, at Wytheville, of murder in the second degree, and sent to the State Prison for fifteen years.

The territory of Utah now contains from 70 to 100,000 inhabitants, a majority of whom are foreigners. The Mormons are very prosperous.

"Is that a lightning bug in the street?" asked a short sighted old lady. "No, grandma," said a pert little miss, "it's a big bug with a cigar."

GOOD ADVICE.

If you your lips
Would keep from slips,
Five things observe with care—
Of whom you speak,
To whom you speak,
And how and when and where.

Lily Dale.
THIS is a new Cook Stove, invented last year by the makers of the world renowned Bay State Stove, and is intended to meet the wants of all desiring a cheap Stove which will unite beauty with economy. It may be used either with Coal or Wood. The arrangements for using either are very complete. The size of the oven is large for this Stove. It bakes as quick as any Stove in the market, and with an equal heat in every part. No Stove has ever been invented that has come so rapidly into use as the LILY DALE. Thousands of them have been sold within the last year in the New England States and have given perfect satisfaction.
Any person who likes an early breakfast, and wishes to purchase a first rate Stove for a small amount of money, we cordially invite to call at No. 46 Market street, where they will find the greatest variety of Cook, Parlor and Office stoves that can be found in this section of the country—all to be sold at reduced prices for Cash.
o8 E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.
TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be the Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.
For sale by G. N. CARLETON,

Adhesive Mixture.
A SUBSTITUTE for Wafers, Paste, Gum Arabic, and all other inconvenient preparations—invaluable for the Counting Room, to Editors, Scrap-book makers, and all who ever have occasion to use either of the above articles. This mixture always remains pure, clear and free from smell; does not mould, turn sour or become candied, and is ready for use at all temperatures and under all circumstances. It is put up in neat glass bottles, fitted with a metallic cap, through which a brush is inserted, moving by a screw up and down, so as just to touch the mucilage, and take up only a sufficient quantity. Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1855.

CHIEF JUSTICE NELSON ON THE LIQUOR LAW.—In the Municipal Court, (says the Boston Transcript,) Chief Justice Nelson charged the jury in a liquor case, and held that the jury were essentially judges both of the law and the fact—that any member of the panel was as legally competent to decide upon the constitutionality of the law as upon the truth of the evidence presented. Judge Nelson is the candidate of the American party for the office of Attorney General of the Commonwealth.

If the reader will please to look carefully through the above paragraph, he will perceive that the charge, as reported, has no more relation to the liquor law than to any and all other laws. The principle he lays down is in our view correct:—and in our Republic ought never to be abandoned, nor overruled, nor covered up,—nor narrowed down so as to apply to one law only.

We are advocates of trial by jury—by a jury of peers—not of Judge Cain or Judge Dogberry, who fancies that he is above the people, above public opinion, and that there is no law higher than his ipse dixit.

Juries are, to be sure, quite fallible; but not more so than courts and lawyers. The latter have their place, their office and their use, in a trial, as also have the witnesses. But after all, the Trial itself, though before the Judge or Judges, must yet be by the Jury; or else we have no trial by jury after all, though we do make such a noise and bragging about it, and about our liberties!

In this view the position of a juror becomes highly responsible, and the jury box as important as the ballot box. Caprice, whim and passion, should not govern the juror—but judgment, mercy and truth should lead him to an honest verdict.

Since the above was in type, we see a fuller report of the charge in the Boston Chronicle, as follows:

The first liquor case in this new Court was given to the jury Saturday morning. It was that of Wm. Thomas of North street, arraigned as a common seller under the new law. Chief Justice Nelson charged the jury and held that they were essentially judges both of the law and the fact—that any member of the panel was as legally competent to decide upon the constitutionality of the law as upon the truth of the evidence presented, but he held also that a jury, in acting under this law, could not judge at their pleasure, but in determining the case must judge of it under and according to the established forms and principles of law. The Chief Justice spoke of the law as in his opinion inexpedient, and intimated that the seizure clause was unconstitutional. This trial has occupied much time, and the jury had not agreed at the adjournment of the Court.

This additional statement of Judge Nelson, that the jury under this law could not judge at their pleasure, or caprice, is perfectly correct. The power to judge, does and must imply and include the obligation to judge rightcously.

☞ Putnam's Monthly, for November, is just received from the publishers, Dix & Edwards, 10 Park Place, New York, via Federben & Co. Boston, and J. P. Morse of this city.

The contents are:—The United States Coast Survey; November; Benito Cereno, (continued;) The Mariners; Henry Heine—a letter to a friend in Park Place: The Virginia Springs, in 12 chapters; The Sense of Sight in Birds; Fall; Notes in Syria; Life among the Mormons, (continued;) Living in the Country; The London Post-office; Chastillon; A Night never to be forgotten; About Trees; The Attorney's Revenge; The Use and Abuse of Stimulants; Editorial Notes.

Terms:—$3 a year, or 25 cents a number—Putnam's Monthly and Household Words, $5—Putnam's Monthly, or Household Words, with the Schoolfellow, to one address $3.50; or all three of the Magazines $5.50.

One peculiar feature about the editor's copies of Putnam; the edges are trimmed, so that a half hour is not lost in getting at the contents.

Messrs. Dix & Edwards announce that, with the beginning of the New-Year, the well known Magazine for Boys and Girls, The Schoolfellow, will pass into their hands. It is their intention to make it excel any publication for children ever issued in this country or elsewhere. $1 a year, payable always in advance. Each number will contain 48 pages.

A great change will be made in the character of the engravings, which will be equal to those of the most popular illustrated publications. The number for January will be issued early in December.

☞ We are informed that considerable snow fell on Sunday last in Belknap and the upper part of Strafford counties in this State.

☞ Samuel Bain has been arrested, in Portsmouth, Virginia, for the murder of his son, Wm. Bain.

Within six months, it is said, eleven postmasters have been arrested in Ohio for robbing the mails.

EPPING, Oct. 30th, 1855.

A GOOD YIELD OF CORN.—Messrs. Editors:—On the main road leading from this place to Exeter, is the farm of Mr. Richard Smith of Brentwood, who is accounted one of the best agriculturists in this section of the State. Among the numerous productions of his well tilled farm the present year, was a piece of corn of about two and a half acres, from which nearly two hundred bushels of prime Indian Corn were produced. The yield, from actual measurement, on one quarter acre was twenty-five bushels, and in the piece, not less than one acre was equally as good.

The seed from which this crop of corn was produced, Mr. Smith obtained of George W. Lawrence, Esq., of Epping, also a model farmer.

I. T. S.

The Pennsylvanian says—"Mr Wise's letter breaks up the abolition scheme, so ingeniously concocted, of establishing a Boston forum for the trial of Virginia rights."

A great break up, that. And then, we would ask, what happens when Messrs Hilliard and Toombs accept the invitation? Will it break down again?

Really, Mr Wise's brag and bluster letter is the laughing stock of the day—it is a capital burlesque on chivalry—worth a dozen of the best lectures he could have given.

We have been politely favored with the following extract from a letter from the White Mountains:

"GLEN HOUSE, Oct. 28.

Dr B. S. Ball was found alive and is doing well: his feet were badly frozen, also two fingers on one hand. He was very much exhausted and was standing up when found. He appeared to know what he was about, had laid two nights with nothing but his umbrella over him, in sight of the Glen House all the time."

We understand Dr Ball went up the mountain against the express advice of Mr Thompson, Proprietor of the Glen House, but he was determined upon going, and went as far as the ledge on Wednesday, and stopped for the night at the camp of the contractors for building the carriage road. On Thursday morning he started from the lodge, and was found on Saturday morning as above described.—Portland Advertiser.

THE MUSIC OF THE DRUM.—The editor of the Manchester Mirror, speaking of the great cattle show in Boston, says:

A novel attraction was the Drummer Corps, 16 in number, from New York, all playing on drums, accompanied by no other instruments. They had the track their own way, and many like ourself were not able to comprehend the beauty of sheepskin music when taken alone.

SECTS PROSCRIBED.—A crusade has been commenced against Methodism in the lower part of New Jersey, by a Rev. John Quincy Adams, who is delivering a course of lectures, endeavoring to show its anti-American spirit and tendency, and the similarity between Romanism and the Methodist Episcopacy, in managing the temporal affairs of the Church; also, as a dangerous foe to Republicanism in its influence and avowed principles.

The Asheville, N. C. Spectator says that recently at the Jackson Superior Court, Judge Manly decided that a person professing the doctrines of Universalism was an incompetent witness in the Court of that State, and, in consequence, two or three witnesses of that persuasion were ruled out.

A TORNADO.—We learn from the New Bedford Mercury that on Sunday a tornado passed over Westport Point, doing much damage in that vicinity. A very large barn, belonging to the widow of the late John Potter, containing 14 tons of hay, a pair of horses, &c., was taken from its foundation and moved about three feet, tearing off in the meantime many of the shingles, ripping up the flooring, and otherwise damaging the building. A horse, which was in the barn at the time, was considerably injured by falling through the floor. In its course it swept down a white oak and several large maple trees. Thence it passed to the barn of Pardon Cornell, totally destroying the same, and scattering the hay in every direction. The tornado passed in an easterly direction, extending over a space of about 60 feet in width, and was accompanied by a powerful rain.

NEWSPAPER SUIT.—A correspondent of the Boston Post, writing from Illinois, gives information in regard to a novel suit now pending in the Courts of that State. The Alton Courier, established by subscription as a Democratic paper, has sued a delinquent subscriber for his subscription arrearages.—The defense set up is, that the Courier is not now a Democratic paper. Eminent counsel are employed, and the decision of the case is looked for with much interest.

DR. KANE.—The Troy Whig says that Dr Kane, of the Arctic expedition, is soon to be married to Miss Margaretta Fox, the second sister of the Fox girls who formerly resided in Rochester, where they commenced the spiritual manifestations, or "Rochester Knockings." Dr Kane became acquainted with the Fox family in New York. During his absence Miss Fox, his said-to-be affianced, has been attending a young ladies' school at Philadelphia.

DRAWING IT FINE.—A Michigan editor, inspired by a dentist's opening a new office, with a handsome damsel as his connubial partner, relieved himself in the following pithy manner:

The deed is done! How Cupid's forceps draw!
Not one poor fang—but a whole life of jaw!
No more shall molars or incisors gleam
With ghastly horror through his lonely dream;
Or brooding nightmare sleep's pure joys eclipse,
With rows of blood stained, pain distorted lips!
But pouting beauty teach his heart to feel
Where Kisses revel is no place for steel.

We learn that it snowed quite freely at Concord, N. H., Sunday forenoon, melting, however, as it fell.

LOCAL.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION LECTURES.—In addition to the Rev. Mr. Chapin's lecture before this Society, on the evening of the 7th inst., Wm. Stark, Esq., of Nashua, will deliver a Poem entitled "The Old Times and the New." Mr. Stark is one of the most talented of our New England poets, and his efforts last year were unusually commended. He has appeared before the Mercantile Library Association of Boston, and we learn is engaged to make an extensive Western Lecture tour, the present season. The Lecture Committee of our Mercantile Association are entitled to much credit for their excellent and judicious selections of lecturers for the coming season. A course that begins with such stars as Chapin and Stark and closes with the brilliant Choate, need use no extra exertions to dispose of every available ticket.

DANCING EXHIBITION.—The Fall term of Mr Lamprey's Juvenile Dancing School will close this evening with a grand exhibition, in which the whole school will join. After the little scholars have concluded, an opportunity will be given for the spectators, to join in the mazy dance. Good music has been provided, and all necessary arrangements made to ensure a good time. All who propose to attend the exhibition should be at the Hall in season to witness the grand entree, which is appointed at 7 1-2 o'clock. This scene alone will be worth the price of admission. Tickets 50 cents.

Congress Hall, where the exhibition is to be held, has always been objectionable as a dancing hall, on account of the clouds of dust which are so easily raised. This difficulty, we are pleased to state, is thought to be entirely obviated, the lessee having spared neither time nor money to accomplish so desirable a result.

FREE LOVE.—Mary Ann McGrath, a member of the Free Love Society in New York, made an ineffectual attempt to commit suicide on Saturday.

Mrs. Gore Nichols, in a letter, gives the following definition of "Free Love": "By freedom of love we mean an elevation out of the preponderant sensuality, and the consecration of the whole love nature or life, to the development of all the faculties of men and women, and to a wise paternity."

James Gordon appeared before a Pittsburg Alderman, recently, and offered him five dollars to give him permission to whip a woman. The Alderman committed the brute to prison for ten days.

On the night of the 16th, the citizens of Baton Rouge, La. were under arms and in great excitement, on account of a rumor that the slaves intended to rise and attack the U. S. Arsenal and the Bank. Nothing of the kind, however, took place. On the next morning, Joe Craig, a colored barber, and a suspicious character, was compelled to leave the place.

Rose Reilly, a native of Granard County, Longford, Ireland, aged 103 years, died in New York, the other day.

A few nights ago, a man named George A. Homer, was found in a senseless state upon the sidewalk of Albany street, Boston, and was supposed to be drunk. He was taken to jail, and from thence to the hospital, where he died on Sunday. He had not been able to speak since found.

A GREAT COUNTRY.—The shipping of the United States exceeds that of Great Britian by about 600,000 tons, or ten per cent. And it exceeds that of all Europe, besides England about 900,000 tons. The amount of tonnage in this country is 5,661,416 tons.

The Madison (Ia.) Banner says everybody in that region is engaged in building cornciribs. The like of corn crops in Indiana and Kentucky was never seen before. Farmers have their hands full.

A townsman meeting with one of the strolling organ players, was inclined to engage in conversation with him.

"What part in the grand drama of life do you perform."

"I mind my own business," was the brief and pointed reply.

The New York Tribune appears quite indifferent to that $5000, and says to gentlemen of the Liquor Dealers' Association:—"We don't want your advertising—never sought or desired it—won't thank nor help you in any way for it.

CHEAP FLOUR STORE.—In a few days a store will be opened in Boston, with a capital of $150,000, as an agency for the sale of flour at western prices, with the mere addition of the cost of transportation and incidental expenses.—Boston Post.

A POLITICAL BABEL.—There are thirty-six distinct parties in New York, with all sorts of strange and whimsical names, adopted apparently more out of ridicule than as characteristic of political principles.

CONVICTED.—Mary Flannigan has been convicted at Providence of the murder of Miss Richmond, with whom she lived.

Mr George Whitmore, mate of the steamer Prometheus, lost his life in New York, Thursday, in consequence of a large box containing muskets, which was being hoisted from a lighter alongside of the vessel to her deck, having struck him, fracturing his skull so extensively, that he died in a few moments after receiving the blow.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases at the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proof in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ma., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

OUTRAGE IN LOWELL.—On Thursday evening, Mr James Foss, while returning with two ladies from a festival at Huntington Hall, was attacked by two Irishmen, who endeavored to force the ladies from him. He resisted them, and was thrown down and stabbed in six places, so that he is now unable to leave his bed. A man named Kelly has been arrested on suspicion of being one of the ruffians.

The Philadelphia Ledger says that the umbrella men in New York, have been compelled to fit out a dozen whalers for the purpose of getting whalebone enough to keep up their business. The ladies have put the whole stock on hand into their petticoats.

It was rumored in London the day before the steamer sailed, that the big six-wire cable, weighing eight tons to the mile, which was being laid down across the Mediterranean from France to Algiers, was cut and abandoned in a gale of wind, under circumstances very similar to those which interrupted the operations of the Newfoundland Co. last summer. Forty miles of the cable had been laid. It was insured in London for about $300,000. N. Y. Evening Post.

The total number of slaves in the Dutch colonies is 48,636, of which 1260 are government slaves. More than three-quarters of the whole, or 38,545, are in Surinam. Very many of thes slaves are Christians; 6000 are Catholics, and a still greater number Moravians.

The foreign population of the United States in 1850, was two and one-quarter millions, or about one in nine of the free population. The largest relative proportion, compared with the natives, was in the extreme west and north-west, as in Wisconsin there were 110,000; in Ohio 218,000; and in Louisiana 67,000. Their greatest relative vote is in Louisiana and Wisconsin, where it is over one-third of the whole.

Hiram P. Hunt, Esq., of Troy, has been awarded by the referees to whom the case was submitted, the sum of $8500 for damages sustained by a collision on the Hudson River Railroad, at Bath, opposite Albany, in the summer of 1854.

In Clark's Mills, Westmoreland, N. Y., a man named Henry, was shot by his own son one day last week, the assailant having been exasperated by very salutary parental admonition. The young man was arrested.

The family of the venerable Dr. Leland, of Columbia Theological Seminary, South Carolina, had a narrow escape from death, most of them having been poisoned, through a mistake of one of his daughters, who put arsenic into biscuits which were making for tea, thinking it was soda. After great suffering they were relieved by the timely aid of physicians.

A new gun boat, a twelve-pounder, has done immense execution in the late encounters with Chinese pirates. Its precision, power and perfectness are said to have been never before equaled. It was made under the superintendance of Commander Dahlgreen, in charge of experimental ordnance at Washington, D. C.

The clipper bark Cora is expected to leave Baltimore about the middle of this week for Liberia. She will carry out a full complement of emigrants.

SPORTING.—A sportsman from Salem, one day last week, "bagged" seven 'coons, one fox, and several rabbits and squirrels—a pretty good day's work in the sporting line, in a district which contains more people to the square mile than any other in the Union.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

78 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection of claims. Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting Inventions, and Infringements of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 15 years' practice, this visitor to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agency of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure their rights as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

ARCHIE, 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis
ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and hopes of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: it will save its cost in their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, are on the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manuiactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being full equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

REV. WM. C. CLARK'S STATEMENT.

[Communicated for the Ballot.]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Some of the public journals, for a few weeks last past, have been presenting to their readers a part of the history of a personal outrage which I received from a company of Missourian slaveholders on the 20th of September, on the Missouri, river. Unfortunately for myself, I was taken sick a few days after my arrival in New England, and have thus been prevented giving the public a full account of the affair, as far as I understand it.

After having travelled for seven weeks in Kansas, and having witnessed the richness of its soil, the abundance and purity of its water, the unequalled beauty of its scenery, with other advantages, superior to those of any other portion of America if not of the world, and having accomplished the object for which I went out, I turned my course homeward. I arrived in Kansas City on the 18th Sept., and the same day took passage on the steamboat Polar Star for St. Louis. I soon perceived that among the crowd of passengers on board the question of liberty or slavery in Kansas territory was one of deep interest and much conversation. The passengers being mostly from slave states, the reader can readily judge on which side their sympathies were. I heard several statements made, of the sayings and doings of the free state party in K., which I knew were not true, yet, not wishing to have a controversy, I let them pass without correction. On the second day of the passage, in the afternoon, as a company were by chance sitting together in the cabin, some one brought up some theological questions for discussion. I think the first was the modes of baptism, the next the perseverance of the saints, &c.—Finally one gentleman present objected to the Divine authenticity of the Bible, on the ground that the five races of men never could have had one common parentage, objecting especially to the Indian and Negro races. Feeling an interest when I hear the Scriptures assailed, I took the liberty to reply to him, giving my views of the origin of the Indians found on this continent by Columbus, which seemed to be satisfactory to those present.—His objection to the common origin of the Negro race was, that their minds had not a capacity for cultivation, and by nature were almost destitute of intelligence; and hence he thought they must have another and inferior origin. I called his attention to Hannibal the Great, who for years was the terror of Rome and the admiration of the world, he having been of Negro descent, and not of Phenician as most of the Carthagenians were; also to Hamilcar, the great mechanic—to Euclid, the father of mathematics—with some other illustrious minds that belonged to that oppressed race.

The above defence of the Bible gave rise to suspicions in the company that I held anti-slavery sentiments. When questioned upon this point (I have too much frankness in my nature, as well as respect for the honest views I hold, to dissemble on a plain point), I frankly admitted that I was opposed to the extension of slavery, and in favor of Kansas becoming a free state. One of the company, starting forward from his seat, with an earnest expression of countenance, asked me if I did not believe the Bible sanctioned slavery.—Why, said he, good old father Abraham held slaves, and God never rebuked him for it.—Without stopping to explain the difference between ancient servants and modern slaves, I then told him that Abraham had a son Ishmael by his wife's servant-maid, and that the Lord never rebuked him for that, either; and that David, a man after God's own heart, had a number of vices which were hardly condemned under the dispensations of his time; but when the light of Christianity shone more brightly upon the world, wherever it went, servitude, polygamy, &c., were swept away, being suited only to the dark ages. I also called his attention to the important fact that for two hundred and fifty years after Christ, wherever Christianity was received, the relation between master and slave ceased, and they then were brethren. They offered no further Scripture arguments in favor of the patriarchal institution, and the conversation took a political turn; the doings of various public men, the repeal of the Missouri compromise, &c., were discussed, apparently with the best humor. As the company were about to disperse, I learned that some of them were members of that body of Solons which had been in session at the Shawnee Mission, re-enacting Draco's bloody code for the benefit of the people of Kansas. Knowing the feelings of that body toward all free state men, and knowing how several innocent men of anti-slavery views had fared, I felt some fears, which were increased by observing that I was pointed out by members of the circle to other passengers. Not wishing to become an object of notice, I retired to my stateroom, to read, and to let the interest pass off.

Just as the stewards were lighting the cabin for the evening, I went out of my room to write a business letter for Kansas. While writing, three men seated themselves by me, referred in very flattering terms to the discussion of the afternoon, and gave me an invitation to lecture that evening before the passengers, on the same subjects, viz: the probable origin of the Indians, the capacity of the Negro mind for improvement, and my religious and political views of slavery. Seeing at a glance the impropriety of such a step, though repeatedly urged, I positively refused. Had I been induced to lecture, a Missourian prison would probably have been my doom, as a preacher of insurrection among slaves; for I learned that some of the stewards on board were slaves. One passenger said, in St. Louis, if they could have got the lecture out of the ——— yankee, they would have fixed him. The evening passed quietly to all appearance. Next morning, having to resign my seat at the breakfast table to a lady, I walked out of the cabin, on the fore deck, where some twenty or thirty were discussing the affairs of Kansas, Gov. Reeder's course, &c. After several had given their opinions of the result of the Governor's course, I observed that the safest way would be to wait and see what the result would be. Immediately a man, who had been looking intently at me, to whom I had not spoken during the passage, asked me what I said. As a matter of courtesy I repeated my words, on which he gave me a blow on my face with his fist. Almost at the same instant a person behind me gave me a blow in my side with a slung shot, almost depriving me of the power of breathing or of self defence, and during this time of my helplessness my assailant improved the opportunity by beating my face in the most brutal manner.—A host of demons, let forth from Milton's hell, could hardly equal in spirit and language those choice spirits that were present, as they yelled—"Kill the ——— yankee! the ——— abolition son of a ——!" I stepped back between the chimney and cabin, so as not to be favored with a dirk in my back, when the captain of the boat appeared, and, refusing to hear any explanation, ordered me to go to my stateroom and be ready to leave the boat at Providence, the next village below. As I was doomed to quit the boat, and not having had my breakfast, I stepped from my stateroom to the table for a cup of coffee, where I was again assailed. An attempt was made to strike me with a chair, which I seized with my hands, and in the contest the chair was broken in pieces. The captain now came again, restored order, and renewed his command for me to be ready to leave, still refusing to hear any explanation.

A moment's reflection convinced me that it would be unsafe for me to land at Providence, with the marks of violence on my face, as slaves and their masters would be there in great numbers to ship and receive freight; and it was probable that the cry of "abolition yankee" would follow me from the boat. We were then at a wood-yard, taking in wood for the boat's use. I took my valise and coat, and started for the shore, not knowing what might come next. As no house was in sight, I took a road, or path, winding along the bank of the river, and soon reached a log house.—Calling at the door, I frankly told the man who I was, what had happened, &c. He welcomed me to such conveniences as he had, bidding me stay as long as I wished.

Now, Messrs. Editors, since I was sixteen years of age, I have mingled with almost all classes of society, from the pious and humble christian of New England to the savage Esquimaux of Labrador, yet during the time, relying on peace principles, I have never before found a man who was so savage and brutal as to lay hands of violence on me; and, what renders this case more savage, it was without any previous offence—the first blow that I received was as unexpected as a clap of thunder from a cloudless sky. But it was only the outburst of Slavery's wrath, which had probably been gathering over my head from the moment when they found that I was an Eastern man, a minister travelling alone and probably unarmed; and probably what roused their vengeance more than anything else, was, I was expecting to return to Kansas. The demons of Slavery in Kansas seem to manifest more hatred toward anti-slavery ministers than any other class of men. They well know and fear the influence of an anti-slavery Gospel and religion on the minds of the people. The Rev. Mr. Butler falling into their hands, they drag him to the river to drown him; their courage failing to do that, his face is blacked, he is lashed to logs and sent down the river. Rev. Mr. Snyder is tarred and feathered and rode on a rail. And to my humble self they applied their soundest arguments in favor of slavery—fists, chairs and slung shots. I might name a host of others—though not ministers, yet defenders of Liberty—who have fallen by the power of the same infernal spirit, but I forbear, as this article is already too long.

And still this same course of things is continued. Since I left the territory, I see by the Kansas Herald, that at the last Missourian election in Kansas for Whitefield, as the free state party did not participate in the election, their opponents determined on revenge. Mr. James Firman (a man with whom I am acquainted), one of the most exemplary and peaceable men in Kansas, was passing alone by their place of voting, when they seized him and attempted to drag him to the polls to compel him to vote. Freeing himself from their clutches, and running for his life, he was pursued by his assailants, who attempted to shoot him, one ball passing through his hat and killing a child at play on the floor in a neighboring house. The friends of liberty flew to arms, and gathered to the spot, but the Missourians, finding they were to have more than one man to deal with, had fled to the river, where their pursuers followed them, and one of the guilty number was embarked on that cold river over which there is no recrossing.

A young man from Missouri, who was selling fruit in Lawrence, frankly owned to me that he, with his brothers and father, were of the number that came to vote there on the 30th of last March. I asked him if he thought it right so to do, and his reply was, "—— the right, as long as the President is on our side."

But to return to myself. After spending six days where I was left, my face having regained its usual appearance, I took passage for St. Louis, and in three days after my arrival there I was in Worcester, Ms. After spending a few days in Massachusetts I returned home, and the same day I arrived was taken sick, and have since been confined to my room. But I trust to be soon able to fill my own desk, and to take the stump for Kansas, and I hope to return there in March next.

Should my friends wish to know my present views on peace, I would say: Peace principles are the best for all classes of men; but as to wild beasts, or the bipeds of Missouri, who walk upright, wear men's clothes, vote for the people of Kansas, and hang around steamboats—nothing but Colt's revolvers have any influence with them: hence the duty to have them on hand.

I hope that no person who has had thoughts either of visiting or settling in Kansas, will be deterred by the above. The cheapest and safest way is to go out under the charge of the Emigrant Aid Co., in which case all would be perfectly safe. It is only when men are caught ashore unarmed that such land pirates dare exhibit the fiendish spirit by which they are governed. WM. C. CLARK.

LAW OF CONTEMPT.

The only power of Judge Kane or any other U. S. Judge to imprison for contempt of court, is defined by an act of Congress, passed March 2, 1831, the first section of which is as follows:

"Be it enacted, &c. That the power of the several courts of the United States, to issue attachments and inflict summary punishment for contempts of court, shall not be construed to extend to any cases except the misbehavior of any person or persons in the presence of said courts, or so near thereto as to obstruct the administration of justice, the misbehavior of any of the officers of said courts, in their official transactions, and the disobedience or resistance by any officer of said courts, party, juror or witness, or any other person or persons, to any lawful suit, process, order, rule, decree or command of the said courts."

On this, Mr Dixon, of Connecticut, says:

Was Williamson guilty of misbehavior in court? Was he guilty of disobedience to any writ, process, order, rule, decree or command of the court? Let us see. What was the writ served upon him? It made it the duty of the respondent to bring the bodies of the alleged slaves into court, or to make his return of reasons for not so doing. He made return accordingly. He stated that the persons were not, and never had been under his control, and that he could not therefore have their bodies in court. Now we ask any lawyer to say how, under the act of Congress quoted above, Judge Kane had power rightfully to imprison for contempt. There was no pretense of misbehavior in court—there was no disobedience to the writ—which was in effect the alternative—to bring in the bodies or make return of reasons for not complying. If the return had been false, that was not disobedience. It was perjury, and for that, as is proved by the authority above cited, the respondent should have been recognized to appear at the next term to answer. Clearly there was no shadow of authority for the arbitrary sentence of imprisonment. It was a lawless exercise of judicial power, which would result in the impeachment of the guilty judge, if the government of the United States were not under the control of the oligarchy of the South.

We hope there may be freedom and freemen enough left yet, to impeach. No act of Cranfield in Portsmouth, or Andros in Boston, was worse than this detestable act of petty tyranny. We are happy to say, that so far, Judge Kane has found few, if any defenders. Not the first lawyer have we yet seen offer a word in favor of this contemptible act. Mr Dixon adds:

There is no species of tyranny more dangerous than that which takes the form of judicial proceeding. The people of Connecticut are in the habit of respecting the adjudications of courts, and it is difficult for them to believe that the discretion of a judge may be the most dangerous enemy of liberty. We beg leave to commend to them the following sentiment of Lord Camden, on this subject, himself one of the purest judges who ever adorned the English bench:

"The discretion of a judge is the law of tyrants. It is always unknown. It is different in different men. It is casual, and depends upon constitution, temper and feeling. In the best, it is oftentimes caprice; in the worst, it is every vice, folly and passion, to which human nature is liable."

INDIAN WAR.

From Texas we have accounts of a Foray into Mexico, and of a fight between Texans on one side, and Indians and Mexicans combined, on the other.

The Austin (Texas) Times of Oct. 13th, contains full reports of the fight of Capt. Callahan with the Mexicans and Indians. Col. Ford wrote from San Antonio, Oct. 9th:

Yesterday Lieut. Kyle arrived in this city direct from Eagle Pass. On the 3d inst, Capt. Callahan had a fight with a force of near seven hundred men, consisting of Mexicans, Lipans, Seminoles and Mescalores.—They attempted to decoy him into an ambuscade but failed. They then formed in the shape of a hollow square with one side open, the wings advanced, Capt. Callahan charged the centre and broke it. The right and left wing of the enemy formed a junction and attacked his rear. A good position was then occupied—the bed of a ravine. The fight lasted about four hours. The enemy's loss was sixty or seventy killed and a great many wounded.

The loss on the part of the Texans was killed, 4; wounded 5.

When the enemy broke they were pursued two or three miles in the direction of San Fernando. Capt. Callahan remained on the ground until about 12 o'clock, and then fell back to Piedras Negras to have his dead buried and his wounded taken care of. His supplies were at that point. He has doubtless had another fight before now. The dust indicated the approach of a large body of men. He was in hourly expectation of an attack. His intention is to hold Piedras Negras and wait for reinforcements.

Capt. Callahan's official report of the battle to the Governor of Mexico states that he had permission from the Mexican military commandant to cross the river, gives the details of the battle, and concludes with the following paragraph which will give an idea of the temper of the contest:—

Having taken possession of Piedras Negras this morning, I have conversed with the chief men of the place, and given them to understand that we are not desirous, nor do not intend to fight the Mexicans, unless they continue to combine with these barbarians, who are killing our wives and children and stealing our property in Texas. I have also informed them that the Texans will never rest quiet until they deliver the Indians to us—to be dealt with as we see proper—and that, unless such is the case they must submit to the consequences that will result to themselves—for whip the Indians we will before we stop. I have told them that I am determined to hold my position till we conquer the Indians, or until they aid us in whipping them, or stand aside and let us do it ourselves. I would state that I would receive no Mexicans as volunteers in my company—preferring only Texans under my command.

A letter from San Antonio of Oct. 5, has a notice respecting a treaty with the Texan Indians, thus:—

Major Neighbors, the supervising Indian Agent for Texas, arrived on the 3d inst. It is understood that he has concluded a treaty with the Anadahko, Waco, Tonchaua, Camanche, Tahwaccaro and Caddo Indians, which is intended as supplemental to the treaty of May 15, 1846. The Indians agree to abandon their roving or hunting life and to settle on the reservations set apart by the Texas Legislature—to adopt laws and police regulations—not to leave the reservation without the consent of the agent, under the penalty of forfeiting all rights as settlers under the treaty—to break off all communication with bands of Indians outside the reservation, who refuse to settle down, unless by consent of the agent.

The United States government is to protect the Indians—feed them—furnish them with farmers, and to take all the steps necessary to aid them in adopting a civilized life.

This treaty was concluded September 1st, and has been submitted to the Indian Department for approval.

A late despatch from New Orleans, says of Texas:—

Gov. Pease favors Capt. Callahan's course in the troubles with the Indians, and refuses to issue a proclamation against him as desired by General Smith of the U. S. Army. More Rangers have gone to the frontier.

FIRES IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—In Hudson, on Tuesday evening, the house of Mr. Abraham Colby was destroyed, with all its contents; loss $300.

In Pelham, on Saturday night, 20 inst., Butler's mills in Beaver Brook, were consumed by fire, with all their contents and machinery. They comprised a saw and a grist mill, and a woolen factory, and belonged to Nehemiah and Asa D. Butler.—The loss is estimated at $6000 to $8000; no insurance. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

DISAGREEMENT.—In the Thomas case, in Boston, Judge Nelson ruled that the section of the law under which the defendant was indicted, is constitutional, and that the delivery of liquor is prima facie evidence of a sale.—He also stated his own opinion to be that the present law is inexpedient, and that the seizure clause is unconstitutional.

He said that he could not, believing the law in many respects arbitrary and unequal, have voted for it himself, nor did he presume all the jury could. Nevertheless, they were judges of the law, as of the evidence, and if the latter satisfied them they were bound in fear of Heaven and their oaths to bring in a conviction. The charge was strong and clear, and told against the defendant, the evidence being very direct.

The indictment was for being a common seller. The jury, after several hours deliberation came in, and reported that they were unable to agree upon a verdict. It is stated that nine were for conviction, two for acquittal, and one threw a blank ballot.

☞ Rev. Wm. C. Clark's own statement of the attack on him by the drunken chivalry—is on our first page to-day.—It describes some natural results of the union of intemperance and oppression. No man must speak against either, under penalty of his life—and this is liberty in America! is it? Liberty to the full, to speak for the wrong—but no liberty to reply for the right.

THE CASE OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.—The petition presented to Judge Kane on Saturday from Passmore Williamson, was stated by Mr Meredith, his counsel, to contain certain statements of facts, commencing from the time Mr Williamson last saw the woman Jane Johnson getting into the carriage at Dock street; that he had not seen her since that time, had no control over her, or of those with whom she might be, stating his utter inability to comply with the writ of habeas corpus to produce the body in Court; there was also in the petition a protest, respectfully set forth, against the jurisdiction of the Court in the premises. As stated by telegraph, Judge Kane has refused to receive the petition.—Boston Journal.

A NEW STATE.—A new star is likely soon to be added to the American constellation.—The Legislature of Michigan has passed an act providing for the formation of the new State or Territory of Superior. Michigan gives part and Wisconsin another to form the new Commonwealth, which is the seat of the great mineral wealth of the nation. Its mines of copper and iron are undoubtedly the finest in the world, and it is destined to be one of the most interesting, wealthy, and important portions of the Union.

THE CANAL TOLLS.—The deficiency in the receipts of the lines is fast being wiped out. Abundant harvests and prosperity in business give plenty of employment to forwarders, and the great artery of internal commerce flows full with the life blood of trade. In a single week, the gain has been $31,000, leaving but about $25,000 to be added to the receipts to make the revenue equal to that of 1854. A single week will do that, and if the canal remains open the usual length of time, the aggregate at the close will show a handsome increase. The canal vindicates the policy of its friends and confounds its enemies.—Rochester Dem.

LOCAL.

PERSONAL AND BRIDAL.—We have already noticed the marriage of Mr. FOX and Miss Woodbury. The Boston Transcript informs us that the happy pair, with a party of friends, arrived at the Tremont House, in that city, at an early hour on Monday, where they were welcomed and entertained with an elegant wedding dinner by Col. and Mrs. A. W. H. Clapp, of Portland, Me., the near relatives of the accomplished bride.

The same paper informs us that the bridegroom is Capt. G. V. Fox, U. S. Navy, late master of the Panama steamer 'George Law,' and now the newly appointed agent of the Bay State Mills in Lawrence.

☞ The closing Exhibition of Mr Lamprey's Juvenile Dancing School took place on Wednesday evening, in presence of the parents and large numbers of the friends of the pupils. The various evolutions of the children in the common dances, as well as the difficult steps of the Schottische and Redowa, satisfied the spectators that the juveniles had been under the instruction of no ordinary teacher.

At the conclusion of the juvenile performances, the "old folks" took the floor; and if they did not attempt such difficult figures as the little ones, they certainly enjoyed the old cotillon and contra dance. The merry dance continued until after midnight, when the company separated in the best of spirits

The opinion was freely expressed, that Mr Lamprey is as good a teacher, as some of the Monsieurs who have visited our city, and has proved himself more worthy of credit.

☞ The walls of the new High School House on the Corner of Chapel and Daniel Streets, are up to the eaves; and the builders are now putting on the roof.

☞ The flour purchased by the Portsmouth Flour Company has arrived in this city and is now ready for delivery. It will cost to the subscribers, delivered, $9.87.

☞ The Dedication of the new North Church takes place this afternoon; and the Installation of Rev. Mr Whiting as pastor of the same church, takes place this evening.

ARRESTS BEFORE AND DURING THE FAIR.—The criminal arrests in Boston, from Oct. 1, to Oct. 14, inclusive, numbered 419, of which 276 were for drunkenness. The arrests from October 15 to October 29, inclusive, which time embraced the gala week of the U. S. Agricultural Fair, numbered 375, of which 240 were for drunkenness.

The above figures show that the morals of the city are not unfavorably affected even by an overwhelming visitation by our "country cousins," and puts the philosophizing about an increase of vice among the masses on festive occasions completely at fault. The general good order which prevailed throughout the city during last week, was a subject of much commendation by many intelligent strangers.—Transcript.

Facts of this kind make havoc of fine spun theories. The occasional visitors of Boston at a great Fair, are not the customers at her tippling shops, nor the tenants of her lock-ups. The regular suckers who stay there, and the regular visitors who slip in from the suburbs to indulge their appetites without restraint, are the patrons of the first, and of course the lodgers in the last.

BANGOR, Oct. 30.—There is considerable excitement in our community in consequence of the discovery that some of the liquors seized under process of law are missing from the Depository, and from the fact that the houses of the members of the Police have been searched for them, without, however, finding any considerable quantities of liquor. The City Marshal is charged with giving up some parcels of liquor without legal process to persons from whom they were seized, and upon payment of certain sums of money. The matter is under investigation by the City Council.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The President has decided that the resolution of Congress of February, 1855, providing for a Brevet rank of Lieut. General, under which Gen. Scott receives that appointment, gives him additional pay and allowance, and that it is retroactive in its operation from May 29, 1847, which decision has been communicated to Gen. Scott.

George H. Fairfield has been appointed U. S. Consul at Port Louis, Isle of France.

CAUTION TO BUILDERS.—Mr Branwood, according to the London Quarterly Review, has stated his belief that, by long exposure to heat, not much exceeding that of boiling water, or 215 degrees, timber is brought to such a condition that it will ignite without a light. The time during which the process of desiccation is going on, until it ends in spontaneous combustion, is, he thinks, from eight to ten years. Pipes for heating buildings by steam should, therefore, be clear of all wood work, and rest on metal brackets only.

CHEAP BREAD.—All the papers are telling stories about a "bread league" in this city furnishing its members with flour at a reduction of some 20 per cent. in price. We know no such organization here, but wish there was one competent to do what has been attributed to the fabulous one.—Concord Reporter.

Thursday evening an elephant 15 or 16 years old and valued at $20,000, owned by a Mr Bailey, died in Philadelphia; the animal had been attached to a menagerie.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—Every living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

J. P. BARTLETT,
n1 79 Market street, up stairs.

To the Citizens of Portsmouth and Vicinity.

YOUR attention is requested to a new Medicine called

PERUVIAN SYRUP.

The Medical virtues of which are fully set forth in the Pamphlet which will be distributed in a few days, and which, upon perusal, will satisfy you that it is not one of the humbugs of the day. There is no article (excepting the Oxygenated Bitters and Preston's Catholicon,) that has ever been found to alleviate the troubles incident to a DYSPEPTIC. But the PERUVIAN SYRUP operates like a charm; so effectual is it that even the first dose gives immediate relief.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, ASTHMA, DROPSY AND LIVER COMPLAINT,

It surpasses all known remedies. Please read the Pamphlet through, and judge for yourself.

WM. R. PRESTON, Druggist,
Congress Block, Congress street,

Is the Special Agent for the genuine Peruvian Syrup and of him it can be obtained at wholesale and retail.

Dealers can obtain their supplies from him at the Proprietors' Price. n1 4t2

Undoubted Testimony

IN FAVOR OF THE MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF

"The Peruvian Syrup."

THE Pamphlet which accompanies this Medicine contains the recommendation of the following well known individuals:

Rev. John Pierpont, Rev. E. T. Gray,
Thos. A. Dexter, Esq., Hon. Wm. Jackson,
Moses Grant, Esq., Henry Lunt, Esq.,
Ferdinand Andrews, Esq., Ed. Boston Traveller, all of Boston;
J. B. Congdon, Cashier Merch. Bank, N. Bedford;
Rev. Augustus E. Pope, Somerville, Mass.;
Rev. F. T. Gray, Boston.

Having tested its virtues in a severe case of Dyspepsia in my own family, with perfect success, I can personally recommend it.

Bondholders of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad.

AT a meeting held by the Bond Holders of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad at the Court House in Portsmouth, on Monday, Oct. 22d.—Hon. Abner Greenleaf in the chair,—it was resolved,

That George Minot of Concord, Thomas Clough of Canterbury, S. Plumer Dow of New Market, Charles L. Woodbury of Boston, Charles L. Frost of New York, and Jeremiah H. Hill and Henry F. Wendell of Portsmouth, be and are hereby appointed a Committee to confer with the Trustees and Directors of the Corporation as to the respective rights of parties, claimants and creditors, to the road and road property, under the mortgage, or otherwise, and to ascertain the full and exact amount of liabilities under the mortgage, with a view of closing the affairs of the Corporation under the deed of trust. Also,

Resolved, That they ascertain the names of the holders of the Bonds with the amount, and their residences, and report the same to an adjourned meeting. It was also

Resolved, That an adjourned meeting take place in PORTSMOUTH, at such place as the Committee may hereafter designate, on FRIDAY, the SECOND day of November next.

In pursuance to the above resolutions we have to request all persons holding Bonds of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad Co., who have not already reported to send their address with the amount held, either for their own account or in trust for others, to us, directed to H. FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.

The steamship George Law, from Aspinwall, with the California mail of the 5th inst., arrived this afternoon. She brings 550 passengers and $1,670,000 in treasure. She connected at the Isthmus with the steamer John L. Stevens, which brought down nearly $1,900,000.

All the election returns were in, but not officially counted. All the Know Nothing ticket is elected. Johnson has over 5000 majority for Governor. Whole number of votes 96,000. The Legislature is composed of 72 Know Nothings, 39 Democrats, 2 Whigs.—The Know Nothing majority in the Senate is 4, in the Assembly 19.

The prohibitory law is defeated by 60,000 majority.

Gov. Foote and ex Congressmen Marshall and Peyton are spoken of among the K. N.s for Senators to succeed Gwinn.

Gen. Denver, Secretary of State, had left for the states, to claim his seat in the House of Representatives in the next Congress.

A party of 120 recruits left in the "Uncle Sam," to join Walker's expedition. Another expedition was to go to Nevada.

Judge Norton has decided that the sale of the ship property made by the city in December, 1853, for $1,000,000, was invalid.

A large fire had occurred in Jamestown.—Loss $75,000. Principal sufferers — Dr. Dodge, druggist; Messrs. Donovan, Heffernan and Butterfield, merchants. The Masonic Hall was consumed.

Advices from Oregon announce the safety of Gov. Stephens. He with his party were at Fort Benton at last accounts.

From Valparaiso.—The English steamer Bolivia has arrived at Panama, with dates from Valparaiso to September 14th, and from Callao to the 25th. Ex-President Belzu was a passenger on his way to the United States.

Dates from Australia are to the 26th of July. The news was unimportant. Haxall flour sold at Melbourne on the 7th for £50.

FROM TEXAS.—The office of the Adjutant General of Texas was lately set on fire and burnt, with all the documents, army rolls, and in fact, every important paper in relation to the military affairs of Texas, were consumed. There is no means to procure duplicates.—The incendiary was, it is supposed, implicated in the forging transactions brought to light a few months since.

On Wednesday, E. R. Peck, Native American, was elected Mayor of Austin, by a majority of seven over A. B. Gill, Anti-American.

The late fall in stocks brought down with it several Wall street (New York) operators, who were not able on Saturday to fulfil their engagements. Most of these disasters were on the Erie Railroad, but none of them are of any consequence outside of Wall street.

Mr Watts Hanscom of Machias, Me., while on a hunting tour one day last week, shot a buck deer, the meat of which, after being carefully dressed, weighed 218 pounds. The meat and hide brought $14.

The following advertisement under the head of a Wife Wanted, is in a Batesville, Arkansas, paper; "Any gal what's got a bed, a coffee-pot, and a skillet, knows how to cut out britches, can make a huntin shirt, and knows how to take care of children, can have my services until death parts both of us."

Prospectus for the Portsmouth Daily Gazette.

THE subscriber proposes to issue a Daily Campaign Newspaper at Portsmouth, N. H., for the term of four months, commencing about the middle of November, and continuing until after the March election of 1856, provided 1000 Advance Paying Subscribers are obtained. It will be devoted to the dissemination of National Democratic and Liberal Principles, the News of the Day general and local, Miscellany, Correspondence from the principal points in the State, &c. No pains will be spared to present an interesting and readable sheet to the general and business public as well as to the politician, for which the subscriber's facilities are ample. We ask our friends to aid in obtaining subscriptions.

Terms for the campaign—$1, in advance, which will be considered on delivery of the first number.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be free from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without Medicine, in this small treatise clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, sealed, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE-LANEY, No 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. sly d&w&w

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby no applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others do the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his rights before the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual preliminary delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them the early and favorable consideration of the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the Present Commissioner.

Agust 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Traveller.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to the power and sweetness, they are nothing fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for a Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s Instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Hiller.

A SLAVE RESCUE IN BLAIR COUNTY, PA.—There has been some excitement in Holidaysburg, arising out of the attempt of Mr Parsons of Romney, Virginia, to retake a runaway slave who ran away last August, but whose master, at that time, took no pains to recover him.

"The slave Jacob Green, a few weeks after, returned, under cover of night, stole a horse, and carried off five of Mr Parsons' slaves. Two weeks ago he again returned, and carried off five slaves from the same place, belonging to Mr Stump. This induced Stump, Parsons, and a nephew of Mr Parsons to start in pursuit of them. In Bedford county, two of Mr Sump's slaves were overtaken and sent back. Green discovered Parsons in the cars and jumped out, and Parsons followed and secured him though he was heavily armed.

"Green admitted he was Parsons' slave, and presuming this to be satisfactory evidence Parsons ordered his horse out, mounted the slave before him, and was about to depart, when Green slipped off and ran. Parsons caught him on the railroad. General Potts, the weighmaster at Gaysport, demanded his authority for arresting the negro. Parsons refused to show any authority and declared that he was arresting him under the fugitive slave law. The excitement rose to a very high pitch. Parsons attempted to force the slave toward the tavern, but he was grappled by Col. Piper, J. R. Crawford and General Potts, who held him pinioned, while Wm. Carr, the negro barber, kicked him.

"During the melee, they forced the slave from Parsons, and Carr took him off. The relief of the fugitive effected, Potts went before a magistrate, and made oath against Parsons for attempting to kidnap. Parsons procured bail. Jacob Green, the slave, is probably on his way to Canada, and Parsons is put to the trouble and expense of standing a lawsuit for endeavoring to arrest a slave—such he was beyond a doubt. The thing is not ended yet."—Exchange.

CREMATION.—A New York correspondent of the Boston Transcript says:

The Evening Post has a judicious reproof to the intermeddling people of Milwaukie, for not allowing a citizen of the place to burn the remains of his wife in accordance with her dying request. This is one of the frequent instances of republican intolerance which finds no parallel in despotic Europe. The moment any person or set of persons assert practically a new mode of action, or way of thinking in regard to any social rite or institution,—there is an outbreak of indignation and an attempt at legal interference. In no part of the world is there so little individuality, and so much tyrany of public opinion. To read the anathemas of the Milwaukie press, any one would imagine the persecuted husband had committed some awful crime against society. A peaceable and well-behaved company were subjected to the grossest indignities here by the police, the other night, because of the scandalous stories set afloat, by the papers, about their conduct and intentions. In regard to the Milwaukie affair, Mr Bryant, as we take the writer to be, makes some very sensible observations on the subject of 'cremation,' in which he justifies the destruction of the human corpse by fire. Little & Brown ought to send a copy of Sir Thomas Browne's Essays to Milwaukie; perhaps the perusal of that good philosopher's tract on "Urn Burial" would mollify the meddlesome citizens of that place.

The synod of the reformed Dutch church, which had been in session in New York for several days, adjourned on Friday. The troublesome question as to the admission o the classis of North Carolina was quietly settled by the Rev. Dr. Bethune offering a preamble and resolutions kindly requesting the classis of North Carolina to withdraw, which were adopted by a vote of 55 to 34. It was evident that the synod were not prepared to denounce slavery as a crime.

No; nor yet to approve of it as a christian act. They chose therefore to send off the Classis, as Uncle Toby did the fly. That did not settle any question, however: it only stove it off for the present; and in the mean time the Classis of N. C. is virtually, though mildly, kept out of the Synod, because of its connexion with slavery, which would be a constant bone of contention if it were admitted.

THE ELECTIONS STILL TO COME IN 1855.—Louisiana votes on Monday, November 5, for State officers and five Representatives to Congress. Mississippi, Monday, November 5, State officers and five Representatives to Congress. New York, Tuesday, November 6, State officers but no Governor or Lieut. Governor. Wisconsin, Tuesday, November 6, State officers. Massachusetts, Tuesday, November 6, Governor, State officers and Legislature. Maryland, Wednesday, November 7, six Representatives to Congress, two State officers, Legislature, &c. In Tennessee, Alabama, California, Indiana, and Pennsylvania, the Legislature in each State elect one United States Senator.

The Rothschilds, according to their own estimate, possess $700,000,000 in personal property, exclusive of real estate, seignories, mines, &c., which amount to at least half as much more, making the enormous sum of over one thousand million dollars, or an amount much larger than the entire valuation of New York city.

Lily Dale.

THIS is a new Cook Stove, invented last year by the makers of the world renowned Bay State Stove, and is intended to meet the wants of all desiring a cheap Stove which will unite beauty with economy. It may be used either with Coal or Wood. The arrangements for using either are very complete. The size of the oven is large for this Stove. It bakes as quick as any Stove in the market, and with an equal heat in every part. No Stove has ever been invented that has come so rapidly into use as the LILY DALE. Thousands of them have been sold within the last year in the New England States and have given perfect satisfaction.

Any person who likes an early breakfast, and wishes to purchase a first rate Stove for a small amount of money, we cordially invite to call at No. 46 Market street, where they will find the greatest variety of Cook, Parlor and Office stoves that can be found in this section of the country—all to be sold at reduced prices for Cash.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum.—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With those facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be THE Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1855.

NO ANSWER.—The New Hampshire Patriot, of Oct. 17, in an editorial article, said:

"Uncle Toby of the Portsmouth Chronicle must be either a knave or a knave or a fool," and as a reason for this courteous opinion, charged him with saying sundry things which he never said.

In the Daily Chronicle of the 24th, we copied the Patriot's article on Uncle Toby entire—and appended to it the old man's answer, closing with these words:

"But we call upon him, [the writer or editor of the Patriot;] if he has one spark of the honesty which he commends to Uncle Toby—to publish in his paper, some extract from Uncle T. of the kind he charges, viz: "that the people universally, almost, were in favor of the passage of the law,"—or to say that Uncle T. denies that he ever said so, and that if so,—then the honorable titles of knave and fool belong elsewhere. Common justice demands that he shall do one or the other.

We have examined the Patriot, of the 31st, and see no allusion to the matter—although we sent the article carefully marked, to that office!

What shall we conclude? Has that writer any regard for justice or truth? He charges Uncle T. with saying certain things, and calls him hard names for saying them. Uncle T. denies the sayings,—and calls on the Patriot to quote his sayings, or notice his denial, or retract its charges.

The Patriot does neither. We will not call its editor or writer (as he called Uncle T.) "a knave or a fool—or a vilifier." We will not accuse him of "paltry arrogance," of acting "knavishly," or of lacking "charity." But we will ask him, whether, when he has utterly mistaken a writer's position and grounded a heavy charge on his own mistake, he ought not to retract the charge, and correct the error?

PORTSMOUTH, VA.—The Transcript of Oct. 27, says:

It is believed that those who have been absent from their homes during the prevalence of the epidemic may return with safety during the next week. On Thursday night ice was formed an eighth of an inch in thickness, and yesterday morning the earth was completely covered with a thick white frost. The weather still continues quite cool and healthy, and only now and then a lingering case of fever can be found.

Rev Mr Hume, a baptist pastor, was to preach next day, in his own church in the forenoon, and in the Presbyterian Church in the afternoon. The Transcript says Mr H. is the only Pastor now in town, having been here, as is generally known, during the whole season of pestilence. He has been preserved from an attack of the fever and has had religious services of some kind every Sabbath, except one when he was prostrated by the fatigue he had undergone.

The Secretary of the Navy has addressed a complimentary letter to Com. McKeever, who remained at his post as the commandant of the Portsmouth (Va.) Navy Yard, during the whole of the terrible epidemic, although tendered a leave of absence. His reply was, that, to him "the post of danger was the post of honor." Mr Dobbin writes him that the man who remains at his post where "pestilence walketh at noonday" exhibits more heroic bravery than he who faces the cannon's mouth, and invites him to report at head quarters.

Master E. F. Olmstead, who for 12 years past has commanded the U. S. steamer Engineer, has been detached at his own request. The Honorable Secretary of the Navy in granting his request, says:

"You are detached from the 'Engineer' at your own request. Notwithstanding the recent action of the Board and the Executive, it was my intention to allow you to continue in your command, a testimonial of my high appreciation of your noble and self sacrificing conduct during the recent terrible visitation which has so sorely afflicted Portsmouth and Norfolk.

I am informed that you steadfastly remained at your post in the midst of disease and death, and only left it to minister to the sick and the dying. This modest, quiet and unostentatious conduct, in the face of an enemy whom God alone could conquer, entitles you to the gratitude of the people, and the admiration of the Department.

I could not, in granting your request, say less."

HOW THE TURKS TAKE THE WAR.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, when he got to Constantinople, was surprised at the apathy of the turbaned fellows, for whose sake all the present turmoil was undertaken. He says:

"It is the general impression that the good Sultan (may the blessed prophet thrice anoint his beard,) wishing to save the blood of true believers, has hired infidel troops to fight with infidels. When they have killed each other off like dogs, then all good Mussulmen step in for your spoils. So this religious people, leaving their affairs in the hands of Providence and the Pashas, sedately smoke their pipes and drive off dull care in clouds of latakia."

PRESENTATION.—John Kinsman, Esq., late Superintendent of the Eastern Railroad, being about to leave Salem, Mass., was on Wednesday last, presented, by his railroad and other friends, with an elegant service of Silver Plate, consisting of a beautiful Salver, Pitcher, and six Goblets, and a fine Gold Watch for his wife.

ORDINATION.—On Wednesday, Oct. 31, at Hampton, Mr John Colby was ordained pastor of the Congregational Church and society.

Invocation and reading of the scriptures, by Rev Mr Otis of Rye; Prayer, by Rev Mr Parsons of Dover; Sermon, by Rev Dr Cleaveland of Lowell, Mass; Charge to the Pastor, by Rev Mr Tenney of Plaistow and Haverhill; Right Hand of Fellowship, by Rev Mr Dinsmore of North Hampton; Charge to the People, by Rev Mr Spaulding of Newburyport; Concluding Prayer, by Rev Mr Steele of Stratham; Benediction, by Rev John Colby, the pastor, formerly a printer by profession, and recently a graduate of Dartmouth and Andover.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE for November has been promptly furnished us, as usual, by Fetridge & Co., through Mr Shores, agent in this city. The contents include valuable papers on Pompeii, Nicaragua, on the building of houses; with the usual full quota of miscellaneous reading, —serious and comic—well illustrated by engravings. The present number closes the eleventh half-yearly volume.

Putnam for November, also received from Fetridge & Co. Mr Shores has it.

☞ Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions for November, with splendid colored Plate, and numerous other embellishments, just received from the publisher, Frank Leslie, New York.

STATE REFORM SCHOOL.—The Commissioners to locate this institution have selected Manchester as the place. They have taken a bond of the General Stark farm, that part of it between the river and Union street, for $10,000. This comprises about one hundred acres of land. We understand the commission were unanimous in their decision. The decision of the Commissioners is subject to the ratification of the Governor and Council.

PRESIDENTIAL.—The papers are already discussing the question of the Presidency. The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial, alluding to the candidates named by the different wings of the Democratic party, says:

After all, it would not be surprising if the nominee should be a Southern man, to the discomfiture both of Mr Pierce and Mr Buchanan, and it is the sentiment of thousands in the free States that their interests, character and dignity will be safer in the hands of a Southern than a Northern Democrat; and for the reason that the political training of Northern Democrats learn them some bad tricks, which they cannot soon get over, after their elevation to the highest office.

☞ The officers of the New England Emigrant Aid Company, of which we notice Hon. Ichabod Goodwin, Esq., of this city is one of the Directors,—have issued a manly and high toned circular "to the people of Missouri," stating the needs of Kansas, and the objects of the Company—asserting the rights of freemen, and their determination to do all in their power to maintain them.

FORREST AS A DRAWER—(equal to a pair of ordinary ones.)—The New York correspondent of the Boston Transcript says—

"New Yorkers will crowd to see Mr. Forrest, let him play ever so often. I can give you a curious fact which shows that Forrest draws here like a mustard poultice. Manager Marshall told me that he had been figuring up his gross receipts during Mr. F's. engagement for the last five years at the Broadway, and that they amounted to nearly a quarter of a million of dollars!"

RECIPROCITY.—The Louisville Journal announces that Gov. Crittenden, Senators Butler and Toombs, and Mr. Hilliard, having been invited to lecture in Boston, "have accepted the invitation in the spirit in which it was given." The New York Evening Post, in copying the article from the Journal, pertinently asks:

Why will not the people of the South have their revenge upon the Boston people for these impertinent invitations, and invite Sumner, Banks, Seward, Chase and others of their way of thinking, to go to Richmond or Charleston, New Orleans, St. Louis or Louisville, to give them a talk about slavery? It would be a capital way of resenting the insult of these Boston abolitionists, and we doubt would prove a good speculation, especially if it was understood that every hearer should bring his own tar and feathers.

WRONG CREDIT.—We credited a paragraph, denying any knowledge of a bread league in Concord, to the Reporter. It was a misprint. The item was from the Patriot.

MAMMOTH POTATO.—Mr. Daniel Cater of Barrington, has left at this office a Potato weighing two pounds eight ounces. It was raised from the balls first planted three years ago, and has not yet acquired a name.

And still they come—bigger yet! Mr. Eli Demeritt of Madbury, has sent in a Potato, a long red, weighing 3 pounds and 1 ounce! This beats anything we have heard of in these diggins.—Dover Enq.

BIG CARROTS.—We have received some samples of carrots, raised on the farm of Tichenor Miles, Esq., of Madbury. Some idea may be formed of their size from the fact that he has raised the present season 1440 pounds upon one square rod!—Dover Enq.

LOCAL.

DEDICATION AND INSTALLATION.—On Thursday afternoon the new meeting house for the North Parish in this city was dedicated; and in the evening Rev Lyman Whiting was installed as pastor.

Twenty-three churches and as many ministers were invited, most of whom attended. The audience was large, filling the house at both services.

The dedication services, at 2 P. M., were: An Anthem; Invocation, Rev Mr Tobey, of Durham; Selections from Scripture, Rev Mr Lamson, of Portsmouth; Prayer, Rev Mr Edwards, of Woburn; Hymn; Sermon, Rev Mr Whiting, of Portsmouth; Prayer of Dedication, Rev Mr Fitz, of Ipswich; Dedication Anthem; Benediction.

The installation services, at 7 P. M., were: An Anthem; Invocation, Rev Mr Fifield, of South Newmarket; Selections from Scripture, Rev Mr Robie, of Greenland; Hymn; Sermon, Rev Mr Blanchard, D. D., of Lowell; Prayer of Installation, Rev Mr Tobey, of Durham; Charge to the Pastor, Rev Mr Mann, of Exeter; Fellowship of the Churches, Rev S. C. Bartlett, of Manchester; Anthem; Address to the People, Rev Mr Robinson, of Winchester; Concluding Prayer, Rev Mr Spaulding, of Newburyport; Doxology—"Praise God," &c.; Benediction.

The music was appropriate and excellent, performed by a well trained choir nearly thirty in number, under the direction of Prof. Clark, who presided at the organ. The instrument has recently been put up, tuned and otherwise improved by Messrs. Barton & Cobb, and skilfully handled, as it was on this occasion, discourses most eloquent music.

FICTION VS. FACT.—The execution of the Maine Law, recently passed in this State, (when it is executed,) is managed on a partizan principle; and whatever may be said in denial of this fact in practice, it is notorious that the statute is brought to operate almost exclusively on those who are opposed to the policy of the dominant party. * * * * * * A perfect earthquake of indignation is caused here by the sale of half a pint of essence of peppermint, or, in Portsmouth, because of the retailing of as much alcohol, while in this city and in that, the agencies dole out drunkenness in the name, and under the sanction of law with indiscriminate liberality. The proofs of these facts do not come to us certified by the opponents, but by the friends of the prohibitory law.—Concord N. H. Patriot.

So far as Portsmouth is concerned, we assure the Patriot that these statements are utterly erroneous. There has been no such earthquake of indignation here—nothing like party preference has been seen in the operation of the statute hereabouts—and our Agency does not dole out drunkenness with indiscriminate liberality, but is strictly and carefully managed. Liquors may be sometimes delivered to improper persons; for there are some tipplers who will invent many lies, and even perjure themselves for a dram; but the agent here is an old citizen, well known to be careful and judicious, and as little likely to be imposed upon as any man that could have been selected.

No respectable paper will contradict us in these assertions,—nor any respectable man, whether a friend or an opponent of the law.

☞ Messrs Marsh & York have recently opened a Periodical Depot, near the Eastern Railroad Station in this city; and will furnish all the popular publications of the day, at the lowest rates. We have had some dealings with the new firm, and can recommend them as prompt, obliging, and worthy of confidence. We are indebted to them, among other things, for a copy of Leavitt's Old Farmer's Almanac for 1856—received even before "the nick of time." It is as full of interest and valuable information as ever.

☞ The New Hampshire Gazette is to be published as a campaign paper, daily, from the middle of November till the March election, if one thousand dollar subscribers are obtained. See advertisement.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—It is said that Judge Kane has arrived in Washington for the purpose of consulting with higher authorities with reference to Passmore Williamson's case.—Senator Seward had also arrived there.

Notice.

BONDHOLDERS of the P. & C. Railroad, are hereby notified that an adjourned meeting will be held at the COURT HOUSE in Portsmouth, THIS DAY, Friday, at 11 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is respectfully requested.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Bondholders of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad.

AT a meeting held by the Bond Holders of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, at the Court House in Portsmouth, on Monday, Oct. 22d,—Hon. Abner Greenleaf in the chair,—it was resolved,

That George Minot of Concord, Thomas Clough of Canterbury, S. Plumer Dow of New Market, Charles L. Woodbury of Boston, Charles L. Frost of New York, and Aaron H. Hill and Henry F. Wendell of Portsmouth, be and are hereby appointed a Committee to confer with the Trustees and Directors of the Corporation as to the respective rights of parties, claimants and creditors, to the road and road property, under the mortgage, or otherwise, and to ascertain the full and exact amount of liabilities under the mortgage, with a view of closing the affairs of the Corporation under the deed of trust. Also,

Resolved, That they ascertain the names of the holders of the Bonds with the amount, and their residences, and report the same to an adjourned meeting. It was also

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Russian Charge de Affaires has no information of the advent, as reported, of an Ambassador from the Czar, with a confidential communication, suggestive of the terms on which the United States may mediate in the existing conflict.

Lieut. Gen. Scott will receive upwards of $10,500 back pay, by virtue of his brevet appointment, dating from March 29th, 1847, or about $1300 a year additional to his pay and emolument as Major General.

Commodore Paulding left here this afternoon to join his flag-ship, the Potomac, at New York, which sails for the West Indies shortly.

A private letter received by the Africa, states that although Mr Mason, our Minister to France, is enfeebled by his late attack of paralysis, his intellect is not in the least impaired, and further that he stands high at court.

The whole number of applications for bounty land warrants at the Pension office, under the late act is 228,800, and of warrants issued 50,043. The applications are now decreasing, only 5500 having been received during October.

PIRACY AND MURDER.—The Sydney, Australia papers of the 11th July, contain a narrative of piracy and murder, said to have been committed on board the whaling ship John of New Bedford, in which the captain, two mates, and several seamen were murdered by some native sailors, and the ship taken possession of. This information was brought to Synney by a schooner, which touched at Roches Island, July 8th, off which port the John was boarded by some natives on the 17th of April.

K-Ns ATTACKED BY THE IRISH.—A procession of Young Americans, who had been holding a political mass meeting in the Bowery, N.Y., was attacked on the way home by a party of Irishmen, and broken up. The assaulters were armed with knives, pistols, bludgeons and stones, which they used pretty freely, severerely injuring many in the procession. The American banners were seized and destroyed.

CHOLERA ON BOARD STEAMER SIERRA NEVADA.—A letter from Acapulco of Oct 14 to the N. Y. Times says that the steamer Sierra Nevada, from San Juan with the passengers who left New York Sept. 5th, put into that port about the 7th of October.

The cholera had been on board to a frightful extent; 71 deaths are reported to have occurred on the passage, and 24 had died while in that port. The authorities refused to let the dead be brought on shore. The writer intimates that the mortality has been exaggerated.

The Cortes, of the same line, which put in a week afterwards, had had no sickness.

EARLY SNOW.—At Sanbornton Bridge, on Sunday last, it snowed for five hours without intermission. Snow fell to the depth of seven inches in Schoharie, N. Y., on Wednesday last. At Rochester it fell without cessation for twenty hours, and passengers by the New York Central, and also by the Erie railroad, reported snow in considerable quantities along both tracks on Friday.

COUNTERFEIT COIN.—Spurious half dollars of the date of 1823, and brass ninepences crossed to represent ten cent pieces, are now much in vogue, and being well got up and plated, are calculated to deceive. Look out for them!—Boston Trans.

A lad about nine years of age, named James Gilding, committed suicide by drowning himself in the pond of the Haywood Chair Manufacturing Company, situated in Gardner, Mass. No reasons were given for the act, which was a deliberate one.

The famous race horse, Henry Perritt, which it is said had made the fastest mile on record, fell dead a few days ago, just after winning a four mile race on the Nashville course.

The Louisville Journal notices a single sale of pork by one firm in that city to the amount of $240,000. An Englishman was the purchaser.

It is not uninteresting at the present moment to know the amount of the national debt of England. On the 31st of March of the present year it was £751,645,818; the amount of interest payable on which was £22,557,355.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, Want of Energy, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. E. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without Medicine, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at the least possible cost, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. E. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s13 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis
ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

PIANOS.

HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.

MANUFACTURERS of

GRAND AND SQUARE

PIANO-FORTES.

☞ Particular attention is solicited to our PATENT SUSPENSION BRIDGE—also our PATENT GRAND ACTION, as applied to both Grand and Square Pianos.

WAREROOMS,

NEW FREESTONE BLOCK,

No. 409 WASHINGTON STREET,

NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and quickness of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to power, quickness and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

Morning Chronicle.

THE FIRST PRINTED BOOKS.—There is even now much doubt as to the precise year when movable metal types were invented and first used; it is sufficient, however, to say that it was between the years 1440 and 1450. Some single printed sheets, containing the Pope's indulgences, bearing date of 1454 and 1455 are known, and an almanac of 1457. But the first printed book known is the celebrated Mazarin Bible in two folio volumes. It was so called from the discovery of a copy in the library of Cardinal Mazarin at Paris, about the middle of the last century, since which time seventeen other copies have been found in various parts of Europe; of these, nine were in public, and nine in private libraries. It has no date, but at the end of each volume, of the copy in the Royal Library at Paris, is an inscription in red ink, including the year 1456.

The first book known to be extant which has the name of the place where it was printed, and that of the printers, together with the year when it was executed, is known as the Mentz Psalter, printed in 1457. Faust and Schoeffer were the printers. Only six copies of this are known. The first Bible with a date was also published by Faust and Schoeffer in 1462, in 2 vols. folio. They were soon after multiplied, chiefly in Latin and German; yet all these editions are exceedingly rare.

CHEMICAL.—Sugar is produced in the human body, as is well known. It is now believed that the liver produces it.—Ex. paper.

We doubt this theory as a universal principle, without exception. Some people that we wot of are so cross and sour that we opine the chemist has not yet appeared who could find sugar in them.—Transcript.

DOYLESTOWN, (Pa.) Oct. 30,—During the high wind of Sunday, the Agricultural Exhibition building in this village was blown down and completely demolished. The building was 280 feet long and 50 feet wide, and the cost nearly $30,000.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1855.

INTOLERANCE.—The Great Falls Journal of last week has an excellent article on "persecution," which contains severe reflections on bigotry of all sorts. We extract:

All persecution is the child either of lust or vanity. A class of people who persecute, either do so because of their lust after riches or power, or because in their excessive vanity they believe they are infallible.

Protestantism is Romanism modified, and in some instances but slightly so. Catholics have their ceremonies, so do Protestants; Catholics have their priests or teachers with unlimited power, Protestants have theirs as teachers without infallible power. Catholics put to death those who do not believe their religion; Protestants persecute each other with sneers and ridicule and false epithets.—No persecution can be refined, and no truly refined person can take part in it.

To meet the exigency of the present time with its spirit of persecution, we need men of firm, unflinching spirit, both in religion and politics; and we want the living, the charitable Christian; the one to stand against the storm and breast the waves which roll in upon disciples of unpopular faiths, the other to teach the lessons of love, and pour the oil of charity upon the troubled waters. How much such men are respected; men who will turn neither to the right hand, nor to the left, but pass right onward in the path which seemeth to them to lead the nearest to the celestial city.

☞ The Newburyport Herald, (always a Whig paper so long as there were any Whigs,) says that "Out of perhaps forty Gardner advocates, at least three quarters of them are office holders or candidates for office; and the proportion is full as large of the Beach orators; and the whigs stand in this particular, singular and alone, not having or expecting place, but adhering to their old creed with the tenacity that a shipwrecked sailor clings to the last spar of his stranded barque."

THE DRUM is an instrument of the rudest sort, to make a noise, rather than music. The kettle drum, skilfully played, may be made to give great effect and brilliancy to martial bands out of doors, and even in large halls; but the old stirring bass-drum, with the crash, destroying all harmony, should not be tolerated within doors; and we think can well be spared from further service every where.—"Alphonzo," than whom nobody has a nicer taste in such matters, recently came down upon this heathenish instrument, in the Journal, and has found many supporters in his theory; and the editor of the Manchester Mirror is "not able to comprehend the beauty of sheepskin music"—though the band he refers to was sixteen tenor drums, played without other instruments. At a fine promenade concert and dance, at the City Hall, Newburyport, a few evenings since, the old bass drum in Bond's band,—which was used only till the dancing commenced,—destroyed all the music when it was struck, and half the pleasure of hearing the excellent performances was lost. Out upon the bass-drum, say we. r.

☞ The first number of a quarto publication, entitled "The Pictorial Sunday Book, Scripture Atlas, and Geography of the Holy Land," is furnished us by Messrs. Marsh & York. This is a London work of considerable merit, and is cheap at 25 cents per number. The frontispiece is a full page steel engraving, well executed, representing the Infant Saviour with his Mother; and the book is filled with wood cuts illustrative of bible scenes.

FASHIONS CHANGE.—Isaac B. Wiggin, of Newburyport, has been convicted of Polygamy by the Court of Common Pleas now sitting in Salem. Isaac had no more wives than some other Isaacs we read of, but times have altered within four thousand years; and the best thing he can do when he gets clear of this affair, is, to start for Utah.—Herald.

What Isaac does the itemizer read of? The old Bible Isaac is recorded as having one wife, viz.: Madam Rebekah. Who says he had any more?

INVENTIVE GENIUS OF THE AMERICANS.—Few are aware of the marvellous triumphs constantly going forward in this country. A contemporary says:

We have seen lately, as a specimen of rare American mechanical genius, a machine costing not over five hundred dollars, invented by a working man, which takes hold of a sheet of brass, copper or iron, and turns off complete hinges at the rate of a gross in ten minutes, hinges, too, neater than are made by any other process; also, a machine that takes hold of an iron rod and whips it into perfect bit-pointed screws with wonderful rapidity and by a single process. This is also the invention of a working man; and both of these machines are superior to anything of the kind in the world. No other process of manufacture can compete with them.

DR. KANE.—The New York Evening Post says the story that this gentleman is about to marry one of the Fox girls, of spirit-rapping notoriety, is without a shadow of foundation.

Nathan Stickney, Esq., one of the most respected of the older citizens of Concord, died at his residence on Monday evening last.

A PROCLAMATION, BY THE GOVERNOR.

In accordance with duty, it has ever been the pleasure as well as the custom of the people of New England, and more recently, of most of the other States of the Union, to set apart a day toward the close of each succeeding year to make to our Creator and Preserver the due acknowledgment of our entire dependence on him for all the numerous blessings vouchsafed to us, and to render him thanks for his manifest goodness and mercy to his dependent people. By his benificent care and protection we have been and still are in the full enjoyment of our civil and religious liberties, our charitable, social and christian institutions, the increasing means of education, and of the mental and moral improvement of all classes of the people, and the blessings of peace, health and prosperity.

The earth also, for the past season, has yielded an abundant harvest in all the necessary and comforts of life, and ample remuneration has been awarded to the varied labor of man; and the people, relieved from all apprehensions of want, may cheerfully rejoice and be thankful in the midst of plenty.

For these and other innumerable blessings, it is incumbent on us to render our sincere and hearty thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, to whom we are so deeply indebted for them all.

For this purpose, therefore, with the advice of the Council, I appoint Thursday, the 29th day of November inst., to be observed throughout this State as a day of Prayer, Praise and Thanksgiving to God; and I would most earnestly recommend that the people, omitting all labor and amusement inconsistent with the solemnities of the occasion, assemble on that day at their respective places of public worship, and there gratefully and devoutly acknowledge their manifold obligations to Heavenly Benefactor, sincerely offer him their praise and their thanks for all his favors, and with heartfelt prayer beseech their continuance.

Given at the Council Chamber, in Concord, this first day of November, A. D. 1855.

RALPH METCALF.

By his Excellency the Governor, with advice of Council. LEMUEL N. PATTEE, Secretary of State.

STAYING THE HAND OF TIME.—The Boston Courier says:

The rook on the house top, which excited a poet's muse, did not attract so large a crowd in his generation, as the pigeon that perched on the minute hand of the Fitchburg Railroad depot clock yesterday afternoon. Boys gaped and hooted, but the bird was unmoved; men shouted and threw missiles, but his pigeonship looked down with disdain; and having delayed time half an hour, he betook himself away, leaving whitebeard's hand withered.

A NEW STATE IN TEXAS.—A writer from Western Tennessee, says that the German, French, Swiss, Hungarian, and other European settlers in north-western Texas, are to a man in favor of forming a new state out of the western portion of that state; and to a man they are opposed to slavery. There are many settlers from the Northern states among them too, and together he thinks they can command ten thousand votes already. The letter is written by Mr. Wilcox, a member of Congress from Mississippi, who has lately returned from a visit to Texas. By the act annexing Texas it is provided that it may be divided into two or more states, and it is quite probable that such a division will ere long be demanded.

CHARACTERISTIC ANECDOTE OF PELISSIER.—The following characteristic story is taid of the commander-in-chief of the French army in the Crimea.

Some years ago, Pelissier on parade one morning got angry with a sous officier of a cavalry regiment, whose tenue seemed quite defective. He abused the man most violently, and cut him across the face with his whip. The man seized one of his pistols, and endeavored to fire at his commanding officer, but the pistol missed fire. Pelissier, swearing a fearful oath, but otherwise quite calm, said—"Fellow, I order you a three days arrest for not having your arms in better order!"

GOV. CHASE ON SENATOR DOUGLASS AND THE OHIO ELECTION.—At a complimentary supper given to the Hon. L. D. Campbell, by a few of his friends in this city, on Saturday night, the Governor elect of Ohio made a brief speech, in which occurred a bit so happy and pungent that we must give it publicity. Mr Chase said that on the evening when it seemed apparent that he was defeated, Mr Douglas, of Illinois—though forbidden by the Democratic Executive Committee in council assembled, to speak in this State before election—was called upon by therejoicing Democracy at the Enquirer office. There Mr Douglass said that he proudly congratulated the State of Ohio; in the language of the great Irish orator, Curran, she had been "redeemed, regenerated, and disenthralled"—"And next day, said Mr Chase, "the returns from the country enabled us to add, with singular propriety, the words of Curran that Mr Douglass could not use—the concluding words of the very sentence from which Mr Douglass had quoted, viz: 'by the irresistible genius of universal emancipation." This sentence occurs in Curran's speech in the case of Hamilton Rowan.—Cincinnati Commercial.

A great many persons have been shocked, as well they might be, by the revalations in relation to the Free Lovers of New York, and yet, when a foreign artist comes here, the mother of seven children by several different men, to whom she was only allied by "passional attractions," those same persons run mad with delight at her acting, and admire and patronize, as though she was the divine emblem of virtue let down from heaven.—Newburyport Herald.

Henry Ward Beecher has published a card in which he says, with the exception of Chicago, he knew nothing of the terms charged for the lectures in the several places where they were delivered until he was more than half through the engagement.

The bucket factory of Elijah Whiton, at Hingham, was destroyed by fire on Monday night. Loss $4500.

BONDHOLDERS' MEETING.

The adjourned meeting of the Bondholders of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, was held at the Court House in this city, on Friday, Hon Abner Greenleaf in the Chair.

The committee reported, and sundry documents were read. After which, Mr Emery, one of the Trustees, made some statements and remarks, expressing his willingness and desire to have a legal and fair adjustment of all conflicting claims and liabilities between the parties.

Mr Woodbury, one of the committee, then made some remarks which seemed to agree in the main with those of Mr Emery; and stated that Messrs Emery, Tullock and others, who have the care of the road, extended every facility to the committee in making their examinations, and gave all the information they sought. Mr Woodbury stated that suits in equity had been brought against the Trustees; which suits must be carried on and closed before any title could be given to the property; and as two of the trustees had a personal interest in both sides of the suits, it might become necessary for the bondholders to appoint other trustees.

Mr Frost, of New York, thought this necessity had already arisen, and that immediate action was demanded for the legal defence of the rights of the bondholders.

At the close of the debate, a committee was appointed, to protect the rights of the bondholders, either by compromise, or by suits if necessary. The doings of this committee, in reference to a compromise, to be subject to the approval of the bondholders.

The committee appointed, were Sewall Tappan, Esq. of Boston, Thomas D. Bailey, Chas L. Woodbury and Samuel Sheafe, Esqs. of Portsmouth, and J. C. Plumer, Esq. of Epping.

The Bondholders who subscribe the obligation, give this committee power to represent their interests under the mortagage made by the P. & C. Railroad to Robert Rice and others, trustees, dated Aug. 20, 1850—to expend such sums as may be needful, and to submit their doings to the bondholders for approval and ratification. Many of the largest holders have already signed the obligation.

LYCEUM LECTURES.—The Directors of both Courses are at work making every arrangement within their power, for securing the best and most popular lecturers in the country. We acknowledge the receipt of tickets from both.

The Mercantile Course will commence on Wednesday evening next, by a lecture from Rev E. H. Chapin of New York, and a poem by Wm. Stark, Esq. of Nashua. The Portland Brass Band will be present, and enliven the services by their performance.

The Mechanics' Course will commence on the Tuesday evening after, with a lecture by Hon. Joshua Giddings of Ohio; to be followed by other eminent lecturers. Both courses are worthy of patronage: and the two, arranged as they are, to have one lecture per week, will furnish an agreeable weekly recreation, conveying valuable information and instruction.

LOST.—On Thursday evening, Oct. 5, the Common Council of this city, met at the usual place, and adjourned for one week, since which time a quorum of said board has not been heard of. Whether any reward will be paid for information of their whereabouts, we are unable to state.

INSTALLATION.—Rev Mr Patterson is to be installed as Pastor of the Universalist Church in this city, next Thursday afternoon. Rev E. H. Chapin of New York will preach the sermon.

☞ We understand that Mr. Ephraim Otis, of Kittery, head blacksmith at the Navy Yard, has been removed, and a man from Kennebunk appointed in his place.

DIED.—In Charlestown, on Friday morning, Nov. 2, Gen. TIMOTHY UPHAM, aged 72. He was born in Deerfield, N. H., came to Portsmouth in early life; was a Colonel in U. S. Army of 1812, and exposure at that time has ever since had an influence on his health. He was in the battle at Lundy's Lane. He was for many years Collector of the Customs at this port; was Brigadier General in the N. H. Militia; has represented Portsmouth in the N. H. Legislature, and has been a candidate for Governor of the State.—His last public office was that of Navy Agent at Portsmouth. He removed to Massachusetts about a dozen years since. He was a man of noble mind, public spirit, and highly respected by our citizens. His remains will be interred in Portsmouth. The services will take place on the arrival of the first train from Boston, on Monday morning.

☞ The Peruvian Syrup, advertised by Mr Preston, is strongly recommended by well-known and reliable names, in all parts of this country and elsewhere. Pamphlets containing certificates of its efficacy, and directions for its use, are furnished at the City Medicine Store.

COOL ROBBERY.—Some frigid individual, probably wishing to obtain an additional garment to protect himself from the inclement weather, stepped into the clothing store of B. Cheever & Son, on Friday evening, and helped himself to a nice over-coat hanging near the door, and before the proprietors, who were in the back part of the store, could reach the street, the rogue had vamosed with his booty.

☞ Eld. J. Hemmenway will preach at the Advent Chapel, on Hanover street, to-morrow, and Eld. Moulton the next Sunday.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.—George G. Fogg, Concord—Reporter of the Decisions of the Supreme Judicial Court.

Horton D. Walker, Portsmouth; Noah Martin, Dover; William Kent, Concord; William P. Wheeler, Keene; David Cross, Manchester. David C. Churchill, Lyme; Thomas W. Gillis, Nashua—Trustees of House of Reformation.

Julius Cone, Concord—Inspector of Flour.

Albro L. Robinson, Lancaster; John P. Payson, Portsmouth; Wolcott Hamlin, Andover; George G. Brewster, Kingston; James Garvin, Wakefield—Justices of the Peace and Quorum throughout the State.

ROCKINGHAM COUNTY.—Albert B. Currier, East Kingston; Charles C. Harvey, Portsmouth; Samuel Hanson, Joseph Judkins, Jacob C. Peaslee, Kingston; Thomas L. Fowler, Seabrook; Amos C. Clement, Plaistow; William L. Brackett, Greenland; George Bell, Daniel M. Adams, Derry—Justices of the Peace.

A GREAT PRODUCT OF CORN.—The editor of the Fredericksburg Herald has seen the certificates of half a dozen gentlemen who measured the ground and the corn, who state that Dr E. P. White, of Caroline, raised the past season, on one acre of ground, over one hundred and fifteen bushels of corn!

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

DIPLOMATIC MOVEMENT.—The statement that the Emperor of Russia had resolved to send a new Minister, with full powers, to the United States, may be true, but the Government has not been advised of it. Mr Stockel is a gentleman of respectable capacity, and quite competent to conduct all the negotiations likely to arise between the Russian and American Governments while the present war continues.—Wash. Courant.

Mr Stockel is about to marry a lady in Springfield, Mass., (another Bodisco love affair)—and is to be made full Minister. He has taken a house in Washington,—and in a short time, a Madame Stockel will be installed as mistress of it. These Russians seem to take a great fancy to Yankee wives,—and if they thus marry, and intermarry, there is no telling what will become of us.—N. Y. Express.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—From Brazil—Ravages of the Cholera.—A letter received to-day, by the clipper bark Adjuster, direct from Rio Janeiro, dated Sept. 21, informs us that the cholera is raging there with increasing severity. Between eighty and ninety cases were occurring daily. Eight hundred deaths had already occurred. The people from the interior would not come to town for fear of the pestilence. In Braganza and at Pernambuco, many persons were dying. The epidemic was rather on the decline at Bahia.

The total loss by the burning of the Cordaville factory, is $60,000. Only one life was lost, that of Mary Carter, a girl of 17, sister in law of the superintendent, and the only American girl at work in the mill. She was in the third story, and was urged to jump from the window, but she replied, 'I dare not.' A moment after her clothes caught fire, and she was seen falling to the ground—her clothes and her hair in a blaze. She was taken to her boarding house and lived but an hour. Five persons were badly injured, two it is feared fatally; several others were slightly injured, but it is wonderful that about 50 persons should jump from the third and fourth stories of a building, on to the hard ground, and that but one should be killed, and two others fatally injured. Yet such was the case. Many of those who jumped from the building were walking about in the afternoon, some of them without even a limp. Had more of the operatives resorted to the ladder which was attached to the building they would have escaped easier, but they were hindered or delayed by one of the female operatives who got part way, became bewildered, and stopped, rendering it extremely difficult, if not impossible, under the circumstances, for any one to pass her on the ladder. In the meantime, the flames were pressing hard upon those who remained. Some leaped to the ground without hesitation, whilst others waited until their clothing was on fire before they took the dreaded leap. There should have been one or more additional ladders to the building.—Newburyport Herald.

A KISS IN FEE.—A young German girl was acquitted on a charge of larceny, yesterday, in the Court of Quarter Sessions. Upon the verdict of acquittal being rendered by the jury, she manifested her joy and her gratitude in a manner which very much astonished her counsel, the Court and the bar. With tears of joyful happiness bursting from her sparkling eyes, she embraced her counsel, and imprinted upon his glowing cheek a kiss which resounded throughout the Court room, like the melody of sweet music. Her counsel, a young gentleman of fine personal appearance, though taken by surprise, received this tender acknowledgement of his valuable services from his fair client as a legal tender. The girl left the scene of her trial and her triumph, unconscious of the gaze and the smiles of a crowded court room, and only grateful to her counsel for her deliverance from a charge which had threatened, but a moment before, like a dark cloud, to burst upon her head and darken her future life with the perpetual blackness of despair and degradation.—Phil. Ledger, Wednesday.

THE WAR.—It is a remarkable fact that during the present war in Eurrpe, which has already lasted 18 months, not a single naval engagement worthy of the name has taken place between a Russian ship or ships of war and those of the allies. And yet the Russian navy is, or rather was, very large, far exceeding that of the United States. This extraordinary passivity of the Russian ships, altho' said to be well commanded and manned, marks the difference between them and the tarnal Yankees. Had the United States been in the place of Russia, there would have been many a bloody conflict on the ocean ere this; for, in spite of blockades, &c. more or less of our ships would have got out daring fogs or darkness, and given a good account of themselves before they returned.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

A LIBRARY OF BRICKS.—According to the Leeds Mercury, Col. Rawlinson has just discovered among the ruins of Ancient Babylon an extensive library—not, indeed, printed on paper, but impressed on baked bricks—containing many and voluminous treaties on astronomy, mathematics, ethnology and several other important branches of knowledge.—These treaties contain facts and arguments which, in his opinion, will have no small operation on the study of the sciences to which they relate, and indeed, on almost every branch of learning, and which throws great light upon Biblical history and criticism and the history of our race.

An Appeal to the European Democracy, (Republican party,) has been made by Kossuth, Mazzini, and Ledru Rollin, announcing that, by the fall of Sebastopol, the war is irrecoverably and indefinitely prolonged—it being impossible for Russia to treat after a defeat, without sinking into a third rate position; and it being impossible for the Allies, in the face of public opinion, to offer peace on less onerous conditions. They call upon the European Democracy now to unite against their enemies, and act, proclaiming liberty and fraternal association for all.

Owing to damage caused by the late freshet in Maine, a suspension is caused of operations in nearly all the mills and machinery of the Kennebec, at Waterville. The unsawed lumber has been rafted to Augusta.

Prospectus for the Portsmouth Daily Gazette.

THE subscriber proposes to issue a Daily Campaign Newspaper at Portsmouth, N. H., for the term of four months, commencing about the middle of November, and continuing until after the March election of 1856, provided 1000 Advance Paying Subscribers are obtained. It will be devoted to the dissemination of National Democratic and Liberal Principles, the News of the Day general and local, Miscellany, Correspondence from the principal points in the State, &c. No pains will be spared to present an interesting and readable sheet to the general and business public as well as to the politician, for which the subscriber's facilities are ample. We ask our friends to aid in obtaining subscriptions.

Terms for the campaign—$1, in advance, which will be considered on delivery of the first number.

JAMES H. HEAD, Bookseller and Stationer, has removed from No. 18
To No. 14 Pleasant Street,
Store recently occupied by S. W. Moses. o30s

To the Citizens of Portsmouth and Vicinity.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

The Medical virtues of which are fully set forth in the Pamphlet which will be distributed in a few days, and which, upon perusal, will satisfy you that it is not one of the humbugs of the day. There is no article (excepting the Oxygenated Bitters and Preston's Catholicon,) that has ever been found to alleviate the troubles incident to a DYSPEPTIC. But the PERUVIAN SYRUP operates like a charm; so effectual is it that even the first dose gives immediate relief.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, ASTHMA, DROPSY AND LIVER COMPLAINT,

It surpasses all known remedies. Please read the Pamphlet through, and judge for yourself.

WM. R. PRESTON, Druggist,
Congress Block, Congress street,

Is the Special Agent for the genuine Peruvian Syrup and of him it can be obtained at wholesale and retail.

Dealers can obtain their supplies from him at the Proprietors' Price. n1 4t

Undoubted Testimony

IN FAVOR OF THE MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF

"The Peruvian Syrup."

THE Pamphlet which accompanies this Medicine contains the recommendation of the following well known individuals:

Rev. John Pierpont, Rev. E. T. Gray,
Thos. A. Dexter, Esq., Hon. Wm. Jackson,
Moses Grant, Esq., Henry Lunt, Esq,
Ferdinand Andrews, Esq., Ed. Boston Traveller, all of Boston;
J. B. Congdon, Cashier Merch. Bank, N. Bedford;
Rev. Augustus R. Pope, Somerville, Mass.;
Rev. F. T. Gray, Boston.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indigestion and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities to man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children when they are troubled with Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these features in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be THE Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

PIANOS.

HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.

MANUFACTURERS of

GRAND AND SQUARE

PIANO-FORTES.

WAREROOMS,

NEW PRESCOTT ONE BLOCK,

No. 409 WASHINGTON STREET,

NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are very splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Vinton.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with U S Patent Office, Washington,

76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent. less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1855.

THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY INCENDIARIES.—The trial of Merrill, one of the persons arraigned as an incendiary, for setting fire to buildings at Medford, came on this week before Judge Perkins at Lowell; Benj. F. Butler was his counsel. We are informed that although Merrill confessed his guilt at the examination before the Justice Court at Medford, the Judge decided that no evidence respecting his crime could be received which came from him after he was advised to plead guilty on one count by the officer who had him in charge, and that the evidence of Richardson, who was the State's witness, was rejected by the Court, as the latter was an accomplice. Under this ruling the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, on Tuesday, in the face of Merrill's confession. The result was the cause of much excitement at Medford on Tuesday evening, as fourteen barns have been set on fire there within a year by some of this gang of fire-raisers, and the selectmen have resolved not to prosecute the other cases, since it appears to them that under the ruling of this Court in the Merrill case there is no chance of conviction.—Boston Courier.

The learned Judge Perkins has donkeyized himself by this decision. And the jury have added long ears to their night-caps instead of feathers, by bringing in a verdict in obedience to such silly ruling from the bench.

We have seen some of the queerest ruling in Massachusetts Courts, as to evidence, for a year or two past, which has ever been made anywhere.

Sometimes a paid informer could not give evidence; then a voluntary prosecutor was not to be credited; then a particeps criminis cannot be a valid witness; and lastly, a man's own plea of guilty, though undoubtedly true, is to go for nothing.

One of these days, we think the people of Massachusetts will be tired of such learned judges as rule thus, and elect men of common sense in their stead.

THE WILLIAMSON CASE. Philadelphia, 2d.—The counsel of Passmore Williamson presented a petition to Judge Kane this morning, with a view of conforming to the recent order of the Court, but in consequence of the petition not being addressed to any one, containing no prayer, and omitting the word 'legally,' a word which Judge Kane esteemed important, the petition was reserved for future examination.

If the document contains no prayer, then surely it is no petition. It may be a memorial. If it is not addressed to any one, it demands no answer from any one. Judge Kane may answer it if he sees fit; but he is surely under no official obligation to do so.

As Williamson's counsel, however, now understands its defects, he can frame a new petition, which shall be addressed to the Court, or the Judge, or both,—he can insert a prayer, and as many words legally as he pleases. But the word legally, if connected with the imprisonment, might be a great lie, Williamson would probably decline telling it.

If Judge Kane demands of Williamson that he shall say he is legally imprisoned,—he makes the demand as a coward and a pettifogger—not as a lawyer or a judge.

We have known some clerical upstarts who demanded such a sacrifice of honesty and manhood: we have known demagogues to make lying preambles for soft legislators to swallow: but it remained for Judge Kane to mix a judicial dose of this sickening nature.

Since the above was in type, we have read Judge Kane's decision made Oct. 29.—which suggests terms with which, as an honest man, the prisoner cannot comply. He must in his petition, express his "desire to purge himself of his contempt," &c.

The petition presented on the 2d, as above noticed, is a kind of reply to Judge K's decision of the 29th.

GREAT LEGAL DECISION. — On Friday morning, in the city of New York, the Recorder, in special session, gave his decision in the case of the City Temperance Alliance against Coleman & Stetson, Astor House.—He decided that the plaintiff was bound to prove that the liquor was not imported; that the sale of imported liquors was free to every citizen; and that the section of the prohibitory law, which declares the proof of sale is evidence of unlawful sale, is unconstitutional. He also declared the search, seizure and destruction clauses to be unconstitutional. The defendants were discharged.

We should think so, after all this decision of the Second Daniel. Second Daniel! do we say? he beats a thousand Daniels. He decides first of all, that the plaintiff or complainant must prove a negative, which in the nature of the case is impossible! After this decision, all the others are of no consequence. If it had not been morning, it might have been thought the Recorder had taken an extra glass of brandy and water.

MRS WILSON, whose husband was killed on the Pennsylvania railroad by the breaking of a rail, has recovered $4500 damages. Dr Carrington, who was upset in a stage coach, near Lynchburg, Va., in 1854, has obtained a verdict against the proprietors for $5000 damages.

VERMONT LEGISLATURE.—In the Vermont House on Monday, a bill was introduced by Mr. Robinson of Searsburg, to prevent traffic in intoxicating liquors, (punishing the third offence by death,) which was referred to the committee on the liquor law, without printing.

That committee as a matter of course will strangle the bill. On the same day, a bill passed to be engrossed, commuting the sentence of Matthew Halloran, convicted of wilful murder, from death to imprisonment for life.

☞ We are informed that the Station House of the Eastern Railroad at East Salisbury, was broken into on Thursday night about ten o'clock. But being interrupted in their operations by passers by, the would-be thieves hastily left the premises—and in their hurry forgot to take their umbrella and valise, which contained a pistol, a lot of dickeys, and other articles—by none of which, however, could they be identified.

SHOE THIEVES.—The depot at Salisbury, was broken into on Thursday night, and robbed of six cases of shoes, which were intended for delivery on the morning following. Officers are on the alert for the thieves.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ Rev. Wm. C. Clark, of Elliot, Me., formerly of Exeter, lately fell into the hands of the Philistines in Kansas, by whom he was rather roughly handled. Mr. Clark is known in this part of the country as a noisy, indiscreet, blustering abolitionist. Saucy, impudent and uncourteous, it is not wonderful that he met with some hard knocks from the hardy squatters of Kansas. But his misfortune should not be construed into evidence that real gentlemen—men of kindness, courtesy, and good manners—would ever be molested in that country.—Dover Gazette.

Pro-slavery gentlemen, who worship the patriarchal institution—and mum gentlemen who seal their lips for prudence or for fear—these go safely;—but those indiscreet, impudent men, who dare to say that freedom is preferable to slavery, need not wonder that the drunken chivalry should knock them down with slung shot. Travellers from New England will please to take notice.

☞ Number 2, of Vol. 8, of the Prisoner's Friend, for October, has been received from the publisher, Charles Spear, Boston. The number contains sixteen articles, as follows:

Treatment of Criminals; Puritan Law against Suicide; The Lost Boy; Ordeals; Long Captivity; Asylum for Inebriates; The correction of Juvenile Offenders; Force of Habit; Hanging; The Prisoner of Chilon; A County Attorney for the defence of Criminals; Rooms for the Artisans of Boston; Letters from Prisoners; Journey to Cape Ann; Reprieve of Wilson; The Judge and the Culprit.

The articles are all well written, and the suggestions worthy of consideration. The Magazine is furnished to subscribers at $2 per year.

☞ The citizens of the enterprising little village of Salmon Falls are to have a course of twelve Lyceum Lectures the coming winter. Among the Lecturers already engaged we notice the names of Rev. A. P. Peabody of this city, Rev. T. J. Greenwood of Dover, Rev. James Pratt of Portland, James O. Adams, Esq., of Manchester, H. E. Sawyer, Esq., of Great Falls, and Charles Doe, Esq., of Salmon Falls.

WHIG VIEW OF MR CHOATE'S SPEECH.—The Providence Journal copies about two columns of Mr Choate's speech in Faneuil Hall, and prefaces the same with these comments:

Lost in the maze of metaphorical confusion, and dazzled by the splendor of his gorgeous rhetoric, we may misunderstand Mr. Choate; but it seems to us that the "self sacrifice" of which he so eloquently speaks, and his honeyed words about the "foresight" of the "great" Jefferson, meaning nothing less than a union with the Pierce, Atchison, and Stringfellow Democracy. If this be his meaning, we fancy that there are a great many Whigs, whose sentiments of nationality are not less intense than his own, who will pause long before they will turn their backs upon the whole of their past history, and voluntarily plunge into such a profound abyss of political shame, humiliation, and infamy.

☞ In the course of a few days there is to be published in New York, a work of great interest to the musical and literary world, entitled "Crotchets and Quavers; or Revelations of an Opera Manager in America." By Max Maretzek, the well-known Manager of the Italian Opera in the City of New York.—Samuel French, Publisher, 121 Nassau street.

The Worcester Palladium, democratic, gives the following estimate of the vote, to be polled on Tuesday:—Gardner 42,000, Rockwell and Beach 40,000 each, and Walley the remainder. It says, however, that the Liberal Union men think to swell Beach's vote to 44,000, but his opinion is, that the three leading candidates will run so near together that the energy and activity of the friends on the day of the election may settle the question. There is one good thing about the matter, unless where candidates have the same number, there will be no second part to the play. For that we may thank the plurality law.

SLANDERS ON NORTHERN STATESMEN.—The Richmond Inquirer calls Senator Seward an arch intriguer, and false, hollow-hearted demagogue, but adds, "He is a learned man, not like what John Quincy Adams was,

A bookfull blockhead, ignorantly read,
With loads of learned lumber in his head!"

John Quincy Adams a "blockhead!"—That will do for Virginia.

LOCAL.

BOLD ROBBERIES.—We mentioned on Saturday the theft of a coat from the store of B. Cheever & Son on Friday evening; but did not know then that this was only one of a series of attempts made to steal clothing in that vicinity on the same evening. We have since learned the following particulars from the proprietors of the stores entered by the thieves. The establishment of Mr. Myers has two entrances: while one clerk was engaged with a customer near one door, about seven o'clock, William Blaney, (a somewhat notorious character in this city, recently discharged from our jail,) was heard by another clerk to enter the other door; and as the clerk approached him, Blaney dropped a coat which he had taken in hand, and left rather suddenly, without booty, as far as is known.

Later in the evening, a couple of young men entered Messrs. Cheever's store, apparently together, one going into the middle of the room, which is very deep, and the other remaining near the entrance. While talking with the first respecting a garment, Mr. Cheever heard the other go out, apparently in a hurry, striking his feet against the door; and a gentleman sitting by, said, "He has taken a coat." The thief escaped, and was not identified here; and the other young man referred to, denies all knowledge of him. He was charged with being an accomplice however, and promised to try to have the stolen coat restored.

Later still in the evening, we believe, the store of Messrs. Moses & Downie was entered by a couple of young fellows, Blaney being one. As his companion was looking at some reefing jackets in the back part of the store with Mr. Moses, Blaney, who was near the door, appeared to have just secreted something under his coat. On Mr. Moses approaching him, Blaney opened the door and stepped out on the sidewalk; Mr. M. caught hold of him; Blaney brought his fist round with great force against Mr. M., dropped a rich velvet vest from under his coat, and ran. He was pursued by the watch and others who chanced to be near,—but escaped.

Blaney was afterwards seen, we are told, by Marshal Hanscom; but being in company with several other rowdies, the Marshal did not deem it safe to attempt his arrest. It is to be regretted that such fellows can bully the officers of the law; but with the loop-holes made for all such scamps to escape, in times past, by police justices, lawyers, prosecuting officers and juries, it don't seem advisable to risk one's head for the public good—especially when any needed severity in such cases, if successful in defending the law, is likely to be rewarded by a burdensome fine and costs—but if the rowdy breaks the policeman's head, he is not guilty, because the policeman was also a Marshal or a Constable.

☞ The Course of Lectures before the Mercantile Library Association, commences on Wednesday evening, with one of the most varied and attractive entertainments that could be produced. A lecture from Rev. E. H. Chapin; a Poem from Wm. Stark, Esq., and a Concert by the Portland Brass Band. This grand triune performance alone, is worth a dollar—and the course as laid out is well worthy to follow it. We understand the managers are making arrangements to have music every evening. This will prove an attractive feature; the half hour of waiting previous to the commencement of the lectures, will pass more agreeably with a musical accompaniment.

☞ A few days since, Brigadier General Henderson, the Commandant of the Marine Corps, visited our Navy Yard, on his usual annual tour of inspection, and was received with the military honors due his rank, by the Marine Guard under the command of Major Waldron, after which he viewed many objects of interest at the Yard, and particularly the frigate Constitution, "Old Ironsides," on board of which the General had greatly distinguished himself, as Commander of her guard, in the victories that noble ship so gallantly won in the last war with Great Britain.

"A subscriber" (whom we suspect to be some narrow minded Leech) asks us why we advertise DR. AYER'S Pills, and we will give him our seven reasons for so doing. The first, second and third are that we are paid for it. The fourth is we know them by experience to be good. The fifth is that Dr. Ayer's preparations being recommended by better men than we—by physicians of the highest talent and the deepest learning in the land, we are well sustained in our own convictions of their value. The sixth is that they are cheap as well as useful. The last but not least is that they have done and are doing an amount of good in this community which our old fogy friend if he could repeat himself ten thousand times might never hope to equal, and we trust by making them known, to render some service to our readers as well as ourselves.—Christian Herald.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people,—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

ONE WEEK LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF STEAMER BALTIC.

NEW-YORK, Dec. 3.—The steamship Baltic, from Liverpool 23d ult. arrived at nine o'clock.

The Allies have organized a concentrated advance from Eupatoria, Baldar, Kertsch and Kinburn, in order to surround and cut off the Russian forces.

Kinburn, an important position at the mouth of the Dnieper, was captured by an Allied expedition. Laman and Pangeri in the straits of Kertsch, were destroyed. The advanced posts of the Allies are now within five leagues of Bakichi Serai.

The Russians were retiring—General Liprandi intending to defend the line of the Balbec, where a battle was anticipated.

The north of Sebastopol has been surrounded by the Russians with new fortifications, and placed in a state to support a seige.

The Russians on the 29th made an attack on Kars, and were repulsed with immense slaughter. Four thousand, it is said, including several officers of rank, were slain.

The restrictive measures of the Bank of France were telling upon almost every branch of trade.

Rothschilds is to establish an Austrian Bank of Credit with a mobilier capital of 60,000,000 florins.

The new Greek ministry announces neutrality with a reformed administration, and execution of obligations to foreign powers.

The Bank of England has increased the rate of discount to 6 per cent for 60 days, and 7 per cent for longer paper. There was great alarm in commercial circles. A panic was anticipated.

MARKETS.—Messrs. Brown, Shipley & Co. state the corn market to be without animation. Stock light, prices hardening.—Wheat advanced during the week 4 a 6p per bushel; Flour 6p per barrel; Indian Corn 2s 6p per qu.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—An excursion train of eleven cars, which left here yesterday morning to celebrate the opening of the Pacific Railroad to Jefferson City, while crossing the Gasconade river, about 100 miles from here, met with a most terrible and fatal disaster. The bridge fell, precipitating ten cars a distance of nearly thirty feet into the water. There were upwards of seven hundred persons on the train, including many of our first citizens.—Upwards of twenty are reported to have been killed, and twenty to fifty badly wounded.—Thomas S. O. Sullivan, chief engineer of the road, is amongst the killed. There were few, if any, strangers on the train.

Second Despatch.—The following is a list of the most prominent persons killed:—Rev. Dr. Bullard, B. D. Dayton, E. C. Blackburn, Henry C. Howlas, Mann Butler, Adolph Abels, Capt. C. Chase, E. C. Yost, George Ebrell, Capt. O'Flaherty, Thomas O'Sullivan, and Thomas Gray. The following are among those badly wounded:—G. K. Rudd, Hudson E. Bridge, John C. Richardson, Capt. Cousins, J. M. Winter. Slightly injured:—C. H. Armstrong and L. W. Kenneth.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Gen. Scott.—Various contradictory reports being in circulation regarding Lieut. Gen. Scott's pay, we find on direct inquiry at the Paymaster's General's office that the figures in the despatch of Wednesday are substantially correct. The official record shows that he is entitled to back pay to the amount of $10,405 to the first of October last, no allowance being made for the eight months during which he commanded the eastern division of the army in Mexico.—His pay, in addition to that of Major General, is $13,200. Gen. Scott claims $32,000 damages.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Mayor Wood this morning received a letter from the U. S. Commercial Agent at Port Au Prince, relative to the seizure, at that port, of the bark Amelia, on suspicion of being engaged in the Kinney expedition. The agent states that the bark had on board a full cargo of ammunition, and everything requisite for equipping a large force of men, and that there was reason for believing that she was fitted out for the Kinney expedition. The Amelia is owned in this city.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—A letter from Western Texas says that Capt. Callahan had disbanded his company of rangers and returned home, the three months enlistment of the same having expired. Only 78 men were at the rendezvous at San Antonio, and if the number is not increased to 700 or 800 before the 15th of November, the expedition will be abandoned.

General Smith had established stations in the neighborhood of the most serious depredations.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 2.—The extensive packing and rope factory of G. W. Dunlop, in this city, was totally destroyed by fire this morning, together with a house containing a large quantity of hemp, rope and bagging.—The total loss is $40,000—insured $18,000.

DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN.—The Manchester, N. H., American announces the death of Hon. R. H. French of that city, at the advanced age of 79 years and 9 months. He was a graduate of Harvard, in the class with Judge Story, Judge Shaw, and other men of note. He read law at Amherst, in the office of the late William Gordon, and married the sister of the late Charles H. Atherton, father of Charles G. Atherton. He was settled in Marblehead, Mass., where he practiced law more than twenty years, and held many offices of trust and importance, among them a seat in the Massachusetts Senate. He was afterwards Register of Deeds for Essex county for twenty years, residing in Salem. Three years ago he removed to Manchester, where he has since resided.

Prospectus for the Portsmouth Daily Gazette.

THE subscriber proposes to issue a Daily Campaign Newspaper at Portsmouth, N. H., for the term of four months, commencing about the middle of November, and continuing until after the March election of 1856, provided 1000 Advance Paying Subscribers are obtained. It will be devoted to the dissemination of National Democratic and Liberal Principles, the News of the Day general and local, Miscellany, Correspondence from the principal points in the State, &c. No pains will be spared to present an interesting and readable sheet to the general and business public as well as to the politician, for which the subscriber's facilities are ample. We ask our friends to aid in obtaining subscriptions.

Terms for the campaign—$1, in advance, which will be considered on delivery of the first number.

Shaving, Hair Dressing, &c.

HENRY S. HARTSHORN would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the spacious Room in the western corner of CITY HOTEL building, No. 20 Congress street, and fitted and furnished it in the best manner, as the

and will be most happy to wait on his patrons with less delay than has sometimes been necessary in his old Saloon.

His old place of business will be under his charge, also, as heretofore:

With his increased facilities for performing every operation pertaining to the removal or Dressing of the Human Hair, he feels prepared to give the fullest satisfaction to all who may call on him.

While returning most grateful thanks for the very liberal patronage with which he has ever been favored in Portsmouth, he would solicit a continuance of the same.

o16 H. S. HARTSHORN.

REMOVAL. REMOVAL.

JAMES H. READ, bookseller and Stationer, has removed from No. 18
To No. 14 Pleasant Street,
Store recently occupied by S. W. Moses. o30d

To the Citizens of Portsmouth and Vicinity.

YOUR attention is requested to a new Medicine called

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

The Medical virtues of which are fully set forth in the Pamphlet which will be distributed in a few days, and which, upon perusal will satisfy you that it is not one of the humbugs of the day. There is no article (excepting the Oxygenated Bitters and Preston's Catholicon,) that has ever been found to alleviate the troubles incident to a DYSPEPTIC. But the PERUVIAN SYRUP operates like a charm; so effectual is it that even the first dose gives immediate relief.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, ASTHMA, DROPSY AND LIVER COMPLAINT,

It surpasses all known remedies. Please read the Pamphlet through, and judge for yourself.

WM. R. PRESTON, Druggist,
Congress Block, Congress street,

Is the Special Agent for the genuine Peruvian Syrup and of him it can be obtained at wholesale and retail.

Dealers can obtain their supplies from him at the Proprietors' Price. n1 4t

Undoubted Testimony

IN FAVOR OF THE MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF

"The Peruvian Syrup."

THE Pamphlet which accompanies this Medicine contains the recommendation of the following well known individuals:

Rev. John Pierpont, Rev. E. T. Gray,
Thos. A. Dexter, Esq., Hon. Wm. Jackson,
Moses Grant, Esq., Henry Lunt, Esq.,
Ferdinand Andrews, Esq., Ed. Boston Traveller, all of Boston;
J. B. Congdon, Cashier Merch. Bank, N. Bedford;
Rev. Augustus R. Pope, Somerville, Mass.;
Rev. F. T. Gray, Boston.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is in this small treatise clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, at adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled TO CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST EXPENSE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate in ascribing to it themselves, and recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children when they have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be THE Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

PIANOS.

HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.

MANUFACTURERS of

GRAND AND SQUARE

PIANO-FORTES.

☞ Particular attention is solicited to our PATENT SUSPENSION BRIDGE—also our PATENT GRAND ACTION, as applied to Grand and Square Pianos.

WAREROOMS,

NEW FREESTONE BLOCK,

No. 409 WASHINGTON STREET,

NEAR BOYLSTON STREET.....BOSTON.

Opinions of the Press.

It is now generally acknowledged that the Pianos manufactured by Hallet, Davis & Co. are unrivalled in America, if in the world, for brilliancy or purity of tone.—Boston Daily Times.

An immense volume of sound can be produced by these Pianos without shattering the tones, as they send forth the most perfect, bell like notes, and we must confess that we have never listened to their equals for power, brilliancy, sweetness of tone, and purity of action.—Boston Herald.

The Pianos of Hallet, Davis & Co. deserve more than a passing notice. They are truly splendid instruments, very powerful, and of the purest and richest quality of tone.—Boston Traveller.

In regard to purity of tone, power and sweetness, being fully equal to any instrument that has come under our observation.—Boston Courier.

Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Forter, I think it would be impossible for any Pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string or a hammer.—Extract from a Letter from Wm. Mason.

The peculiar feature of Hallet, Davis & Co.'s instruments is, they make no noise. Nothing but pure tone is produced by the vibration of the strings; and the construction of the sounding board, and action are such that skilful pianists, after once testing their merits, dislike to use any other instrument in the Concert room.—Philadelphia Sunday Mercury.

I find them to be very superior instruments—as well in tone as in touch.—Extract of a Letter from L. M. Gottschalk.

I can unhesitatingly say that I find them superior in quality and quantity of tone, to those of other makers; also in the elasticity and easy touch; and can cheerfully recommend them to any one who wishes to own or play on the best Pianos.—Extract of a letter from Robert Heller.

THE FASTEST TIME YET.—A correspondent of the New-York Spirit of the Times gives a report of a race of one mile which was run 'Out West' in 0:00 (no time.) Two rival betters set their watches together, and took stations at either end of the race course. The following dialogue took place after the horses had tried their speed, M. and S. being brought together to compare watches:

M.—What time did they start? Have you got it exact?

S.—Yes, exactly to a second! That started at precisely thirty four minutes and twenty-five seconds after three!

M.—Well, they have come out at twenty five minutes and thirty-five seconds before four!—There, S. you are good at figures, what's the time?

S. scratched his head, and looking as if he had solved a difficult problem, replied, "Why, that's just no time!"

Did you ever, Mr. "Spirit," hear a horse laugh? Certainly! The watches were again compared, and two ten was decided to be the correct time.

"This is a very beautiful sight for a person with a refined beastly taste," said Mrs. Partington at the agricultural show, looking at the big sheep, and addressing a tall young man by her side. He responded "yes'm."—"Is that a hydraulic ram?" she asked, with great simplicity, provoking a smile on the young man's face, and a loud laugh from outsiders, who were attracted by the black bonnet. The young man informed her that this was a long wooled sheep, from which very long yarn was spun. "Ah!" said she, "you are very kind; but can you tell me if the pope has sent any of his bulls over here to this show?" "No," said he, smiling tremendously, "but among the swine is a descendant of the great Boanerges." Neither Mrs. Partington nor any one near knew what he meant, but he laughed loudly, and those outside laughed louder than he, much to his satisfaction. They laughed even louder when he found swinging from his button behind a tag bearing the inscription, "Vermont Boy," with age and weight given, but he didn't. And Ike was looking so innocently all the while, trying to make the ram sneeze by tickling his nose with a straw.—Boston Post.

ROBBERY AND FIRE IN CANDIA, N. H.—We learn from the Manchester Mirror that in Candia, N. H., on the 9th ult., three young men of somewhat notorious character visited the house of John F. Stevens, (who kept liquor for sale) in his absence, and calling for something to drink asked Mrs. Stevens if she could change a two dollar bill. Mrs. S. replied that she could, and produced a bag containing about thirty-two dollars, when one of them snatched the bag and all three made for the woods. On the 22d a complaint was made out against two of them for robbery, and one of them was arrested. The next morning the dwelling house of Herbert Moore, who was supposed to be the person most instrumental in causing the complaints to be made, was discovered to be on fire, and no assistance being near, it was soon a heap of ruins. Another of the gang was subsequently arrested, and they were brought before a justices' court. Their counsel, however, threatened the principal witness, Mrs. Stevens, with a prosecution for liquor selling, if she appeared, and upon the stolen money being restored to her, she cleared out, and the robbers were discharged for want of evidence.

A very absurd story has been published in many papers stating that the Rothschild family were worth $700,000,000. The National Intelligencer, in alluding to it, says the general estimate in Europe as to the aggregate wealth of the whole concern is 200,000,000 francs, or about $40,000,000.

For some days the Merrimac river has been full of Bass, that have been so plenty that hundreds of them have been caught from the wharves.

TEACHERS AND WRITERS.—The London Literary Journal recently remarked that many foolish people, after failing at everything else, fancy they can turn schoolmasters, without the least doubt of success. Many writers also deem it the easiest thing in the world to write books for children, for which they adopt a style intended to be familiar and attractive; but which is, in reality, artificial, involved, obscure, and frequently inaccurate."

PREPARATIONS FOR THE ELECTION.—Mayor Wood of New-York has issued a proclamation to the police of that city, warning them against electioneering on the day of election—Tuesday next. The policeman, he says, is not a politician, and is "not allowed to use the power of his office to averawe, to intimidate, or to influence the voter. It is his duty to protect all citizens in their right to vote.—The penalty for violation of this order will be dismissal from office."

MARRIAGE BY WHOLESALE.—At Waterford, Michigan, on the 1st inst. four sons of Jesse Chapman, Esq. living in different parts of the State, all made their appearance at the paternal mansion with lady accompaniments, followed by a clergyman, who joined the whole quartern in the bonds of matrimony. After a chat with the "old folks," the boys and girls started off on their wedding tour.

I pitied a friend before him who had a whining wife, who found every thing painful to her and nothing pleasing. 'He does not know that she whimpers,' says Johnson; 'when a door has creaked for a fortnight together, you may observe, the master will scarcely give a sixpence to get it oiled.'—Boswell.

PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.—The imprisonment of this "martyr" for contempt of Court is becoming somewhat irksome since the election in Pennsylvania. His martyrdom did not accomplish so much as was expected, and now both he and his friends are desirous to cut it short. They find it, however, very much easier to get a foot into a trap than to get it out again. Those fanatics who set at defiance human enactments, and profess to be governed by a "higher law," will be admonished, perhaps, by this example, that there is some force in the lower courts!—Dover Gaz.

Truly there is a great deal of force: but will the Dover Gazette please to say whether there is any justice or any law in this imprisonment? Also to say what human enactment Williamson has broken? Will it also please to say whether a judge, by his bare mandate, may imprison a free white citizen during his pleasure, without a trial?

If Judge Kane's conduct in this last particular, is in harmony with our Republican government and our Democratic principles—then Charles II. and James II. were Republicans; and Cranfield and Andros were Democrats; Then Joshua Moodey was a fanatic; and then Hancock and Adams were fools.

We hope the Dover Gazette will settle this great question, plainly and without evasion.—We have always been taught to believe that Moodey and Vaughan in the 17th century stood up in Portsmouth against an arbitrary judge, who imprisoned them for contempt, after a sham trial—and that they are revered as patriots for this resistance and rebellion.

Adams and Hancock, Warren and Washington, Langdon and Stark, in the next century, stood up against similar arbitrary acts and edicts. And they too, are revered as patriots. Now if they were no patriots, but fanatics, or fools, or hypocrites, we would like to know it. And such they certainly were, if while they groaned under the tyranny of Kings and Royal Judges, they intended to build a worse tyranny of their own, under the name of a Republic, but with the reality of a Judicial Despotism.

Were they good men or bad? Wise men or fools? Do tell us?

The following telegraphic despatch, which we find in the New York Herald of Sunday, looks as if Judge Kane has either relented or repented. We do not see it in the Boston papers of Monday morning.

PASSMORE WILLIAMSON SET AT LIBERTY. Philadelphia, 3d.—Passmore Williamson was brought into Court to-day by a Marshal, and made affidavit that, in his answer to the writ of habeas corpus, he did not intend any contempt of Court, or to evade process of Court. An interrogatory was propounded to him by the District Attorney through the Court, touching his power to produce the bodies in Court according to the mandates of the writ, which being answered negatively, after some remarks by the District Attorney, touching Colonel Wheeler's suit for damages in the U. S. Circuit Court, against the defendant, and announcing his abandonment of the present habeas corpus proceedings, the Court discharged the prisoner, and he left in company with his friends.

DEMOCRATIC DUTIES.—The Dover Gazette of the 3rd of November, contains an address to its subscribers and readers, on the occasion of the paper's entering its 34th year, in which we read the following.

Prominent among the duties of the democracy at this time is the defence of the administration and the President. Never has a public officer, or a popular administration, been more violently and shamelessly abused. And recreant to his duties, his principle, his party, his country and its interests, is that man, calling himself a democrat, who now fails to stand firmin defence of the men and measures of the democratic party.

THE FLOUR LEAGUE.—The gentleman who agreed to furnish 500 barrels of flour to as many different individuals in this village for $8 per barrel; the flour to be sent from Ogdensburg, N. Y., has sent word that owing to the rise in flour since making the agreement, he will be unable to fulfil it. He does agree, however, to furnish the first quality of flour for $9 75 delivered.—Amesbury Villager.

They talk of building a cotton factory at Haverhill, Mass., with a capital of $300,000. The citizens of the same town are taking measures to purchase their flour direct of the western producer, to save the expense of the "middle men."—Amesbury Villager.

Among all our leagues and cliques, we wish somebody would bring wheat in sacks to the seaboard, where we could grind it ourselves, and thus know what we eat.

FISHING.—The schooner Pacific, which arrived at Newburyport on Thursday last, caught on the day previous, a few miles from the bar, thirteen hundred Pollock. So plenty were the fish, that they came over the sides of the vessel as fast as they could haul them. The Herald judges that fifteen hundred lbs. of bass have been taken from the head of the wharves, by the amateur fisherman, during the past few days. This variety of fish was never so plenty in those waters before.

The ladies of Claremont are about forming a society to aid in the erection of the Washington Monument.

☞ The Newburyport Herald states that the most beautiful and costly house in that city, is now in course of erection for Mr. Lorenzo Papanti, the celebrated teacher of dancing.* He has been investing largely in real estate for the past few years, and has erected quite a village at the north end of Newburyport. The new mansion is near High street, between Broad and Tyng streets. The main is 54 by 20 feet; an L 31 by 20—three stories high. The site is one of the finest in the city. On the third floor, the spectator can look into the towns of Amesbury, Salisbury, Hampton, and the adjoining towns as far as Ipswich; and vessels can be seen from the time they leave Whale'sback light till they round Cape Ann. The structure and its surroundings are to be of the richest description. The outside finish will be variegated blockwork, no two panels carved or painted alike. The roof will be of Parisian style, concave, surmounded by a flat 40 by 20 feet—being fifty feet from the ground. The sides of the roof will be covered with ground slate, placed like the scales of a fish. When completed, it will vie with any establishment in Massachusetts. The workmen employed are all master mechanics, and hired by the day.

* Not the one with whom the citizens of Portsmouth have had recent experience, showing proficiency in all the steps, including the "out" step; but an uncle of his, an older and it is to hoped a better man.

METHODIST BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.—We learn from the Congregational Journal that the anniversaries at this Institute, commenced Wednesday, Oct. 31, with an address before the Societies, by Rev. M. Trafton, Westfield, Mass. On Wednesday afternoon, a Missionary sermon was delivered by Rev. H. Matison, New York city, and in the evening, the Anniversary Sermon was delivered by Rev. J. H. Twombly, Boston. The exercises of the Graduating Class commenced Thursday, in the afternoon, and closed in the evening.

SAD STORY.—The Newburyport Herald of Monday morning says:

A coroner's inquest was held Sunday afternoon by John Cook, Esq., upon the body of Daniel Rogers, of Newbury, who was found dead upon the Newburyport Railroad, about three miles from that place. The jury found that the deceased came to his death by reason of intoxication and exposure during Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Rogers was about 38 years of age, and leaves four children. He was in Newburyport Saturday afternoon, and was last seen alive at the depot in Georgetown, at dark, on Saturday evening, with a jug of rum in his hand. The jug with some rum in it was found beside his corpse.

FIRE AT SALISBURY POINT.—A small shed building attached to the dwelling house of B. E. Fifield, Esq., took fire upon the outside about eleven o'clock last Sunday night. When the fire first commenced, all in the house were asleep; but the smoke, which immediately filled the rooms of the main building, caused the children to cough violently and awake, when they were fortunately enabled to give the alarm to their parents. By this time the fire had made considerable progress, it having burned through the side of the building near the ground, where it ignited, and for ten feet above the building was enveloped in flames. The glass of a window near by was entirely broken out by the heat. The greatest exertion on the part of Mr. Fifield, aided by his wife, enabled him, water being plenty and near at hand, to subdue the fire and finally to put it out. The damage by fire is small, being entirely confined to the shed building.

Appearances seem to warrant us in asserting it to be the work of an incendiary; and if it is so, such a daring and fiendish act was never before known in that neighborhood.—We hope it is not as appearances would lead us to believe. Fifteen minutes more of sleep by the inmates of that building, and our record would undoubtedly have been one of sorrow and sadness.—Amesbury Villager.

FIRE AT SALISBURY PLAINS.—The house of Mr. Samuel Dow, at Salisbury Plains, was burnt on Wednesday night of last week, together with his work-shop, containing a whaleboat, nearly completed.

The family were sound asleep at the time the fire broke out, and were woke up by the noise of the cracking of glass caused by the heat, and had barely time to escape from the house, saving only a few articles of furniture. The house, and work-shop containing a boat valued at $100, together with the tools belonging to Mr. Dow, were all destroyed.

There had been an insurance on the property of $1200, but the policy ran out and had not been renewed, consequently it is a total loss. The fire, it is supposed, caught from a steam box in the work-shop.—Villager.

GREAT FIRE IN NEWFOUNDLAND.—On the 18th of October, a most destructive fire occurred at Tarrahan's Town, Newfoundland. The details of the fire are not given. The St. John Courier says that it is impossible to state accurately the number of families rendered houseless by this fire. Upwards of 120 brick chimneys now standing show that over 200 houses were burnt, in most cases one chimney serving two houses. We cannot, therefore, reckon under 400 families burnt out, all operatives,—many of the poorer classes,—the greater number of whom lost much of their furniture. An extent of five acres was burnt over. Contributions were making for the relief of the sufferers.

Letters from the interior of Louisiana report considerable damage to the sugar cane by the recent frost. The planters say that the present warm weather prevents the juice granulating, and, should it continue, the receipts will be greatly delayed.

LOCAL.

ERROR CORRECTED.—The City Marshal informs us, that when he met Blaney and the other rowdies on Friday night, he did not know that Blaney was suspected of stealing the clothing, and so had no use for such discretion as we ascribed to him. He did have a warrant against him for an assault, but did not deem the time, place, or circumstances favorable to an arrest on that account; but would readily have tracked and followed him, had he then known of his thefts.

☞ On Monday we published a notice of a Temperance Convention to be holden at Great Falls, which stated that Rev Mr Whiting of this city was expected to be one of the speakers. Our authority was an advertisement in the Great Falls Journal, without signature. We are now informed that the gentlemen referred to knew nothing of the matter till he saw it in our paper, and of course his name was used without his consent or agreement. This is a practice too often resorted to for rallying purposes; but we cannot commend it. Mr W. is said to be a staunch temperance advocate—but if he is to be announced as a speaker anywhere, it seems essential that he should know it beforehand, and his consent be gained.

SALE OF PEWS.—The bidding for Pews in the North Church, on Monday, was quite spirited. The highest bid for a choice was by Dea. John Knowlton, something more than $400;—and the whole of the choice money was near $2500, in sums of $300, 200, 100, &c. A good proportion of the pews were taken during the day.

PURCHASING LIQUOR UNDER FALSE PRETENCES.—State vs. Edwin C. Tucker.—Tucker went into the Concord agency and told the agent that he wanted a pint of alcohol for Mr. Joseph Graham, whom he said he worked for—that Graham sent him for the liquor. It was delivered to him after being questioned closely. The agent afterwards learned that he procured the liquor for another purpose.—A complaint was made out and he was arrested by policeman E. E. Sturtevant. He was brought before the Police Court on Wednesday. Mr. Farnum, the agent, testified to the facts as above stated, and his testimony was corroborated by that of J. C. Pillsbary, Esq. Mr. Graham testified that Tucker did not work for him, neither did he send him for the liquor. Tucker was found guilty, fined $10 and costs of prosecution, amounting to $18.23. L. D. Stevens for the State—F. B. Peabody for the respondent.

We believe this is the first case under the 7th section of the law. We hope this clause of the law will be strictly enforced, and agents thus protected from imposition.

Since the above was in type, we learn that in default of payment he was committed to jail on Thursday afternoon.—Phœnix.

MASSACHUSETTS IDIOT SCHOOL.—We understand that the Trustees of the Massachusetts School for Idiots have selected and purchased the site for the new edifice which is to be erected for the purposes of the institution. It is to be situated at City Point, South Boston, in convenient proximity to the Institution for the Blind. The Trustees only wait an order from the Governor, in accordance with the resolve passed at the last session of the Legislature, appropriating $25,000 for the purpose, to commence building. The school is at present accommodated at the late residence of Dr. Howe, on Mt. Washington.—Traveller.

"GIFT BOOK" ENTERPRISERS LOOK OUT.—In Springfield, the case of J. H. Preston, for an invasion of law against lotteries in his "gift book" sales, was heard in the city police court on Friday, and the defendant was found guilty and bound over in $1500 for appearance and trial in the county court next December. The case of I. H. Upton, for a similar offence, was adjourned two weeks.

AMERICAN FLOUR FOR EUROPE.—The ship Moses Wheeler, of Boston, cleared from Baltimore, October 31st., for Cork. A letter from Captain Simpson states that she is loaded entirely with flour, having on board 12,000 barrels. He goes to Cork, and from thence takes his cargo wherever ordered, most probably to France.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

MARRIED.

In East Salisbury, by Rev James Pike, Member of Congress from NH, Mr William S. Pettengill to Miss Mary E. daughter of Caleb Pike, Esq.

In Brentwood, Mr V. B. Robinson of Fremont, to Miss Helen F. Osgood of Salisbury' Mass.

DIED,

In this city, Nov 3, Mrs. Ann Passmore, wife of Thomas Treadwell, Esq, aged 76 years and 8 mos. Philadelphia papers please copy.

The subject of the above notice, was one of whom it may justly, be affirmed, she was beloved, by all who knew her. So amiable, was she, in her deportment and manners, so pure, in her intentions and aims, so unselfish, in her desires and aspirations, and so exemplary, in her daily walk and conversation, that she was constantly gaining to herself, new testimonials of respect and love. Many, are the burdens of sorrow, which she has lightened, many, the beds of disease and pain, which her presence, and kindly ministries, have made less painful and more endurable. Connected with the church of her Redeemer, not, simply, by the outward bonds of christian fellowship, but by the more true, and real ties, of an inward likeness to him whose disciple she aimed to be, she was ever, and eminently, true to the obligations of every earthly relation in which she was placed. As a wife, she was one of the most faithful, dutiful, and affectionate, of companions. As a mother, she was unceasingly careful and solicitous, that those whom God had committed to her charge and keeping, should be trained to the knowledge and practice of truth and virtue. As a sister, she was influenced and pervaded, by the most tender fidelity, to every kindly grace and affection. As a friend, she was considerate and thoughtful of every kindly office, and unchangeably desirous to fulfil every prompting of true friendship. Faithfully, and holily, did she live, peacefully, and hopefully, did she die. Not even the pains attendant upon her approaching dissolution, could weaken her faith and trust in the goodness of her Heavenly Father. But trusting in His compassion, and leaning confidently upon His arm of strength, she passed, cheer

IMPORTANT FROM NICARAGUA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The Steamship Star of the West arrived at this port from Punta Arenas, with a full complement of passengers and $272,651 in treasure from California, brought down on the Pacific side by the steamship Uncle Sam, which left San Francisco on the 5th ult.

By this arrival we have important news from Nicaragua. Col. Walker, having been reinforced by a small party of Californians on the 19th ult., embarked for Virgin Bay, on board the steamer Virgin, and before daylight landed within four miles of Grenada. After rapid advance, the army reached the city, and gained the Plaza without encountering any serious resistance. Here a sharp contest ensued, which resulted in a loss to the "enemy" of fifteen killed, and several wounded, and Gen. Walker took possession of the capital of Nicaragua. Subsequently the fort was captured by a detachment of Americans.

Order having been restored, the citizens of Granada held a public meeting, and tendered Col. Walker the Presidency of the republic, which honor he declined in favor of Gen. Corral. Col. Wheeler, our minister to Central America, after much solicitation, proceeded to Rivas with propositions of peace.—Arriving at Rivas, and learning that Gen. Corral was absent, Col. Wheeler attempted to return, but was prevented by the Governor, and detained two days, nor was he released until the town was threatened with an attack. This breach of faith on the part of Corral's forces led to a spicy correspondence between our minister and the General. On the 22d Corral surrendered, a treaty of peace was formed, and thus Walker's victory became complete. During the progress of these events, others of importance were transpiring.

On the 19th, Col. Fry and P. H. French, with 60 men, embarked on board the Virgin, which also carried the passengers and specie from California, with the intention of capturing San Carlos. The occupants of the fort, however, fired upon the steamer with cannon, and the expedition was abandoned, Col. Fry being unwilling to risk the lives of his passengers.

On the 23d the steamer conveying the outward bound passengers by the Star of the West was fired upon by the fort; a 32-pound shot struck the boat, killing a lady and child, and seriously injuring the machinery. Previous to this, an attack was made upon the returning Californians at Virginia Bay by the government forces, when four persons were killed, and eight others severely wounded.—These attacks were evidently made in a spirit of revenge for the success of Walker.

Col. Kinney was pursuing the even tenor of his way, perfecting plans to secure a large emigration from the United States, with every prospect of carrying them out successfully. Don Trato Mayorza, late Secretary of the former government, and a prisoner on parole in the city of Granada, was detected in correspondence with the "enemy" outside, and having been tried by a Court Martial, and been found guilty, was shot on the public plaza on the morning of the 22 ult.

The Boston Courier under the head of Filibustering, thus sums up the above news:

It will be seen that Col. Walker has captured Granada, in Nicaragua, and had taken command there, and that some fellow buccaneers had attempted to carry on a sister expedition, using the transit steamer of the Nicaragua line, through which outrageous proceeding passengers on the boat were killed and wounded by the firing from the fort.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3d.—The following contracts for the supply of Indian goods were awarded this morning by the Interior Department:—Class No. 1, blankets and dry goods, to Cronin, Hurxthal & Sears of New York; class No. 2, ready made clothing, to Wm. Mathews of New York, at $4,700; class No. 3, hardware and agricultural implements, to John P. Rogers, at $7000; class No. 4, axes, &c., to James B. Miller of Bustleton, Pa., at $950.

The Union of this morning publishes the President's decision relative to Gen. Scott's back pay. It awards him but ten thousand four hundred and five dollars.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—Another Railroad Bridge Accident.—The stone bridge at Principiccci Co. over which the trains of the Philadelphia Railroad pass, broke down to-day, and six freight cars were precipitated into the creek below. The accident caused a detention of three hours to the afternoon trains.

John Morrissey, the pugilist, who was implicated in the murder of Bill Poole, is said to be a candidate, in the 6th Judicial District of New York city, for Police Justice.

Wise, the æronaut, gives it as his opinion that Mr Winchester has met a grave in Lake Erie. He judges that he did not have ballast enough to carry him over the lake.

A SPLENDID assortment POCKET KNIVES, SCISSORS and RAZORS, just received by J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 1 Congress Block.

To the Citizens of Portsmouth and Vicinity.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

The Medical virtues of which are fully set forth in the Pamphlet which will be distributed in a few days, and which, upon perusal, will satisfy you that it is not one of the humbugs of the day. There is no article (excepting the Oxygenated Bitters and Preston's Catholicon,) that has ever been found to alleviate the troubles incident to a DYSPEPTIC. But the PERUVIAN SYRUP operates like a charm; so effectual is it that even the first dose gives immediate relief.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, ASTHMA, DROPSY AND LIVER COMPLAINT,

It surpasses all known remedies. Please read the Pamphlet through, and judge for yourself.

A BISHOP HELD TO RANSOM.—A letter from Bologna, in the Pontifical States, of the 17th, says:

"A band of malefactors continues to infest this neighborhood. Two evenings ago, Mgr. Sinnati, the bishop of this city, was taking a drive, when he was stopped at only half a league from the city by the band, who made him alight from his carriage, and told him that he must send his servant to Imola to seek 10,000 crowns, (upwards of 50,000 f.) and that in the meantime he must consider himself a hostage. The family of the bishop, on receiving the message from the servant, consulted with an advocate, M. Calderini, as to what should be done; and it was decided that the advocate should carry 1,000 crowns to Lazzarini, chief of the band, and endeavor to persuade him to content himself with that sum. He saw the bandit, but the latter would not release the bishop until a promise to pay 6,000 crowns additional, guaranteed by the bishop, was given to him. His lordship states that he was treated with perfect respect whilst in custody."

AMOS LAWRENCE.—Mrs. H. B. Stowe, in a letter in the Independent of this week, has a fine notice of the Diary and Correspondence of Amos Lawrence. We clip the following paragraph therefrom:

"This biography shows that there is a Christian life in which all sects agree, a basis of union, not doctrinal, but practical, where there may be a real unity. Men of such lives have risen now and then in all sects, and when found, disputants have agreed in admitting their practical example as an exponent of the religion about which they wrangle."

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. a12 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without each none will be genuine.

A Book Worth Reading.

MEMOIR OF AMOS LAWRENCE.

THIS DAY PUBLISHED,

EXTRACTS

FROM THE DAIRY AND CORRESPONDENCE OF THE LATE

AMOS LAWRENCE,

With a brief account of some incidents in his Life.

Edited by his son, WM. R. LAWRENCE, M. D.

With elegant Portraits of Amos and Abbott Lawrence, an Engraving of their birth-place, and a copious index. 8 vo. $1,50.

This is a memoir of a citizen of Massachusetts who became distinguished for his great wealth, but more distinguished for the manner in which he used it.

It is the memoir of a man whose public benefactions have rarely been surpassed, and whose private charities far surpassed his public benefactions.

It is the memoir of a man who, commencing business with only $20, gave away in public and private charities, during his life time, more than any other person in America.

It is a memoir that commends itself alike to the rich and the poor; to the rich, as presenting the example of a man who had discovered the true secret of enjoying his wealth.—to the poor, as exhibiting a portraiture of one of their greatest benefactors. It is substantially an AUTOBIOGRAPHY, containing a full account of Mr. Lawrence's career as a merchant, of his public and private charities, and of his domestic life.

Unusual care has been bestowed upon the mechanical execution of the volume. The embellishments, four in number, are in the best style of art; the paper is of extra quality; the letter-press is large, open and clear. The binding is in various styles, from plain muslin to full gilt, suitable for gifts.

☞ This work is offered to the public at a lower price than any similar work executed in the same superior style has been ever offered before.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,

At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published as above, every Saturday morning.

TERMS $1 a year, in advance. Delivered on any railroad or stage route leading from Portsmouth, free of expense to subscribers. Postage in Rockingham County, free.

ADVERTISING.

For a Square (sixteen lines nonpareil) or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated.

Unless otherwise ordered, all advertisements inserted in the Daily, also receive two or three insertions in the Weekly Chronicle, without extra charge.

Both papers having large circulation in Portsmouth, Kittery, New Castle, Greenland, Epping; on the Eastern and the Portsmouth & Concord Railroads, &c., renders the Chronicle an excellent advertising medium.

☞ Obituary Communications charged as advertisements. Notices of Funerals, 25 cts. each. Advertisements of articles lost, 25 cents if not found. 50 cts. if found.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

Morning Chronicle.

BEECHER'S LECTURES.

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has published a defence of himself, in relation to the prejudicial statements made in the Western papers; he says:

"Mr Wells is a merchant of Chicago, the President of the Metropolitan Literary Union. He made engagements with me in just the same way that such engagements are always made with me by Literary Societies. He only wished my services in Chicago. But I desired to make a tour through several States in the pleasant month of October, and insisted that he should assume the arrangements and responsibilities of a course of twelve lectures, inasmuch as I was a stranger to the route in the West, and could not make such arrangements conveniently as could be met upon successive days.

With the exception of Chicago, I knew nothing of the terms charged for the lectures in the several places where they were delivered, until I was more than half through the engagement. I regretted the charge was so high. I have always thought that the true policy of lecturers was to fill large halls and charge low prices."

The statement that he had agreed to lecture to the Young Men's Association at Cleveland at fifty dollars, and then in succession risen in demands to one hundred, one hundred and twenty-five, and one hundred and thirty-five dollars and expenses, he pronounces wholly untrue. He neither engaged to lecture, nor had any negotiation whatever in regard to the matter.

As many of our citizens are just now polishing and putting up stoves, we call their attention to the following receipt for polishing and keeping stoves bright:—

"Make weak allum water, and mix your 'British Lustre' with it; put two spoonfulls to a gill of allum water; let the stove be cold, brush it with the mixture, then take a dry brush and Lustre, and rub the stove until it is dry. Should any parts, before polishing, become so dry as to look gray, moisten it with a wet brush, and proceed as before. By two applications a year it can be kept as bright as a coach body."—Erie Gazette.

ECCLESIASTICAL INTELLIGENCE.—In New York city there are eighty Episcopal clergyman, in Brooklyn twenty-eight, in Philadelphia sixty-six, in Boston twenty-two, in Baltimore twenty four, in Charleston twenty-one.

Of thirty-nine English and Irish bishops, four are upwards of eighty years of age, eleven are between seventy and eighty years, fourteen are between sixty and seventy, five between fifty and sixty, and five between forty and fifty.

One of the religious papers has an article on the benefits of life insurance to clergymen. It says: "We have heard of congregations who have presented their ministers with a tomb; a life insurance policy, it strikes us, would be a much more acceptable gift."

APPLES FOR ENGLAND.—We noticed in the freight house of the Concord road, the other day, one hundred and twelve barrels of apples, marked for Manchester, England.—We understand that a gentleman of this city, an Englishman, trades in fruit quite largely, and sends to Liverpool every year several hundred barrels of New Hampshire apples.—Manchester American.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1855.

LIBERATION OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.

In the U. S. District Court at Philadelphia, on Saturday, Passmore Williamson appeared, accompanied by his counsel, and petitioned that he might purge himself of the contempt of court for which he was imprisoned. The Court gave him leave to answer the following interrogatory, which, with the answer of Mr. Williamson, were placed upon file.

United States vs. Passmore Williamson.—Nov. 3d, 1855, and now John C. Vandyke, Attorney for the United States, by leave granted, files the following interrogatory:

Interrogatory—Did you, at the time of the service of the writ of Habeas Corpus at the relation of John H. Wheeler, or at any time during the period intervening between the service of said writ and the making of your return thereto, seek to obey the mandate of said writ, by bringing before this Honorable Court the persons of the slaves therein mentioned?

If to this interrogatory you answer in the affirmative, state fully and particularly the mode in which you sought to obey said writ, and all that you did tending to that end.

And, therefore, it is ordered that the defendant, Passmore Williamson, do make true answers to said interrogatories.

The reply made was as follows. The reader will however, understand that this reply was amended at the suggestion of the court, to conform better to the views of the District Attorney. The following is the reply:

I did not seek to obey the writ by producing the persons therein mentioned before the Court, because I had not, at the time of the service of the writ, the power over the custody or control of them, and therefore it was impossible for me to do so. I first heard of the writ of habeas corpus on Friday, July 20, between 1 and 2 o'clock, A. M., on my return from Harrisburg. After breakfast, about 9 o'clock, I went from my house to Mr. Hopper's office, when and where the return was prepared.

At 10 o'clock I came into court as commanded by the writ. I sought to obey the writ by answering it truly; the parties not being in my possession or control, it was impossible for me to obey the writ by producing them.—Since the service of the writ I have not had the custody, possession or power over them; nor have I known where they were except from common rumor or the newspaper reports in regard to their public appearance in the city or elsewhere.

Some discussion arose between the District Attorney and the counsel of Mr. Williamson. Mr. Vandyke contended that the reply of the defendant was evasive and contradictory. The Judge said the difficulty, he though, could be easily overcome by amending the answer, and to the suggestion of the court it was amended in the following manner:

I did not seek to obey the writ by producing the persons in the writ mentioned before this Court.

I did not so seek because I verily believed that it was entirely impossible for me to produce the said persons agreeably to the command of the Court.

This answer was then accepted by the Court and ordered filed.

Judge Kane then said—"The contempt is now regarded as purged, and the party is released from custody. He is now reinstated in the position he occupied before the contempt was committed. Mr. Williamson is now before me on the return to the writ."

The District Attorney, in accordance with the wishes of Mr. Wheeler, then entered a nolle prosequi, and the defendant was set at liberty.

Thus Judge Kane has backed out of his false position in part, quibbled a little, and somewhat perverted the truth, even in preparing to discharge the prisoner. There never has been any contempt in the case, as our laws define the crime! But as Judge Kane defined it, when he imprisoned the man, the contempt remains! The answer is amended at the Judge's suggestion, by the mere variation of a word or two. The rest of the truths told, are many of them omitted in the amended reply; but they are not contradicted, and they cannot be disproved.

Judge Kane, if he knows anything at all about law, knows that the imprisonment for contempt was an illegal assumption, an unconstitutional assumption, for which he richly deserves impeachment—and for which he would be proceeded against forthwith if he lived in England.

ACCIDENT.—A man, while in a state of intoxication, fell from the doorway of house No. 10 Fleet street, Boston, on Saturday evening, striking his head upon the sidewalk in such a manner as to cause his death.—There were papers found in his pockets indicating that his name is Owen McCange, and that he came from Gorham, N. H.

LIFE ILLUSTRATED.—This popular weekly comes to us in quarto form, with a new heading and other noticeable improvements. It is elegantly printed, and contains in each issue a large amount of an excellent quality of reading matter. It is published by Fowlers, Wells & Co.

The following is a special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune:—

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 29, 1855.

Gen. Pierce says Gov. Reeder was elected by a "mob." It is a "fixed fact" that the entire Cabinet will oppose Reeder's election and admission as the delegate from Kansas. Jefferson Davis swears it shall never be done; Guthrie and Cushing cry Amen to that; Dobbin says little, and Marcy looks glum but backs it up. They, however, don't wish to have all this known before the November elections.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

A FRIENDLY EPISTLE.

FREETOWN, MASS., Nov. 1, 1855.

Dear Chronicle:—But a few days since, in reading a number of the Chronicle, I experienced a deep feeling of sadness. It is impossible for me to realize that that young man, whose voice I still seem to hear, gliding along the highest tenor notes, in the Pleasant Street Church choir, has so suddenly passed away from this mortal life; and as I think of your office, I still see him standing at his case.—But it is not so; my young friend is dead; he has ceased to sing in the choir of mortals; he helps no longer to fill out the "form" for a daily impression and record of things passing; he is seen no more as "Woodland," in the printed page. My sympathies are truly with those who mourn his departure.

How true it is, that "In the midst of life we are in death." The man of four score years, and the infant of a day old, alike fall a prey to death. The young, the active, the enterprising and useful, all are the daily prey of death. What frail creatures we are!

Welcome to me as is the Chronicle, yet it often brings me sad tidings. Since I was at Portsmouth, death has thrust in a sharp sickle among my friends there, and has been reaping unrelentingly. There was another valuable member of the same Christian society, and one of our most useful citizens, whose sun a little time ago, went down suddenly at the noon of life. What a mysterious, uncertain thing is life! But it is, to those who will esteem it properly, a most precious boon.

On the 25th of October I attended an "Old Folks" Concert at Fall River. In my estimation, it fell very far short of the concerts given by the old folks in Portsmouth last winter.—The minor tunes failed of their expressive, full, and sweetly charming character. In other respects the performance was creditable to the performers, and to the leader who had trained them. But how gladly should I listen to the old singers of your city again. I had the honor of a place in the midst of the singers, at Fall River, by invitation of the musical director, Mr. Eben Tourjee.

I have received some copies of the Fourth Edition of the Ancient Harmony Revived, which you have probably seen before this time.

We are having very mild and beautiful weather here now. Last Sunday morning we had a violent thunder storm. At Somerset, the lightning struck a vessel and damaged it considerably. It also struck the beautiful large meeting-house of the first Christian Society in Freetown, a little before the time for the morning service. It entered the steeple, ran down through the gallery, and passed out into the entry, near one of the doors. The damage was very slight. No one was in the house at the time. One of the pastor's sons had just been to the house on an errand to the choir, but finding they had not assembled, he went to the nearest house, which he had hardly reached when the meeting-house was struck.

The political elements seem to have some thunder and lightning in them here in Massachosetts, and if the temple of the Lord suffers no injurious shock, the people may rejoice.—Next Tuesday the storm will pass off. C.

MARKING NEWSPAPERS.—The Postmaster General has decided that a pen mark made over or opposite to an article in a newspaper, with the sole object of calling attention to the article, will not subject the paper to letter postage.

All right. But what blockhead supposed it would?

HOW ATCHISON REGARDS IT.—The notorious Atchison, who figures so largely in the Kansas outrages, recently wrote a letter in reply to an invitation to attend the celebration of the battle of King's Mountain. In concluding, he makes the following significant avowal:

"The stake the 'border ruffians' are playing for is a mighty one. If Kanzas is abolitionized, Missouri ceases to be a slave State, California remains a free State, and New Mexico becomes a free State; but if we secure Kanzas as a slave State, Missouri is secure; New Mexico and Southern California, if not all of it, becomes a slave State; in a word, the prosperity or the ruin of the whole South [meaning thereby the Slave Power simply,] depends on the Kanzas struggle."

ONE OF THE ELDERS.—The Newburyport Herald says:

Last Sunday, Rev. Dr. Withington stated to his parishoners, that he had been preaching to them thirty-nine years, and as it was his intention to retire in forty years from his settlement; he wished them to govern themselves accordingly. There is not one clergyman remaining in active service, who was settled here when Mr Withington came to town; all have changed; and when he, the last of the old school retires, we may ask—"the fathers where are they?" There is not probably a clergyman in the county of more natural ability and few if any of greater acquirements than Dr Withington; and since he has kept himself as fresh and well-read as any of his younger brethren, his retirement will be a severe loss to this neighborhood.

The Alta Californian states that the appraisers of the estate of Mr Folsom have completed their labors, and find the value at the present rate of real estate, to be $2,005,000. Mr Folsom went from Meredith in this State, and died in California during the last summer.

LOCAL.

MERCANTILE LECTURES. — The second course of popular lectures before our Mercantile Library Association, commences this evening. It is believed that the entertainment provided by the committee, will prove of a high order, and the course they have arranged promises to be eminently worthy of patronage.

We last year suggested the propriety of accompanying our Lyceum lectures with appropriate music, as was the practice in Portsmouth for many former years. The Mercantile committee have determined to employ competent musical performers to accompany each lecture of the present course, and for this evening, have, at no small expense, procured the services of Chandler's Portland Brass Rand, composed of sixteen excellent performers, who are announced to appear previous to the Introductory Address, in a grand instrumental concert; and also interlard the evening's exercises with appropriate music.

Rev. E. H. Chapin, of New York, is to deliver the Introductory Address. He is no stranger to our citizens, and those who attended his lectures last season, will embrace this opportunity to listen to the production of one of the finest minds our country has produced. We are not informed as to the subject selected by the eloquent gentleman, but have no doubt it will be handled with marked ability.

With Mr Stark, who on this occasion is to appear in a Poem, our citizens are less familiar, this being his first appearance among us. His poem of last year before the Boston M. L. Association, received the warmest commendations from the press; and extracts from his poetical lectures have from time to time appeared in the public prints, which are considered to exhibit a happy power of language, and a keenness of analysis unsurpassed even by our best prose essayists.

There seems to be at least one reason why the success of the Library Association in any honest undertaking, is desirable—which will readily commend itself to every thinking mind: The Association is composed wholly of young men, who are allowed the use of a very fine library, the property of the society. Of course new books must frequently be added, and to this laudable object every spare dollar of the society's funds is devoted. Although the committee evince a disposition to disburse most liberally the money received from the sale of tickets, in the procurement of the best talent in the lecture field, still it is a source of satisfaction on the part of the public, to know that any funds remaining at the close of the season, are at once devoted to the purchase of valuable and instructive books, selected with a view to the education of our young men, all of whom may avail themselves of the benefits conferred by this well-conducted society.

DEATHS IN PORTSMOUTH.—The monthly record of mortality in this city, for October, is furnished us by Mr Robert Bell:—

Males four—aged 1 year, 21, 24, 25.

Females eleven—aged 1 year, 6, 60, 60, 61, 73, 74, 80, 86, 90, 90.

Total number for the month, fifteen, of which it will be seen a very large proportion were aged—nine being 60 years old or upwards.

☞ We learn that the U. S. Naval Pension Agency at this city, has been consolidated with the Army Pension Agency, and the payments which have heretofore been made by the Navy Agent, will hereafter be made by Edward N. Fuller, Esq., the Army Pension Agent in this city.

We understand that Mr Joseph Gilpatrick, of Saco, has recently been appointed Master Blacksmith at the Navy Yard at Kittery, in place of Ephraim Otis, removed. Mr G., is one of our most enterprising and skilful mechanics, and a thoroughgoing democrat.—Saco Democrat.

☞ Mr. H. S. Thompson, of Newbury port, in connection with his large juvenile class, assisted by Misses S. S. Page and Jenny Janvrin, his Glee Class, and Quartette Club, will give two Musical Entertainments, at the City Hall, Newburyport, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Nov. 7th and 8th. The first evening's proceeds are to go for the benefit of Katy B. Badger, the child who was injured by Miss DeFord, the school teacher, some months ago.

The Tableaux of 'Cain and Abel' will be presented for the last piece. Tickets 15 cts.

Mr T. goes in for popular pieces, and always draws the crowd. We are pleased to acknowledge an invitation to attend: and also to announce that the same entertainment will probably be given at the Temple in this city in a short time.

Sacred Concert.

J. W. CLARK, respectfully announces that he will give a Concert of Sacred Music, on the evening of THURSDAY, (Thanksgiving day) 29th inst. Full particulars will be given in future advertisements. n7

Adjourned Sale.

THE SALE OF THE PEWS IN THE NEW NORTH CHURCH will be continued on WEDNESDAY Afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

LOVE AMONG THE TURKS.—A young man desperately in love with a girl at Stancho, eagerly sought to marry her, but his proposals were rejected. In consequence of his disappointment, he bought some poison and destroyed himself. The Turkish police instantly arrested the father of the young woman, as the cause, by implication, of the young man's death, under the fifth species of homicide; he became, therefore, amenable for the act of suicide. When the case came before the magistrate, it was urged literally by the accusers, that if he, the accused, had not a daughter, the deceased would not have fallen in love; consequently he would not have been disappointed, and not have died. Upon all these counts he was mulcted to pay the price of the young man's life, which was fixed at eighty piastres, and was accordingly exacted.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, may almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Since the difficulty between Dr. Morrell, our late Consul at Matanzas, and the Spanish authorities, it has been discovered by the State Department that the Consuls of all other countries excepting our own within her most Catholic Majesty's dominions, have the power by special agreement to take possession of the effects of their deceased countrymen, and affix their seals thereto, but it will be recollected that Dr. Morrell was not permitted to perform a similar function, or rather, an attempt to do so was not respected by the Spanish authorities. In view of these facts, it is said the subject has been officially brought to the attention of the Spanish Government, in order that our Consuls may be secured the same privileges.

The efforts to resuscitate the Whig party which have been made in New York and Massachusetts, under the auspices of the most conservative Whig politicians of those States, one might naturally have supposed would be hailed with some pleasure by Southern Whig presses. Not so however. Conservative as were the politicians who made this attempt, they do not appear to be quite enough so to suit their Southern brethren.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most valuable valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION. SECOND YEAR.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual Collection of this new and popular Institution for the diffusion of Literature and Art, have been made on the most liberal and extensive scale.

Among the works already engaged is the far-famed

which originally cost ten thousand dollars.

In forming the new collection, the diffusion of works of American Art, and the encouragement of American Genius, have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions. Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living sculptor, HIRAM POWERS—

GEORGE WASHINGTON,
the Father of his country;
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
the Philosopher;
DANIEL WEBSTER,
the Statesman.

A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of art, both in bronze and marble; Statuary and choice Paintings.

The whole forming a large and valuable collection of Paintings and Statuary, to be distributed FREE among the members of the association for the second year.

TERMS OF MEMBERSHIP.

The payment of three dollars constitutes any one a member of this association, and entitles him to either one of the Magazines for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and Paintings.

The Literature issued to subscribers consists of the following monthly magazines:—Harper's, Putnam's Knickerbocker, Blackwood, Household Words, Graham's, and Godey's Lady's Book.

Persons taking five memberships are entitled to any five of the magazines for one year, and to six tickets in the distribution. The net proceeds derived from the sale of memberships are devoted to the purchase of works of art for the ensuing year.

THE ADVANTAGES SECURED

by becoming a member of this association are—

1st. All persons receive the full value of their subscriptions at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazine Literature.

2d. Each member is contributing towards purchasing choice works of art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the artists of the country, disbursing thousands of dollars through its agency.

Persons in remitting funds for membership, will please give their post office address in full, stating the month they wish the Magazine to commence, and have the letter registered at the post office to prevent loss; on its receipt a certificate of membership together with the Magazine desired will be forwarded to any part of the country.

Those who purchase Magazines at Bookstores will observe that by joining this association they receive the Magazine and a free ticket in the annual distribution, all at the same price they now pay for the Magazine alone.

For memberships, address

C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A.,

At either of the principal offices—'Knickerbocker Magazine' office, 348 Broadway, New York; or Western Office, 125 Water street, Sandusky, Ohio.

Shaving, Hair Dressing, &c.

HENRY S. HARTSHORN would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he has taken the spacious Room in the western corner of CITY HOTEL building, No. 20 Congress street, and fitted and furnished it in the best manner, as the

and will be most happy to wait on his patrons with less delay than has sometimes been necessary in his old Saloon.

His old place of business will be under his charge, also, as heretofore.

With his increased facilities for performing every operation pertaining to the removal or Dressing of the Human Hair, he feels prepared to give the fullest satisfaction to all who may call on him.

While returning most grateful thanks for the very liberal patronage with which he has ever been favored in Portsmouth, he would solicit a continuance of the same.

o16 H. S. HARTSHORN.

To the Citizens of Portsmouth and Vicinity.

YOUR attention is requested to a new Medicine called

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

The Medical virtues of which are fully set forth in the Pamphlet which will be distributed in a few days, and which, upon perusal, will satisfy you that it is not one of the humbugs of the day. There is no article (excepting the Oxygenated Bitters and Preston's Catholicon,) that has ever been found to alleviate the troubles incident to a DYSPEPTIC. But the PERUVIAN SYRUP operates like a charm; so effectual is it that even the first dose gives immediate relief.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, ASTHMA, DROPSY AND LIVER COMPLAINT,

It surpasses all known remedies. Please read the Pamphlet through, and judge for yourself.

WM. R. PRESTON, Druggist,

Undoubted Testimony

IN FAVOR OF THE MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF

"The Peruvian Syrup."

THE Pamphlet which accompanies this Medicine contains the recommendation of the following well known individuals:

Rev. John Pierpont, Rev. E. T. Gray,
Thos. A. Dexter, Esq., Hon. Wm. Jackson,
Moses Grant, Esq., Henry Lunt, Esq,
Ferdinand Andrews, Esq., Ed. Boston Traveller, all of Boston;
J. B. Congdon, Cashier Merch. Bank, N. Bedford;
Rev. Augustus R. Pope, Somerville, Mass.;
Rev. E. T. Gray, Boston.

Having tested its virtues in a severe case of Dyspepsia in my own family, with perfect success, I can personally recommend it.

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis
ELIXIR.
THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and hope of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.
Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Patents.
AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.
Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.
R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.
"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.
AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

MR. SMITH LOUNGES ON THE SOFA.

MRS. SMITH LECTURES HIM FOR IT.

There is a touch of practical good sense about the following that will be appreciated by many. We find it in the Maysville Tribune:

I declare Mr. Smith, this is too bad. Here you are stretched out upon the sofa, mussing it up, and my nice carpet is spoiled by the tramp of your coarse boots. I shall be ashamed to bring any one into the parlor again—and I have taken so much pains to keep everything nice! I do think Mr Smith, you are the most thoughtless, careless man, I ever did see—you don't appear to care how much trouble you give me. If I had no more care than you have, we would soon have a nice looking house—it wouldnt be long before our new house and furniture would be just as bad as the old, said John Smith's wife to him, as she saw him in the parlor taking a nap on the sofa.

Mr Smith rose up slowly and answered: I was tired and sleepy, Mary, and the weather so hot, and this room so quiet and cool, and the sofa looked so inviting, that I could not resist the temptation to snooze a little. I thought when we were building a new house, and furnishing it thus, we were doing it because the old house and furniture were not so comfortable and desirable, and that I and my own dear Mary would indulge ourselves in a little quiet leisure in these nice rooms, and if we chose, in lounging on the sofas and chairs, away from the noise of the family and the smell of the cooking stove.

I did not dream of displeasing you, Mary, and I thought it would give you pleasure to see me enjoying my nap on the sofa this afternoon.

I notice when Mr Merchant Swell, or Col. Bigman, and their families are here, you appear delighted to have sofas and cushioned arm-chairs for them to sit in, or lounge upon, and I thought the house and the sofas were to use—that we were seeking our own pleasure when we paid a large sum of money for them; but I suppose I was mistaken, and that house and furniture are for strangers, and that we are to sit in the old kitchen, and if I want to take a nap or rest a little while when fatigued, I am to lie down on a slab in the wood-house; and if you want to rest, you can go to the children's bed-room, where the flies can have a chance at you.

The irony of Mr Smith's reply only provoked his wife, and seeing himself threatened with a repetition of Mrs Smith's speech, with unpleasant additions and variations, and knowing that he would get tired of gaining victories over her in argument, before she would think of getting tired of defeat, he took himself out, and left Mrs Smith to fix up and dust out, and lock him out of his own house, and took a seat in the old chair in the kitchen, which Mrs Smith said was good enough to use every day, where no one sees it.

Poor mistaken Mrs Smith, thought I. And yet most women are like her. They want a fine house, and when they get it they want an out-house built to live in, and they confine their families to a few small rooms, poorly furnished, while the main rooms, well furnished, are never seen by the family only when visitors come! Both house and furniture are too grand for use. The carpet is too fine for their husbands to walk on—the mirrors too fine for him to look into—the furniture all too fine for him to see or use. Just so it goes; we dress—we women, I mean, and I am sorry that many men are as foolish as we are, to please others, or rather to excite their remarks; we build houses and furnish them for those outside the family, and live as poorly when we are rich as we did when we were poor; as poorly in the new house as in the old.

It is a fatal day for enjoyment when a family gets a house and furniture too fine for use; and yet most women have an ambition to have it so. Better would it be if they were contented with such a house and such furniture as is is suited to every day use—the house large enough to accommodate one's friends, and the furniture such as we use at home.

PRIME MOVERS OF AGITATION.—Down with the agitators, they say. So say we, and have ever said it. But down first of all, we yet more strongly say, with the original agents, the prime movers, of agitation. Down with the Douglasses and the whole crew of his allies and followers, North and South. It is they who give these agitators all their power and opportunity. Anti-slavery brawlers do not make rebellion; like Worcester, they find it. The breath of demagogues may fan agitation, but can never kindle it. It takes a substantial grievance to do that. A species of men to whom a state of order would become a sentence of obscurity, are nourished into a dangerous magnitude by the heat of intestine disturbances; and it is no wonder that, by a sort of sinister piety, they cherish in their turn the disorders which are the parents of all their consequence. Superficial observers consider such persons as the cause of the public uneasiness, when in truth they are nothing more than the effect of it. That's Burke; and we say "ditto to Mr. Burke." It is undeniable truth, and a moment's reflection shows it. First of all, then, put your quietus on the source of the mischief. Down with the innovators at Washington.—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

GREY SQUIRRELS.—This kind of game is said to be very plenty this season. Some time since a gentleman in Concord went out and returned with 110 squirrels as the result of one day's hunt. It is no unusual thing for a huntsman to take half a dozen in the Hooksett woods. They have had a hunt at Claremont, at which many of these sprightly animals were brought in, and at which over 1400 of all kinds were taken.

SILVER DOOR PLATES.
F. W. Ham, 1 Congress street,
IS AGENT for Wilpple & Livermore's SILVER DOOR PLATES and NUMBERS, for Dwellings, Offices, Church Pews, State Rooms, &c.
Messrs. Whipple & Livermore, of Providence, having discovered a method by which the use of machinery is applied to every department of labor in the manufacture of silver Door Plates, are enabled to offer a new and beautiful article of Pure Silver, at greatly reduced prices.
Plates of all sizes and of beautiful designs, exhibiting superior finish, and lettered or numbered in a style unsurpassed in point of elegance, are produced with unfailing accuracy and unprecedented despatch. They are warranted, also, to contain a larger quantity of pure silver, and to be thus more durable, as well as more beautiful and lower priced than the silver plated article. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1855.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION.

The result of Tuesday's voting, is the re-election of Gov. Gardner by a large plurality.

In Boston the vote for Governor was:—Gardner, 5408; Beach, 4350; Rockwell 2033; Walley, 2549.

Lieutenant Governor—Stetson, 64; Benchley, 794; Davenport, 552; Brown, 95.

The Herald says:—

The election passed off very quietly, and to the surprise of all parties; even the Americans did not anticipate so large a vote, but even now they had a reserved force that would have carried Gardner's vote up to last year, if there had been a close contest on representatives to have brought it out. The Beach men confidently expected to give a plurality for their candidate with the chances in their favor for representatives; but before noon the ground was yielded. Gardner carried a majority of every ward but one, and a plurality in that, and the old representatives were re-elected by a majority of all the votes cast.

The result was a complete triumph, such as would have awakened the spirits of any party, and accordingly as soon as the vote was known, a great crowd assembled about the American Head Quarters, filling the hall and yet leaving hundreds in the streets. The room was illuminated; the "Junior Sons" turned out with music, speeches were made, rockets were burned and a general good time had.—The crowd did not disperse till late at night, and as telegraphic despatches were received at 9 o'clock that Gardner was 11,000 ahead, at 10 o'cl'k 13,000 ahead; that here senators and there representatives were elected, the shouts and cheers went up, waking the whole neighborhood to the news. The defeat of the Liberals, who were the only opposing party in the city, was so thorough both in the town and State, that it turned them to a general laugh, and there was good nature all around. Gardner's plurality will not probably be less than 16,000.

The Boston Mail, an ardent supporter of the Liberal ticket, said, on Monday, the day before election:

It is said that a vote for Beach is a vote for slavery. This is a wilful falsehood. Whoever votes for BEACH AND DAVENPORT simply expresses his opposition to the Maine Law, and nothing more. The pro-slavery man and Free Soiler, the American and Fusionist, the Whig and Democrat who wish to defeat the prohibitory law will vote the Liberal ticket, for this is the only way to accomplish this result.

The cause of temperance demands the repeal of the present law, and the enactment of a measure that can be enforced both in cities and towns. This is what the Liberal Party desire, and the object can only be secured by electing Beach and Davenport. All unbiased citizens will vote for Beach and Davenport.

Whigs, if you wish to defeat two renegade Whigs, Gardner and Rockwell, vote for Beach. A vote for Walley is a vote for Fusion and Know Nothingism. The election of Beach is the only way to punish the traitors.

Whigs do not throw away this opportunity. Mr. Walley cannot be elected. Vote, therefore, for Beach and Davenport, and this will be a Whig triumph. Do not waste your powder.

Keep it before the people that the Maine Law is unconstitutional, anti-republican, and tyrannical. * * * * Shall free Massachusetts be longer troubled with such a tyrrannical scheme? The ballot-box will answer to-morrow in accents that will make glad every Liberal man in the Commonwealth.—Beach, Davenport and Victory.

The Times of Tuesday says:

The sun will go down to-day glorious over a Democratic victory, and its rays illuminating the hearts of the oppressed of all the world, or it will go down in a black cloud, or in an atmosphere so obscure that the most acute visual organs cannot distinguish it. It will go down a Democratic sun—a Black Republican sun—or a Know Nothing dark lantern sun—and, if every man does his duty, we shall have the pleasure of recording the triumphant election of the Hon. Erasmus D. Beach.

At the great rum gathering in State street, on Monday night, Mr. Williams said:

Looking all the way down State street, I see nothing but a sea of upturned faces; what a glorious prospect for Erasmus D. Beach to-morrow—our own Beach, on which we stand firm and united, and certain of victory.

The Chronicle of election day said:

Either Erasmus D. Beach or Julius Rockwell will be to day elected! The other candidates stand no chance whatever! We KNOW that a vast majority of the people of Massachusetts prefer our candidate, and we regard our triumph as certain!

Well: it wasn't.

The vast majority didn't prefer Mr Beach, nor Mr Rockwell, nor Mr Walley, nor Mr Any-body-else. A large plurality preferred Mr Gardner, the man who signed the liquor bill, and disbanded the Irish companies, but did not remove Judge Loring.

Notwithstanding the blast of trumpets, and braying of donkeys about the liberal party, it didn't seem to be any where but in Boston, and not a majority there.

A friend of ours who holds a good fat office there under "the crown," told us not long ago, "Beach will certainly be governor—this Niggerism (in the School law,) don't go in Boston."

Our friend was slightly in error, like his neighbors.

The House of Representatives may be put down on this proportion—K N 50; Rep. 40; Dem. 20; Whig 20. No party has a majority; so there can hardly be any partisan legislation, unless for future effect.

It is a remarkable fact, that while, as the Mail and Chronicle show, there was a distinct issue made against the liquor law, there was no distinct issue made in its favor, by any party; yet the popular vote retains the governor who signed it; and the law itself seems to be in no danger of repeal.

The vote for Governor in the State, as far as heard from, is—

PULPIT POLITICS.—The Christian Intelligencer, in an article rebuking those clergymen who have allowed themselves to introduce politics and kindred subjects into the pulpit, thus censures them:—

"Lest we should be misunderstood, we take space to add, that while ministers, like other citizens, possess their political rights, and ought to exercise them, yet all experience proves that the breadth and permanence of their influence is in proportion to their close adherence to the spirit of their master, and the entireness of their evangelical commission. They are the teachers, guides, reprovers of the world! They should never consent to be mere bell-ringers for unprincipled politicians."

Amen! so be it. Where are Brothers Lovejoy, Smith, and Winslow? Where are Brs. Wood and Dewey?

"Gospel preaching the proper business of Christian Ministers," is the subject of a discourse delivered by the Rev. James M. Hartwell, at Enfield, N. H., in January last.

The Newburyport Herald calls it a sensible discourse, and says:

We wish he could have had a congregation of "three thousand New England clergymen" to hear him—they might have profited by the wise counsel of the reverend gentleman, and learned christian humility and duty from his precepts. We regret that we have not space for copious extracts from this admirable and timely discourse, but can only present one paragraph this morning:—

"The example of Christ, and his disciples, shows they attended to one work. They avoided the discussion of all questions that did not directly tend to save men, and extend their Christian influence; only when drawn into an opposite course, by some self-righteous Pharisee, or wily scribe. They set us the example of supporting the government, vindicating the laws of the land, and were careful not to "speak evil of the rulers."

This is a wonderful paragraph. If the Rev. Mr. Hartwell will be so good as to tell the public when and where Jesus and his disciples vindicated the laws of the land, he will do a great work. That they submitted to them, and paid tribute, is true;—but the vindication is news to us.

They treated human laws and human government, as fixed facts; but they appealed constantly to Higher Laws and a Higher Power than those of earth. And when the two codes of laws came in conflict, as they did sometimes, they made up their minds that they ought to obey God rather than Men.

"They were careful not to speak evil of rulers"—says Mr. Hartwell.

Jesus said, Woe unto you, scribes and pharisees, hypocrites! woe unto you lawyers!

Peter says to the rulers, Whether it be right to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. And then Peter and the rest of the Apostles went and did exactly what the rulers told them not to do.

Paul said to the High Priest, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall—for thou sittest to judge me according to the law, and commandest to smite me contrary to the law.

They avoided all discussions on certain tough questions,—did they? only when drawn into the opposite course, that is, the course of discussion, by some Pharisee or Scribe!

Well; these, with the Sadducees and Herodians, engaged the Saviour in so many discussions, that the exception is about as large as the rule.—Nevertheless, these discussions as he managed them, bore directly on the then present duty of that people, to whom he spoke.—And his appeals were plain, personal, pungent, and very often gave offence.—It seems to be a pity for Mr. Hartwell's sake, and for his gospel, that it should be so,—but it is true, that while the common people heard Jesus gladly, the priests, pharisees, and rulers generally hated him.

A CANDID WITNESS.—A person who was recently called in court, for the purpose of proving the correctness of a doctor's bill, was asked by the lawyer whether "the doctor did not make several visits after the patient was out of danger?" "No," replied the witness, "I considered the patient in danger as long as the doctor continued his visits!"

LOCAL.

MERCANTILE LIBRARY LECTURES.

Wednesday evening, the first of the course, contained a grand entertainment, in three parts;—first a concert of nearly an hour, by the Portland Brass Band; second, a lecture of an hour by Rev. E. H. Chapin, followed by an interlude from the Band; third, a Poem by Wm. Stark, Esq. of Nashua, with a finale by the Band.

The house was filled, securing the success of the course.

Mr Chapin's lecture was on Practical Life, which he distinguished from practical living; and proceeded to show, by a variety of illustration, that a love of Truth must exist in the Mind, in order to a perception of Truth as it is presented to us from the world without; and that when and only when we love and perceive the Truth, then we possess and live in it.

The orator rendered this apparently abstract theme quite interesting to his miscellaneous audience, and caused us to feel, as he often does, that there is a real life in the present and for the future, independent of outward possessions, eminent stations and historic fame.

The poem abounded in successful hits, some of them rather hard; and the horrible picture of railroad slaughters, was rather too horrible for a satirical and humorous poem.—As a whole, the poem was metitorious; and the poet, by pruning the luxuriance of his plant, can render it more pleasant and graceful, with no loss of wit.

The music of the band was appropriate—and the whole entertainment well received.

☞ Last evening, after the close of the lecture, the Portland Band serenaded several of our citizens, rendering the still evening air vocal with their sweet harmony.

☞ The installation of Rev. Mr Patterson, as pastor of the Universalist Church, is to take place this afternoon. Rev. E. H. Chapin is to be the preacher. There is also to be a lecture in same Church this evening.

☞ We understand that the Winter Course of Biblical Lectures, by Rev Dr. Burroughs, will commence this (Thursday) evening at a quarter past 7 o'clock, in St. John's Chapel, State street. The subject will be the 8th chapter of Daniel.

☞ The patent Folding umbrellas, advertised by Ham & Co., are worthy of examination. They are made in the very best manner, and will commend themselves to every traveller, on the score of economy, (being easily taken care of) as well as convenience.

LOSS OF LIFE.—The late despatches from St. Louis, give the following account of killed and wounded on the Pacific Railroad, by the falling of a train through a bridge.

The whole number killed, as far as is ascertained, is 22.

It is impossible at present to estimate the number of the wounded, but scarcely a man on the train escaped injury.

The number who are suffering from broken limbs, or some contusions, will probably reach fifty.

N. H. REGISTER FOR 1856.—This useful Annual has come in from our neighbors, the Messrs. Harvey. Besides the usual tables, for reference, it contains a valuable chapter of old revolutionary statistics, in which we notice the following item of the year 1775.

Israel Morey and Samuel Ashley, Esqrs., Capt. Josiah Moulton and Rev. Samuel Webster, were added to the Committee of Safety, and said Committee was impowered to issue Orders for enlisting men sufficient for one Regiment, in the same manner as is practised in the Massachusetts Bay, and receive returns of men enlisted, as is done there.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION.—The boiler of a locomotive on the Georgia Central Railroad exploded on Wednesday afternoon, the 31st ult., killing the engineer, Merrill; Kelly, a native of Pa.; and a fireman named Barnes, from Cincinnati; and severely injuring a brakeman. This casualty occurred when the train was near the 13 mile station, the engine belonging to a freight train coming down.—The explosion is described as dreadful in the extreme, the whole locomotive being thrown forward a distance of nearly fifty feet, and the track torn up for 150 feet. The pecuniary damage is estimated at about $7000.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, it is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people,—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The steamship Arago arrived here at 3 o'clock.

She left Cowes at midnight on the 24th ult. and brings 300 passengers.

The capture of Kinburn is confirmed.

A steam squadron lies at the mouth of the Dneiper, commanding the entrance to Nicaloff and Kherson.

The Bourse at Madrid was deserted, from the panic caused by cholera.

The Russians blew up the fortifications of Aschaloff on the morning of the 18th.

30,000 Allied troops landed on the peninsula of Tendra, on the same morning as the capture of Kinburn, destination unknown.

Sir William Molesworth died on the 22d.

Another bread demonstration was had at Hyde Park on Sunday.

DETAILS OF EUROPEAN NEWS.—The three forts on the Kinburn Spit, mounting upwards of 70 guns, and garrisoned by 1300 men under Gen. Kokonskitch, capitulated to the allied forces on the 17th of Oct. The day before, a flotilla of gun-vessels forced the entrance into the Dneiper, and the allied troops landed on the Spit to the Southward of the force. Thus by their simultaneous operations, the retreat of the garrisons and the arrival of reinforcements were entirely cut off, so that the forts being bombarded on the 17th by the mortar vessels, gun vessels, and French floating batteries, and being closely cannonaded by the steam line of battle ships and frigates having only 2 feet of water under their keels, were obliged to surrender. The casualties in the fleet were very few, but the enemy had 45 killed and 150 wounded.

A steam squadron, under the orders of Rear Admiral Stewart Spellion, lies at anchor in the Dneiper, and commands the entrance to Nicoloff and Kherson. The pass was occupied by the allied troops. The advantages which this victory will give the allied armies are evident, as by this success they have secured to themselves one of the gates of Dneiper, and the fall of "Olchka" is next contemplated—a citadel which is very formidable, and has recently been strengthened.

Marshal Pelissier's despatch in reference to the capture of Kinburn was received by the Minister of War on the 22 ult. He says that the Anglo-French division of the army had mainly contributed to the success of the allied squadron, having been landed on the peninsula, about five kilometres from the fortress, and taken up its position, and on the night of the 16th, opened the trenches at 800 metres from the works, when the fleet commenced its heavy fire on the 17th.

Two companies of chasseurs, under cover, at a distance of 400 metres from the batteries, were able to keep up a fusilade on the Russian artillerymen at their guns. The field artillery also played an effective part in the operation.

There were taken 1420 prisoners, including Gen. Kolonwitch and 40 officers, with 174 pieces of cannon and a quantity of ammunition and stores.

Marshal Pelissier sent home the standard with the arms of Russia, which floated over Kinburn.

Admiral Dundas had left Nargen in the Wellington, and was going to Stockholm to pay his respects to King Oscar.

A dreadful accident had occurred at the Lyons Railway, by which 16 persons were killed, and others dangerously wounded.

A telegraphic despatch was received at the Admiralty, from Admiral Lyons, announcing that on the morning of the 10th ult., the Russians blew up the fortifications of the Oschakoff Point, mounting 23 guns, and which were assailable by the mortar vessels of the Allies.

A despatch from the Crimea states that the Russians continue to augment the defences of Sebastopol.

A Vienna paper, on the authority of a telegraphic communication from Odessa, says: at the same time the Allies attacked Kinburn 30,000 men were landed on the peninsula of Tembra; but nothing was known as to their destination.

Private letters received in Paris from officers in the French army, state that it is believed that Prince Gortschakoff was actively preparing to evacuate the Crimea.

Just previously to the departure of the Arago, the Peninsular and Oriental Company's steamship Nubia arrived with the Indian and Mediteranean mails. She brought intelligence from Gibraltar that the American ship Trapani, with a cargo of salt for the United States, unfortunately got aground off Cabolta Point. Her Majesty's steamships Rhadamanteus and Prometheus, together with the Brusher steamtug, went to her; but they were unable to render her the slightest assistance.

ALBANY, 6th.—Fatal Affray at the Polls.—At the Second Ward Polls, this morning, one Michael Brennan, a fighting man, commenced an assault upon Mr. Wm. M. Crossen, when the latter drew a pistol and shot Brennan through the heart. He died in less than two minutes. It is said there was an old grudge existing between the parties.

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION. SECOND YEAR.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual Collection of this new and popular institution for the diffusion of Literature and Art, have been made on the most liberal and extensive scale.

Among the works already engaged is the far-famed

which originally cost ten thousand dollars.

In forming the new collection, the diffusion of works of American Art, and the encouragement of American Genius, have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions. Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living sculptor, HIRAM POWERS—

GEORGE WASHINGTON,
the Father of his country;
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
the Philosopher;
DANIEL WEBSTER,
the Statesman.

A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of art, both in bronze and marble; Statuary and choice Paintings.

The whole forming a large and valuable collection of Paintings and Statuary, to be distributed FREE among the members of the association for the second year.

TERMS OF MEMBERSHIP.

The payment of three dollars constitutes any one a member of this association, and entitles him to either one of the Magazines for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and Paintings.

The Literature issued to subscribers consists of the following monthly magazines:—Harper's, Putnam's Knickerbocker, Blackwood, Household Words, Graham's, and Godey's Lady's Book.

Persons taking five memberships are entitled to any five of the magazines for one year, and to six tickets in the distribution. The net proceeds derived from the sale of memberships are devoted to the purchase of works of art for the ensuing year.

THE ADVANTAGES SECURED

by becoming a member of this association are—

1st. All persons receive the full value of their subscriptions at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazine Literature.

2d. Each member is contributing towards purchasing choice works of art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the artists of the country, disbursing thousands of dollars through its agency.

Persons in remitting funds for membership, will please give their post office address in full, stating the month they wish the Magazine to commence, and have the letter registered at the post office to prevent loss; on its receipt a certificate of membership together with the Magazine desired will be forwarded to any part of the country.

Those who purchase Magazines at Bookstores will observe that by joining this association they receive the Magazine and a free ticket in the annual distribution, all at the same price they now pay for the Magazine alone.

For memberships, address

RATHER STRONG.—A constitutional Whig, writing in the New York Courier and Enquirer, thus refers to the question of the times:

In 1855, it is a question of wiping out a foul blot upon our national escutcheon—an intolerable insult to the whole North—a gross invasion of our rights. Why, sir, the man who thinks that Henry Clay would, had he lived, have employed in '55 the language which he used in '50, would have called on Noah, had he lived in Sodom or Gomorrah, to have reproduced his Ark as a protection against this latter visitation of God's anger.

PROFITABLE PHILANTHROPY.—Henry Grinnell, the "celebrated philanthropist," has actually paid toward the expenses of the several Arctic expeditions fitted out from New York, about ten thousand dollars—the government having assumed the rest. The house of Grinnell, Minturn & Co., of which he is a partner, will have made at the close of the present season, from grain and other transactions upon orders from the British Government—all of which orders came to this house in consequence of Mr. Henry Grinnell's "philanthropy," about three quarters of a million of dollars. A shrewd calculator was Mr. Grinnell—a most successful "philanthropist!"

DEATH OF CHAPMAN, THE MURDERER.—The Lowell Journal states John L. Chapman, who was convicted last May of the murder of Reuben Cozzens, at Sherborn, Sept. 17, 1853, died in the jail at Concord, on Friday morning, aged 22. His disease was consumption, brought on by exposure to rain and cold on the night of the murder, and the weight of his guilt pressing on his mind. For some weeks past he has been confined to his bed and has been tenderly watched and nursed by his sister, who has occupied his room with him and devoted herself to him. He manifested no contrition, and died without making any confession.

Try it! Try it! Try it!
G. W. STONE'S
LIQUID CATHARTIC,
—AND—
Family Physic,
The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.
THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as
RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.
It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.
PRICE $1.00.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S
Cough Medicine.
DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. "The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:
"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and admirably devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."
This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon the fact that, in addition, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."
Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the purchaser can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.
To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BRIDGTON, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities, by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

Morning Chronicle.

HENRY CLAY AND WM. E. CHANNING.—A recent number of the Journal des Debats had a criticism of the new edition of the Rev. Dr. Channing's works, issued in the French language by M. Edward Laboulaye, of Paris. That gentleman has prefaced one of his volumes with an elaborate review of Channing, in which he is contrasted with Henry Clay. We quote a single passage, which we find translated in the London Inquirer:

Posterity has already come for these two men, and its judgment has commenced. Mr Clay, the able politician, the hero of the moment, has received the applause of his cotemporaries—it is the recompense of statesmen who plunge into the current of opinion—receperunt mercedem suam, vani vanam. Although his intentions were good, history, upon which he relied, will be severe with him; for, in rejecting emancipation, he has been cruel to those who suffer, and by his unjust compromises, he has sharpened instead of healed an evil that may prove mortal to America. History, on the other hand, will be indulgent to Channing, who did not dream of her. In crowning this good man, she will prove again that there is more of science and of policy in a Christian who follows the great law of the Gospel, than in the Statesman who follows the combinations and contrivances of parties; and far above the cotemporaries but lately famous, the future will place the so called dreamer who saw so justly—this pastor, unnoticed by the sages; for Channing was the sincere adviser of his country—the friend of the oppressed, the apostle of liberty and justice.

It is customary in many of our city churches for the congregation to join in singing the last hymn. On Sunday last a gentleman, accompanied by his little girl of some five years of age, strayed into one of the aforesaid churches, and his fine voice materially assisted the choir in getting through "Winchester." Just before the benediction, the little girl, observing the fine effect produced by her parent on the occupants of the surrounding pews, cried out in an audible voice, "Papa, please sing 'Villikins and his Dinah!'" It is needless to add that the benediction was unheeded. —Post.

Upon the conclusion of a marriage in a village church, the bridegroom signed the register with his x mark. The pretty young bride did the same, then turning to the lady who had known her as the best scholar in school, whispered to her, while tears of honest love and admiration stood in her bright eyes, "He's a dear fellow, Miss, but cannot write yet.—He's going to learn of me, and I would not shame him for the world."

THE MARTYRDOM OF THE BISHOPS AT OXFORD.—In commemoration of this great event, a sermon was preached in the Church of St. Mary Magdalen, Oxford, on Tuesday, Oct. 16, from Revelations 12th chap., 11th verse. The discourse was listened to by a crowded church. On this occasion the beautiful memorial of Cranmer, Ridley and Latimer, adjoining the north end of Magdalen Church yard was ornamented with evergreens. London paper, Oct. 20th.

FIRE IN WILBRAHAM.—The house and barn of widow Virgin, in Wilbraham, Mass, were destroyed by fire on Friday evening last. A valuable cow in the barn was also burnt.—Loss about $1200; no insurance. The fire was caused by an incendiary.

HOTEL CLOSED.—The American House, Worcester, was closed on Saturday. This hotel has been kept by Messrs. Tucker & Bonney for the last seven years upon the temperance principle, and has been generally satisfactory. The building is to be remodeled for business purposes.

DR. KANE'S PROSPECTS.—We are confidently assured that the editor of the Evening Post has no reason to contradict the report of the engagement of Dr. Kane to Miss Margaretta Fox. This young lady is said to have retired long since from all association with spiritualists, and spent the time of Dr. Kane's absence with his aunt, near Philadelphia, from whom she has received instruction. She is said to be a beautiful, pure-minded and amiable girl.—N. Y. Tribune.

SILVER DOOR PLATES.

F. W. Ham, 1 Congress street,

IS AGENT for Whipple & Livermore's SILVER DOOR PLATES and NUMBERS, for Dwellings, Offices, Church Pews, State Rooms, &c.

Messrs. Whipple & Livermore, of Providence, having discovered a method by which the use of machinery is applied to every department of labor in the manufacture of silver Door Plates, are enabled to offer a new and beautiful article of Pure Silver, at greatly reduced prices.

Plates of all sizes and of beautiful designs, exhibiting superior finish, and lettered or numbered in a style unsurpassed in point of elegance, are produced with unfailing accuracy and unprecedented despatch. They are warranted, also, to contain a larger quantity of pure silver, and to be thus more durable, as well as more beautiful and lower priced than the silver plated article. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1855.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The Boston Advertiser contains a full return of the votes for Governor, comprising all the towns, 330 in number, with the single exception of Nahant.

Walley,	14,479
Beach,	35,050
Gardner,	51,926
Rockwell,	36,855
Total vote,	138,310

Gardner, K. N. is elected by about 15,000 plurality over Rockwell, Republican.

Mr Beach, Liberal, is the 3d in point of numbers, and Mr Walley, Whig, the 4th.

Votes for Lieutenant Governor.—

Moses Davenport, whig,	18,012
Caleb Stetson, dem.	22,383
Henry W. Benchley, K.N.	40,867
Simon Brown, Rep.	30,605

Moses Davenport was also the "liberal" candidate.

Benchley, K. N. is elected.

The House of Representatives stands as follows:

Know Nothings,		159
Whigs,	54
Democrats,	31
Republicans,	66
Liberals,	6
		157
		316

This gives the Know Nothings a bare majority of two, which they will be fortunate if they preserve when the towns not yet reported are included. Fifteen representatives are not heard from; and there are 75 vacancies. The 30 whigs chosen from Boston are all on the liberal ticket also.

Senators chosen.—Total 40; Whigs none; Democrats 2; K. Ns. 30; Republicans 8.

In the senatorial district composed of the island counties of Nantucket and Dukes, the know nothings and republicans having united on the same candidate, have elected him.

In Suffolk county, six know nothings are elected—the lowest upon the list (A. B. Munroe) having 22 votes more than the highest (J. P. Healy) on the whig ticket.

Congress, 10th Dist.—Chaffee, K.N. is elected by about 400 plurality over J. W. Foster, Rep.—and about 700 over the democratic and whig vote combined.

The Attorney General, Secretary, Treasurer, and Auditor, (chosen by the people for the first time) are all K. Ns.

The Transcript says that the latest returns gives 153 American, 80 Republican, 57 whig and liberal, and 30 Democratic representatives, leaving the Americans in a minority of 14 against the combined opposition.

NEW YORK ELECTION.—New York, 7th.—The K. Ns. have probably elected their whole city ticket. The majority for Erastus Brooks for State Senator, is over 3000.

Further returns this morning from the interior, indicate that the K. Ns.' have also carried the State.

There were riots at several of the polls, but not of a very serious nature, the police generally interfering in them to prevent a very general fight. In one ward, however, a party of Irishmen made an attack upon a building occupied by Know-Nothings, in receiving returns, and broke in the doors and windows.—Firearms were also used, but the police succeeded in quelling it.

In Kings county the Hard Shell ticket is elected by 1000 plurality over the R. Ns.,' who poll the next highest vote.

The general returns thus far received, foot up about 120,000 votes, divided as follows: K. Ns.' 45,000, Fusion 30,000, Soft Shells 31,000, Hard Shells 24,000

NEW JERSEY ELECTION.—The New Jersey election seems to have excited but little interest. Party politics were not very strongly defined, and the vote was consequently small. Our returns so far, are mixed up, so as to defy classification.

MILWAUKIE ELECTION.—Milwaukie, 7th.—In the State election, yesterday, this city gave BARSTOW, Democratic candidate for Governor, 3400; Bashford, Republican, upwards of 2000. The city and county gave a majority of 3000 for BARSTOW.

MARYLAND ELECTION.—Baltimore, 7th.—A very heavy vote was polled to-day, but the result cannot be known until to-morrow noon. Davis, American, is elected to Congress over May. Partial returns indicate the success of the American ticket.

A man was shot dead in a row at the polls.

KANE AND WHEELER.—An action has been instituted by Passmore Williamson against Judge Kane for false imprisonment. The writ was served upon the Judge in Delaware county, where the Judge will of course be tried.

Mr. Wheeler's interference in the Nicaragua civil war is regarded as unauthorized, and his recall is not an improbable event.

The public will remember that Mr Wheeler was the petitioner for the Habeas Corpus, which was abused and perverted, illegally, by Judge Kane, to the imprisonment of Williamson. The Judge and the Minister are a "Pair of Brothers,"—not "Noble," however, but ignoble; a pair of bad lawyers; a pair of men with much prejudice and apparently little principle.

The Baptists of New Hampshire have decreased more than 2000 members in the last twelve years; they however number 3000 more than they did twenty-five years ago.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 8.—Fire.—The saw mill, grist mill, and chair factory, situated on Salmon Falls river, about three miles from Rochester Village, were entirely consumed on Wednesday night, the 7th inst. Loss, about $5500—$3000 of which fall to Mr. Stephen Shorey, the occupant of the mills; no insurance.

The Blanket Factory of J. W. Springfield, situated on the opposite side of the river, was saved only by the most untiring exertions. J.

BOSTON CHRONICLE.—This paper, the able liquor organ, of Thursday, says,—

One thing we are bound to say in all frankness, the cause of Liberalism has found but a poor ally in the Administration Custom House party of this State.

That party and its principal organs have on the whole proved false to the cause which they pretended to espouse with such ardor.—That party should have recollected, with becoming modesty, that it must owe infinitely more to the Liberals in the election, than the Liberals could owe to it. In fact, Liberalism was the only salt that could possibly save it. But its organs on the morning of the election proved false to the pledges given by its leaders to the Liberal Union Party by stating that the Liberal Union representative ticket in this city contained the names of eleven Know Nothings, which was false. Had it not been for this and the illegal conduct of the Ward officers of three Wards to which we have already alluded, we have every reason to believe that the entire Liberal Union representative ticket for this city would have been elected; a consummation that would have put the triumph of Liberal principles in the next Legislature beyond doubt.

Now hear the same paper speak to the K. Ns.

If Know Nothingism has any regard for its own interests, it will reconsider its action of last winter in regard to the prohibitory legislation and make an entire new record. It is agreed now on all hands that the Maine Law is a dead cock in the pit, and the sooner Know Nothingism cuts loose from it, the better for it.

Lastly, see how it addresses the Whigs and others.

RECREANTS, STRAIGHT-OUT. — Those Whigs who voted for Gardner on Wednesday covered themselves with undying renown.—Their loudly professed friendship for Liberal principles can now be estimated at its true value. Those wholesale liquor dealers (their number is small, we are happy to say) who voted for and made themselves active in behalf of Rockwell and Republicanism, ought also to be remembered. Ditto others of the same class, who voted for Gardner. Multitudes of foreign voters, whose interests are with the Liberal Union party, helped swell the vote of Walley and Gardner, we understand. All these people must be careful and not complain hereafter. They deliberately cast in their lot with the avowed foes of Liberalism, and they must abide the consequences.

The "hard shell Baptists" are a well known sect in the south and south-west. They are not related that we know of (says the Eastern Argus) to the hard shell democrats in New York, though their christian name is the same. They go dead against all Bible, temperance, and education societies; hate missions to the heathen, and all modern schemes for converting the rest of mankind. Of course they are opposed to learning, and speak as they are suddenly moved.

A Georgia correspondent of Harper's Magazine relates the following of one of their preachers:—

Two of them were in the same pulpit together. While one was preaching, he happened to say, 'When Abraham built the ark.'

The one behind endeavored to correct his blunder by saying, 'Abraham warn't thar.'

But the speaker pushed on, heedless of the interruption, and only took occasion shortly to repeat more decidedly, 'I say, when Abraham built the ark.'

'And I say,' cried out the other, 'Abraham warn't thar.'

The hard shell was too hard to be beaten down in this way, and addressing the people, exclaimed with indignation, 'I say Abraham was thar, or thar aboots!'

Those hard shells go to swell the number of Baptists in the statistical tables, and the number of Churches in the Census. But our Baptists in New England have no particular fellowship with them; nor with their doctrines, other than Baptism by Immersion.—By the way, is the Argus sure that Hard Shell is a Christian name? We had the idea it was a nickname, and barbarous and heathenish at that.

The Chambersburg (Pa.) Whig records the deaths in the jail at Huntingdon, (Pa.) of Elizabeth Harker, who had lain there under sentence of death since the fall of 1853, for the murder of her husband, and afterwards of her sister, by poison. She was 65 years of age when she committed the first of these murders.

At Calcutta, India, two Englishmen have been heavily fined for ejecting from the railroad cars a native three-fourths naked, whose unctuous presence was disagreeable to the ladies present. The court ruled that a native's ideas of decency were the criterion, and that civilized visitors must not attempt to enforce compliance with their prejudices.

A patient in the Lunatic Asylum, at St. Johns, N. B., who has been one of the most docile inmates for three years and a half, on Tuesday morning last, without any warning, and without a word being spoken, suddenly seized an axe, and killed two of the attendants by rapid blows before one could stay his hand.

SUSPICIOUS TAILOR TO SUSPECTED CUSTOMER.—"Make you a coat, sir? Oh, yes, sir, with the greatest pleasure. There, just stand in that position please, and look right upon that sign while I take your measure."—Sign reads, "Terms Cash."

LOCAL.

INSTALLATION.—Rev. A. J. Patterson was installed Pastor of the Universalist Society in this city, on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 8.

Reading of the scriptures by Rev. M. Maxham, of Medford; opening Prayer and Sermon, by Rev. Mr. Chapin of New York: Installing Prayer and Right Hand by Rev. Mr. Maxham; Charge and presentation of the Bible, by Rev. Mr. Greenwood of Dover.—The services were enlivened with Hymns and Anthems, and closed with the benediction by the pastor.

The house was well filled, notwithstanding the rain. Mr. Chapin's sermon was on Faith, as the foundation of the Christian Worship, Hope and Life. The copy of the scriptures used, was new and elegant, the gift of some unknown member of the society.

A discourse was delivered in the evening, by Rev. Mr. Gaylord, of Boston.

MECHANIC ASSOCIATION.—At the annual meeting of the Mechanic Association held on Tuesday evening, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:—

Thomas Norton, President.
William Tucker, Vice President.
Alfred T. Joy, Treasurer.
William Pettigrew, Trustee, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Bro. F. W. Fernald.
Reed V. Rand, Trustee, to fill the vacancy occassioned by the election of Bro. Tucker, Vice President.
Wm. G. Nowell, James Moses 3d, Trustees.

☞ In the Common Council, on Thursday evening, a resolution from the Board of Aldermen was concurred in, authorizing the purchase of land as an addition to the City Gravel lot.

In Convention, chose Thomas Brackett keeper of the Pound.

No other business of interest was transacted in either board.

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION.—The annual announcement of this association may be found in our advertising columns to-day. From it, our readers will learn the objects of the society, and the mode of its operations.—A little reflection upon the subject must convince all that this enterprise does not belong with the list of speculative humbugs of the day, but possesses an acknowledged and guaranteed value—a sound and substantial basis of operations. The plan may be briefly stated. For every $3, the subscriber can select one from the list of popular $3-magazines named in the Society's advertisement, which will be sent to his address for one year, and likewise receive a ticket entitling him to a share in the numerous fine works of art distributed by the Society, such as statuary, paintings, &c. Many of the works are of rare merit and great value, and judging from the distinguished testimonials which accompany the Society catalogue, the institution must be conducted on a fair and honorable basis. We hope to learn that our readers have not been omitted in the coming distribution.

Edward N. Fuller, Esq. Honorary Secretary, at the New Hampshire Gazette office, will furnish descriptive Catalogues, and render all necessary information in regard to the enterprise.

☞ The November Term of the Court of Common Pleas, for Rockingham County, will commence on Tuesday next, at the Court House in this city. Hon. George Y. Sawyer, of Nashua, will be the presiding Justice.

Probate Court, same day.

Resolutions condemning the proceedings of Judge Kane in the case of Passmore Williamson, have been introduced in the Vermont Legislature.

In Boston, in Oct., there were 825 arrests and commitments, of which 250 were for drunkenness, 70 for common drunkards, 101 for assault and battery, and 100 for disturbing the peace.

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expensethan any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate By its timely use many, may almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

THREE DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ASIA.

HALIFAX, Nov. 7th.—The Mail steam-ship Asia, from Liverpool, at half past 10 o'clock on the morning of Saturday 27th ult., arrived here Nov. 6.

Since the steamer Arago sailed there is news that the Russians, on the 16th, have themselves blown up the fortifications on Atchkoff Point, opposite Kinburn, viz; Fort Nicholas, and other works mounting 23 guns. Kinburn and Otchakoff commanded the entrance to the Bay of Dnieper, and also served as outworks of Nicolaiff, hence by their capture the Allies have full command of the great line of river communication lying in the rear of all the Russian forces in the Crimea.

The principal portion of news from Sebastopol appears to be that the Allies are moving foward systematically in strong force, and the Russians are retiring in good order back upon their fortified positions.

The French and Sardinians have advanced from the Tchernya and Baidar line, and correspondence of the 13th says that the French posts were within nine miles of Bakshi Serai, also close to the Russian possessions at Albat and Aargal, where, if at all, the Russians must make a stand.

The Russians have 13 infantry divisions opposite to the Allied lines, viz., one Russian division guards the fortifications on the North Plateau, two are at Inkerman, two others on McKenzie's ridge, and the remaining eight guard the series of plakans from Bakshi Serai down to Aitodor and the river courses of the Belbek, Katcha and Alma.

English correspondence of Oct. 12th, supposes that the Russians from the north side of Sebastopol were falling back by detachments on Perekop; there was therefore no diminution of fire from the forts and batteries on the north side of the harbor. Their fire was chiefly directed against the Malakoff, and peach quarters in the western part of the south side.

The British and French were engaged in clearing the ruins of the city.

A Russian dispatch from Berlin says that on the 22nd the allies, 40,000 strong, marched from Eupatoria towards Toulat, but on the 23rd, perceiving our Lancers on their left flank, they returned behind Aktatschs.

St. Petersburgh, Friday, Oct, 26th.—The whole militia has been ordered on to march to reinforce the army of the south, under General Lupe.s. Two liners, sixteen frigates and some gun boats have entered the Dnefper.

The Emperor Alexander has left Nicolaiff for Elizabe, a good 130 miles northward. The usual story is revived, that his reason is affected.

Major Delafield, Major Murdock, Jr., and Capt. MacLellan, American officers, had arrived in the Camp. A British general order provides them with rations during their stay in the Crimea.

Miss Nightingale has returned to Sebastopol.

The Moniteur publishes a list of the stores found in Sebastopol.

One million shot and cartridges, one-half million pounds of gunpowder.

The effective land strength of the Allies in the Crimea, including sick, is officially reported to be 210,000 men.

A letter from St. Petersburgh of the 15th, says that the Allied successes had caused despondency, yet everything indicates the intention of Russia to continue the war.

Preparations were making for a 14th levy and enrollment of the local Militia.

Prayers were offered for the Emperor's safe return from the Crimea.

The attitude of Sweden was regarded in St. Petersburgh with increasing suspicion.

From the Baltic.—The weather was bad. The English fleet near Nargen was preparing to leave.

The gun boats at Elsinore were ordered to England.

The coasting trade is again springing up since the removal of the fleet.

Asia.—When the Russians in Asia heard of the fall of Sebastopol, on the 29th day of September made an attack upon Kars. Turkish details of their repulse were received. The Russian loss is reported to be 2000. Two Turkish redoubts were lost and retaken four times. The Hungarian General Kenimty commanded the Turks, in the absence of the English General Williams.

The Russian General Mourarieff, with 80 guns, cannot continue the siege.

Italy.—Distress from Cholera; scarcity and crime are increasing in Tuscany.

Russia has come to an amicable understanding with the Pope, respecting the nomination of Catholic Bishops in Poland.

There are rumors the governor of Naples has committed a gross outrage against some American citizens, particulars not at hand.

Egypt.—The Pasha of Egypt has prohibited the export of Grain, after the 6th of January next, owing to the short coming in the rise of the Nile.

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION. SECOND YEAR.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual Collection of this new and popular institution for the diffusion of Literature and Art, have been made on the most liberal and extensive scale.

Among the works already engaged is the far-famed

which originally cost ten thousand dollars!

In forming the new collection, the diffusion of works of American Art, and the encouragement of American Genius, have not been overlooked. Commissions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions. Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living sculptor, HIRAM POWERS—

GEORGE WASHINGTON,
the Father of his country;
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
the Philosopher;
DANIEL WEBSTER,
the Statesman.

A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of art, both in bronze and marble; Statuary and choice Paintings.

The whole forming a large and valuable collection of Paintings and Statuary, to be distributed FREE among the members of the association for the second year.

TERMS OF MEMBERSHIP.

The payment of three dollars constitutes any one a member of this association, and entitles him to either one of the Magazines for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and Paintings.

The Literature issued to subscribers consists of the following monthly magazines:—Harper's, Putnam's Knickerbocker, Blackwood, Household Words, Graham's, and Godey's Lady's Book.

Persons taking five memberships are entitled to any five of the magazines for one year, and to six tickets in the distribution. The net proceeds derived from the sale of memberships are devoted to the purchase of works of art for the ensuing year.

THE ADVANTAGES SECURED

by becoming a member of this association are—

1st. All persons receive the full value of their subscriptions at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazine literature.

2d. Each member is contributing towards purchasing choice works of art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the artists of the country, disbursing thousands of dollars through its agency.

Persons in remitting funds for membership, will please give their post office address in full, stating the month they wish the Magazine to commence, and have the letter registered at the post office to prevent loss; on its receipt a certificate of membership together with the Magazine desired will be forwarded to any part of the country.

Those who purchase Magazines at Bookstores will observe that by joining this association they receive the Magazine and a free ticket in the annual distribution, all at the same price they now pay for the Magazine alone.

For memberships, address
C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A.,

At either of the principal offices—Knickerbocker Magazine! office, 348 Broadway, New York; or Western Office, 166 Water street, Sandusky, Ohio.

Just Published: A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility; Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without Medicine, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly, and at very trifling expense, avoiding the thousand and the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

AND

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders want no comment to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT:—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and beg of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most severe Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine; let Mothers give it to their children when they have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me., was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Science, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it a beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, is also attached to each bottle.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be the Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly represented.

BY REV. BURROUGHS S. FANTON, PASTOR.

Job 14: 1, 2. Man that is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down; he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

These words I have selected, as being especially appropriate as the foundation of a discourse at this particular time; for we have seen their truth illustrated within a few days, in the sudden departure of those in the morning of life, and full of hope and promise, from this, to the spiritual world. And to this congregation does this providence come especially near; as one of the number so suddenly taken away, was a constant attendant upon the worship of God in this house—whose voice we have been accustomed to hear, mingling its melody with those who sing the songs of Zion. But now his place is vacant. Never again shall we hear the swelling notes from his lips, as we join to make melody in our hearts to God, in this place of worship. His race is run; his journey is ended; and in his early death we are made to feel indeed that the days of man are few—that he cometh forth as a flower, and is cut down; he fleeth also a shadow, and continueth not.

The idea of the shortness of life and of the certainty of death, is the one mainly prominent in this text. It leads us to contemplate that event, which is so serious, and so distressing; and from which, the estimate we set upon human life, naturally causes us to shrink. It is to us truly the "king of terrors;" and nothing is more certain, than that we must all come under its power—"for it is appointed unto all men once to die." This is certain; and this certainty makes it our bounden duty to prepare for our change, by looking unto him who is "the Life"—by giving our hearts to him, and surrendering our affections to his divine control. The part of wisdom is to "improve the moments as they fly;" for life is emphatically the time to serve the Lord; and death brings us at once to the results of life—and God has spoken it, that "whatsoever we sow, that shall we also reap." Having, then, this important object in view, let us attend for a few minutes to the leading suggestions in the text, and draw from them the lessons of practical wisdom which they unfold.

1. Man, we are told, "cometh forth like a flower." How strikingly appropriate is this as an illustration of our entrance upon life.—The infant is like the springing up of the flower, and needs only the care and culture which parental watchfulness and love administer, to cause it to perfect its growth, and bloom in the vigor and activity of youth. As we watch the unfolding of infant minds, and see them slowly but gradually gaining new ideas; as we behold them in their innocence, and hear the first lispings of childish prattle from their lips: how do our hearts become bound to them in love, and our solicitude is awakened in their behalf. The various traits of character which would mark their lives are seen in their germ, and kindle with hope, and thrill with delight, the breast of the parent who counts upon ere long beholding the ripened fruit of manly excellence and of Christian virtue. But alas! promising as these appearances are, how often are we doomed to behold the young bud of promise wither and die.

"Ere sin can blight, or sorrow fade,
Death comes with friendly care,
The opening bud to heaven conveys,
And bids it blossom there;"

and we are left to the solemn reflection, that "as for man his days are as grass: as a flower of the field so he flourisheth." The grass withers, the flower dies; and though our earthly hopes are crushed, we have left for our consolation, the assurance, that "the word of the Lord shall endure forever;" and that word declares that "his mercy is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him," and "keep his covenant," and "do his commandments."

2. Another thought of the text, is that the life of man is "full of trouble;" and how well this accords with all human experience and observation. This is indeed a trial state, one in which we are subject to misfortunes and afflictions. They are ever our companions, and are constantly teaching us the lesson of the uncertainty of all earthly good. One continued round of enjoyment of the blessings of peace and prosperity never falls to our lot here below; but trial and suffering in some form, are the burdens which we must bear.—There is no situation which is free from them. Sore disappointments, reverses of fortune, loss of health, and the sufferings and deprivations consequent upon disease; alienation from friends, withered hopes, blighted prospects, and the distressing bereavements which death occasions by entering our dwellings and removing from our hearth-stones the loved ones of our hearts—the prattling infant, the child of hope and promise, the brother beloved, the sister whose tenderest affections have woven their tendrils into our very being, the companion of our joys and sorrows with whom we have trod life's journey—making our souls desolate, and causing wounds which time can never heal;—those are the troubles to which we are subjected in this life, and from which there can be no reprieve. Well, and truly, has the sacred writer said, that the days of man are "full of trouble;" that he is "born to trouble as the sparks fly upward."

3. Another declaration in the text, is that the days of man are "few." Even when life is meted out to its longest span—when three score years, or four score, are reached, or even a century is gained, and that is very rare—how short is the time, compared with the duration of the soul's existence. Said the hoary patriarch, in view of this fact, though he had then attained the great age of one hundred and thirty years, "Few and evil have the days of the years of my life been." But how few reach the age of three score years. Often have I looked around upon this congregation to mark the venerable heads, but how few, comparatively, is their number; only here and there one, whose heads are whitened with the frosts of age. "Our fathers and mothers, where are they?" Once their places were filled in the sanctuary of God, but now they are vacant. Death has been about his work, and ere manhood's prime has ripened, he has taken numbers of those whom we have held dearest on earth, to his cold embrace, and borne them from our presence. Nor has he been contented here. The young and active, vigorous with life and buoyant with hope—they too are gone. We have seen them in our midst, we have been familiar with their faces, we have seen the light of joy sparkling in their eyes, and their voices have been music in our ears; but those countenances which were so pleasant, are with us no more; those voices so tuneful, are hushed in the silence of the grave. The places which once knew them here, will know them no more forever. Their days were few. God has called them away while yet the work of life was just begun.—Thus is the shortness of human life illustrated, by what is every day passing around us; and with our own eyes we see the truthfulness of those passages of the sacred scriptures which speak of its brevity. As David said of himself, so it often proves at the present day; "There is but a step between me and death." So it proved with our young friend who, last week, was so suddenly removed from time to eternity.

"Yet this is life! To mark from day to day,
Youth in the freshness of its morning prime,
Pass, like the anthem of a breeze, away,—
Sinking in waves of death, ere chilled by time!
Ere yet dark years, on the warm cheek had shed
Autumnal mildew on the roses red."

How true it is, that our days are "swifter than a weaver's shuttle;" that "we spend our years as a tale that is told;" that our lives fly like the "wind;" they are like the "vapor that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away."

4. Yes, they vanish away. This is but another expression for that other thought contained in the text, "Man fleeth as a shadow, and continueth not." Human life is spoken of in the scriptures, in the same language which we use in speaking of the flight of time. The apostle calls the afflictions which we suffer in this life, including them all together, "light afflictions, which are but for a moment." Immediately following the text, the sacred writer speaks of the term of human life, under the similitude of a "day;" and the language of the text itself is, that his "days" are few; and again, in the same connection, he reckons it by "months," saying, "the number of his months are with thee;" and in another place, he asks, "What pleasure hath he in his house, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst." The term "years," the psalmist also uses, saying, "The days of our years are three score and ten."—

Moments, days, months, and years; these are the similitudes of human life. And how swift they fly! Like the shadow which the sun casts upon the earth from any object, and which is continually moving onward from morning till evening, so is the life of man.—Whether we are awake or asleep, idle or active, making the most of our privileges and opportunities, or suffering time to pass wasted and misimproved, it is still the same; every day, every moment that passes, brings us nearer to the grave, nearer to the end of all earthly enjoyments or sufferings, when the soul, released from its tenement of clay, rises to stand before the Judge of the quick and the dead, to receive the sentence of approval or condemnation which awaits it there.

"So, in the passing of a day, doth pass
The bud and blossom of the life of man;
Nor e'er doth flourish more, but like the grass
Cut down, becometh withered, pale and wan."

Such is the earthly life of man—hopeful and promising at its beginning; passing rapidly away, and full of trouble through its whole course; short in its continuance, and ending in the night of the grave. But the important thought of all, is, that where this life ends, another begins. This is but the infancy of the soul's being, the probation state, given us to prepare for that life upon which the soul must enter, when separated from the body of flesh which it inhabits here. There are, then, some lessons of practical wisdom which this view of human life brings forcibly before our minds. Here let us pause to gather up those lessons, and turn them to our profiting in spiritual things.

1. "Man cometh forth like a shadow." Impressed with the consciousness of this fact, how ought we to be willing—nay, how ought we to be in earnest, to impart to our children, instruction in holy things. "Bring up your children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," is a divine command. It is our duty to let instruction "drop as the rain and instill like the gentle dew" into the hearts of the immortal beings God has given to our care, and for whose moral and spiritual culture He will hold us responsible at the bar of heaven. It is an imperative duty; and now is the time to be engaged in this important work. While the young mind is plastic, and will readily receive permanent impressions; while the bud of promise is unfolding, and needs the dew of holy instruction, to give beauty and grace to the opening flower—is the time to work; for if the seeds of virtue be not early sown, vice will spring up and poison the soil. The direction which is given to the mind in childhood, will shape the character and course of future years.

"As the tree is bent, the tree 's inclined."

Let this reflection, then, incite us to faithfulness in imparting religious instruction to our children, that whether they live or die,—if they live, their characters may ripen into Christian excellence; or if they die, they may shine with increasing brightness as stars in the crown of the Saviour's rejoicing.

2. Another lesson which this subject teaches is, that it is our duty, since our days are filled with care and anxiety, and suffering and affliction, to trust not to the fleeting things of time for joy; but to look to God in faith, and hope, and filial trust, being cheered by the assurance from on high, that "all things work together for good to them that love him."—When called upon to endure pain and all the evils consequent on bodily suffering, when we are burdened with care or loaded with anxiety, let us remember that we have here no continuing city, but that we may seek and find one which is above; where sorrow and suffering can never come, where care and want and anxiety will be eternally done away, and the light of God's countenance shall be the light of our habitation forever and ever.

When called to pass through the deep waters of affliction, to mourn the loss of friends and of kindred around whom the warmest affections of our hearts have been entwined, to whom shall we go but unto Him who "hath the words of eternal life"—unto him who is the resurrection and the life;" and who alone can give comfort and consolation when the soul is borne down under the weight of its afflictions, and is suffering the keen anguish of bereavement. He is the healing balm for all our wounds, and our souls may find strength in him as it can be found in no other. Thanks be to God for the soul-cheering doctrine of immortality, which will not permit us to look upon our friends who have gone from our presence full of faith and hope and trust, as lost to us forever; but which gives us a well-grounded hope, like that which David had in a similar hour, that though they shall never return to us, yet we may go to them—we may again enjoy their company, and together with them, take sweet delight in the paradise of God. Oh how should this hope encourage our hearts in every hour of bereavement, and lead us to turn our thoughts to the great necessity of living in the exercise of that faith which purifies from sin; and by holy trust in the name of the Lord, and patient continuance in well doing, exhibit the fruits of holy living, that our immortality may be an eternal life.

3. And this thought suggests another, which grows out of this subject: the necessity of making our peace with God—our calling and election sure. Our days are not only few, but they fly away like the shadow. Time speeds onward his rapid flight. Day after day, month after month, and year after year, roll away. In quick succession they follow each other, down the course of time; and each succeeding day, and month, and year, as it passes, brings us nearer to the gates of death, nearer to the eternal world, and nearer to the judgment-day—when we must appear before God, to receive according to the deeds done in the body, whether they be good or evil. Oh, how should this thought impress our minds with the necessity of laying up treasure in heaven: of making provision for the wants of the soul; of spending all the precious moments of this life, in laying a foundation upon which to rest our souls in security and hope, when our days on earth are ended.

That foundation is Jesus Christ. There is no other that will stand the test, when the Searcher of Hearts shall reveal the hidden things of our souls to the gaze of an assembled universe. Now is the time to build on that foundation—the only "accepted time" with God. "Behold, now is the day of salvation." Let us pray earnestly to God, to "teach us so to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom;" and "whatsoever our hands find to do, let us do it with all our might, for there is no work, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave whither we are hastening.

4. Yes, we are hastening to the grave. We are "strangers and pilgrims on earth." We dwell in "houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, and which are crushed before the moth." We know not how soon we may be called from this scene of care and toil, to enter upon an untried state of existence in another world. The time may be near at hand. At the longest it cannot be far distant.

But a few short weeks—only three, if I mistake not—our young friend whom we laid away last Sabbath afternoon, in the darkness and silence of the grave, was here in our midst—at his place in the choir; as full of life and hope, and with as flattering prospects before him as any of you who are here present to-day.

Oh, how uncertain is life! Here are those whose hearts beat as high with hope, and through whose veins the courses of life flow as freely, as did his. And are you any more certain that your days will be continued unto you, than he was? Have you any greater security of life? any firmer grasp, with which to defy the power of death? No, no; you have no such security. His case may prove to be yours. Before another Sabbath morn is ushered in, and the sound of the "church-going bell" calls to worship in the sanctuary of the Lord, some of these active forms may be laid low in death. Who next, of us, shall "behold the inexorable hour at hand,"—the hour "when death shall read our doom"—we know not. Come it must, and come it soon will, to some of us.

But the great question is, are you ready for his coming? ready to receive the "grim messenger," when he comes, and greet him with a smile? Young man, young woman, are you ready? Have you dedicated yourselves to the Lord? Have you chosen His service, and entered upon it with a determined purpose, that through divine strength, you will overcome the power of evil, and sit with Jesus on his throne; even as he has overcome, and has set down with the Father on his throne? Or, are you trusting yet in yourselves? in your strength, in the beauty of your persons, or in your many acquirements and outward adornments? Oh, remember that these cannot always endure. They must perish with the using. They will fade like the flower, and soon wither and die. Are you saying in your hearts that there is time enough yet? That may be true; but the present only is yours; and remember, I pray you, that every hour—that each moment that is given you, is an interval on which hangs the happiness of your immortal being. Boast not yourselves of to-morrow. It is not yours; it belongs to God. "To day" then, "if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, but say to the Lord, Thou shalt be the guide of my youth, my hope and my portion forever.

"Live that your young and glowing breasts
Can think of death without a sigh;
And be assured, that life is best,
Which finds as least afraid to die."

And you who have passed the days of your childhood and youth, to more mature age; and those of you who are still farther advanced in life—are you ready? Has death no terror in its sound to you? For what purpose have you been living on your days? Has Christ reigned supreme in your hearts? Has he been formed in your souls, the hope of glory? or have the cares of life engaged all your thoughts, and the things of this world engrossed all your affections? Remember, I entreat you, how fleeting and transitory all these things are; that the marks of decay are written upon them, all by the finger of God; that their joys are short lived, and unsubstantial, and unreal. Forget not that your days are numbered; that their end must soon come. Live in constant readiness for your departure to another world. Make religion—your duty to God, and to your fellow men—the business of your lives. Let it govern all your thoughts, control all your actions. Examine yourselves; prove your own hearts; cling to that which is good. Let not evil have the mastery over you; but by faith, and love, and good works, let your souls ripen for immortality, and when the angel of death shall come to call you away, you may lay your heads upon the bosom of the Savior, and breathe your lives out sweetly there."

I have made the sudden departure of one of the youthful members of our Society and Choir, the occasion of this discourse; that perchance our minds might be more deeply impressed with the fact—and made to realize more forcibly, that, "In the midst of life we are in death." And now, before closing, I will, (at the suggestion of one to whom he was very near,—and by whom they have been substantially furnished to me,) note the principal events in the life of our young friend, whose early death we deplore.

Thomas W. Miller, was born on the 30th of December, 1832; and was, therefore, a little less than twenty-four years of age, at the time of his death. I had met him only a few times, and consequently, had not the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with him; but his relatives and friends all testify to his unexceptionable character, from his childhood—to his dutiful obedience and cheerful deportment, at home and at school—to his uniform fairness towards his playfellows—to his peaceful and quiet disposition: and it is worthy of note, that his mother used to say of him, so long as she lived, (what may be said with equal truth respecting his whole course in life,) that "he was never the cause of trouble to anybody." His mother died when he was but twelve years of age, leaving him, with the rest of her children, the kindliest remembrance, and a good store of christian counsel.

At the age of fourteen, he entered a clothing and hat store in this city, as a clerk; where he remained only a few months. Choosing to learn a trade, he made successful application for a situation as apprentice to the Printing business, in Concord; where he spent three or four years, in two offices—winning in each, golden opinions, both as a workman and companion. As a compositor, or setter of types, he was not often equalled, and hardly ever excelled; which, with his cheerful disposition, industrious habits, and irreproachable moral character, made him a very desirable acquisition to any printing establishment, and always secured to him the best work and the highest wages.

From Concord, he returned to this city, and worked for a while in the different offices; then he went to Boston, from thence to Barre, Mass., and finally to the city of New York—where he spent a number of months. Returning to Boston, after working in various offices for a time, he accepted a permanent and lucrative situation in the Boston Journal office. This he retained until invited by an older brother, to become a partner in the establishment of a new paper, the Daily Chronicle, in this, his native city.

He was strongly attached to Portsmouth, as his home, and was therefore the more ready to venture to test the feasibility of an undertaking in which two or three unsuccessful experiments had already been made. At the time of his engaging in this enterprise, and going into business on his own account, in August, 1852, he was not twenty-one years of age; but was considered a most desirable copartner—having by his own unaided industry and economy, at this early age, saved from his earnings, a sum sufficient to well establish himself in business.

With his course in life since that time, many of you are familiar; and all who knew him, bear witness, to his untiring industry and close attention to business; his scrupulous honesty, integrity, and uniform fair-dealing between man and man. He is believed to have literally lived up to the advice, "Owe no man anything," throughout his life.

His health had always been perfect, until within a few months; and though rather below medium size, he excelled most men in active sports, as well as in the endurance of hard labor. It is thought by his friends, however, that he applied himself too closely to his work, especially for one so young, and thus, perhaps, undermined his constitution, almost imperceptibly.

On the 16th of July last, while plucking cherries from a tree at home, and laying out upon a lofty branch, to strip the tempting fruit from its end—the limb split from the trunk, and he was precipitated to the ground, a distance of fifteen feet or more, striking on his head and shoulder. He was not supposed to be seriously injured, however; and kept diligently at work, as usual, until about the 6th of October—apparently in as good health as before. At this time, symptoms of a cold, and fever, appeared; which were soon succeeded by delirium; and after a severe illness of only eight days, he died, on the 17th of October. His attendant physicians attribute his death to the effects of his fall, on the spine and brain.

He was very fond of music, especially vocal, and was a tenor singer of power and good execution—as we of this congregation, who have so often had the pleasure of hearing him, well know. Only two days before his death, he joined with a couple of friends at his bedside, in singing the cold-water song, 'Sparkling and bright;' and after his jaws had become locked, he hummed old Hamburg, with a friend, as correctly as ever.

He also possessed a great taste for drawing and painting, in his boyhood; copying and coloring many very creditable specimens, especially of beautiful landscapes, animals, birds, flowers, &c. But his application to business, in after years, prevented further development of his talents in this direction.

His fatal sickness was of such a nature as apparently to deprive him of his reasoning faculties; and he conversed intelligently but little. He seemed to be aware, however, that his end was approaching; but evinced no fear of meeting death, and spoke confidently of greeting his mother and eldest brother, who had gone before unto Him who gives rest to all the weary and heavy laden. He was not a member of any church; but his intercourse with those who were intimate with him, and writings found after his death, prove that he did often "think on those things" pertaining to another and higher life.

His early demise is deeply lamented, not only by his family connexions and personal friends, but by his cotemporaries of the composing-stick and the press, at home and elsewhere. His brother publishers in this city, all refer with feeling to the sad event, and offer a tribute of praise to his character; as does also the Boston Journal, the Concord papers, and others with whom he was intimate.

But he has GONE! and we are here to mourn his loss—a loss which his family and his most intimate friends most deeply feel; as they, only, knew his worth. In him society, too, sustains a great loss—how great, it is difficult for us to determine; for with his active business capacity, indomitable energy and perseverance, with his unflinching integrity and moral worth: it is easy to foresee that he would have taken a high position in society, and would have wielded an influence, which, if rightly directed—and we have every reason to believe that it would have been—must have made the world better for his having lived in it.

But, let us not unduly regret him. God, who knows what is best for him, and for us, has taken him away;—and it becomes to submit, without murmuring, to His will. May this affliction be sanctified to the good of us all; and let us trust that, "Our loss is his gain." Let us forget his faults, and emulate his virtues; and inscribe on the tablet of our friendship's memory for him: "An honest man 's the noblest work of God."

The following beautifully appropriate selection, was made by the Choir, of which the deceased had been a valued member for nearly two years; and was sung by them at his Funeral; and also in the Church, at the time this Sermon was delivered.

Brother, thou art gone to rest;
Thine is an early tomb:
But Jesus summoned thee away;
Thy Saviour called thee home.

Brother, thou art gone to rest;
Thy toils and cares are o'er;
And sorrowing, pain, and suffering, now
Shall ne'er distress thee more.

Brother, thou art gone to rest;
Thy sins are all forgiv'n;
And saints in light have welcomed thee,
To share the joys of heav'n.

Wheat for France.—The Detroit Advertiser says, it is reported that there is now in store in Chicago, or in transitu for the seaboard via that city, 700,000 bushels of wheat, which have been purchased on account of the French Government. It has been purchased by agents for that government, mostly at Milwaukie, and at rates something above the figures ordinarily paid for the same quality of wheat.

From Halifax,—The Colonist of the 6th states that a great number of coasting craft arrived at Halifax the previous day, bringing large quantities of potatoes and oats from Prince Edward Island, and coal from Picton and Sydney; that coal declined from 32s 6d to 30s, and as the city is well supplied generally, a further decline might be expected.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1855.

An Answer wanted.—We have at last, in the N. H. Patriot of Nov. 7, a reply, such as it is, to Uncle Toby's call. The Patriot of that day says:

"Somebody or other, in the Portsmouth Chronicle, busies himself hugely in matters wherein the conscience of Uncle Toby is alone concerned, and persistently demands that we should join him in their discussion. We decline; as we imagine the reverend gentleman entirely competent to manage his own affairs—and it will be time enough to aid his repentance when he asks us to do so."

Uncle Toby respectfully informs the editor of the Patriot pro. tem. that his [Uncle T.'s] conscience is not alone concerned—but that the Patriot, if it have a conscience, its manager also, if he has one, is more concerned in the matter than any other person or paper can be.

Uncle T. also does "persistently demand," not any discussion of private personal matter—but either that the Patriot shall prove an injurious assertion which could easily be proved if it were true,—or else acknowledge and correct the error!

The case is simply this: the Patriot, Oct. 17, charged Uncle Toby of the Portsmouth Chronicle with being either a knave or a fool,—and grounded this charge on the allegation that Uncle T. had said two things quite inconsistent with each other, viz.:

1. "That the people universally, almost, were in favor of the passage of the law,"—and 2. that the general standard of morality is too low to obey or entorce the law fully.

To this Uncle T. replied, in the Chronicle of the 24th, denying allegation No. 1, as he never wrote or said any such thing, and calling on the Patriot either to prove the allegation by quoting from Uncle T. or the Chronicle's editorials, any passage like it; or if that could not be done, to take it back, and contradict it.

The Patriot of the 31st contained no allusion to the matter: in the Chronicle of Nov. 2, we called again, and now Nov. 7, we see in the Patriot, the above paragraph, which we copy entire.

Uncle Toby does hereby respectfully ask the Patriot to aid him in his repentance! He will repent, recant, and if needful come to the right about, when the Patriot shall convince or convict him of the wrong.

If the Patriot will quote a sentence or paragraph of his writing, or from the Chronicle's editorials, of the kind or meaning charged,—he will be satisfied.

But no such sentence can be found! Will the Patriot do the simple justice to correct the error? Or will it not?

Vote of Massachusetts.—In the Boston Advertiser of Nov. 9, Nahant is reported as follows: Walley 2, Beach 27, Gardner 7, Rockwell 12. The Recapitulation of the State, complete, is as follows:—

Walley, whig,	13,461
Beach, dem.	35,077
Gardner, k. n.	51,933
Rockwell, repub.	36,867
Total vote,	137,358

The House of Representatives, according to the Advertiser's figures, will stand as follows:—

Know Nothings		160
Whigs	55
Democrats	31
Republicans	67
Liberals	5
		—158

Thirteen members not yet reported.

The count of most of the papers, following the Atlas, giving the Republicans 80 members, is an obvious mistake.

The Conflict of Ages.—The Boston Transcript informs us that the author of the above named Book, Rev. Edward Beecher, D. D., pastor of the Salem street church, has asked and obtained a dismission from his society, with a view of removing to the West. He has accepted a professorship in a new theological institution in Chicago, and has also received an invitation to preach to a Congregational church in the vicinity of that city.

It is said that the Doctor's peculiar views, as expressed in the Conflict and in his sermons, were deemed dangerous and uncomfortable, by his clerical brethren in and near Boston, because they tended, in their view, towards Universalism;—though the author himself sees no such tendency, but on the contrary considers his own scheme the only probable escape from it.

He now goes to the West, where he will find scope enough for his powers, and such a field for his labors as will make his influence wider if not deeper.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, may almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which guards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ma., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. Peirce, J. H. Lacher, and D. Kimball, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m o1 d&w

MARRIED.

In Boston, Mr E. O. Lovering of Exeter, to Miss Rebecca S. Smith, daughter of the late Ralph Smith, Esq. of Boston.

DIED,

In this city, 8th inst. Mrs Ruth Young, aged 59, wife of Ezra Young, Esq. She was a woman of excellent spirit, calm temper, and christian life; little known abroad, but highly prized at home; content to be happy herself, in ministering to the comfort of all others who came within the circle of which she was the quiet centre.

A New Musical Work.

J. F. SHORES, Jr., No 1 Congress Block, has for sale THE GLORIA IN EXCELSIS, by W. Williams, organist and director of Music at the Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

The Elementary Treatise of this work is in many respects entirely different from that in common use. Its Hymn Tunes are of great variety as regards style, and possess the peculiar merit of being melodious and pleasing in a high degree, while they at the same time retain all the chaste and devotional character which should ever be found in the music of the sanctuary. In the department of Anthems, or short pieces for the introduction of Public Worship, it is believed that no work now before the public can sustain a comparison.

This work is a Book of New Music as well as a new Music Book. Nothing in this whole collection has ever appeared before in a similar work, it having all been composed or arranged, by many of the most eminent composers in America, especially for the "Gloria."

Price 75 cents each, or $7.50 per doz. All interested in Music are invited to call and examine the work.

J. F. Shores, Jr. will furnish at short notice any of the popular Music Books at Publishers' prices. n10

NEW YORK ELECTION.—New York, Nov. 9.—Additional returns received yesterday, give Headly, K. N., for Secretary of State, a plurality of nearly 13,000 over King, Republican. There are six Counties to hear from, which will probably swell Headley's majority. The Senate, as far as heard from, stands Republican 14, American 6, Democratic 6. There are six counties to hear from. The Assembly stands, Republican 18, American 31, Democrats 35; with 44 to hear from. In the city and County, owing to the fusion of the Hards and Softs on some of the nominess, the sucessful candidates, according to present appearances, are pretty equally divided between the Democrats and Americans.

NEW YORK ELECTION.—10 1-2 P. M.—The State returns are very crude and unsatisfactory. Not more than half the votes are received. The K. N.'s still lead by a considerable majority over the Republicans.

MARYLAND ELECTION.—Baltimore, Nov. 8.—The Americans have carried their whole city ticket by about 500 majority. They also carried Washington County.

Complete returns show that Davis is elected by 536 majority, and that Harris's majority is 260. In the Second District, Ricaud, American, is reported elected. The entire American ticket is elected in this city.

In the Sixth District, Bowie, Whig and anti-Know Nothing, is probably elected to Congress.

ELECTION IN NEW JERSEY.—New York, Nov. 8.—The local elections in New Jersey indicate a Democratic majority in the Legislature, which chooses two United States Senators the coming winter.

WISCONSIN ELECTION.—Milwaukie, Nov. 7.—Partial returns from thirteen counties show the following majorities on the vote for Governor: Barstow, Democrat, 8463; Bashford, Republican, 7420.

CHARLESTON ELECTION.—Charleston, S. C., Nov. 3rd.—Miles, Democrat, has been elected Mayor of this city by 1600 majority.

MEETING OF THE GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.—Milledgeville, Ga., Nov. 7. The Legislature of this State met on Monday. Mr. Bailey was elected Speaker of the Senate, and Mr. Styles Speaker of the House—both Democrats. The Governor sent in his message on Tuesday. It is a very voluminous document, and is of course mainly devoted to State matters. He recommends the Legislature to provide for calling a State Convention in case Congress refuses to admit Kansas into the Union on account of her being a slave-holding State, in which case he advises a disruption of the Union, but hopes the patriotism of the North will avert such a calamity.

JUDGE KANE.—The Philadelphia North American learns that a writ, issued by the Court of Deleware county, at the suit of Passmore Williamson, on a complaint of false imprisonment, &c., was served Nov. 6th on Judge Kane, while on a visit at the house of his brother-in-law, Judge Lieper, near Chester. The proceedings having been thus commenced, the case will come up for trial, in proper course, at Media, in the adjoining county. J. J. Lewis, Esq., of Westchester, is the counsel marked upon the summons.

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic.

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which contain the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over the practice given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for each complaint, to try his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs. It will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, containing no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S

Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me., was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. It formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "Dr. Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine, Shaw & Clark, Biddeford, Me., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

Sunny Side Parlor Cook.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and economical Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be the Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

AMERICAN PLATFORM.

The American (or K. N.) State Council, for the State of New Hampshire, held their session in Nashua, Nov. 5. They passed the following resolutions.

Resolved, That we cordially approve the course of the delegates from this State, who attended the National Council at Philadelphia, in June last, and most heartily sustain their action in severing their connection with the present national organization.

Resolved, That freedom being national and slavery sectional, while the latter is left in the exercise of all its strictly constitutional rights, in the States where it now exists, its further extension and longer connection with the general government should be uncompromisingly opposed and resisted, and the laws for the execution of its existing privileges, be made to conform to the dictates of justice and humanity.

Resolved, That the question of the extension of slavery, as now presented to the country by the repeal of the Missouri Prohibition, by the outrages practised in Kansas, under the sanction of the administration, and by the decision of an arbitrary and tyrannical Federal Judge, which, if adopted as the judicial doctrine of the government, will make every Free State in the Union, slave territory, is the paramount question now before the nation, and that we believe the time has arrived, when all who oppose the further encroachments of slavery, and would restore the policy of the Fathers of the Republic, should unite their efforts and co-operate for that purpose.

Resolved, That in the judgment of this State Council, all ceremonies of initiation into the American party, and all obligations, except such regulations as the councils or clubs in their respective towns shall think proper to adopt for their own government, be discontinued and removed.

Resolved, That this State Council fully and unequivocally re-affirms the sentiments and principles of the American party, and adheres to the great fundamental doctrine, that Americans should rule America.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the various newspapers of the State.

The Americans of New Hampshire assembled in convention at Nashua, on Tuesday, the 6th inst. A new board of officers was elected—ex-Governor Colby succeeding to the office of Chief Sachem, in place of Mr. Dame. The Manchester American says that about one hundred delegates were in attendance; that the meeting was harmonious, and that the oaths and bans of secrecy were removed. It also says that in private the delegates mostly agreed that the present prohibitory liquor law was a little too stringent for the liberal spirit of the age, and that some move must be made to relieve the party of the odium of having passed it.—Boston Chronicle.

No, no, brother Chronicle, the Manchester American didn't say any such thing. It was the Manchester Mirror, which makes quite a difference in the author-ship of the statement. The Resolutions of the meeting, which we copy from the American, show that the party spoken of, have not included the present nor any other liquor law in their programme,—from which we infer that as a party they will take no uniform ground on the subject, but leave every individual to exercise his own discretion.

We understand that the man who could sell shoes for less than the cost, and afford to throw in an extra pair where you bought a dollar's worth, has suddenly decamped, after putting some $100 bad money in circulation, and pocketing the silver spoons at his boarding house. Our citizens can never do better than to encourage their own townsmen, and make their purchases of those who live among them.—Newburyport Herald.

DOVER.—The Dover Enquirer of the 8th, copies our statement that the City Liquor Agency here is in the hands of a careful man, who exercises due caution and entire impartiality in his sales and denials. The Enquirer then adds:

The remarks of the Chronicle are equally true in reference to this city. The Agency here, we believe, to be prudently and judiciously managed, and no person who may be suspected of making an improper use of liquor, we are assured, is furnished with it.—Many are denied every day. The sales, we understand, average about $10 a day, which, in a population of nearly ten thousand, is about one mill to each person—not an extravagant outlay even for medicine. No partiality is shown in the execution of the law. * * How much liquor may be sold secretly we have no means of knowing. One fact is apparent; its effects are much less frequently seen in our streets in the shape of drunken men.

ASSAULT ON OFFICERS.—The Boston Advertiser says that on Thursday evening, about 9 o'clock, as officers Isaac P. Hutchins and James M'Crillis, of the second station, were going to the station house, they were met, at the corner of State street and Merchants' Row, by two Irishmen, who inquired the way to the Navy Yard. The officers volunteered to show them into Commercial street, which would lead them by the most direct course.—The men gave their names as James and Matthew Donahoe, and were walking quietly along, each with an officer, when suddenly one of them struck Mr. Hutchins an unexpected blow, which knocked him off the sidewalk. Mr. M'Crillis turned to assist him, when he was assaulted by the other. The fight then began in earnest. Mr. M'Crillis received quite a severe cut in the head, and in return broke his billet upon his antagonist. The coat of Mr. Hutchins was cut in two or three places by a knife in the hands of one of the men. The officers succeeded in securing their assailants, and lodged them securely in the watch-house.

They were examined in the Police Court on Friday, and in default of bail in $1000 each, were committed for trial.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1855.

LAW.

In the High Court of Public Opinion.

Before Uncle Toby.

The N. H. Gazette appears by its next friend, the editor, and says:

"It takes 'Uncle Toby' of the Chronicle to judge the Judges. One of his columns was occupied the other morning in reviewing the decision of three members of the bench. He made them all out donkeys, tyrants, or something else."

Very true, says the Court: so he did; and the very next mails informed us that Judge Kane had backed out of his tyrannical and illegal decision, of which Uncle Toby complained.

The relator of the Gazette then adds:

"The legal profundity of Uncle Toby is astonishing, and it must be a matter of regret to his friends that Gov. Metcalf has omitted to invest him with the judicial ermine. He would make a bright and shining star in the constellation of know nothing officials, and his presence upon the bench would serve to relieve the law of its numerous intricacies and knotty points, for we never yet saw any point that Uncle Toby couldn't make clear, at least to his own satisfaction."

To which the Court answered that the document may be placed on file; and directed the Clerk to send one copy to Governor Metcalf and another to President Houston, that they may do the handsome thing by Uncle Toby—when the time comes.

The N. H. Patriot appears and says:

"It is not our intention to defend the course of the Court in this matter, for we do not pretend to be competent to judge of its legality."

The Court commends the wisdom of this extract. No man is competent to defend Judge Kane's course in this matter. No apology for it has yet been offered by any lawyer in the country. It is against law and evidence, against constitution and precedent.

"It will be recollected that Mr. Wheeler, U. S. Minister to Central America, on his way to that country, stopped at Philadelphia with three slaves."

The Court decides that the moment he stopped, the three persons became free and were no slaves at all.

"While on board a steamboat, at the wharf, Williamson at the head of a mob of negroes, came on board and forcibly carried off those slaves."

The court has seen no evidence of any such transaction,—and if there were any force, it was as freemen they were carried off.

Judge Kane appears and says:

"It was clearly a proof that the negroes had been removed by persons acting under his counsel, in his presence, and with his cooperation; his return to the writ denied that they had ever been within his possession, custody, or control."

It never was so proved: but the contrary was proved by the freed-woman Jane, herself.

The Patriot says,—trusting to a false official document:

"It will be seen that Williamson virtually admitted in his speech to the Court that the slaves were under his control, yet in his sworn answer to the writ he denied that they were or had been in his possession or custody! This was deliberate perjury, and for this contempt of the authority of the Court he was committed to jail, to remain until he shall make a true answer to the writ."

Williamson admitted no such thing;—committed no perjury, and has told but one straight story.

And at all events, Judge Kane has backed down.

The Boston Journal appears and says:

"Thus, after spending some three months in prison for no other offence than that of having told the truth, and adhering to it like a man, Passmore Williamson is now released. He has simply repeated, in another form, the very statement which led to his imprisonment, and Judge Kane seizes upon this repetition to escape from his odious position."

The case is before the people.

☞ Two of the K. N. Congressmen elect from New York city, have published in the New York Herald, a call for a meeting of all the K. N. members of the coming Congress, at the Capital at Washington, on Thursday, the 29th day November.

The People's Paper.—A. B. Keith, whose numerous enterprises for ameliorating the condition of the poorer classes, are attracting some attention, has issued the first number of a new paper, which is to be published weekly. It will advocate the following projects: 1, Homes for the People; 2, Cheap Bread for the People; 3, Money for the People, without Interest; 4, Lectures for the People, at a trifle above nothing; 5, Education for the People, at the same rate; 6, New Inventions for the People; 7, A Vital Literature for the People. Mr. Keith is engaged in trying experiments of much interest to the public, and which we hope will succeed. We shall expect to see a more full development of his plans in "The People's Paper.

Heavy Verdict.—In New York, the other day, Miss Mary Coe obtained from a sheriff's jury a verdict of $10.000 against Samuel W. Plume, for alleged seduction and breach of promise of marriage. The case was allowed to go by default. Both parties reside at Newark, N. J. Mr. Plume is said to be worth $40,000 or $50,000.

New York Election.—The Boston Atlas of Saturday, says it is morally certain that no party will have a majority in the next Assembly. The parties will divide nearly as follows:—Republicans 44, K. Ns. 39, Hards and Softs 45.

The New York Tribune of Friday morning, thinks that the Know Nothings have elected all their State ticket but Campbell for Judge of Appeals.

The New York Evening Post, alone, of the papers of that city, is still confident of the success of the Republican State ticket. It relies upon the towns yet to be heard from, which it says are the most strongly Republican in the State.

Senator Mason of Virginia, has written a letter declining to lecture in Boston in the course on slavery. He denies the right of the people of the North to discuss the subject. This is another sample of Virginian aristocracy,—though we believe Mr Mason is sometimes called democrat. Our kind of democracy considers free speech to be a right. But Mr Mason would padlock our tongues, and call it what? Freedom? Perhaps so: but to us it sounds slavish.

Are he and Gen. Wise democrats?

The British Ships of War.—Capt. Newlands, a passenger in the Asia, informs the Atlas that when he left Liverpool, the wrathful comments of the London Times, about the supposed expeditions from the United States, excited only merriment among business men. The story, he reports, was traced to certain expressions used by Thomas Francis Meagher, in a lecture delivered by him, and which were transmitted to the Times and to the Admiralty. So much for the invasion expeditions. About the fleet of war vessels to be sent to this coast, by referring to the British Navy List, it will be seen that by the time they arrive here, the term of those now on this station will have expired. It is simply a relief squadron.

The warlike reports, grounded on this squadron, were merely the eggs of a mare's nest.

Clerical Lectures.—The Christian Register, in noticing the recent failure of the Rev. H. W. Beecher's lecturing tour at the West, has the following remarks:

"Admiring the independence, wit, vigor, versatility, &c., of the New York Star, we think he has made a mistake, and ought to learn a lesson. There can be no earthly objection to a clergyman's occasionally lecturing, especially if he has anything better before him than to make fun, Samson-like, for the Philistines. But, when he makes a trade of it and drives a hard bargain with the public, or absents himself, Sunday after Sunday, from professional obligations, showing himself more anxious for the applause of a chance audience than the satisfaction of quietly tilling his portion of the vineyard, we should not wonder if his character suffer a little—if his conscience trouble him occasionally, and his people complain more or less privately. There is a very manifest difference between lecturing once or twice a week for relief from monotonous labor, or, like Dr. Hedge, to establish some benevolent institution, or to replenish one's library—and making it the absorbing business of the winter, a more interesting, exhaustive and conspicuous business than any other."

Beecher's own answer has already taken the air out of the above bubble. No people should ever think of getting a Beecher for pastor, if they desire a mere man of routine. The people who have settled Henry Ward Beecher, understand him, appreciate him, and value him all the more, because he is no less a man than a minister.

Case of James Wilson.—Doctors Stedman, Bell, Clark, Walker, and others, had a hearing on this case before the Committee on Pardons of the Executive Council, a few days since, and made out, it is said, a strong case in favor of the plea, that he was probably insane at the time of the commission of the act for which he is under sentence of death. The Council meets again Dec. 1st, five days before the time now fixed for the execution, when a report will be made by the committee.—Boston Atlas.

There is little or no doubt the man will be pardoned, and then confined as dangerously insane.

Dialogue.—In the speech of Senator Douglas in Chicago, the following colloquy took place between Mr. D. and one of his audience:—

Auditor.—Why did you say in a speech at the South, that the eastern emigrants to Kansas, while passing through Chicago, were guilty of acts of rowdyism, and carried banners through the streets bearing mottoes, among which was one, "down with Douglas" etc.

Speaker.—I did not say so; I was not reported correctly.

Auditor.—But you did say so, sir; I heard you myself.

Speaker.—I say I was not correctly reported. I said no such thing.

Auditor (not politely).—You are a liar.

Worth Four Millions.—Of Gen Cass, a correspondent writes:—"I spent a forenoon with Gen. Cass. The old man 'still lives' in the autumnal glories of a well spent life; is hale, hearty, and worth four millions. His career has indeed been successful. He speaks in foreboding language of our national prospects, and is strong in the belief that disunion will yet carry its banners over the Republic."

Is it possible? Has the Union been saved so many times, only to be blown up after all?

LOCAL.

☞ Hon. Mr. Giddings of Ohio, is to open the course at the Mechanics' Lyceum, by a lecture on Tuesday evening. The subject is to be The Refugees of Georgia, which the orator will place before his audience in his peculiarly able manner.

There is to be music on the Grand Piano by the most celebrated player who has ever visited America.

Other orators of distinction will follow, eight of whom are already announced.

Secure your tickets to-day.

☞ Mr. John S. Pickering, of Newington, has laid on our table a Ruta Baga Turnip weighing 20 lbs.—and girting over three feet. We would hang it up, with the Newcastle Potatoes, as General Jackson did the Boots, "as a Mirror to stimulate" Uncle Toby in writing old stories—were it not that it might fall and break the ink-stand, or the old man's spectacles.

THE INDEPENDENT PRESS.

The Boston Transcript, itself independent, offers the following sensible remarks on the Independent Press:

Within the past few years there has been a growing tendency, on the part of the conductors of the American press, to depend more on subscribers and advertisers for support, and less on political leaders and their partisans.—In most, if not all of the large cities in our country, the press has outgrown the degrading necessity of depending on politicians, and in the cities where we are acquainted with the newspaper establishments, the independent papers are rapidly increasing in circulation and advertising patronage, while the political papers, as a class, are each year becoming less valuable to their owners. The great success of the independent press is no doubt attributable to the fact, that with the increasing culture of our people, they demand something more of their newspapers than a simple record of the news of the day, and an abstract of official documents. Intelligent men of all parties prefer a high-toned paper, which will sometimes even challenge their dissent, to a journal that gives, from week to week, only a repetition or rehash of their own individual views or opinions. The conductors of the independent press cannot of course hold themselves responsible to the personal views of any individual patron; neither can they submit to the dictation of any man, or party. In order to have journals useful and profitable, it is of the highest importance that their editors should be frank, fearless, free, true to their own convictions, avoiding profitless discussion, ill natured controversy, and bitter personalities.

The political papers usually use the word "neutral" in an offensive sense, when they scold or rebuke journals of the class above named. Neutrality implies being undecided, but no person we think can carefully read the independent press, without arriving at the conviction that it has emphatic opinions on most public questions, which are stated in an explicit manner.

The statistics of American newspapers show that as a class, the independent papers have more than three times the patronage received by political journals—the latter having an average circulation of 1170, while the former have an average circulation of 3659. In the large cities, the difference is greater than in an average of the whole country, for while the issue of the political papers would be reckoned by the hundred, that of the other class would be estimated by the thousand.

Important Action.—We learn from the Chicago Tribune the following recent facts in relation to the Glover rescue case, with the details of which our readers are familiar:

"There were two indictments—one against Booth, the other against Rycroft, upon the charge of aiding in the escape of the fugitive slave Glover. The defendants were tried upon shese indictments before the United States District Court of Wisconsin, convicted and imprisoned. The prisoners were brought before the Supreme Court upon a writ of habeas corpus, and were by the Court discharged.—Since then, a writ of error has been issued by the Supreme Court of the United States to the Supreme Court of Wisconsin. We learn that the Supreme Court of Wisconsin utterly denies the appelate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States in such a case."

A Sad Affair.—We learn that a lad named Grant was severely whipped by a young man named Henry Bradbury, at Vershire, Vt., a few days since, and having died about a week afterwards, the physicians express an opinion that death ensued in consequence of the injuries received. Bradbury, who is respectably connected, has left home, and officers are searching for him.—Herald.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, may almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

WISCONSIN STATE ELECTION.—Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—The State ticket runs very close, and the result is doubtful. The Legislature, as far as heard from, stands—Senate, 14 Republicans and 11 Democrats; Assembly, 32 Republicans and 33 Democrats.

Galena, Nov. 9.—Returns received thus far, from Western Wisconsin, show a trifling majority for Bashford, the Republican candidate for Governor.

RELIGION IN NEW YORK.—According to the census just taken, there are in the State of New York no less than 4921 churches, of which 290 are Roman Catholic, 1353 being Methodist Episcopal, 723 Close Communion Baptist, and 605 Old and new Presbyterians, the remainder being divided among a great variety of sects.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—The Boston Chronicle and Courier have been discussing the need of a "fusion" of parties at the election of city officers next month. The Courier mentions the name of Alexander H. Rice as a suitable candidate for the office of Mayor. The writer in the Chronicle says:

In the Municipal election, which is close at hand, I believe that the Liberals will find it to their advantage to cut their recent allies entirely and go in with the American party.

FROM EGYPT.—Accounts from Egypt state that the exportation of corn will be prohibited, in consequence of the insufficiency of the overflowing of the Nile giving reason to fear a famine. The Moniteur Algerien of the 15th announces that the wandering Arab tribes are now beginning to build and plant, and that they have entered into an arrangement with some contractors for the construction of houses at the price of 500f each. The export of Algerian wool during the first six months of 1855, amounted to 1,000,000 of Kilogrammes. The Poles who inhabit Algeria have been informed that such of them as would enter the corps of Ottoman Cossacks would obtain a free passage to Constantinople, and their expenses be paid during their stay in that city.

THE NORFOLK DEAD.—The secretary of the Howard Association, at Norfolk, writes as follows:

Out of a population not much exceeding 7,000, over 5,000 are now entombed. Of the remaining portion, nearly nine tenths had the fever. In many instances whole families have been swept away. Among others, a small child remains as the representative of a once large and happy family.

AN AFFLICTED CITY.—Monday last was observed as a day of mourning in St. Louis, upon recommendation of the Mayor, on account of the Pacific Railroad disaster. Business was suspended.

LIQUOR CASE.—Stephen Grant, of this town, was arrested yesterday under the new liquor law, upon complaint of a lady, and was bound over for trial in the sum of $300. The lady's husband was in the habit of drinking, and after dinner his better half followed him to the rumshop, stood outside and saw him drink, stepped in in time to see him pay for it, took the tumbler from the counter and ascertained by tasting the remnants, what he had purchased, and went out and entered a complaint. So much for woman.—Gt. Falls Journal.

A QUIET WEDDING.—Two deaf mutes, named George M. Baker and Amanda M. Bugbee, were married a few days since at Albany, N. Y. The Argus of that city says they appeared very happy, although they "never told their love."

COSMOPOLITAN ART ASSOCIATION.
SECOND YEAR.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Second Annual Collection of this new and popular institution for the diffusion of Literature and Art, have been made on the most liberal and extensive scale.

Among the works already engaged is the far-famed

which originally cost ten thousand dollars.

In forming the new collection, the diffusion of works of American Art, and the encouragement of American Genius, have not been overlooked. Contributions have been issued to many of the most distinguished American artists, who will contribute some of their finest productions. Among them are three Marble Busts, executed by the greatest living sculptor, HIRAM POWERS—

GEORGE WASHINGTON,
the Father of his country;
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
the Philosopher;
DANIEL WEBSTER,
the Statesman.

A special agent has visited Europe and made careful and judicious selections of foreign works of art, both in bronze and marble; Statuary and choice Paintings.

The whole forming a large and valuable collection of Paintings and Statuary, to be distributed FREE among the members of the association for the second year.

TERMS OF MEMBERSHIP.

The payment of three dollars constitutes any one a member of this association, and entitles him to either one of the Magazines for one year, and also a ticket in the distribution of the Statuary and Paintings.

The Literature issued to subscribers consists of the following monthly magazines:—Harper's, Putnam's Knickerbocker, Blackwood, Household, Words, Graham's, and Godey's Lady's Book.

Persons taking five memberships are entitled to any five of the magazines for one year, and to six tickets in the distribution. The net proceeds derived from the sale of memberships are devoted to the purchase of works of art for the ensuing year.

THE ADVANTAGES SECURED

by becoming a member of this association are—

1st. All persons receive the full value of their subscriptions at the start, in the shape of sterling Magazine Literature.

2d. Each member is contributing towards purchasing choice works of art, which are to be distributed among themselves, and are at the same time encouraging the artists of the country, disbursing thousands of dollars through its agency.

Persons in remitting funds for membership, will please give the name, post office address in full, stating the month they wish the Magazine to commence, and have the letter registered at the post office to prevent loss; on its receipt a certificate of membership together with the Magazine desired will be forwarded to any part of the country.

Those who purchase Magazines at Bookstores will observe that by joining this association they receive the Magazine and a free ticket in the annual distribution, all at the same price they now pay for the Magazine alone.

For memberships, address

C. L. DERBY, Actuary C. A. A.,

At either of the principal offices—"Knickerbocker Magazine" office, 348 Broadway, New York; or Western Office, 166 Water street, Sandusky, Ohio.

Subscriptions received by E. N. FULLER, editor N. H. Gazette, Hon. Secretary of Portsmouth, N. H.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates most mildly yet effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from benumbed Centiness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Neuralgia, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to three bottles. Mind, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs, and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Many who have tried everything else, will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs. It will instantly relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous Ingredients, is agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine; let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy has been thoroughly tested in hundreds of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its power—a confidence based wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed; every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of RED enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a copper plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

TO obtain a PARLOR OVEN STOVE, that would combine the two qualities of a truly good and ornamental Stove, and at the same time could be relied upon to bake and boil when required,—from the demand for and the convenience of such a desideratum,—has been the cause of much and continued effort among manufacturers. With these facts in view, the proprietor of this patent has, this season, perfected and brought into the market, a Stove that proves to be THE Parlor Cook wanted. The demand for this Stove exceeds the supply, and all who desire the handsomest and best Stove in the market, are invited to examine the "Sunny Side" of the picture here so imperfectly portrayed.

Morning Chronicle.

HUNT'S MERCHANT'S MAGAZINE.—We never open this monthly without being interested: never read it without being instructed. In the number for November, we find the first article to be an able essay, on the Finance, Food, and Future of France. The reader who may fancy, from the alliteration of the title, that the essay is a trifle, will undeceive himself as he reads on, through facts and figures, the brief history of the French Revolutions, and as he sees blood and bread so closely connected.

Mr Hunt says:

Perhaps the mercantile reader may wonder at our linking together three such uncongenial words as the heading of an article which is to treat of the causes of those revolutions that have visited France for the last three quarters of a century, and rendered her government vacillating and unstable; but if he will read us attentively, we believe that we shall evidence to him conclusively that Finance and Food have been the mighty agents that five times, in the course of sixty years, have revolutionized France, and hurled from their seat of power, despots, kings, and republicans; and also that her Future can be read with unmistakable certainty by these lights of past experience—lights which have ever guided the feet of statesmen, and made them able to judge of the destinies of republics, nations, and empires. * * *

But what is her future? We may almost say with truth that we have already answered the question. Every revolution that has overthrown the rulers of France, has been preceded by a war. Thus a costly war preceded the dethronement of Louis XVI., the election of Napoleon in 1805, (as Consul, thus paving his way for becoming Emperor,) his dethronement in 1815, the revolution of July that ejected Charles X. from his throne, and the revolution of February, 1848, that drove Louis Philipe from his kingdom, while the increase of the army under the Republic that followed him, so embarrassed the finance, that the people rejoiced at the change that made Napoleon emperor of France. Let us look, therefore, for a moment, at the effect of the present war upon the future tranquillity of this country. * * * * * *

Let us look at her supply of food. So inadequate, even in years of plenty, is her means of supplying food* for her people, that 400,000 chestnut trees are depended on, as one means of furnishing subsistence to her citizens, and as our tables will show, she has now no longer the means of furnishing constantly an adequate supply of food for her inhabitants. A frost destroys her chestnut crop, and annihilates in a single night 8,000,000 bushels of food, while a week's storm, as in 1788 and 1847, destroys a whole harvest, and incites her people to revolution. She is reaching the acme in her financial affairs,† beyond which she cannot pass, and each day widens the gap between her own demand and home supply of food. Revolutions upon her soil need no human propagandists. They come with hail, frost, and blight, deficits in budgets, new taxes upon land, and new drains upon labor. Quietude to France is an improbability—nature herself wars against it. Her rulers also prevent it, and five governments have been overturned upon her soil, because war embarrassed the finances and nature destroyed her food. The same mighty, invincible agents are now at work in her capital; war is creating deficits in her treasury, and taxes for her people, and her future, like her past, is to be marked with successive revolutions, and the active, unceasing agents that will surely produce them, will be Finance and Famine.

*In 1855 she demands 14,000,000 bushels of foreign grain for home consumption.

†Has in 1855 borrowed 750,000,000 francs.

THE ENGLISH BAR.—The English census returns report 13,256 attorneys and solicitors.

THE FUR TRADE.—The large sales made this fall in the fur trade, indicate that fancy furs are to be generally worn during the approaching winter. Each year the trade has increased in extent and importance, till furs seem to have become an almost indispensable article of ladies' apparel. The style has changed since the last season, by the widening of the "victorine" into a cape, so that in many cases it is substituted for cloaks and shawls, to the great loss of the woolen manufacturers and importers.

The mink sable, or American mink, has suddenly become very popular, from its resemblance to the Russian sable, and will be the fur most worn this winter. Though costing not more than one-third as much as the real sable, its appearance often gives it a preference. The skin commonly known as the Russian sable, is really the Hudson's Bay sable, and which sell for from $300 to $500 a cape,—choice as high as $800. The genuine Russian sable is very seldom seen in the United States. One of our furriers has a cape of this fur, for which he asks $2000! The stone martin, from Germany and Greece, the latter being the best, is still much worn in large capes, and is among the handsomest furs.—Good sets are to be had for $30 to $100; extra $125. The opossum, (mountain martin,) is the staple for medium priced furs, particularly for the country trade. There is also a large sale in the city. This skin, which was formerly worth only 6 to 8 cents, now brings from 40 to 50.

The price of all kinds of furs are slightly in advance of last year. The mink is very much in advance, and the manner of making up all descriptions, still further enhances their cost. The trade is not yet materially affected by the war. One class of skins, such as the coon, the buffalo, and other coarse furs, suitable for coats or coat linings, are in demand for the use of the belligerent armies, and furs of this description for export would have ready sale. The Russians use the fox skin chiefly. Buffalo robes are scarce, and this occasions a greater demand for fancy robes, such as wolf, jenette, (cat,) and coon.—N. Y. Jour of Com.

SILVER DOOR PLATES.

F. W. Ham, 1 Congress street,

IS AGENT for Whipple & Livermore's SILVER DOOR PLATES and NUMBERS, for Dwellings, Offices, Church Pews, State Rooms, &c.

Messrs. Whipple & Livermore, of Providence, having discovered a method by which the use of machinery is applied to every department of labor in the manufacture of silver Door Plates, are enabled to offer a new and beautiful article of Pure Silver, at greatly reduced prices.

Plates of all sizes and of beautiful designs, exhibiting superior finish, and lettered or numbered in a style unsurpassed in point of elegance, are produced with unfailing accuracy and unprecedented despatch. They are warranted, also, to contain a larger quantity of pure silver, and to be thus more durable, as well as more beautiful and lower priced than the silver plated article. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.

THE STATE ELECTIONS.—New York.—The full returns of the New York election do not vary the result, so far as the state election is concerned, though they may vary the pluralities; the plurality for Mr. Headley for Secretary of State being set down now at 9023 votes.

Maryland.—The American party has carried nearly all the counties in the State. The exceptions are a few of the south-western counties, the population of which is in good part American Catholic—descendants of Lord Baltimore's pioneers. Of the six members of Congress just elected, five are Know Nothings and one anti-Know Nothing Whig. The Legislature will be at least three to one, American.

Massachusetts.—Some errors have been corrected, in returns of votes from some wards in Boston. The effect of this correction is to elect two more liberal whigs from Boston, as Representatives, and to elect two less K. Ns. This upsets the majority, and leaves the K. Ns. in a minority of two votes.

The Boston Courier remarks:

"The recent state elections in Massachusetts, New York, Maryland and Louisiana, while they convey no particular satisfaction to the Whigs, are most crushing and fatal to the hopes and prospects of the national administration. In this state, the Pierce men proper had no hopes of choosing Mr. Beach for Governor by their own votes, but by connecting him directly with the opposition to the unpopular Liquor Law, they hoped to bring him in at the head of the four candidates, and Mr Gardner got many Whig votes, which should have been given to Mr. Waller, from men who voted for him to keep out Mr. Rockwell on one hand and Mr. Beach on the other.—The administration has no foothold in Massachusetts.

"In New York, likewise, no one of the parties appears to satisfy or be satisfied with the Pierce administration."

It becomes politicians of all colors, to consider that all the recent elections, not excepting that in Maine, read the lesson of defeat to both of such parties as hoist the one line banner, opposition to slavery—and the other one ides party whose banner is devotion to slavery.

The Republicans or Abolitionists, are every where defeated—and so also are the straight-out Douglass and Slavery men.

There seems to be a successful move by a set of men who take the middle ground, via: the K. Ns. or Americans.

THE LIBERALS, &c.—The Newburyport Herald says:

"All parties are somewhat disappointed in the result of the election, except the Americans, that has now for a second time shown us that they can fully rely upon the fidelity of their members; but most of all we are surprised at the Liberal vote—where is it? They were going to carry the City, County and State; but they hardly make a show. If Stetson represents the pure democratic vote, and Davenport's excess over Waller the true Liberal strength, the whole force of the latter is less than 5000. But it is evident that the Liberal ticket was not run in the interior and western counties, and many Liberals in voting for Beach threw the Democratic ticket with Stetson on it; but if you should allow 5000 for such persons, still the Liberal vote is nothing; and they more than any other party have been playing the game of brag. We understand that it has been a costly game to some of those who have bet largely, relying upon the statements of their papers and orators, and have been heavy losers."

The Boston Bee says, speaking of the Representative ticket in that city:

"It is well known that the "Liberal" Union ticket was made up of thirty-two Whigs, eleven Democrats and only one American. This was Liberal Union truly, but was brought about by an absolute THRAT made by the Irish that "if any members of the American party were placed upon the ticket they would not support it." The "Liberals," to their disgrace be it said, humbly knelt at the feet of foreign outcasts, and accepted their terms for the sake of defeating men who had proved themselves liberal and conservative in every instance.

"The means resorted to to secure the alliance after the bargain had been made was free admission to all bar-rooms and "tree drink" to those who wished. To such an extent was this course pursued that the well known and notorious haunts were repeatedly filled during the day by platoons of intemperate men marshaled in by the keepers of the liquor resorts. To this company the influential, aristocratic Whigs of Boston, were freely invited.

The Boston Times, in its Police Court Report, for Thursday, says:

"There was quite an increase of drunkards brought up this morning, most of whom were foreigners, whose disappointment at the re-election of the Know Nothing ticket probably led them to drown their sorrows in bad gin."

The Atlas of Saturday has this item:

"A FOREIGN VOTE.—On the election day Mr. Michael Finnegan, of the third ward, lost his tax bill in a very mysterious manner. It was afterwards found in the ballot box, snugly enclosed in an envelope."

Probably this man neither paid his own tax, nor read his own vote: but his agent, or clerk, make a mistake, and sealed up the wrong document.

Mrs. Molly Brown, a lady of 87 years, now the oldest stockholder of the Lowell Bank, called at the Bank on Monday for her dividend. She could read and trace her shares upon the books of the Bank without glasses, and signed her name in a fair hand.

MEETING OF THE STATE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.—A meeting of the State Temperance Committee was held in Concord, Nov. 7th, at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The reports received from the several parts of the State in relation to the results of the working of the Law were highly cheering.

The resolutions are reported at large in the Phœnix. Two of the more important are copied here.

Resolved, That while we have to rely on the moral and enlightened sentiment of the community to sustain the law, it now becomes the duty of the friends of temperance more than ever before, to agitate this subject by preaching, lecturing, and by circulating documents; and to accomplish this fully, we recommend a thorough organization of the friends of temperance in every community.

Resolved, That in all our operations, our fixed and settled policy shall be, to make alliance with no political party. But should any party make an issue against the law, or put in nomination for office, men known to be opposed to it, then we shall feel it to be our duty to do what we can to defeat such nominee. We sincerely hope, however, no issue will be made against the law, inasmuch as it received the support of men of all parties in its passage, as well as the sympathy of men of all parties for several years in the State.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 10.—The Liquor Dealers.—The sentence against certain liquor dealers in this city, having expired to day, they were escorted from the prison by a triumphant procession with music, etc., and it is now said that all the liquor dealers intend selling as usual, so that the number of complaints will be so great as to clog the business of the courts until the law is repealed.

The reader will please to bear in mind that the law of Pennsylvania which is thus to be overslaughed until it can be repealed by the legislature, is quite unlike the laws of New England. It is in effect, a very loose license law, allowing the sale of liquors by the gallon; and not pretending to do much beyond suppressing grogshops, punishing sales to drunkards, and punishing drunkards themselves.

A portion of the people of Pennsylvania deem this an invasion of their sacred rights, and therefore oppose the law. True patriots they are, no doubt, probably Union savers—but they must not be confounded with those "friends of true temperance" in New England, who oppose our fanatical laws. Many of these last named gentlemen claim to be friendly to a judicious execution of the existing laws, and others of them call for a stringent license law.

The reader is particularly requested not to mix them up in his mind.

LUCY BOSTON—just published by Shepard, Clark & Co., Boston, is a great book. It is one of the keenest satires on Woman Rights and Spiritualism which we have seen. It is caricature, broad enough to make those laugh who are hit by it,—and yet so clever as to be unmistakable in its application. No analysis can give any proper idea of it. We have often seen finer writing; but very seldom have we seen more decided hits in one volume of 400 pages. It is hardly inferior in some respects, to Gulliver's Travels. Sold in Portsmouth by J. S. Harvey & Son.

LADIES' REPOSITORY.—The November numbers of this chaste and interesting periodical, is on our table from Mr Abel Tompkins of Boston, the publisher. Contents:—Cheer him up; Home of Glory; What does it mean?; The Serpent's Sermon; Brevities; Courage: True and False; To the Ladies' Repository; Evil under the Divine Government; Sonnets by the Editor; Letters from the Holy Land; My Mother; Evening Notes; Lines on Niagara; The Young Mechanics;—Florence Nightingale; Obituary; The Editor's Table.

Hildreth & Co., who have been doing a stiff business in the book trade for the past week, in addition to peddling out as prizes any quantity of awful hard looking jewelry, were arraigned before Judge White, yesterday afternoon, on charge of a violation of that chapter by which lotteries are prohibited.—Dow for the State, and Kingman for the defence. After a long and careful investigation, and two spicy and caustic arguments, they were bound over in the sum of $100 each for their appearance at the next term of Supreme Court in April. They found bail and were discharged.—Dover Correspondence of the Boston Times.

They will probably forfeit and pay their bonds.

EXPLOSIONS AND LOSS OF LIFE.—Propeller Finley, Capt. Langley, burst her boiler on Thursday, when off Port Stanley, Canada West, about 150 miles from Buffalo, and sank immediately in ten fathoms of water. Seven men and one female were drowned. Fifteen saved themselves by clinging to portions of the wreck, until released. The locomotive of a freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad exploded, killing the fireman, and seriously injuring the engineer, who was blown up into the air, and fell upon the telegraph wire, which broke with his weight.

One of the Philadelphia correspondents of the New York Day Book states that on Monday two brokers of the former city, who heretofore were looked upon as men of wealth, suspended payment. Their stoppage had caused much surprise and distrust, as their liabilities are large.

Now is a very good time to set out trees, that they may start early in the spring.

LOCAL.

THE LYCEUM TO-NIGHT.—The entertainment offered at the Temple, this evening, promises to be one of the most attractive and interesting ever given in Portsmouth. The lecturer, Hon. Joshua R. Giddings, of Ohio, has a world-wide fame, as a staunch and eloquent advocate of the people's rights, and true democracy; and we should judge from the title of his lecture to-night, that the subject offers a fine field for his powers. Mr. Giddings opened the Newburyport Lyceum, on Friday evening last, with a splendid lecture on the "Revolution of 76," of which the Herald has an extended complimentary notice. Of the lecturer, the Herald says:

Mr Giddings is a large, portly man, with white hair—an old man, yet he speaks with all the fire and animation of youth. His manner of treating his subject is varied, passing from the staid and steady strain of argument, to the higher notes of satire and wit, then to the minor key of pathos—now slow, and then very rapid in his utterance. He spoke two hours without notes, and was frequently interrupted with hearty and continued applause—all that he said seemed to come directly from the heart, without qualification or apology, and we think he leaves the impression strongly upon those who heard him, of an honest, resolute and noble old man.

The other lecturers announced to follow, (see advertisement,) are well known to be as good as can be had.—There is no form of entertainment more instructive, and there can hardly be one cheaper, than the popular Lyceum; and the Mechanics' course this season seems to promise as much as any we have ever had here, and is eminently worthy of patronage.

Besides the literary attractions, we are pleased to see Music announced to accompany this lecture, (which we understand will probably be furnished throughout the course,) and such music, as Satter alone, almost, is capable of producing. The instrument to be used is the Grand Piano, of Hallett, Davis & Co.'s manufacture—which the player prefers above all others.

Gustave Satter, has met with the most unbounded success, as a pianist and concertizer, in Boston and throughout the country. He is said to be a good deal of An American, too—though he does hail from Germany as his native place; and has received some censure, but a good deal more praise, for interspersing his concerts with American music.

The Boston Transcript says:

"We have been repeatedly delighted with his masterly execution on an instrument over which he holds perfect control. Most of the great artists who have visited us, have felt too important to play at concerts with tickets at less than a dollar; but he, the Napoleon of them all, places himself on a level with the American public, and performs American airs with those of Beethoven and other great masters, for 25 cents,

The Traveller says, "Mr Satter is one of the best pianists who has ever played in Boston, and has hosts of friends here."

The Post says, respecting his success at a recent concert:

Never did a piano speak so like a thing of life, or with more distinctness; never was an audience more spell-bound under the magic influence of a great performer, and never was applause more hearty and enthusiastic, than was bestowed upon Satter at the close of each piece.

The Journal says, "We do not hesitate to place Satter on a par with Alfred Jaell or any other pianist we ever heard. In some respects he is superior to all."

The Herald says, "With our neighbor of the Journal, we unhesitatingly pronounce him the best pianist who has ever visited Boston."

The Mail says "his finale of Yankee Doodle, with variations and buslesque, was the most brilliantly executed piano piece we ever heard."

The Times says, "Satter's name is enrolled high on the list of pianists who have visited Boston; and his genius and taste have rendered him the most popular musician in our midst."

In fact, all who hear him, are loud in praise of his ability, skill, taste, and his appreciation and presentation of popular American airs, among "classical" music; as well as his gentlemanly qualities. Don't fail to hear and see him play.

VERY QUICK PASSAGE.—The ship Ocean Rover, of this port, M. F. Pickering, master, arrived at Charleston, S. C. on the 5th inst., having made the passage from the Deleware Breakwater in just fifty hours! Can this be beat?

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do not, should provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people.—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTHERN LIGHT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.

The steamship Northern Light arrived at this port this forenoon, with dates from San Francisco to October 20.

The Northern Light connected at San Juan with the steamer Sierra Nevada, which brought down about 300 passengers, but no specie, owing to the apprehended troubles at the Isthmus.

We learn from the Purser of the Northern Light that everything was quiet at the Isthmus, and that no further trouble was apprehended. Col. Walker, leader of the Democratic party in Nicaragua, had concluded a treaty of peace with the Chamorro party, and, having declined the Presidency in favor of Rivas, the latter was sworn into office on the 31st of October at Grenada. Col. Walker was appointed Commander-in-Chief of the Nicaraguan forces, and Parker H. French, formerly of the Sacramento Tribune, has been appointed Commissary of War.

Don Mateo Mayorga, formerly Secretary of State, had been executed on the plaza, his party having fired into the California passengers on board the Uncle Sam, and Star of the West, on their passages.

The people of Nicaragua appeared much pleased with the new order of things.

The Sierra Nevada brought down from California a large force, reported at 500 volunteers, to join Walker.

Col. Kinney was at Greytown, with only about a dozen men, some of whom were suffering from sickness. Simeon Forester of Salem, one of his party, had died.

Gen. Walker's men were anxious to be allowed to drive Kinney and his men out of the country.

The mail steamer Golden Age left San Francisco on the 20th ult. for Panama, with a large number of passengers and about two millions of specie.

Seven clippers arrived at San Francisco since previous advices, and their cargoes had been disposed of upon satisfactory terms.—Business generally had considerably improved, and nearly all Eastern merchandise found buyers at a fair profit to importers.

The steamer Sierra Nevada arrived at San Francisco on the 9th ult, with New York dates of 5th of September, having lost forty-five passengers by cholera, all steerage passengers but three.

The U. S. steamship John Hancock arrived at San Francisco on the 19th, from Petropaulovski, bringing the news that the Russians at the Amoor were in great force by land and sea, and were anxious to meet the allied fleet, which was supposed to be in the Gulf of Tartary.

The British steamer Baracouta had been at Ayan and found the place deserted. They, however, discovered the secreted goods of the Russian Fur Company, which were seized, and burnt a small steamer upon the stocks. The Baracouta then left for Petropoulovski, which port she entered with the American flag flying and fired upon the town, after which she left, and when off Elizabeth Island encountered the Bremen brig Greta, with 140 Russian officers and soldiers on board, which she captured and carried to Hong Kong.

Flour was selling at $9 50 a 10 00; wheat, $2 75 a 3 75; barley and oats, $2 50; clear pork, $42; mess pork, $38 a 50; hams in brine, $21 50 a 22 00; extra clear bacon, $25; mess beef, $25; crushed sugar, 4 1-2c; lard, 25c; drills had declined to 9c.

Seven Chinamen were murdered by the Mexicans in Sierra County in one day. The object was robbery.

A man named J. M. Smith was shot at Columbia on the 9th ult., by another named Barclay. The latter was taken out and immediately hung by a mob. The case was a very aggravated one.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 10.—Election News.—The result of our Congressional Election, as far as heard from, is as follows:—1st District—G. Eustis, Jr., Know Nothing, is elected over Fabre, Democrat; 2d—Miles Taylor, Democrat, over Hunt, Know Nothing; 3d—Davidson, Democrat, is ahead of Boud, Know Nothing. Thus far there are no returns yet received from the 4th District. In Mississippi, Lake, Kdow Nothing, is chosen in the 4th District, over Singleton, Democrat.

We have had heavy rains, and all the rivers are rising. Exchange 6 1 2 a 7.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Mississippi Election.—It is reported that Jefferson Davis received a despatch from Jackson, Miss., yesterday, to the effect that every thing in that State had gone Democratic, namely, that their State ticket had been carried by 5000 majority; that the whole Democratic delegation to Congress had been elected, and that that party have a majority of thirty in the Legislature.

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY A RAILROAD TRAIN. A fiendish outrage was committed on the Boston and Lowell Railroad, Saturday afternoon, the 10th inst. The Nashua freight train which left this city at 2 1-2 o'clock, was thrown from the track in Woburn, in consequence of a rail which had been spiked across the track! The engine was badly broken, and the engineer, Mr. Chase of Lowell, and the fireman, whose name we could not learn, were seriously, if not fatally injured. The obstruction evidently was intended for the passenger train which leaves Boston about three o'clock. Such offences demand the utmost rigor of the law, and we hope no pains will be spared to discover the perpetrators of the deed, and bring them to justice.—Boston Journal.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT ROWLEY.—On Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 20, Mr. Isaac Pickard, of Ipswich, as he was driving a team attached to a loaded wagon through one of the streets of Rowley, in attempting to seat himself upon the tongue, stumbled and fell, and one of his legs was terribly crushed by the wheels passing over it. He lingered in excessive pain until Monday morning, Oct. 29th, when he expired, leaving a widow and son to deplore his sudden death.—Boston Traveller.

We record the death of Miss Taft, who was so badly injured by the collision on the Boston and Worcester road on Tuesday. The lady is a grand-daughter of Rev. Mr. Taylor.

A New Musical Work.

J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 1 Congress Block, has for sale THE GLORIA IN EXCELSIS, by W. Williams, organist and director of Music at the Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

The Elementary Treatise of this work is in many respects entirely different from that in common use. Its Hymn Tunes are of great variety in regards style, and possess the peculiar merit of being melodious and pleasing in a high degree, while they at the same time retain all the chaste and devotional character which should ever be found in the music of the sanctuary. In the department of Anthems, or short pieces for the introduction of Public Worship, it is believed that no work now before the public can sustain a comparison.

This work is a Book of New Music as well as a new Music Book. Nothing in this whole collection has ever appeared before in a similar work, it having all been composed or arranged, by many of the most eminent composers in America, especially for the "Gloria"!

Price 75 cents each, or $7.50 per doz. All interested in Music are invited to call and examine the work.

J. F. Shores, Jr. will furnish at short notice any of the popular Music Books at Publishers' prices. n10 4

New Music Book for Sale.

BAKER'S CHURCH MUSIC.—a new Collection, by Prof. B. F. Baker, may be had at the publishers' price, at Excelsior Hall. This work contains a large amount of the best music, much of it original, and more complete elementary exercises than any similar book. It is used in the Singing School of the subscriber, and is to be used at the Musical Convention in Portsmouth in January next.

Just Published, A New Discovery in Medicine!

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Nervous Debility, Low Spirits, Lassitude, Weakness of the Limbs and Back, Indisposition and Incapacity for Study and Labor, Dullness of Apprehension, Loss of Memory, aversion to Society, Love of Solitude, Timidity, Self-Distrust, Dizziness, Head Ache, Pains in the Side, Affection of the Eyes, Pimples on the Face, and other infirmities in man.

FROM THE FRENCH OF Dr. B. DE LANEY.

The important fact that these alarming complaints may easily be removed without MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, avoiding thereby all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a combination of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the household families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its wonderful influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or Gout pains, two bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or Gout pains, two bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, Costiveness, Piles, Liver Complaint, etc., three bottles will effect all that you desire. All humors will be eradicated from the blood, by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are afflicted and have tried all the various medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will at once see the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S Cough Medicine.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me., was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or a more extensive practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:

"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, untiring perseverance, and ardently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skilful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."

This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon evidence, called of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."

Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.

To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, HARTFORD, CONN." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of azo enameled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.

MORNING CHRONICLE.

BY MILLERS & GRAY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1855. VOLUME 7. NO. 92.

THE DAILY MORNING CHRONICLE

FRANK W. MILLER, SAMUEL GRAY, & THOS. W. MILLER,

At No. 4 Exchange Buildings,

Pleasant Street,.....PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

TERMS $4 a year, or $3 if paid strictly in advance.

The Weekly Chronicle,

A family newspaper, containing the news of the week, with carefully selected miscellany, &c., is published as above, every Saturday morning.

TERMS $1 a year, in advance. Delivered on any railroad or stage route leading from Portsmouth, free of expense to subscribers. Postage in Rockingham County, free.

ADVERTISING.

For a Square (sixteen lines nonpareil) or less, one insertion 50 cts., three insertions $1, and liberal terms for continuance.

Yearly, quarterly or monthly advertisers liberally accommodated.

Unless otherwise ordered, all advertisements inserted in the Daily, also receive two or three insertions in the Weekly Chronicle, without extra charge.

Both papers having large circulation in Portsmouth, Kittery, New Castle, Greenland, Epping on the Eastern and the Portsmouth & Concord Railroads, &c., renders the Chronicle an excellent advertising medium.

☞ Obituary Communications charged as advertisements. Notices of Funerals, 25 cts. each. Advertisements of articles lost, 25 cents if not found, 50 cts. if found.

☞ All accounts settled semi-annually.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed.

V. B. Palmer, American Newspaper Agent, is the only authorized agent for this paper in the cities of Boston, New York and Philadelphia; and is duly empowered to take advertisements and subscriptions at the same rates as required by us. His receipts will be regarded as payments.

Morning Chronicle.

The St. Louis Intelligencer says, "the highest place in the government will, after 1860, be disposed of by the West." That is no doubt true, if the West can have some general interest to unite them, as the South has—and as the West will be free from slavery, and from their pursuits naturally incline to free politics, it is wonderful that shrewd men like Seward and Wilson, did not delay their republican movement till after the next census. If the Free States can be as thoroughly aroused against slavery after the census of 1860, as they were last year, the slave-holding States and all the allies they can make beyond their own borders, will be as powerless as a child in the hands of a giant; but being defeated now they weaken themselves for future operation. But the young and aspiring who have any thing of life before them, will see the fact stated by the Intelligencer, and it will not be without influence in moulding and forming their political creeds.—Newburyport Herald.

KANSAS.—We perceive that a lecturer is now traversing Maryland, addressing the people in favor of making Kansas a free State.—He is an agent of the New York Settlement Company, and is every where received and heard with attention. He has procured in Maryland many subscribers to the stock of the company. It may not be generally known that several Southern States have contributed largely in men and money to the making of a free State in Kansas. These are Maryland, Kentucky, Missouri, Arkansas, Virginia and North Carolina. Such is the fact.—U. S. Gazette.

The Savannah Republican, formerly a leading whig paper, joins Senator Dixon, of Kentucky, in pronouncing the whig party dead—and adds, alluding to the resolutions of the late whig state convention in New York:

The whigs of New York, in their efforts at resuscitation, have taken the surest step to place their existence as a national party beyond the reach of hope. The south has made her last concession on the slavery question.

Do pray tell us what that "concession" was, and when and where it was made.—Portland Adv.

SINGULAR INCIDENT.—Six years ago a gentleman and his family removed to this city from Philadelphia, bringing with him a favorite dog, which remained with him about six months, and disappeared suddenly, since which time, until Monday noon last, nothing had been heard of him. On that morning the gentleman and family were to start at 4 o'clock for California, and on entering the room where their baggage had been placed the night previous, there they found the long lost dog, who seemed by his fondling to crave pardon for absence, and followed them to the boat, giving strong evidence of his desire to accompany them on their journey.—Alexandria Gaz.

DOMESTIC TRAGEDY.—At Chicago on Wednesday evening, Edgar E. Ingersoll shot his wife dead with a pistol, and then immediately killed himself with the same weapon. He was 30 years old, and she was scarcely 20. They had been married five years, and he had treated her so cruelly that she left him and sought refuge with friends. He induced her to take a walk with him that evening, having premeditated the crime. They have a child 18 months old. Her name was Mariner, and she was married at the age of 15, at Pittsburgh, Pa. He, though of unhappy temper, was a temperate, industrious man, and provided handsomely for his home.

On Sunday, in the Episcopal Church, in Lynchburg, Va., the entire congregation retained their seats, as it was understood that a marriage was about to take place. The marriage came off in due time, and the parties proved to be two colored servants, who can boast of having had the largest wedding assemblage ever gotten together in Lynchburg.

A VIRAGO.—A potato merchant, in Baltimore, who had lately married, after a breach of promise to another lady, was followed to market on Saturday by the injured fair one, and severely cowhided. The lady cut him severely about the face, and greatly disfigured his physiognomy. The occurrence caused a great deal of talk in the market, and in order to get a sight at a man who was whipped by a woman, many persons called upon him for potatoes, and in a short time he had disposed of his stock, and returned to his newly wedded wife, by whom he was doubtless consoled. He has certainly had a fortunate escape from having such a Xantippe as his partner.

Samuel Where, an honest Dutchman, of Madison, Illinois, was called upon to serve as a juryman, and, the sheriff refusing to excuse him, sat upon a trial of a case till a verdict was rendered. One of the parties then moved for a new trial on the ground that Mr. Where had not sufficient knowledge of the language to understand the case; and upon examination the court so found it. The poor man was so afraid he had committed some great wrong that he went home and hung himself.

The fortune left by the late Baron Dietrich of Vienna, to his grandson, Prince Sulkowski, amounts to eighteen millions of florins, ($9,000,000.) There were found in the cellar twenty-two bags, each containing 1000 ducats in gold, and in different chests securities out of date and lost for a sum of 180,000 florins. This practice of hoarding gold is said to be very common in Austria, where the paper currency is greatly depreciated.

REMARKABLE AGE.—The Genesee Democrat says that there lives in the village of Constantine, on the northern shore of the Onedia Lake, a gentleman of the name of Bentley, who, last Sunday, with his children and their descendants, celebrated his 105th birth-day.—The old gentleman is hale and hearty, and from present appearances is as likely to live for many years to come, as the generality of men at half his age. His oldest son is about eighty years of age, and "a chip of the old block."

The annual value of the manufactures sent forth to the markets of the world by French goldsmiths, silversmiths, and jewellers is upwards of two millions sterling, $9,800,000.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1855.

ANOTHER MARE'S NEST.

See what a wonderful discovery the Washington Union has made, viz.: that the Rev. Dr. Caruthers, of Portland, is a disunionist!

"A friend forwards to us an English paper called the 'British Banner,' published in London, in the number of which for the 22d of September, we find an article addressed to the editor by the Rev. J. J. Caruthers, a congregationalist clergyman, resident and preaching in the city of Portland, Maine, which, no matter how scrutinized, is a disgrace to any newspaper, and more than a disgrace to any man who professes to be a follower of the meek and lowly Saviour. This arrogant and dogmatic priest, as if to show his contempt for the holy examples of Christian toleration and of moral suasion, invokes the Bible to encourage the work of dissolution of the American Union! A single extract from this letter may not be uninteresting to the general reader:

Thus far we copy from the Washington Union. And now, reader, please to screw up your courage, as we did ours, to read the terrible extract, so full of Treason and Disunion. Here it is:

"The next presidential election will probably decide the fate of the Union. Unhappily, while the slave States are generally of one heart and of one mind as to the maintainance of their rights; these northern States are torn and rent by intestine broils, implacable, mutual animosities, and personal aggrandisement. The power and pelf will too certainly predominate over every consideration of patriotism and humanity. The future of this country is dark, indeed, and light beams only from that hallowed page which assures us that 'the Lord Omnipotent reigneth.'"

What hint is there, in these words, at any disunion of States, or disolution of the Union? None that we see. The Doctor fears there are more dough faces among politicians at the North, than men; more demagogues than patriots—and therefore he fears that slavery will again triumph.

But hear how the Washington Union expounds it:

"That is, this clergyman is unhappy, because, though himself comfortably located in a community, which community is largely interested in commerce with the southern States of this confederacy, he is deeply pained that the American Union cannot at once be dissolved. He is unhappy because the southern people are united in the defence of their rights; he is unhappy because he cannot unite the people of the North in war upon their brethren and friends in the South; because he cannot precipitate a conflict between the two sections that may lead to a servile insurrection, and to the massacre of thousands of his fellow-beings? There are few communities in which such scandalous language as this would be tolerated. It exhibits a creditable degree of forbearance on the part of the people of Portland, that such a man as this should be fed and followed as a leader and a light in his persuasion; but it is clear that if he preached similar doctrines across the border, in her Majesty's Canadian dominions, against British interests, he would soon be notified to withdraw to a more congenial neighborhood."

The reader will smile, we fancy, as he witnesses this Tempest in a Teapot, this boiling up of wrath in the inkstand of an editor who deems the Union and slavery to be synonymous terms. It is to be hoped there will be no explosion.

But let us come a little nearer home. The Eastern Argus, which is published in Portland, where Dr. Caruthers lives, says, very solemnly,

"We regret to feel it our duty to publish the article from the Washington Union. Dr. Caruthers is a talented and eloquent clergyman of this city, and has at home, so far as we know, kept himself aloof from party strife.—He is a Scotchman by birth, and, we believe, has never renounced his allegiance to the British government.

"This may account, in some measure, for the apparent hatred of the institutions of the Union, which seems to control his correspondence with the British Banner. The letter from which the Union quotes is in our possession. It is certainly a most extraordinary production, the spirit of which is indicated by the extract."

We hope the Argus will publish the whole letter, that we may see all the eggs in this dreadful nest.

In the extract, which the Argus copies twice in one column, we see no hatred for any institution except slavery. It may be a crime, in Washington, to hate that; but we never knew it was in Portland.

Let us have the whole letter. If Dr. Caruthers is guilty of treason, let us make the most of it.

We are rather inclined to think the Doctor still lives, maugre the regret of the Argus.

VERMONT.—The bill making more stringent the liquor law has passed to a third reading in the House of Representatives by a large majority, but the eventual success of the bill is said to be doubtful. All the grocery keepers of Montpelier have paid fines of $20 each, with $18 costs, making $38 each, for unlawful sales of liquor, and indictments against others are pending.

NOVEL VERDICT.—At the Court of Common Pleas at Lowell, in the case of John Flanagan, of Charlestown, for violation of the liquor law, the jury found "that the facts in the complaint are true, and leave it to the Court to decide whether those facts constitute an offence, and that the jury did not agree as to the law."

THANKSGIVING IN VERMONT.—Governor Boyce has appointed Thursday, December 6th, as a day of Public Thanksgiving.

DISTURBANCE IN BATH, ME.—The Bath Tribune of yesterday gives an account of a riot which occurred in that city on Sunday last. It appears that the Catholics attempted to hold religious exercises appropriate to laying the corner stone of a new church, but they were interrupted by a mob, which put a stop to the services by acts of violence.

The Tribune says:—During the forenoon a wooden cross, which had been erected was forcibly pulled down. Early in the afternoon an American flag was raised amid the cheering of a considerable number of persons who showed themselves hostile to the exercises and the occasion. Mr Russell, acting Mayor, pulled the flag down amid shouts of "hustle him out!" and hisses. But on his leaving it was again put up. A rush was made for the corner stone, which had been previously laid, and several attempts were made to remove it from its setting, which was prevented, as we learn, by the exertions of Marshal Walker and Mr Constable Leach, who kept the crowd at bay. The Catholics, finding they would be opposed in their exercises, quietly withdrew and left the lawless mob in possession of the field. No attempt that we hear of was made to arrest any of the disturbers of the peace up to four o'clock. At about five o'clock, the crowd, having accomplished their objects and prevented the exercises, gradually dispersed. Seeing the temper of the people, the Bishop sent word to his parish that the exercises would not be held.

If any man, or any mob, wishes to make the Roman Catholic cling closer to his superstitions, and to hate Protestants with a more intense hatred,—then let such acts as these be common.

The Mayor and Marshal seem to have done as well as they could.—But it was settled in Maine, by a vote of the people, and a large vote too, that City officers must deal very gently with those good citizens who take the law into their own hands, and raise a mob. If they can persuade the mob, or push them away, very well: but don't let them strike, nor shoot.

The city officers of Bath, are wise men, to let the mob rule:—and the Bishop is also wise: he can come another day, in peace,—and he will come—and the Roman church in Bath will grow.—Nothing can help it more than this kind of opposition.

For the Chronicle.

AUTUMN.—Though the chill winds are like agues to the nerves, for many a day in this region—yet there are mingled, with the moods of autumn, many of the warmest beauties of more fervent climes. An autumn in New England, though not one of constant, benevolent temperament, like one in the more favored climes of the southerly states, has, nevertheless, in its very inconsistency, a transition and contrast of beauties and pleasures, which makes it to us a more desirable abiding place than any in which we have ever lived.

If the chill air is more prevalent than in any other longitudes upon the same parallel of latitude, there are, notwithstanding, days when the sun shols a heat, and the very breezes seem to come loaded with a warmth like summer. Such days have we seen during the past week. And even when the sharp frosty wind from the north, or the chill damp breeze from the east, forbid the contemplative to walk abroad in the evening, they give a new and active buoyancy to the hilarity within doors, and make the fireside the focus of a thousand charms. The beauty of autumn scenery, in our country, is upon the page of every foreign traveller's journal, and now, when

"Her breath hath tinged the grove with red,
And strewed the vale with yellow—
And every leaf reclines its head
Beside its withering fellow;
And nature looking around her,
Rends the green robe that bound her."

How, when the green, the yellow, the crimson, and the russet, are struggling for supremacy, in the foliage of the whole forest,—with all its chills—with all its damps,—we would almost wish that winter might not come, but that autumn might last forever.

But the bounty of the God of the year, whose chosen era of ripe rewards for all the toils and privations of other seasons, is fixed among the fading but brilliant beauties of autumn, is most worthy the aspiration of a grateful and sympathetic heart. And in no autumn more than the present has that bounty been so infinitely above the desert of the human family. On every side we see the smiles of plenty, and on every hand we hear the sounds of joy, at the goodness of that hand that has met us in our complaints, and silenced our ingratitude, by the fruits of a most ample and abundant harvest. S. W. C.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. H. S. Thompson, of Newburyport, for a copy of his new Song and Chorus, "The Sea Nymph's Invitation." It is in the author's well-known style, beautifully simple, easy of execution, and grateful to singer or hearer.

NEW ORLEANS, 10th. Louisiana Election.—In this State the result of our election is still in doubt,—the votes are pretty close, but the chances favor the Democrats.

Mississippi Election.—In Mississippi, the Democratic majority on the State ticket is about 4000.

Rev. R. Crowell, D. D., for forty-one years pastor of the First Congregational Church in Essex, Mass., died of consumption, at his residence, on Saturday morning.

LOCAL.

DEATH OF JOHN McCLINTOCK.

Died in this city, on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 13th, John McClintock, Esq. in the 25th year of his age. Capt. McClintock was a son of the Rev. Dr. McClintock of Greenland; and in early life was a mariner and then a merchant. He was a man of integrity, honorable in his own transactions and keenly sensitive to any lack of honor or honesty in others.

He was a friend and associate of Langdon and Gardner, Long, Goddard and Clark, in the Republican party in New Hampshire previous to the war of 1812. At the commencement of that war, he with the two latter gentlemen dissented from that measure; and neither of them were ever so active in political affairs afterwards.

Capt. McClintock has been Naval Officer of this port through Harrison and Tyler's, Taylor and Fillmore's, and Pierce's administrations—doing the duties of his office up to his last sickness, which we believe was also his first, and which lasted but a few days. He was retained in office by the considerations of his great age, integrity, and old associations with the father of President Pierce. The latter consideration belng in our view no disparagement to the son.

Our oldest man is gone. The fathers—where are they?

☞ Mr. Giddings's Lecture before the Mechanic's Lyceum on Tuesday evening, was on the History of the Georgia Refugees, which he traced from the days of the Revolution to the present time.

His oratory was not much better than the Duke of Wellington's, who was said to speak to the House of Lords after the manner in which he would rally a brigade. He blundered often, as an old soldier might be expected to blunder in a lecture, but he blundered out a great many truths, some terrible ones, of Indian and Negro wrongs and their bloody retributions on our own people. He told the story of Osceola's wrongs and his vengeance on Thompson who inflicted them, with great effect.

He is evidently a strong, honest oid soldier, a fearless man, an admirer of Jefferson's character, Indian policy and life—and he closed his lecture with an earnest tribute of honor to President Pierce for a recent order to our Army on the Texan frontier, to protect the remnant of these same Georgia refugees, called Seminoles, or Runaways.

The whole lecture was instructive and valuable rather than pleasing.

Mr. Satter's playing, on the Grand Piano, before and after the lecture, was of the first order, and added much to the pleasure of the evening. His touch is admirable, and he fingers with astonishing rapidity and accuracy. He gave very marked contrasts in his playing, between the most exquisite liquid running of the higher register, and the deepest bass brought out by his mighty left hand. He made of the grand piano, a whistle and drum by turns; and exhibited the power, brilliancy and sweetness of the instrument, in a manner which would astonish and delight the makers themselves. He is the most perfect master of the piano who has ever visited our city, and his playing we never heard equalled; he is very pleasing in his person and appearance, and impressed the audience most favorably. We hope to hear him often. The audience was large, and the success of the course is sure.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

TUESDAY, NOV. 13.

The November Session for Rockingham County, commenced in this city on Tuesday morning: Judge Sawyer presiding. Rev. Mr Whiting, of this city, offered the prayer at the opening of the court.

The forenoon was occupied in calling the docket.

Sixty or seventy actions were entered, Neither Party. A very large number were assigned for determination of the Court, without the intervention of a Jury; and the Docket was very materially reduced. The whole Docket was: Continued actions, 479; State actions, 17; Sessions docket, 9.

The action now on trial is, Henry F. French (adm'r of the Est. of Wm Gardner,) vs. Albert R Hatch, (adm'r of Est. of Sarah Gardner.) French and Christie for plf, Hackett and Hatch for deft.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, is universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its beneficence and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

KANSAS STATE CONVENTION.—The New York Times has a reporter at Topeka, Kansas, where the Convention is sitting to frame a State Constitution for the territory. On the 26th a member introduced a resolution in favor of the non-intervention principles of the Kansas-Nebraska act, and recommending them to the people of Kansas. This was assigned for the 1st inst.

Mr Smith of Lawrence offered a resolution instructing the Standing Committees :—

Resolved, That the various committees of this Convention be, and are hereby instructed to frame their work having in view an immediate organization of a state government.

It is stated that the conservative feeling of the Convention is opposed to the rush for the formation of State government until the Constitution has been sent to Washington, and that the above resolve will not prevail. A woman was admitted within the bar as a reporter, and an ineffectual effort will be made to exclude the word male in the qualifications of voters.

Another writer from Lawrence October 29, says :—

The election for delegates to the Constitutional Convention resulted in the choice of all the anti-slavery candidates. The pro-slavery party, being in a minority, thought it advisable not to attend the polls. A Constitution will be framed, and an application made at the coming session of Congress for admission to the Union. There are now 6,000 voters in Kansas, and the number is rapidly increasing. The South is not likely to gain by a postponement of the time of our admission. A vast majority of our people are determined to exclude slavery from the territory. Exclusion from the Union will not coerce them into an abandonment of this purpose. Every effort to prevent an expression of public opinion at the polls, or to thwart the wishes of the settlers, has but added new barriers to the introduction of the darling institution of the South. The strongest friends of freedom among us are from the South.

On the above information, the Boston Courier offers the following remarks :

The Abolitionists will be obliged to seek some other source of agitation now, since the people of Kansas are so well able to take care of themselves, and need none of the sympathy which has thus far been a great and serious injury to them. This testimony proceeds from a journal of the Seward shade of politics; and, indeed, Governor Reeder, in his late speech at Easton, Pa., while he asserted the determination of the people of Kansas to make that a free state, he repudiated, in the strongest terms, all sympathy with Abolitionism, and declared their purpose to consult, to the utmost extent, the rights, interests, and even the prejudices of their slaveholding neighbors.

A New Musical Work.

J. F. SHORES, Jr., No. 1 Congress Block, has for sale THE GLORIA IN EXCELSIS, by W. Williams, organist and director of Music at the Bowdoin Square Church, Boston.

The Elementary Treatise of this work is in many respects entirely different from that in common use. Its Hymn Tunes are of great variety and pleasing style, and possess the peculiar merit of being melodious and pleasing in a high degree, while they at the same time retain all the chaste and devotional character which should ever be found in the music of the sanctuary. In the department of Anthems, or short pieces for the introduction of Public Worship, it is believed that no work now before the public can sustain a comparison.

This work is a Book of New Music as well as a new Music Book. Nothing in this whole collection has ever appeared before in a similar work, it having all been composed or arranged, by many of the most eminent composers in America, especially for the "Gloria."

Price 75 cents each, or $7.50 per doz. All interested in Music are invited to call and examine the work.

J. F. Shores, Jr. will furnish at short notice any of the popular Music Books at Publishers' prices.

One of the graduates of the Methodist Biblical Institute in this city, at the Commencement last week, was a converted Jew. The subject of his oration on that occasion was the "Life of St. Paul." It was interesting to hear the incidents of the great Apostle to the Gentiles, so eloquently recited by one, whose nation is that peculiar people who believe not that the Messiah has come.—*Concord N. Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantageous applying for Patents, superior to those offered heretofore. In that he made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal thereon him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and equitable matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can have all the benefit of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the Patent Office, and transacted business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. With a brief account of some incidents in his Life.
Edited by his son, WM. P. LAWRENCE, M. D.
With elegant Portraits of Amos and Abbott Lawrence, an Engraving of their birth-place, and a copious index. 8 vo. $1,50.
This is a memoir of a citizen of Massachusetts who became distinguished for his great wealth, but more distinguished for the manner in which he used it.
It is the memoir of a man whose public benefactions have rarely been surpassed, and whose private charities far surpassed his public benefactions.
It is the memoir of a man who, commencing business with only $20, gave away in public and private charities, during his life time, more than any other person in America.
It is a memoir that commends itself alike to the rich and the poor; to the rich, as presenting the example of a man who had discovered the true secret of enjoying his wealth,—to the poor, as exhibiting a portraiture of one of their greatest benefactors. It is substantially an AUTOBIOGRAPHY, containing a full account of Mr. Lawrence's career as a merchant, of his public and private charities, and of his domestic life.
Unusual care has been bestowed upon the mechanical execution of the volume. The embellishments, four in number, are in the best style of art; the paper is of extra quality; the letter-press is large, open and clear. The binding is in various styles, from plain muslin to full gilt, suitable for gifts.
☞ This work is offered to the public at a lower price than any similar work executed in the same superior style has been ever offered before.
☞ Copies sent by mail, postage free, to persons remitting one dollar and fifty cents to the publishers.

Morning Chronicle.

A REVIEW. — The Marblehead People's Advocate contains a leader of four or five columns, on the Massachusetts Election, from which we make some choice extracts:

The election shows that the absurdities of Know-Nothingism cannot receive the support the people.

Again, the election shows that Nullification has no place in the hearts of the people of this state.

The election shows that the Whig Party is wholly unnecessary as a political organization.

The election shows that the Liberal Party is a humbug. The organ of that magnificent organization, the Chronicle, seems to entertain great contempt for the power of what it sees fit to call the "Custom House Party" in Massachusetts. But let us see who deserved the contempt. The democratic candidate for governor stands very close to the second on the list of candidates. And we are confident that the democratic party lost as much as it gained by the mere appearance of an alliance. Everybody knew what our principles are.—It was not necessary to do anything more more than simply to set them forth.

Again, the election shows that the Democratic Party still lives.

Undoubtedly this election will be considered to have an influence upon National Politics.

And what will this influence be? Surely not in favor of the cause of Seward and his abolition followers.

Such victories as those recently gained in Massachusetts and New York ought to infuse new life into the democratic party.

It is clear, unquestionable that every blow struck hitherto by our opponents will rebound for the benefit of the great party of the Constitution and the Union.

We breathe free—the Union is saved. The democratic victories in Massachusetts and New York have made all fair weather!

A DESOLATE HOME.—The following beautifully touching reflections upon the sudden death of a beloved child, are from the pen of the editor of the Buffalo Express:

The charm of home depends upon the perfection of its circle—break the circle, and the charm is broken. Death is a fearful visitor, no matter when or how he may come. His advent, even when his face is most thickly veiled, and his footstep most cautious, is terrible—but when he uses his power as if he loved to use it, and surrounds his mission with superfluous and peculiar horrors, then the heart-strings must snap and the blood curl in the veins.

Our darling has departed! When we look around and see him not, then the truth returns like a sudden blow, and we sink again into the troubled waters. He lies in his coffin. The leaves fall solemnly, the wind moans like a chained beast about his dismal bed. It is hard to leave him there—it seems so cold and dreary for him! and yet we know it must be—and because it must be, it is.

Yet why not talk what we know as well as what we feel. Our bird now sings amid the eternal branches—our bud now blooms in the garden of God—our darling now reposes on the bosom of the crucified. It is well. God loved him—and loved him most when He took him up where Rachel's children are. We will eat this sweet morsel of consolation, and it shall strengthen us.

LIBELLOUS.—The Boston correspondent of the New York Herald, in writing concerning the improvements making upon the old Green Dragon tavern estate, observes that "our ancestors used to resort there to discuss patriotism and punch—things now obsolete, so far as their perfection is concerned."

Thirty or forty years ago, the Green Dragon Tavern was a low drinking house, and its hall was used as a tenth-rate theatre.

PLOT TO BLOW UP A RAILROAD TRAIN.—We recently published an account of the arrest of six men who were detected in the act of placing obstructions upon the Milwaukie and Mississippi Railroad, in Wisconsin. We learn from the Madison Patriot that another person has been arrested for being concerned in the recent diabolical attempts to throw the trains of this road from the track, and it has been ascertained that a plot was laid some months ago to blow up a passenger train.—The plan was to sink a joint of stove pipe filled with powder and stopped up at the end, under the track—to have a train of powder leading from the mine several yards along side of the track, mixed with percussion caps, so that when the locomotive crushed and ignited the caps and fired the train of powder, the passenger car would be directly over the mine and suffer a destructive explosion. The annals of villainy hardly furnish a more dreadful instance of human depravity than this.—Fortunately this plan was postponed till after one more effort of obstruction had been made. In that the scoundrels were detected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The authorities of Cuba, more than a year ago, required duties to be paid by citizens of the United States on certain descriptions of building materials and provisions, which before that period had been admitted to the island either free or on the payment of a mere nominal tax. The losses in consequence were considerable.—Since that time the subject has been brought to the attention of the Spanish Government, by direction of the Secretary of State, thro' our Minister at the Court of Madrid, and the result is said to be, that the Spanish government has signified to this government a disposition to refund or remit those duties improperly demanded by the Captain General, setting apart twelve months, during which the claimants are to present their several claims to the Spanish authorities, on the adjudication or verification of which these duties will be refunded.

"L'Univers," a Parisian paper which is understood to be the organ of the Roman See, exults over the accession of the son of Bishop Doane to the Church of Rome as a triumph of the Church over the Know Nothings.

Within the last three months there have been eight railroad accidents in the United States, by which sixty persons have lost their lives, and 144 have been wounded.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1855.

THE MORMONS.—The last number of the Deseret News, received at the North, contains an account of the origin, successes, troubles and triumphs of the latter day saints. The writer computes the number of Mormons in the old and new world at 480,000. Since their settlement by the Great Salt Lake, they have received accessions from all parts of Christendom. One thousand Danish Mormons are expected to arrive in Utah next season. We quote the following:

On Thursday last a few thousand million grasshoppers descended in the settlements in the north of Utah county, destroying every green thing in their way; the last prospect for bread in that region is therefore suddenly snapped asunder.

Bishop Evans on Sunday informed us that they were continuing their ravages when he left Lehi the evening previous.

The Hon. Ezra T. Benson informs us that the county of Tooele is also visited by a similar plague, cutting off the last ray of hope for the farmers, as about 40 grasshoppers were at work on every stalk of corn; they destroy the silk first, which prevents the ear from filling and entirely destroys the crop, even if they remain on the patch but a short time.

The News publishes from week to week the Sunday addresses of Brigham Young and others. From a careful perusal of these, (says the Boston Courier,) a better idea can be formed of the real condition of things among the Mormons than from any other source. At this time there seems to be two sources of trouble to Young, and abuse of his people for the prevalence of these two sins is the burden of his late addresses. Judging from his remarks, it appears that no opportunity is lost by the female victims of polygamy to fly from the society of their oppressors. It matters not to them whither they go, nor with whom they fly, and hence Young pours out the most obscene language against "outside barbarians," and "inside apostates," who thus aid and abet Mormon women in their escape. His addresses, too, show that virtue hangs like a rent garment around the contaminated and degraded natures of his deluded supporters, and everything betrays a corruption and weakness, which, sooner or later, will give way, and bring the whole accursed system into a putrid ruin. Another evil of great magnitude is the exhausted treasury of the emigrating fund. Taking Young's word for it, the persons who, in Europe and elsewhere take loans from their fund to help them out of the mire of poverty in the Old World into what they fancy the sunlight of unrestrained indulgence at Salt Lake, are the veriest liars in existence, never repaying a penny of the funds that advanced for their relief. Hence, drafts are now unpaid by Young to the amount of over $50,000, and he declares he will not pay them.

REASONS FOR NOT PREACHING POLITICS. Rev. Mather Byles, an eminent ante-Revolutionary clergyman, in Boston, gave the following reasons for not preaching politics—which the Portland Argus "commends to his successors, but not followers, in the church at the present day."

I have (says Mr. Byles) thrown up four breastworks, behind which I have entrenched myself; neither of which can be forced. In the first place, I do not understand politics; in the second place, you all do, every man and mother's son of you; in the third place, you have politics all the week—pray let one day be devoted to religion; in the fourth place, I am engaged in a work of infinitely greater importance. Give me any subject to preach on, of more consequence than the truths I bring you, and I will preach on it the next Sabbath.

Mather Byles was not only an ante Revolutionary, but also an ANTI-Revolutionary clergyman. Besides the four reasons which he gives, there was a fifth, withheld—which last, was not least: viz, that he was a decided Royalist or Tory in opinion; and thought it more prudent to withhold his fire, than to offend his people. Nevertheless, prudent as he was, the Hollis street society, of which he was the first pastor, granted him a dismission in 1776, on account of his toryism—and he was never re-settled, though he lived to 1786.

Mather Byles as a man of orthodoxy, of loyalism, of talent, wit, waggery, satire, was eminent—but as a model of ministerial excellence he is questionable; as a democratic idol he is ludicrous.

THE MAINE LAW REPUDIATED ON THE PACIFIC.—The people of California and Washington Territory have just repudiated the Maine Law at the polls. In California, the majority against the prohibitory law was about five thousand, or ten per cent. of the whole vote of the State. In Washington, the noes exceeded the ayes by one hundred in a vote of twelve hundred.

These votes are much stronger in favor of such laws, than we should have expected from such places.

☞ The Strafford Co. Temperance Convention, last week, at Great Falls, was well attended and satisfactory to the members.—An attempt was made by some opponents, to break up the meeting in the evening session—but it was put down by the selectmen and others.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention met at Concord on Wednesday. Hon Henry Hubbard was chosen Chairman, and the Convention was permanently organized by the choice of Hon Harry Hibbard as President, and the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

Hon John S. Wells, of Exeter, received 233 out of 275 votes for candidate for Governor; and his nomination was made unanimous by the Convention.

Hon Mark Noble, of Somersworth, was nominated as candidate for the office of Railroad Commissioner.

A series of resolutions, affirming democratic principles, denouncing know nothingism and the liquor law, strongly approving the non-intervention principle as applied to states and territories, and recommending President Pierce for re-nomination, were unanimously adopted.

Nine hearty cheers were given for President Pierce, and three for the nominee for Governor, and a resolution was passed requesting the latter to take the stump during the next campaign.

THE INVASION OF IRELAND.—We gave an account on Monday, (says the Boston Courier,) of the departure, in four jolly-boats, of a mysterious looking crew, from Long Wharf on Sunday night. The following letter from one of the soldiers to his wife in Boston, gives an inkling of the business of the expedition:

Off Hull, Ameriky, in the first boat,
Monday night, November the 12, 1855.

Me dear honey—The expidishon that sailed to take Ireland last night, had a wet time av it. We badn't a taste of an umbrelley, and nothing to keep out the drhowning rain. Cols Dohocnee and O'Meagher, who promished to meet us at Hull with their sashes and sords on, sent word that it was "ruinin' too heavy," and that they wouldn't be able for to come "till the athorns was over." This was, agraw, disappointing to the boys; but they ar'n't to be turned from their purpis. They'll take Ireland, anyhow; and annex her to the Sthates. That's part of the plan of the expidishon.—Ireland, when jined to the union, is to be called the "Big Prodnicer," which, Sargent Murphy says, is the Latin for "Man maker." We have whiskey galore in the cuddy; but the kags of powther, which were put in the bottom of the boats, got as wet as say wather itself. We're going to drhy it the fist fine day. The army is full of spirits—if I can judge anything from the amount that they have drhunk since they have set sail. I wish you'd send me an umbrelley; sind it through the Hull post office. It will get to me be the time that the Cornels arrive.

Hurrah for the Sthripes, hurrah for the Sthars:
Wid powther and Sthehl
We'll make the lion Squeel,
And give back to Ireland her nationoality.
From your devoted and darlin' cudeen,
MICHAEL MULLADOON,
an Amerikin by.

P. S. You might sind the umbrelley by John Smith's tellygraff. Misther Smith is a frind of the expedishon, and for the sake of Ireland, wud sind it on the wire to hull.

P. S. agin. If the Cornels don't come in the mornin', the lieudthers will go on widthout 'em. Who d've think will be the commandther thin? Be gorrs, 'tis meself. Sthur Maryann in the cradle, and whisper to her that her dadda is a Gin'rel.

A PRIEST SECRETLY MARRIED—Interesting Case.—An interesting suit is now pending in the Supreme Court at New York, before a referee. Julia Ann Smith, the wife of one Charles Smith, a Catholic priest, is attempting to recover from John Laughlin, Roman Catholic Bishop of Brooklyn, her dower in certain lands conveyed by her husband to Archbishop Hughes, in the alienation of which she did not join. The lands are located in Brooklyn, and are valued at $10,000. It is averred by the plaintiff that about twenty-four years ago she and Smith contracted the relations of husband and wife, which had continued to subsist until his death in 1851, and that two children were the result of this marriage; and that although such relation was kept secret except to confidential friends, it was freely acknowledged to them by both parties. Several witnesses were called, among whom was Charles H. Smith, one of the children, twenty-three years of age, whose testimony was very direct and positive. The defendant denies that the plaintiff was the wife of Smith, and set up that the property was purchased, held and conveyed by him in a fiduciary capacity. The case is reported in the Evening Post. It is not yet finished.

FLUTTERING AMONG CERTIFIED BANKRUPTS.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says—

"A portion of our mercantile community were greatly agitated on Friday, by the sudden appearance of the U. S. Marshal among them, armed with executions against their property, issued at the instance of the District Attorney, to satisfy judgments from the obligations of which they supposed themselves released by the operations of the General Bankrupt Act. The proceedings are taken, we understand, pursuant to a recent decision of the U. S. Attorney General, to the effect that debtors to the United States are not absolved from their liabilities by virtue of that Act, and that the government has the same legal right to proceed to the collection of judgments rendered in its favor against those who subsequently obtained certificates of release, as if the Bankrupt law had never been in force.

ACCIDENT.—At the Blodgett paper mill, in Manchester, N. H., Monday, an Irish girl, some twenty years old, named Reardon, was caught in some belting and thrown over the machinery, injuring her in such a manner that it is supposed she cannot recover.

LOCAL.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

Wednesday, Nov. 14.

The case French vs. Hatch, (relating to Major Gardner's Will and Mrs. Gardner's estate,) occupied the whole morning session, and was given to the jury just before dinner.—At the suggestion of counsel on one side, and by the consent of the other, the jury were permitted to dine at their own hotels, and then retired to their room.

This, in our opinion, is an improvement in modern practice.

The case was argued by Mr Hackett for Deft. and Mr Christie for Pltf.

Verdict for Pltf. $4400—being $300 less than at the former trial.

The case Atlantic Insurance Co. vs. Ira Goodall, was put on trial, and occupied the afternoon session.

☞ The Probate Court held a session in this city on Tuesday,—and will hold an adjourned session to-day at 10 o'clock, at the Court-house.

DISASTER.—Ship Samuel Badger, Salter, of and for this port, from Trapani, with salt, sprung a leak and foundered at sea, near Fayal, no date given. Crew saved and carried to Fayal. The first and second mates came passengers in the ship James Guthrie, arrived at Boston. Capt. Salter and crew would take passage in the first vessel from Fayal.

The ship Samuel Badger was 849 tons; 4 years old; built by Master Samuel Badger; owned by Messrs. Wm. Jones & Son, Richard Jenness, and Capt. James S. Salter who commanded her.

SHOW YOUR PAPERS.—By a law passed at the last session of the N. H. Legislature, it is necessary for all naturalized citizens to exhibit their naturalization papers to the selectmen of the town in which they reside, at least three months before any election which may take place in this State; or they will not be entitled to vote at such election. By a notice in our columns to-day, it will be seen that the selectmen of Ward Three have fixed a time of meeting for the purpose of examining such papers. The selectmen of Wards One and Two will probably issue similar notices, in season to allow all who desire, to answer the provisions of the law. The examination and record must be made on or before Dec. 10th, or the right to vote at the next March election will be lost.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A terrible accident occurred on Sunday evening to a freight and cattle train on the New York Central Railroad, four miles east of Rochester, by which one man was killed and also a great number of cattle. Twenty cars were thrown from the track. The cause of this accident was the train separating and running together on a heavy grade, at a point where the railroad crosses a very deep ravine by means of a high bridge; probably the loftiest structure of the sort on the whole line of road. The full particulars have not yet come to hand, but from the severity of the casualty we presume that twenty cars, some of them filled with cattle, and a brakeman on one of them, must have been thrown to the bottom of the ravine, a distance sufficient to destroy every living thing, human or brute, contained in the fallen train.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT—Cars upset by a Whirlwind.—The New York and Harlem train from Albany left Chatham Four Corners on Monday evening, and when near Boston Corner, a gust of wind, or a tornado, struck the train with such violence as to throw off the track two foward passenger cars and one baggage car, all of which were demolished. The engine remained on the track. Several passengers were injured, some badly, and Francis H. Rathbone of Chatham Four Corners was killed. His body was taken home. A brakeman, standing in front of one of the cars, seeing that they were going over, attempted to jump off, but the wind was too powerful for him, and he was blown along with the fragments of the cars, and was considerably bruised.

FIRE IN EXETER, CONN.—The stone cotton factory in Exeter, near Pine hill, belonging to Israel Wilson of Coventry, and Alexander S. Hopkins of Exeter, known as the "Hopkins Mill," and engaged in the manufacture of cotton twine, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night last. The mill and machinery were valued at $15,000, and were insured for $8800. The cause of the fire is unknown.—Providence Journal.

The City Government of Portland refuses to pay Dr. Clay a bill for actual damages caused in taking charge of the body of John Robbins, who was shot in that city, whereupon the doctor issues a card, in which he asks:—

"Has it come to this? Must a physician convert his office into a dead house for the deposit of the murdered victims of our city authorities, and act as their professional servant, without hope of favor or reward."

CORRECTION.—We are authorized to say that Dr. E. Beecher is to be installed over a Congregational Church at Galesburg, Illinois, and that he has not accepted a professorship in the Theological Seminary at Chicago.—Boston Transcript.

The Liberal vote in Lawrence, Mass., at the late election, was 12. Twelve in 1400! and that was one of the places where they were going to elect Representatives.—Newburyport Herald.

The Advent Society in Newburyport, have decided to build a church, on the lot of land on Charter street, sometime since purchased for that purpose. However people may differ about the first or second advent of the Saviour, nobody acquainted with this little Spartan band of Christians, who have maintained separate worship for a dozen years, will doubt their truthfulness, sincerity, devotion and piety. They have been a small but a constant and bright light, and have been particularly fortunate in securing a zealous, learned and eloquent preacher. When they shall be better accommodated by the new church, they will probably increase in numbers and influence.—Herald.

DEATH.—Capt. Brotherton, of the sloop John Henry, of this port, discovered on Thursday last a boat drifting about near the Light Boat in Long Island Sound. On approaching the boat, a man was found lying in it, and to all appearance dead. The boat was taken in tow and carried to New London.—Before arriving at the wharf, signs of life were discovered. Upon reaching the shore he was recognized and carried to his home, where he died in less than an hour. He proved to be Mr. John A. Smith, about seventy-five years of age. He went off fishing that morning, and is supposed to have been seized with a fit.—Providence Journal.

The Boston Association of Universalists, comprising all in Suffolk, Middlesex and Essex counties, met at East Boston last week. They report 59 societies and 20 churches in the association, with 39 settled pastors and 13 not settled, and 35 Sabbath schools having 4000 scholars. Their report speaks of the churches as in an improved condition.—Newburyport Herald.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

For the rapid cure of Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Consumption, so universally known as the best remedy ever yet discovered for every variety of Pulmonary disease. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the Lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the dangerous and distressing affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. By its timely use many, nay almost all attacks of disease upon the Lungs or Throat, are arrested and thus are saved many thousands every year, from a premature grave. No family should be without it, and those who do neglect to provide themselves with a remedy which wards off this dangerous class of diseases will have cause to deplore it when it is too late. Proofs of the surprising efficacy of the Cherry Pectoral need not be given to the American people,—they have living proofs in every neighborhood. But those who wish to read the statements of those whose whole health has been restored and whose lives have been saved by its use, will find them in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named have to furnish gratis for every one.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

ELECTIONS. — Charleston. — The vote of Charleston, S. C., for Mayor was—Miles, Southern States Rights, &c., 1260; Richardson, American, 833; scattering 7. The Americans made a very respectable run, considering the large German vote of the suburbs, and the fact that no person can vote for city officers in Charleston except he pays a poll tax, while all residents can vote at state elections and for Representatives to Congress.

In Louisiana the Democrats have carried their Governor and state officers, and three of the four Representatives to Congress.

In Mississippi the Democrats also make a full sweep.

In New York there is nothing to go against the returns before received, that the Americans have elected their whole state ticket, with a single exception. In the city, the Americans make great complaints of having been cheated in the count, but they do not appear to present a fair case.—Boston Courier.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13th. — Commodore Paulding has been selected, being regarded by the Secretary of the Navy a prudent officer, to visit San Juan, Nicaragua, with his flag ship Potomac. He was closeted with the Secretary this afternoon, relative to the course to be pursued by him in that quarter.

The British Fleet.—Notwithstanding the avowed innocent objects of the British fleet just despatched to the West Indies, the movement is regarded here with indignation, if not as an incipient step towards a hostile act, and hence additional orders have been sent to the naval stations to-day by the Navy Department in reference to preparations.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—New York, Nov. 13. —The steamship Empire City, from Aspinwall, arrived about 4 o'clock this afternoon, with California mails of the 20th of October, 710 passengers, and $1,554,000 in treasure.

The news from the Isthmus is unimportant. The new tonnage law, which was to have been put in force on the 1st of November, is a dead letter.

From South America, Australia, &c.—Valparaiso dates are to the 29th of September, and Callao to October 16.

The political news from Chili is uninteresting. Business was much depressed owing to the holidays.

Revolutionary movements had broken out in Bolivia, but in most instances were speedily suppressed.

Dates from Sydney, Australia, are to August 18. Flour had fallen to £40 per ton for best. Gold dust quoted at £4 per ounce. In Melbourne business was generally dull. Flour £44, and plenty. Political news was unimportant.

LATER FROM MEXICO.—Dates from Mexico to November 8. Alvarez still retained the Presidency, and had fixed his resident at Yilpau.

Senor Ocompo had resigned the Ministry of Foreign Relations, owing to a disagreement with Gen. Comonfort, Minister of War.

Large numbers of troops were pouring into Mexico, and a famine was feared.

FROM HAVANA.—Havana dates to the 8th inst. Mail steamers signalled at Havana before sunset, were to be allowed to enter the harbor during the night, and a like privilege was granted to vessels bringing coals, but this would soon cease.

The sugar market was dull, and buyers were demanding a reduction.

NEW YORK BREADSTUFFS MARKET.—A New York letter of Thursday evening says: The receipts of Flour from the West are rapidly increasing, and considerable parcels are going into store. The stock in store is variously estimated from eight hundred to twelve hundred thousand barrels. Speculators are not so anxious to operate. Wheat has declined 2 to 4 cents per bushel. The same causes are operating upon the market as upon Flour. Corn is a shade lower—shippers are almost entirely out of the market while the local and Eastern trade will not take more than sufficient to supply most pressing wants. Oats rule steady, with fair demand, in part for export.

Pearson's Vegetable Elixir.

MOSES & DOWNIE,

Merchant Tailors, at No. 37 Market Street,

Well known as the

LOW PRICED CLOTHING STORE,

HAVE just received the largest stock of CLOTHS and CLOTHING they have ever offered to the public, to which they invite the attention of purchasers. The LOW PRICED SYSTEM has been practised by the subscribers long enough to assure them that it is better than any other, and customers may rely upon obtaining of them, as heretofore, Good Clothing at the Lowest Prices.—Their stock of

Ready-Made Clothing

Is very large, made under their own direction, by competent hands, in good style, and will be sold at prices that will defy competition. They pay particular attention to

CUSTOM WORK,

And warrant perfect satisfaction to all who favor them with their patronage. Good work, good style and a perfect fit is warranted, or the purchasers will not be expected or desired to receive the garments.

Their stock of Cloths, Trimmings and Furnishing Goods is very large and varied, and will be offered at sight advance from cost.

They also have a large assortment of Boys' and Youth's Clothing.

Moses & Downie also keep on hand at all times a good stock of Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, and a variety of other articles for Gentlemen's use, all of which they offer at lower prices than they can be bought for elsewhere. For proof of this fact, call and see

JOHN B. GOUGH AND PROHIBITION.—We find a paragraph in the Cayuga Chief, of Auburn, N. Y., where Mr. G. has recently lectured, as follows:

"It has been currently reported, since the notice of his lecture was given, 'that Gough was not in favor of prohibition.' We trust that the rum friends in this place, are now satisfied with his position on that question. We never heard prohibition advocated in stronger terms."

GEN. CASS AND TEMPERANCE.—A large Indian Council was recently held in Detroit, Mich. While it was in session, Gen. Cass entered, and was immediately surrounded by the Indians, who generally regarded him as their father. The General made a speech to them, in which he alluded to the terrible effects of whiskey among them, and advised them to banish it. One chief rose and said: "When I hear that there is any fire-water among my people, I search until I find it, and then I pour it out on the ground."

The liquor dealers of Philadelphia have a "Grand League" against the Maine Law, which requires its members to take the following oath: "You do solemnly swear before Almighty God and these witnesses, with your left hand on the Bible and on the cross, and your right hand on your heart, that you will not subscribe for or advertise in any paper that advocates the prohibitory or Maine liquor law."

What an awful long list of meetings the Atlas used to publish just before election! The speakers couldn't have all voted for Rockwell; if they had he would have footed up larger.—Boston Post.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with U.S. Patent Office, Washington,
26 State st. oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those of other agencies by offering the simple arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of recently as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and if withdrawn or abandoned within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in the and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, (generally about 30 per cent less than others in the profession,) but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, his visits to the Patent Office, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, secured through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1854.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S
Cough Medicine.
DR. BURLEIGH SMART, of Kennebunk, Me. was well known throughout the New England States, as a Physician, whose treatment of Lung Diseases was attended with almost miraculous success. Very few Physicians ever enjoyed a more enviable reputation, or acquired a more extended practice. The Medical Journal, in speaking of him soon after his death, says:
"A man liberally educated, of acute perception, superior judgment, strict moral perseverence, and fervently devoted to his profession, Dr. Burleigh Smart was eminently worthy of the enviable position which he held in the estimation of the Medical Faculty at the time of his death. Although skillful in every branch of the Medical Sciences, for many years his attention was given to DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, in the treatment of which he proved himself the most successful Physician who ever practiced in New England."
This medicine was first compounded and made use of by him, and is substantially the same great agent by means of which he accomplished so many wonderful cures of Pulmonary Disease. Its efficacy having been most thoroughly tested, in thousands of cases, by an eminent Physician, all we can say in its praise must, of course, be superfluous. It is offered to the public in its present form, with the most implicit confidence in its powers—a confidence based not wholly upon the above, but upon actual trials of its virtues, the testimony of hundreds of our citizens in its favor, and a knowledge of its ingredients severally considered, as regards their curative properties. Its formula has been submitted to several of the most distinguished chemists in this country, who unite in pronouncing it "A beautiful combination of the most reliable and valuable remedial agents used in treating diseases of the Lungs and other Respiratory Organs."
Unlike all other medicines of the same nature, it immediately allays the Cough, and so operates on the Blood as to remove the Cause, thus effecting a permanent cure. In this respect it is infinitely superior to all other preparations. By its use the strength of the patient is sustained, tone and vigor imparted to the system, the blood purified, disease subverted, and a healthy action of all the organs attained. In compounding it, the greatest care is observed, every bottle being separately prepared with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength, and in strict accordance with the original recipe. No poisonous drugs are used to give it a beautiful color, and impair its virtues, as in nearly all other Cough Medicines, and in every instance the patient can rely on its doing all that medicine can do.
To secure the public against counterfeits, we have the bottles made expressly for us, with the words "DR. BURLEIGH SMART'S COUGH MEDICINE, SHAW & CLARK, BIDDEFORD, ME., U. S. A." blown in the glass. Every bottle is enclosed in a wrapper of red enamelled paper, printed in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, from a costly engraved plate, of which the copyright has been secured. An inside wrapper, containing full directions for using the Medicine, and a valuable treatise on Diseases of the Lungs, with directions for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and Consumption, compiled from the most reliable medical authorities by a distinguished physician, also accompanying each bottle.
